USC and Arizona Fast Facts

First Meeting: 1916 (USC 20 - Arizona 7 in Phoenix)

Last Meeting: 2076 (USC 20 - Arizona 13 in L.A.)

Current Streak: USC has won six straight dating back to 2001

All-Time Series Record: USC leads 25-6

Arizona vs. USC All-Time: The 32nd all-time meeting between the two schools ... USC owns a 25-6 edge in the 30 games played thus far and has won six straight contests, which marks the second time USC has posted a six-game win streak in the series (1982-1989 - did not play in 1983 and 1985) ... Arizona's last victory over USC came on the road in the Coliseum in 2000 when true frosh Clarence Farmer (22 carries, 134 yards, TD) led the Wildcats to a 31-15 upset of the No. 22-ranked Trojans ... Since then USC has dominated the series, out-scoring Arizona 117 to 70 in the last six games between the two, but UA has limited an explosive USC offense to only 20 points in each of the last two meetings ... Since joining the Pac-10 in 1978, Arizona is 6-16 against the Trojans ... The last time Arizona defeated USC at home was 1999 (31-24) ... Arizona's largest margin of victory in the all-time series with USC was a 31-point win in 1993 (38-7) ... USC's largest margin of victory against UA was a 71-point win over the Wildcats in 1928 (78-7).

Some Game Themes: The Cats put on their best big-city imitation for all things L.A. with a sellout crowd, national television, a decent record and some momentum built by a solid victory over a talented, ranked squad... A match of two of the four co-leaders helps define the late October race in the Pac-10... The Trojans march into Tucson with their normal post-midterm head of steam built off a pair of recent blow-out shutouts and their usual assortment of stars... "The Lamp in the Desert," journalist Douglas Martin called the University in his 1960 book by that name, and UA tests whether it can control the switch USC has turned on late in otherwise close, recent series games... Arizona measures whether its league second-best 40 points per game has merit against a team that has given up about eight per contest; USC checks whether its league-best 42 points per game is meaningful after the WSU point fest... UA picks a doozy in trying to secure bowl eligibility in October for the first time since its last holiday trip a decade past... On paper, the Trojans still are a victory shy of their bowl berth... The Wildcats get to let it all hang out, with an open date looming before a trip to Wazzu two weeks hence... A game featuring at least six 100-yard-capable backs, with

Did You Know?

That Arizona is 92-8-1 when scoring 30 or more points in a game since it joined the Pac-10 in 1978?

That Arizona has won its last 18 games when scoring 30 points or more, including a 14-0 record under Mike Stoops.

That Arizona has scored in 23 of 28 quarters this season?

That Arizona is 8-2 in Arizona Stadium in its last 10 home games?

Did you know Arizona has won four of its last five games against ranked teams at Arizona Stadium?

four doing so last week... A match of two quarterbacks with similar season statistical lines; one's spoken of with the full might of Troy behind him, the other's a guy named Willie who just became his school's all-time career passing and total offense leader... It's Homecoming and Arizona Sports Hall of Fame weekend on the UA campus...

Last Week: Arizona exploded with 21 unanswered points in the third quarter to race past No. 25 California, 42-27, in Tucson. The momentum began to shift with the opening drive of the second half, when UA quarterback Willie Tuitama found Mike Thomas on a deep post for a 56-yard scoring strike on the fourth play of the period, cutting Cal's lead to three, 24-21. It increased three exchanges later when Arizona's defense held Cal to a field goal after the potent Bears had 1st-and-10 at the Cats' 26 yard-line. On the next possession, Tuitama hit a couple of throws to put UA at its own 38, and then true freshman running back Keola Antolin ripped off a 59-yard run to reach the Bears' 3 yard-line, and moments later dipped in for this third rushing TD of the game to put UA up 28-27. The blitz fired up another notch on the first scrimmage play after that score, when cornerback Devin Ross ripped a pick on the boundary and returned it 21 yards for a score to make it 35-27. Arizona more or less iced it five minutes later -- after a Cal three-and-out -- with a 59-yard drive fueled by some Antolin rushing and a 35-yard Tuitama TD pass to tight end Rob Gronkowski, who stepped over a couple of Bears to cross the stripe. UA threw the ball one more time in the ensuing 16 minutes and played inspired defense to keep California in the middle of the field. Antolin's antics -- 21 carries for a game-, season- and career-high 149 yards -- came in relief after starter Nic Grigsby ran for 13 yards and lost a fumble on the Cats' second play of the game. He also added a catch and kickoff yardage to post a 237-yard all-purpose night. Tuitama finished with 225 passing yards on 16 completions including six apiece to Thomas (104 yards) and Gronkowski (91). The Cats weathered a 67-yard scoring run by Cal running back Jahvid Best, who otherwise gained 40 more yards on 15 additional carries to be a factor but not a definitive one. UA joined four teams in its history to play a game without a penalty to move it to No. 2 in the country with 3.4 flags per game. Arizona got a fourth-quarter interception by backup corner Trevin Wade to give it 10 for the year and a spot in the Top 20 in that category at No. 16. The victory gave head coach Mike Stoops a win over a ranked team in each of his five seasons.

UA-USC 2007 Flashback: Arizona visited the No. 10-ranked team in the land on its home turf and slugged it out with focus throughout, but fell victim to just enough letdowns to thwart the upset try and fall at USC, 20-13. The Cats had a fourth-quarter lead, 13-10, and had chances for more points both before and after that. USC took control of the game at the right moment. A 45-yard Joe McKnight punt return off a low 38-yard Keenyn Crier punt put the ball at the UA 25 yard-line, and it took one pass play from Mark Sanchez to Fred Davis to put USC on top for good. UA followed with two three-and-outs, and then the Trojans followed an 83-yard Crier punt to march 93 yards from for a field goal. The Cats had no steam after that 6-minute drive. Both teams played good defense -- Arizona held USC to 275 yards and the Trojans held the Cats to 255 -- with a combined 17 drives of five plays or less, nine of those by the Trojans. UA quarterback Willie Tuitama completed 30 of 43 passes for 233 yards, but couldn't find the end zone. Junior Mike Thomas tied his career high (and No. 2 in Arizona history) with 12 catches, but was held to 83 yards on the grabs. Jason Bondzio hit his fourth and fifth consecutive field goals including a career-best 45-yarder, but the six points were matched by his counterpart. Arizona helped make it clear the 2007 Trojans appear to have no magical switch to turn on as did some of their juggernauts of past years. UA held the Trojans to 3.7 yards per play, and that good (defensive) figure was skewed by a 59-yard run by McKnight that spoiled a lot of things. It was the gem in the long drive that otherwise included 14 other patient, physical plays. USC had to gut it out, and it did.

