General Media Policies

 Fall camp practices are open to the media, with some restrictions on video and photography as in the past. UA media relations personnel will help with these guidelines at practice. For specific requests, please plan to notify the UA media relations staff in advance of the practice to make sure your request can be fulfilled..

Practices may be held on the UA Jimenez practice field, Salpointe Catholic High School and UA's Rincon Vista Complex recreational field.

 The team will travel to Fort Huachuca beginning on Wednesday, Aug. 12. Practices will be held on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, with a team-building day set for Sunday. The team will return to Tucson the morning of Monday, Aug. 17. Practices are open to the media, but please contact the UA Athletics Media Relations office for guidelines to covers practices on the installation.

 Player and coach interviews may be held after practice only. On two-a-days, interviews will take place after the second practice of the day.

 All dates and times for practices are tentative and subject to change.

 Reporting on injuries or use of personnel in specific formations must involve questioning with head coach prior to reporting. In other words, ask before you report on such matters. These open practices are a privilege and we would all like to keep them that way. Thank you.