The Coaches: Arizona -- Mike Stoops (Iowa '86), fifth year at Arizona (22-31) and fifth year overall as a head coach. He carries a record of 15-23 in Pac-10 games, He is 0-4 against USC. The Wildcats have improved from twin 3-8 seasons his first two years to a current stretch of 8-4 spanning last year and this season dating to the last game against USC. The Wildcats have beaten a ranked team each year under Stoops, including No. 2 Oregon a year ago, and are 5-13 against ranked squads in his tenure. Included in that are the four losses to USC as the No. 1, No. 1, No. 3 and No. 10 team in the land, respectively, since 2004. Southern California -- Pete Carroll (Pacific '73), eighth year at USC (81-15) and eighth overall as a head coach. He has 30 victories over Top 25 teams including a couple that earned USC national championships. He has kept USC ranked for the past 84 contests and is the winningest active coach by percentage.

Sold Out Arizona Stadium: This week's Homecoming showdown with USC sold out nearly two weeks in advance of the game. Only a handful of single seat tickets remained available over the last 10 days leading up to the game. The game will mark the first sold-out crowd in Arizona Stadium since 2006, when UA announced crowds in excess of the 57,400 seat capacity on four occasions, including against BYU (58,450), USC (58,801), Oregon State (57,113) and Arizona State (57,895). The largest crowd to see a game at Arizona Stadium in 2007 came against Stanford on Family Weekend (55,270), while 2008's largest crowd to date was also on Family Weekend against Washington (55,624).

Special K: Backup running back Keola Antolin's 149-yard rushing effort (21 totes) against California was the fifth-best effort by a true freshman in UA history. His three scores matched three by true frosh Ontiwaun Carter in 1991. It came a year after Nic Grigsby tied the UA mark with 186 yards against Washington State. Former Philadelphia Eagle power back Hubert "Hubie" Oliver carried 29 times for 186 yards against UTEP in 1977 a week after he broke on the scene with a 141-yard day against New Mexico. Here are a half-dozen outings by true freshmen Wildcats, plus one more from the last time Arizona beat USC:

True Freshman Wildcats' Top Rushing Games

1. Hubie Oliver	UTEP, 1977	29-186, TD
2. Nic Grigsby	WSU, 2007	30-186 (receiving TD)
3. Vance Johnson	Fresno State, 1981	24-183
4. Ontiwaun Carter	Oregon State, 1991	15-160, 3 TD
5. Keola Antolin	California, 2008	21-149, 3 TD
6. Hubie Oliver	New Mexico, 1977	21-141
7. Clarence Farmer	USC, 2000	22-134, TD

New Territory: Whatever Arizona does in the running game against the Trojans could be new stuff. One back on Arizona's roster, Nic Grigsby, has carried the ball against USC. Last season he had seven rushes for 10 yards. Uhm... in the last three series games the Wildcats have rushed 58 times for 70 net yards against the boys from Troy. Meantime, receiver Mike Thomas enters his fourth USC contest with 23 receptions for 249 yards and a score (his freshman year). Last season he snared a career-high (tie) 12 grabs for 83 markers against the Trojans. Senior quarterback Willie Tuitama did not play against USC his first year in 2005. He has completed 44 passes in 60 attempts (73%) for 403 yards, an interception and a TD in two outings vs. USC. He has been sacked six times (five in 2006.) Tuitama completed 30 throws at USC last year including the dozen to Thomas, five to Terrell Reese, three to Delashaun Dean and one apiece by three other guys who will play -- Terrell Turner, Rob Gronkowski and Earl Mitchell (who is now a starting DT).

30 Is (Usually) The Magic Number: Football is a pretty simple game in that the team that scores the most points wins. For Arizona, 30 points is usually enough to do just that. Since joining the Pac-10 in 1978, the Wildcats have played 101 games in which they have scored 30 or more points. Their record in those games? An astounding 92-8-1. That record includes a streak of 18 consecutive victories when scoring at least 30 points, including a 14-0 mark under Mike Stoops. For the record, Arizona is 5-0 in such games this season.

If Not 30, Try 40: If Arizona's .910 winning percentage since 1978 when scoring 30 or more points isn't enough, then try out a 40+ point stat. In its entire history of football, Arizona is 107-3 when scoring 40 or more points in a game, something it has done in all four home games this season. As you might expect, Arizona is 4-0 in those games. What you might not know is that the last time UA reached the mark four times in one season was in 1954, when it did so six times. We appreciate former UA assistant SID Matt Rector and his late night research efforts from Wes Lafayette, Ind., for contributing this bit of information.

Benchmark For Success: Looking for another key stat that separates wins from losses for the Wildcats? Well look no further than the rushing yards column in each game's box score. Yes, the pass-happy Wildcats, who broke nearly every school passing record a year ago, often are victorious in games in which they rush for 100 yards or more. Under Head Coach Mike Stoops, Arizona is 16-8 when it rushes for 100 yards or more. But looking closer, the Wildcats have won 12 of their last 13 games (21-20 loss to Stanford in '07) when they reach the century mark, a streak that includes an 8-1 record in offensive coordinator Sonny Dykes' spread offense installed at the beginning of the 2007 season. On the other hand, Arizona is 6-23 under Stoops when it fails to reach 100 yards on the ground, but two of those victories did come last season when UA used its passing attack to post some points. Bottom line numbers: UA has rushed for an average of 160 yards per game in its 22 wins since 2004 and has rushed for an average of 50.9 yards per game in its 31 losses during the time period.

There's No Place Like Home: After playing three of the last four games on the road, the Wildcats returned home and improved its home record to 4-0 in 2008 with the victory over Cal. Arizona is on a current six-game home winning streak, its longest such streak since it won seven games at the end of the 1988 season and start of the 1989 season. The six-game streak is tied with Oregon State and USC for longest such streak in the Pac-10. Since the start of 2007, UA has won eight of its last 10 games at Arizona Stadium, including five of six Pac-10 contests.

Top 25 Challenge: The Wildcats sent the No. 25 Golden Bears home with a loss a week in UA's first matchup against an AP Top 25 team in 2008. This week, the challenge is the No. 6 USC Trojans.. The Trojans will be the 20th ranked opponent that Head Coach Mike Stoops has faced at Arizona as the Wildcats have posted a record of 6-13 against ranked foes in his tenure. Included was the 24-20 Homecoming victory in 2006 against Cal, a season in which UA went 2-2 against Top 25 teams. A season ago, UA dropped three of four such games. All-time, Arizona holds a 35-87-1 record against ranked teams.

Homecoming Streak on the Line: Arizona will put its three-game Homecoming win streak to the ultimate test this week against USC. The Wildcats have won their last three Homecoming games in upset fashion. Included are a 52-14 upset of then-No. 7 UCLA in 2005, a come-from-behind upset of then-No. 8 California 24-20 in 2006, and last year's win over a favored UCLA squad 34-27.

It Happens Here: In recent seasons, if Arizona beats a ranked opponent, it has happened in Arizona Stadium. The Wildcats are 4-1 in their last five against ranked teams in Tucson, including last week's 42-27 win over then-No. 25 California and two previous Homecoming upsets over California and UCLA. In 2007, the only ranked team the Wildcats faced at home was then-No. 2 Oregon, which they defeated 34-24. In 2006, The then-No. 8 Cal Golden Bears visited the Old Pueblo, only to leave with a 24-20 loss. In 2005, the Wildcats blasted then-No. 7 UCLA 52-14 in Tucson. Arizona has lost six games to ranked teams in Arizona Stadium under Stoops, but four of those six have been decided by seven points or less.

A New Leader: Willie Tuitama became the UA career leader for passing yards (7,814), total offense (7,365) and attempts (1,092) against California. With his 27 completions against New Mexico, Tuitama (596) surpassed Tom Tunnicliffe as UA's all-time leader in completions (574).

Pac-10 Players of the Week: Four Wildcats have earned Player of the Week awards this season. Running back Keola Antolin was named the Pac-10 Offensive Player of the Week for his efforts against Cal last Saturday. Antolin rushed for a career high 149 yards on 21 carries to go along with three touchdowns. Antolin turned in an all-around effort as he finished with a career-high 237 all-purpose yards (149 rushing, 9 receiving, 79 on kickoff returns). Earlier in the season, Antolin was named the Pac-10 Special Teams Player of the Week for his kick return prowess, when he gained 98 yards on three returns (32.7 ypr). Also receiving recognition this season was Mike Thomas (Special Teams) and Corey Hall (defense) for their stellar play in a 31-10 road win at UCLA.

Primary Secondaries: USC (3rd) and Arizona (5th) rate among the nation's top teams in pass efficiency defense. The Trojans get the mark because they're the top team in the land in passing yardage control, allowing only 137 yards per game. UA gives up only 152, rating sixth in the category, plus has 10 interceptions to help build a solid PED rating. USC also simply just stops opponents in all ways, checking in at No. 2 in total defense (220 ypg), where UA rates 19th (284 ypg). About the only thing USC doesn't rank highly in are some kicking stats -- 85th in punt returns, 103rd in kickoff returns and a handful (four) of made field goals (no need to try these with 33 TDs). It's hard for the Trojans to rate in kickoff returns since opponents don't score and then kick off much -- only 10 KORs by the Trojans.

Touchdown Derby: Both teams have shown a proclivity to finding a way to put points on the board. Arizona enters the game with 37 touchdowns -- 17 rushing, 16 passing, two on interception returns and two on punt returns. The Trojans, in one fewer game played, have scored 34 TDs -- 21 passing, 11 rushing and a pair of picks.

Wading In: Backup cornerback Trevin Wade, a redshirt freshman, leads the club with three interceptions. Two came in the season opener against Idaho, the third came on a tipped ball against California. That's some nice work for a reserve. Former UA wide receiver Dennis Northcutt broke into the trade as a freshman (true) cornerback in 1996 and had two INTs against Illinois in the third game of the year before switching to offense. 2007 Jim Thorpe Award winner Antoine Cason had two interceptions (4 for the year) against Cal in his freshman year in 2004. This isn't to compare Wade to those guys, but he's doing a nice job when needed, such as his first career start at Stanford for a banged up Devin Ross.

Tossing at Ross: Sophomore cornerback Devin Ross is getting tested more and more as Pac-10 teams unleash their goods. He shut things down on the boundary in the first three or four games, and then has had interceptions against Washington and Stanford, and six passes broken up, in the last three games as things heated up. He'll get some serious work this week against Mark Sanchez and Co.

Spread is for Bread: A year ago after seven games Arizona had attempted 313 passes and rushed the ball 181 times for 2,612 yards. In 2008 after seven games the Wildcats have run the ball 256 times and thrown 226 passes for 2,883 yards. If you can't add that's 494 plays a year ago, 482 this time. Coach Stoops wanted some more balance, and he got it. The Cats are more unpredictable, tougher up front, have a few more versatile weapons and a nicer grasp in Year 2 of coordinator Sonny Dykes' offense. The USC game represents an outstanding test to put this more in focus.

Pac-Men: The first page of the weekly Pac-10 statistics report has USC atop nine of 10 team categories. The Trojans fall short by some 80 yards per game in rushing offense (198), trailing their friends at Oregon State (275 ypg). To its credit, Arizona is No. 2 in six categories, third in another and a respectable sixth in two more. If UA could pull off the average in one of the latter this week -- and give up only 133 team rushing yards -- things might be okay. But stats have a way of working themselves out over the course of a season to reflect the full body of work, and no matter how you look at it now there still are five or six games left for teams to play.

Point Man: Oregon's Legarrett Blount leads the Pac-10 in scoring, with a TD (10) every eight times he carries the ball (82), for 60 points. Next up, Arizona kicker Jason Bondzio with 57. (UA running back Nic Grigsby is tied for second in the TD-only category with nine, and 54 points.) JB's perfect on PAT kicks (33-33) and has hit eight of nine field goal tries, the best percentage other than USC's David Buehler and his 4-for-4 FG mark. Had Bondzio been a three- or four-year guy instead of interning under Pro Bowl kicker Nick Folk (Cowboys) for two years, he'd be more of a UA record book guy than the handful of kicking marks he's likely to secure (season and career percentage, for two). But at least he was paying attention. The Cats hope redshirt freshman sidekick Alex Zendejas is watching closely, because he's next up.

Brooks is Bringing It: Arizona sophomore defensive end Brooks Reed has made a big impact on the UA defensive line in his first season as a starter. Through seven games, Reed is tied with Earl Mitchell with 20 tackles for the most by the front-four guys, and Reed leads the team with three sacks - two of which came last week in UA's upset of then-No. 25 California. In addition, Reed has broken up a pair of passes on the season and has forced one fumble.

Back to Form: Keenyn Crier, whose 43.7 yards per punt average as a redshirt freshman a year ago is tied for fifth best in school history, got off to a rough start in 2008 when his first punt of the season against Idaho traveled a total of two yards. But since, the Ray Guy Award candidate has been back to his old form, punting for an average of 43.2 yards - a mark that would rank No. 9 all-time at Arizona if the season ended today. Crier's leg has helped UA significantly in the field position battle and, thanks to the help of the coverage team, UA's net punt average of 37.89 ranks No. 20 in the nation and second in the Pac-10. Of note for this week's game against USC is the fact that Crier boomed an 83-yard punt against the Trojans a year ago in the Coliseum, which still stands as the second-longest punt in UA history.

Not to be Offensive: Arizona is riding a streak that it would be more than happy to continue this week. The Wildcats have scored a non-offensive touchdown in three straight games. On 10/4, Mike Thomas returned a Husky punt 48 yards for a touchdown, giving the Wildcats their second punt return score of the season (Marquis Hundley 87-yard fumble return during punt return vs. Idaho). At Stanford on 10/18, Nate Ness picked off a pass and raced 75-yards for the touchdown. Last week against Cal, Devin Ross stepped in front of a short pass near the boundary and darted 21-yards into the end zone for a touchdown.

Zona's Zone: The Wildcats have been particularly impressive in the Red Zone in 2008, posting a 91 percent success rate (31-34). The three times UA has failed to score? Well, twice UA has ended the game with the ball in its hand inside the red zone while running out the clock in blowout wins over UCLA (31-10) and Washington (48-14). The third occasion was also at UCLA, where UA's second string offense turned the ball over on downs while trying to convert late in the fourth quarter. Otherwise, UA has scored 25 touchdowns inside the Red Zone (15 rushing, 10 passing) and added six field goals. Incidentally, the only game UA has failed to score a Red Zone touchdown came at Stanford, a game it lost by one point and had to settle for three field goals instead.

Third Down, Last Down: The Arizona defense has shown marked improvement in third down situations in 2008. A year ago, UA allowed opponents to convert 43 percent (86-199) on third down plays. This season, the Wildcats have held the opposition to a 30 percent success rate (30-99). The Cats showed their ability to buckle down in key situations last week against Cal, holding the Bears to only 2-15 on third down. Looking deeper at that stat, the Bears converted their first two third down plays of the game, meaning Arizona limited them to zero third down conversions the rest of the game, including 0-8 in the second half.

Move The Chains: A stat often looked at and attributed to offensive success or lack thereof is third down conversions. But for UA's offense, which is averaging 411 yards per game, success is coming on all downs, particularly 2nd Down. While the Wildcats have posted a 45 percent success rate on offense, it has only 41 conversions on 3rd Down (41-92). The Cats have racked up 59 conversions (25 rushing, 34 passing) in 2nd Down situations not counting penalties. Even on 1st Down, when UA has posted 45 conversions (20 rushing, 25 passing), the Cats have more conversions than they do in those notable 3rd Down situations.

Money Receptions: Despite tough economic times, Money Mike Thomas is proving his worth to the Wildcats. Now No. 2 all-time at Arizona in career receptions (227), Thomas doesn't just rack up catches to fill the stat sheet; rather, his receptions are usually ones that matter in the game. Of his 42 receptions in 2008, a whopping 26 of them have resulted in a first down (62 percent) and four have gone for touchdowns. In addition, Thomas has recorded eight carries on the season - usually end-arounds - and has picked up three first downs while averaging 9.0 yards per tote.

Big Play Robbie: Need a big play? Dial up No. 48. Rob Gronkowski. The sophomore tight end has played in only four games this season after missing the first three with an illness. But Robbie is doing his best to make up for lost time and he has hauled in 16 receptions for 262 yards in his four games. That is an average of 16.4 yards per catch. Even more impressive, though, is that six of those catches have gone for touchdowns and 12 of them have resulted in first downs.

Watch For Money Mike: Last week it was Willie Tuitama taking down three career statistical records, this week "Money" Mike Thomas (227 catches) has a great chance to move up the career ranks on the UA receiving charts. Against Cal, Thomas surpassed Dennis Northcutt (224) for career receptions. Four more receptions will move him past Bobby Wade (230) to become UA's all-time leader in receptions.

Big Days from the WR's: Junior receiver Terrell Turner's 10 catches for 175 yards against Stanford were career bests. It was the second 100-yard game of his career (7-109 against New Mexico in 2007). Since UA adopted the spread offense, Arizona has posted 100-yard games by receivers on 15 occasions -- Turner's pair, Mike Thomas with nine, tight end Rob Gronkowski with a pair, Delashaun Dean with one, and former receiver Anthony Johnson with one. Thomas has four double-digit catches games while Turner added a fifth.

Touchdown Trends: Arizona has scored 33 offensive touchdowns in 2008 (4 non-offensive) with 17 rushing scores and 16 passing strikes. Since 1978, when UA joined the Pac-10, only six UA teams have balanced at least 15 rushing TD's and 15 passing TD's in a season. The last Wildcat team to accomplish the feat was the 2001 squad that notched 16 rushing touchdowns and 21 passing scores. In the span, no UA team has ever rushed for 20 touchdowns and passed for 20 scores in the same season.

Getting Picky: The Cats have 10 interceptions through seven games, ahead of last year's squad that picked off 15. Sophomore corner Devin Ross had his second career INT against Washington two weeks ago and then returned his third for a TD against Cal, while Nate Ness returned his seventh career interception 75-yards for his first score at Stafnord. Redshirt freshman Trevin Wade leads with three, including one against Cal in the fourth quarter. A good note is the Cats' 19-yard average on the thefts, led by backup safety Joe Perkins' 42-yard return, also versus the Vandals. The Cats have not faced a prolific passing attack. Opponents have averaged 30.7 throws per game and 16.2 completions for a 4.8-yard average per pass and 9.1yards per completion.

Put Your Money in Bonds: Or, Bondzio. Arizona's senior kicker Jason Bondzio has scored 57 points just over half way through the year, a potential second straight 100-pointer for the only kicker who ever hit the century mark in an Arizona uniform. Wanting that success is an approach-avoidance problem: who wants to give up TDs for FGs? Nonetheless, Bondzio has connected on his last six field goal tries spanning three games and is 8-for-9 overall, with 33 PATs. Three treys at Stanford matched his career best against Oregon State a year ago. Overall he is 29 of 35, a sparkling 83 percent, which would be an Arizona record better than his Arizona record .807 mark a year ago.

Start of a New TD Streak? UA senior quarterback Willie Tuitama did not throw for a score two weeks ago at Stanford, snapping his streak at 10 consecutive games. In that span he had spun 26 scoring throws. He completed 22 throws for 11.8 yards per completion on The Farm but most of it was in between the 20 yard-lines. He bounced back to throw two scoring tosses against California, to bring his total to 15 on the season against three interceptions.

Loch Ness Monsters: Safety Nate Ness returned his seventh career interception 75 yards for a score at Stanford on Oct. 11. That along with a fumble recovery and 14 tackles. The latter were a career high, besting his 10 against Washington in 2007, his first year after a redshirt season in 2006 following transfer from junior college. Ness led a foursome of Cats with double-figure tackles at Stanford, nice but probably indicative of too much work on the field -- fellow safety Cam Nelson with 12, linebacker Sterling Lewis with 12 and linebacker Ronnie Palmer with 10. Nelson's total also is a career high.

Silver Lining: Linebacker Sterling Lewis' 12 hits at Stanford kept him atop the UA chart with 48 tackles, but he did not record a tackle against Cal. The mid-year junior college transfer filled in for injured Xavier Kelley in the Cats' second game and posted his first double-digit game, with 12 tackles against Toledo. He has five starts since.

Quarter Scores: Arizona has played 28 quarters of football in 2008 and has scored at least a field goal in 23 of those quarters. Here's a look at how Arizona has spread its points around by quarter:

	1	2	3	4	Total
Arizona	54	112	62	55	283
Opponents	31	46	23	27	127

In a Rush For TD's: No, this is not another note on Arizona's track recording of quick scoring drives; rather, this note about the 17 rushing touchdowns that the Cats have scored this season. A year ago, the Wildcats rushed for seven (7) touchdowns on the entire season, a figure that sophomore Nic Grigsby has surpassed single-handedly with nine TD's this year. The 17 ground scores also surpasses the total rushing touchdowns scored by each of the last four Arizona squads (2004-2007). Of the 17 rushing scores in 2008, 11 of them have come in goal-to-gain situations.

Nic Ticking: Sophomore running back Nic Grigsby has put himself in position for a 1,000-yard rushing season, last accomplished at UA by Clarence Farmer (209-1,229) in a first-team All-Pac-10 year in 2001. Still with five games to go, Grigsby (627yards) is over the half-way point, but the toughest defenses remain on the schedule. But his 5.8 yards per tote and about 16 carries per game give him a decent shot. A year ago Grigsby totaled 704 yards in seven starts (10 games), so it's do-able... Nic's nine rushing touchdowns are better still. Farmer had 10 in 2001, the most recent runner in two digits. Before that it was Trung Candidate with 11 rushing TDs in 1999. Before him it was Kelvin Eafon with 16 (and Candidate with 10) in 1998. The Arizona record is 21 by Art Luppino in 1954.

Double D: Sophomore receiver Delashaun Dean posted his first career 100-yard receiving game with a 6-106 effort and a score at Albuquerque in September. His previous high for yards was his debut game at BYU last year with four snares for 88 markers. His single-game high for catches is an 8-for-51 game against Stanford a year ago. He has a reception in each of his 17 career games and a total of 61.

2 X 100: Receivers Mike Thomas (136 yds) and Delashaun Dean (106 yds) each surpassed the 100-yard receiving mark against New Mexico, becoming the first UA receiving duo to accomplish the feat in 2008. The last time two Cats went over the 100-yd mark in the same game came against, interestingly, New Mexico in 2007, when three players tallied 100 yards or more (Mike Thomas 7-137, Terrell Turner 7-109, and Anthony Johnson 3-117).

They're Taking Notice: Antoine Cason won the Jim Thorpe Award last year, now a host of other Wildcats are on the early watch lists for major college football awards. Eight different Wildcats are on pre-season watch lists for awards:

QB Willie Tuitama - Maxwell Award (College Player of the Year)/Davey O'Brien Award (Top QB)
WR Mike Thomas - Maxwell Award (College Player of the Year)
OT Eben Britton - Outland Trophy (Top Interior Lineman), Rotary Lombardi Award (Top Lineman)
P Keenyn Crier - Ray Guy Award (Top Punter)
Jason Bondzio - Lou Groza Award candidate (Top Kicker)
C Blake Kerley - Rimington Trophy (Top Center)
TE Rob Gronkowski - John Mackey Award (Most Outstanding Tight End)
LB Ronnie Palmer - Butkus Award (Top Linebacker)

Willie in the Pac: Willie Tuitama has not only written his name in the UA record books, his arm and UA's spread offense has helped him etch his name into the Pac-10 records and with a similar season in 2008 to the one he had a year ago, he will find himself among the Conference's best. Tuitama is only 1,737yards away from jumping 21 spots (currently No. 23 with 7,814 yards) in the all-time passing yards, which would put him in the top-10 of one of the Conference's most prestigious record books. Currently tied for No. 16 all-time in touchdown passes with 59, he needs 8 more to tie UCLA's Drew Olson, who currently stands at No. 10. His 2007 total of 3,520 all-purpose yards ranks him No. 11 all-time in single season total yardage, which includes sacks. If he did not lose yards on sacks and only used his total passing yards as the total offense stat (3,683), Tuitama would move himself into the top-10. As is, his single season passing yards total does rank No. 10 all-time, and his 28 touchdown passes in 2007 place him in a tie for No. 14 in a single season. Add in one more scoring toss and he would again find himself in the top-10 of a category.

One of the Pac-10's Best: Like the other half of the TNT connection (Tuitama and Thomas), "Money" Mike Thomas is moving up the Pac-10 charts. With 83 receptions in 2007, he ranks No. 15 in single season receptions and his 11 touchdown grabs also place him No. 15 in a single season. Thomas is within striking distance of some career marks, including career receptions. The senior playmaker, who has 227 receptions in three-plus years (currently No. 6 all-time), is only 31 catches away from becoming the Pac-10's all-time receptions leader (Derek Hagen, ASU, 258). And while he currently stands at No. 16 in career receiving yards (2,975), a modest - by his standards - 154 more yards this season will move him into the top-10. Lastly, with four more touchdowns, he will find himself among the top-10 all-time leaders in receiving touchdowns (currently t-No. 21 with 22 TDs).

Decoys are for Hunting: Senior receiver Mike Thomas has played in 41 games and caught a pass in 40 of them. His one miss - the final game of his freshman year on Nov. 25, 2005, at Arizona State. In that game he wore a soft but cumbersome cast on a hand, courtesy of an injury a couple weeks earlier. No passes went in his direction, but he drew coverage as expected anyway. Otherwise, Thomas could challenge for the Arizona record for consecutive games catching a pass. That's held by Dennis Northcutt, who posted 42 successive games with a grab after he was switched from true-freshman cornerback to receiver in late October of 1996, through his senior year in 1999. The 31 consecutive games with a reception rates Thomas 12th nationally and first in the Pac-10 (tied with Brandon Gibson of WSU). Had he caught one against ASU in 2005 he'd be third in the country behind Jarrett Dillard of Rice (43) and Casey Flair of UNLV (42) with 41 .... Northcutt (223) and Thomas (227) join leader Bobby Wade (230) in the all-time three-some for career pass receiving at UA. Northcutt was on the Arizona squad that posted the top two Wildcat per-game offense averages of 471.9 yards ('99) and 444.9 ('98), Wade was part of John Mackovic's passing makeover of the UA attack, and Thomas is now part of Mike Stoops' and Sonny Dykes' system that topped the historical chart with 308 yards passing per game last year. Thomas should emerge as Arizona's all-time pass receiver with anywhere near his 83 grabs from a year ago (42 to date in '08), and if he can match his 1,000-yard junior season he'll push for the career figure in yardage as well. (See 'Charting Some Cats' elsewhere in this release for the numbers.) Clearly, there's little doubt you can say 'Mike Thomas' in the same Arizona historical context as Northcutt, Wade or Jon Horton and the late Theopolis T. Bell -- among others: playmakers all.

Close Calls: Arizona played six games in 2007 that were ultimately decided by seven points or less, including wins at Washington (48-41) and on Homecoming against UCLA (34-27). Unfortunately, UA was on the losing end of such close ball games twice as many times. The Wildcats dropped heartbreakers to New Mexico (29-27), USC (20-13), Stanford (21-20) and Arizona State (20-17). That is four games lost by a combined 13 points (3.25 points per game). In 2008, UA's UA two losses have come by a combined nine points to New Mexico and Stanford.

The Graduates: Two Arizona players already have received degrees, placekicker Jason Bondzio in finance and offensive lineman James Tretheway in mathematics. J.B.'s working on a master's degree, while Tretheway is taking an additional bachelor's degree program in economics. Three other letterwinning Wildcats are anticipated to graduate in December -- H-back Brandon Lopez, offensive guard Joe Longacre and offensive lineman Bill Wacholz.

Records Check: As one might expect in a 70-0 romp, Arizona broke several school records for offensive scoring output against Idaho. The first record to fall was the 28 year old record for most points scored in a single half (42 points against Pacific in 1980 and against UTEP in 1976) as the Wildcats tallied 49 first-half points. In doing so, UA posted 35 second quarter points, breaking the previous high mark set in 1954 when the Cats scored 29 in the third quarter against New Mexico State.

Cloud 9: UA scored 10 - yes, 10 - touchdowns against Idaho on Aug. 30. What can be more impressive than scoring 10 touchdowns in a single game? How about nine (9) different players scoring those touchdowns. Nic Grigsby (2), Mike Thomas, Marquis Hundley, Chris Gronkowski, Keola Antolin, Terrell Turner, Matt Scott, Nick Booth and Xavier Smith all found the endzone in what is believed to be the most individual touchdowns in a single game in UA history.

Opening Day Rosters: Arizona had 16 former players suit up for NFL opening-week games as active roster members. They included linebacker Lance Briggs-Bears, Tedy Bruschi-Patriots, defensive lineman Copeland Bryan-Ravens, defensive lineman Lionel Dotson-Dolphins, cornerback Antoine Cason-Chargers, kicker Nick Folk-Dowboys, running back Chris Henry-Titans, safety Michael Johnson-Giants, linebacker Spencer Larsen-Broncos, tight end Brandon Manumaleuna-Chargers, offensive lineman Edwin Mulitalo-Ravens, cornerback Chris McAlister-Ravens, receiver Dennis Northcutt-Jaguars, receiver Syndric Steptoe-Browns and receiver Bobby Wade-Vikings.

MOV: Not that any team can or should expect 70-0 performances to be the norm, but UA's 70-point margin of victory last Saturday was a long time coming. It was the largest MOV since 1921 and the third largest in school history. Here's a look at the Top 5 MOV's in UA history:

TUCSON, Ariz. - Willie Tuitama and Nic Grigsby combined for 348 yards in one half to lead Arizona's 70-0 rout of Idaho Saturday night in a rainy opener delayed an hour by lightning.

It was the highest-scoring game for the Wildcats since a record 74-0 victory in 1921 over the Texas College of Mines and Metallurgy, the school that eventually became UTEP.

Tuitama completed 17 of 21 passes for 179 and three touchdowns to break the school record for career TD passes with 47, one more than Tom Tunncliffe from 1980-83.

Grigsby carried 19 times for 169 yards, including two short touchdown runs as the Wildcats set a school record with 49 first-half points. That surpassed the mark of 42 set in 1976 against UTEP and matched against Pacific in 1980.

Arizona had a 521-112 advantage in yards in its first shutout since 1996.

The Wildcats rolled for 359 yards in a first half played in a steady rain.

The final first-half TD came on a 3-yard pass from Tuitama to Terrell Turner with nine seconds to play, the last of the 35 second-quarter points for Arizona.

The players were in kickoff formation when the decision was made to clear the field and advise the fans to leave the stadium as lightning flashed in the approaching storm. Most in the student section stayed.

The game began at 8:09 p.m. MDT, one hour and two minutes late.

Arizona went 80 yards in 11 plays on the first possession. Tuitama was 4-for-6 for 65 yards, and Grigsby scored on a 1-yard run.

Grigsby's 41-yard run set up the Wildcats' second score on a 5-yard pass from Tuitama to Mike Thomas that made it 14-0 with 1:15 left in the first quarter.

Thomas dropped an Idaho punt, but teammate Marquis Hundley picked up the ball and ran 87 yards for a touchdown that made it 21-0 with 13:17 left in the half.

Freshman Matt Scott replaced Tuitama in the second half. He ran 5 yards for a touchdown with 3:23 left in the third quarter and threw a 7-yard scoring pass to Nick Booth with 10:52 to play.

The Vandals, 1-11 a year ago in their first season under Robb Akey, managed only one long-shot scoring try, a 54-yard field goal attempt by Tino Amancio that was wide right.

Idaho's Nathan Enderle was 10-for-25 for 48 yards with three interceptions. Deonte Jackson gained 25 in 10 carries.

TUCSON, Ariz. - Nic Grigsby rushed for three first-half touchdowns and the ARIZONA Wildcats went on to beat TOLEDO 41-16 on Saturday night.

Grigsby carried 20 times for 135 yards despite sitting out the third quarter.

The shifty sophomore from Whittier, Calif., optimistically listed at 5-foot-10, had touchdown runs of 7, 27 and 14 yards to help the Wildcats take a 24-6 halftime lead.

He became the first Arizona back with three rushing scores in a game since Mike Bell did it against Washington in 2003.

Willie Tuitama completed 25 of 33 for 292 yards and two second-half touchdowns. Mike Thomas caught nine for 138 yards and one score.

Toledo's Aaron Opelt completed 21 of 31 for 170 yards in the Rockets' season opener. Stephen Williams caught 12 for 67 yards, including Toledo's only touchdown.

Coming off a 70-0 rout of Idaho, the Wildcats have more than 100 points in their opening two games for the first time since 1954.

After punting on its first possession, Arizona scored on its remaining four possessions of the opening half.

Grigsby's 19-yard run started the Wildcats' first TD drive, and he ended it by going 7-yard for the score to make it 10-0 with 30 seconds left in the first quarter.

The Rockets, playing a Pac-10 team for the first time since 1991, didn't get a first down in the opening quarter but they moved the ball in the second, even though they couldn't get it in the end zone.

Alex Steigerwarld kicked field goals of 20 and 35 in the first half and 21 in the second.

Trailing 27-6, Toledo drove to the Arizona 1 in the third quarter but was pushed back a yard on each of the next three plays. Steigerwald's 21-yard field goal made it 27-9 with 3:17 left in the third quarter.

Tuitama's 9-yard touchdown pass to Delashaun Dean on the first play of the fourth quarter put the Wildcats up 34-9.

Toledo's touchdown came after Arizona's first turnover of the season. Terrell Turner caught a short pass and was hit by Beau Brudzinski. The ball popped loose and Damien McIntosh grabbed it in mid-air, returning it 9 yards to the Arizona 3.

Opelt threw to Williams on the sidelines for the score. Initially, it was ruled incomplete but was called a touchdown after a review, cutting the lead to 34-16. Arizona finished it off on a 12-yard TD pass from Tuitama to Thomas.

Steigerwald's three field goals make him 20-for-20 over the past two seasons, 23 of 24 in his career.

"It's exciting to be 2-0 and win kind of easy without playing out best during the course of the game. That is a good sign," UA coach Mike Stoops said. "We were not quite in sync, but I thought offensively we ran the ball effectively and that gave them some problems. Nic was outstanding. He made some great runs."

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. (AP) - Rodney Ferguson ran for 158 yards and two touchdowns and freshman James Aho tied a school record with five field goals to help New Mexico beat Arizona 36-28 on Saturday night.

Ferguson, a bruising tailback, also tossed a 25-yard trick play scoring pass to quarterback Donovan Porterie.

Willie Tuitama, who was 27-of-50 for 321 yards and three TDs, got the Wildcats to 36-28, throwing a 28-yard TD strike to Juron Criner with 4:38 to play.

Arizona used its timeouts to slow the clock on New Mexico's ensuing possession and got the ball back with 1:27 to go.

Tuitama's fourth-down attempt to Mike Thomas was incomplete with 40 seconds left, setting off a celebration on New Mexico's sideline.

The series is one of the oldest for both schools, dating to 1908, but the Wildcats haven't visited Albuquerque since 1990.

New Mexico scored 19 points off five Arizona turnovers - four field goals by Aho and a huge TD only 18 seconds into the second half.

The Lobos got an emotional lift when Clint McPeek forced a fumble by Arizona's Nic Grigsby on the first play from scrimmage in the third quarter, and Quin returned it 29 yards to the Arizona 10.

Ferguson ran to the end zone on the next snap, stretching to move the ball across the goal line. The TD was upheld after a replay review, and the Lobos led 27-14 after just two second-half plays from scrimmage.

New Mexico's defense set the tone midway through the first quarter, forcing their first turnover when lineman Brett Kennedy caught Tuitama's screen pass and returned it 22 yards to set up Aho's first field goal, a 24-yard effort.

Grigsby's 4-yard TD run in the third quarter pulled Arizona to 27-21 but Aho, who kicked a 43-yard field goal in the second period, was good from 48 and 42 yards as the Lobos made it 33-21 early in the fourth.

His fourth field goal came after New Mexico's Ian Clark sacked Tuitama, forcing another fumble, and Kendall Briscoe recovered.

Arizona scored 111 points in wins over Idaho and Toledo in Tucson, but New Mexico's defense offered a tougher test.

The Lobos, who struggled early in homefield losses to TCU and Texas A&M, ended a skid of 11 straight losses when their opponent scores first. The Wildcats led 7-0 when Tuitama connected with Thomas on a 43-yard scoring pass.

New Mexico rallied to lead 20-14 at halftime, aided by a first-quarter trick play where Ferguson tossed a 25-yard TD pass to Porterie. Aho kicked field goals of 24 and 43 yards and Ferguson broke a 25-yard run just before the break.

PASADENA, Calif. (AP) -- Willie Tuitama threw for 222 yards and connected with tight end Rob Gronkowski for a pair of touchdowns Saturday to lead Arizona to a 31-10 victory over UCLA in the Pac-10 opener for both teams.

The Wildcats (3-1) bounced back from a 36-28 upset by New Mexico.

The Bruins (1-2), in their first season under coach Rick Neuheisel, were coming off a 59-0 defeat at BYU that was their worst loss in 79 years.

Arizona broke the game open with two fourth-quarter touchdowns. Tuitama's second scoring pass to Gronkowski gave them a 24-10 pad with early in the period, then Xavier Smith added an 8-yard touchdown run with 6:48 remaining.

The Bruins' defense provided their lone touchdown on a 1-yard fumble return by Korey Bosworth in the first quarter.

The Wildcats' defense, meanwhile, held the Bruins to 196 total yards. Arizona's offense had 333.

Bruins quarterback Kevin Craft, the third-stringer pressed into duty by injuries, went 15-of-31 for just 81 yards in what was his third UCLA start.

Tuitama, who completed 16-of-29 with no interceptions, has long been a Bruins' nemesis.

The senior quarterback has keyed three victories over UCLA, with the Bruins' only win over the Wildcats during his career coming when they knocked him out of the 2006 game with concussion-like symptoms in their 27-7 victory.

The previous year, Tuitama was a freshman making just his second start when he threw for 204 yards and two scores as Arizona shocked the 8-0 and seventh-ranked Bruins 52-14. Last season, he passed for 341 yards and three TDs in the Wildcats' 34-27 win.

This time, Kai Forbath's 35-yard field goal pulled UCLA within 17-10 on the final play of the first half. The Bruins opted to kick on fourth-and-1 after the Wildcats went for it on fourth-and-1 at the UCLA 17 earlier in the quarter and Wildcats running back Nic

Grigsby was piled up for no gain.

Grigsby had put Arizona up 17-7 when he scored on a 3-yard run with 9:46 remaining in the second quarter, a touchdown set up by Tuitama's 52-yard pass to Mike Thomas down to the UCLA 5.

Tuitama connected with Gronkowski in the right flat near the goal line and he ran it in for a 22-yard scoring play early in the second period.

The Bruins' defense gave them a short-lived lead in first quarter when Bosworth picked up Grigsby's fumble near the Arizona goal line and dived into the end zone.

The Wildcats' first score, a 41-yard field goal by Jason Bondzio, also came after a turnover, when UCLA's Terrence Austin fumbled a punt and Vuna Tuihalamaka recovered at the Arizona 47.

-So Says Stoops

"I thought it was a really solid win all across the board. I thought our coverage in the secondary was excellent. The fumble for seven was disappointing, but it was good to see our team overcome that on the road. Mike Thomas and Rob Gronkowski really came up big with some plays in the second half. I thought Willie (Tuitama) threw some excellent balls in the red zone. We just played very well as a team, and that was positive to see."

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP) - Rob Gronkowski matched a school record with three touchdown catches, Nic Grigsby ran for 113 yards and a touchdown and Arizona routed winless Washington 48-14 on Saturday night.

Willie Tuitama completed 17 of 21 passes for 193 yards and threw three touchdown passes for the Wildcats (4-1, 2-0), who are looking to end the Pac-10's longest active bowl drought at nine years.

On a breezy night in the desert, Arizona wasted little time putting away the woeful Huskies (0-5, 0-3). Arizona took a 10-0 lead midway through the first quarter when Gronkowski caught a screen pass and raced 37 yards for a touchdown.

Grigsby added a 4-yard run to give Arizona a 17-0 lead after one quarter.

Arizona moved the ball almost at will against the Huskies, who entered with the nation's 114th scoring defense, allowing 40.5 points per game.

Mike Thomas broke the game open with an electrifying 48-yard punt return for a touchdown midway through the second period.

Thomas fielded the ball near midfield, retreated about 10 yards and then cut up the home sideline, sprinting past Washington tacklers. Near the goal line, Thomas leaped over a prone Quinton Richardson and into the end zone as the Arizona Stadium crowd of 55,624 erupted.

The return put Arizona up 24-7 midway through the second quarter, and Gronkowski caught another touchdown pass later in the quarter to give the Wildcats a 31-7 halftime lead.

Facing the nation's second-ranked defense, Washington struggled behind quarterback Ronnie Fouch, a redshirt freshman making his first college start. Fouch completed 12 of 28 passes for 181 yards and one touchdown, a 20-yarder to Michael Gottlieb midway through the fourth quarter. Fouch also threw an interception.

Going for their first bowl berth since 1998, the Wildcats are stacking wins against a schedule ranked 90th in the nation, according to NCAA statistics. Arizona's four victories have come against Idaho, Toledo, UCLA and Washington, which entered Saturday with a combined 2-16 record against major-college opponents.

After a visit to 3-3 Stanford next week, Arizona returns to Tucson to face Pac-10 contenders California on Oct. 18 and Southern California on Oct. 25.

STANFORD, Calif. (AP) -Toby Gerhart dove across the goal line for a 1-yard score with 25 seconds left, capping an improbable last-minute drive led by third-string quarterback Alex Loukas in Stanford's 24-23 victory over Arizona on Saturday.

Aaron Zagory's extra point was the decisive margin for the Cardinal (4-3, 3-1 Pac-10), who got their third victory in four games. The comeback was led by Loukas, a junior who was 1-for-7 with an interception this season in the only action of his Stanford career before he replaced ineffective backup Jason Forcier in the fourth quarter.

Loukas threw just one pass on his 12 snaps, but was effective running the ball. He gained 32 yards on four rushes during Stanford's 65-yard winning drive, which began with 5:42 to play after Jason Bondzio's second field goal of the fourth quarter for Arizona (4-2, 2-1).

After throwing a 21-yard pass to Ryan Whalen and running for 16 yards, Loukas gained 8 yards up the middle for a key first down at the Arizona 1 with about 90 seconds left. Gerhart, who rushed for 116 yards, scored two plays later.

Terrell Turner set career highs with 10 catches for 175 yards for Arizona, which made two strong fourth-quarter drives that stalled inside the Stanford 5. Willie Tuitama went 22-of-34 for 259 yards, but couldn't get the Wildcats into the end zone late - and Loukas somehow capitalized.

Anthony Kimble rushed for 110 yards for Stanford, with his 70-yard sprint in the third quarter setting up a tying 1-yard TD plunge.

Stanford starter Tavita Pritchard went 13-for-17 for 113 yards before getting injured on a hard tackle late in the first half. Forcier fumbled twice and threw an interception in the second half before Loukas replaced him in the middle of a fourth-quarter drive.

Nate Ness returned an interception 75 yards for a score late in the second quarter for Arizona. Mike Thomas, the Pac-10's leading receiver, had just four catches for 31 yards.

Turner's 38-yard catch between two Stanford defenders set up Bondzio's go-ahead field goal from 22 yards with 11:55 to play. Bondzio added another from 23 yards when Arizona's next long drive stalled.

When Stanford took over at its 35 with 5:42 left, Loukas confidently drove his teammates downfield.

Arizona took a 17-10 lead into halftime on Nic Grigsby's 25-yard scoring run and Ness' interception return down the Wildcats' sideline in a span of just over three minutes in the second quarter. Stanford got its only TD on an 88-yard drive in the first period, ending in Doug Baldwin's short catch.

Stanford replaced Pritchard to start the second half with Forcier, a junior transfer from Michigan who appeared briefly in two games earlier this season. Though Forcier made several mis-cues, Kimble broke a 70-yard run to the Arizona 2 on the next drive before pounding in the tying score.

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP) - Freshman Keola Antolin ran for 149 yards and three touchdowns, and Arizona rallied from a 10-point halftime deficit to beat No. 25 California 42-27 on Saturday night.

Trailing 24-14 at halftime, the Wildcats blitzed the Golden Bears with four touchdowns in 11:45 of the third quarter.

Arizona (5-2, 3-1 Pac-10) moved into a four-way tie for first in the Pac-10 with Oregon, Oregon State and Southern California - and the sixth-ranked Trojans visit Arizona Stadium next week. The Wildcats beat a ranked team for the sixth time in Mike Stoops' five seasons at Arizona.

Antolin, a freshman from Las Vegas, was summoned after starter Nic Grigsby fumbled on his first carry, setting up the Golden Bears' first score.

Antolin had rushed for 66 yards in the first six games. He had 61 at halftime, and as the game wore on it was clear he had supplanted the fumble-prone Grigsby as Arizona's tailback.

Willie Tuitama threw for 225 yards and two touchdowns, and he threw an interception.

Arizona broke out its rarely worn all-cardinal uniforms, matching the primary color of the Arizona Stadium crowd of 48,372.

Jahvid Best ran for 107 yards and a touchdown in his return after missing a game with a dislocated left elbow. Best, who leads the nation in all-purpose yards with 215.5 yards per game, wore a heavy brace. Best did not play in the fourth quarter, but it wasn't immediately known whether he was injured.

Nate Longshore started at quarterback for Cal (4-2, 2-1). Longshore threw for 218 yards and two scores and had an interception before being replaced in the fourth quarter by Kevin Riley, who threw for 97 yards and was intercepted once.

The Golden Bears turned a fumble by Grigsby into an early 7-0 lead. Five plays after safety Marcus Ezeff recovered Grigsby's fumble at Arizona's 43, Longshore hit Verran Tucker for a 2-yard touchdown pass.

The Wildcats stormed back on a pair of touchdown runs by Antolin.

The first was a 20-yard burst up the middle to tie it at 7 early in the second quarter.

The second came 88 seconds later, on a bruising 11-yard run that put Arizona ahead 14-7.

The Bears tied it at 14 on Best's 67-yard run midway through the second quarter. And they made it 21-14 when Longshore hit Cameron Morrah for an 18-yard touchdown late in the second quarter.

Down 10 at intermission, Arizona cut the deficit to 24-21 on a 56-yard touchdown pass from Tuitama to Mike Thomas on the opening drive of the second half.

After Cal's Giorgio Tavecchio hit a 40-yard field goal to put the Bears up 27-21, the Wildcats answered with a seven-play, 77-yard drive.

The big play was a 59-yard burst down the right sideline by Antolin, Arizona's longest run from scrimmage this year. That set the Wildcats up at the Cal 3. Two plays later, Antolin bulled over from a yard out to put Arizona ahead 28-27.

One play later, Ross picked off a pass on the sideline and bolted 21 yards for a touchdown to give the Wildcats a 35-27 lead.

Arizona made it 42-27 on a 35-yard pass from Tuitama to tight end Rob Gronkowski late in the third quarter.
