Some Game Themes

The Wildcats try to start the final third of the season on a good note... UA's last Pac-12 home game of the year... The Utes try to win a league game on the road for the first time in their Pac-12 history... Arizona pits its 465-yard offense against a team in the league's top three in total defense (325 ypg)... Arizona's beleaguered defense against the league's No. 12 offense... Some paperwork indications of what's in store -- UA has completed more passes (265) than Utah has attempted (225)... Utah running back John White has a 1,000-yard season in sight (915 yards) against a squad that's allowed 5.0 yards per attempt... As one of three 4-4 clubs in the circuit, Utah plays for continued bowl possibilities while Arizona's window is clear -- win out or stay home for the holidays... The Wildcats also need a victory to keep chances of no less than four league wins since the conference went to a nine-game format... Arizona also needs a win to keep alive a chance for a winning home record for a fifth-straight season... From the Wildcats' perspective, seniors Nick Foles and Juron Criner chase a bevy of school records while as many as 23 freshmen (true and redshirt) continue to gain valuable experience heading into the final month of the regular season... Arizona re-engages an old rival under new co-affiliations, with 36 previous meetings (Utah leads all-time series, 19-15-2)... For the Wildcats, it's Homecoming weekend on the University of Arizona campus, which is 126 years old.

Arizona Last Week

Arizona jumped to a 10-point at the onset but couldn't stop Washington from scoring 14 in a five-minute span in the fourth quarter to beat the Cats, 42-31, in a hard-fought battle in Seattle. The Cats had the lead, 31-28, and the ball after Trevin Wade's 12th career interception with a dozen minutes left, but UW held the Cats to a 3-and-out, and then drove 81 yards for the go-ahead points. On the next possession, receiver Juron Criner fumbled a potential first down catch and the Huskies drove 50 yards for the insurance points. It was not exactly a defensive game, with 900 total yards, but each team had three interceptions, including UA's Robert Golden taking a tipped ball back 91 yards for a score to knot the game at 21-all in the third period. Marquis Flower added the Cats' third pick. Nick Foles, who threw for 388 yards and a pair of scores to Criner, was intercepted in Washington territory twice and in desperation mode near the end in UA's half of the field. The Huskies were led by running back Chris Polk, who finished with 144 yards and four rushing TDs, plus added 100 yards and a score on four receptions for a 244-yard all-purpose evening. Arizona's John Bonano, fresh off his first game as the kicker, socked three field goals including one of 47 yards, but two of those were part of the problem for UA -- points left in the red zone. The Cats had three red zone trips and got 13 points thereby. Washington had six red zone penetrations and scored six touchdowns. UA's rough night on third down -- 3-for-11 -- hurt, as did UW's whopping 10 yards per pass attempt and 18 yards per completion on a nice night from Keith Price. Criner turned in 11 catches for 118 yards. UA had a season-low 36 rushing yards on a season-low 19 tries and the single dimension helped Washington counter the Cats' moves. UA lost on the road for the fourth time in as many tries and fell to 1-5 in league play.

The Coaches

Arizona - Tim Kish (Otterbein '76), interim head coach (1-1) ... This is Kish's first assignment as a head coach. The 36-year veteran of the college ranks has coached at Pac-12, Big Ten (Illinois, Northwestern), the Ohio prep ranks, Mid-American Conference schools (Ball State, Bowling Green State, Ohio) and a service academy (Army). He has been on Mike Stoops' Arizona staff as linebackers coach each of the latter's eight years in Tucson, the last two as co- or defensive coordinator. Kish played college ball as a DB at Otterbein, and later earned a master's degree from Bowling Green. He began his coaching career as an assistant coach at Mariemont High School in Cincinnati, Ohio, in 1976. He has been on the defensive side of the ball all but one year in his college career, the 1982 season as QBs coach at Ball State. He and his wife, Angela, have two daughters and a son. His eldest, Megan, is a student at Ohio State. Utah - Kyle Whittingham (BYU '84), seventh year at Utah (62-24) and overall as a head coach. He was AFCA 2008 National Coach of the Year following the Utes' 13-0 mark and victory over Alabama in the Sugar Bowl. He was a linebacker at BYU from 1978-81 and began his coaching career in Provo as a G.A. in 1985. He coached at Eastern Utah and Idaho State before joining the Utah staff in 1994. He was DC in Salt Lake City from 1995-2004. He is 1-0 against Arizona with the victory coming in Salt Lake City in 2005.

Old Foes

Arizona has played a few opponents more frequently than others and Utah fits in the top 10 mix. Here are UA's game totals and records against its most-played opponents:

Opponent	Meetings	UA Record	First Year
Arizona State	84	46-37-1	1899
New Mexico	76	43-20-3	1908
UTEP	51	38-11-2	1916
WSU	38	25-13-0	1963
Stanford	37	14-13-0	1979
Oregon	37	14-23-0	1937
New Mexico St.	37	31-5-1	1909
Utah	36	15-19-2	1924
UCLA	36	15-19-2	1927
USC	35	7-28-0	1916
Oregon State	35	21-13-1	1966

Staring at the Stats

UA's No. 3 passing game (375 ypg) will try to put pressure on the Utes' 73rd-rated passing defense, while Utah's rushing defense (No. 11) could handle the Cats' 113th-rated running game. The Utes get to try to get something going for their 112th-rated offense against Arizona's 113th-rated defense... True freshman back Ka'Deem Carey touched the ball 10 times at Seattle and turned in 17 yards per touch running, catching and returning (KO) the pigskin. He's the club's leading receiver in yards per catch (15.6) with a modest nine receptions, averages 22 yards per kickoff return and 4.2 yards per rush. Each time, though, he's a guy with may-be-gone talents... Arizona has two games without a rushing TD -- Stanford and at Seattle. The season best was three rushing TDs against UCLA... The Cats matched their season high with two sacks at Husky Stadium. The Cats have only seven sacks in eight games. For a totally new offensive line, UA's unit has done a nice job limiting opponents to 16 sacks this year, middle of the Pac numbers but quite good considering the Wildcats' huge number of pass attempts. Add in Nick Foles rushing attempts (largely flush plays) and the Cats have dropped back to pass 410 times so the 16 sacks amount to an .039 percent frequency... Kicker John Bonano is averaging 12 points per game in the games when he had the opportunity -- the last two contests. That would lead the Pac-12 in kick scoring but he played the other six games as the kickoff guy. He wrested the job prior to the UCLA game and is a perfect 5-for-5 on field goals and 9-for-9 on PAT tries... Robert Golden's play at Seattle -- a 91-yard interception return -- covered about 130 yards. In the old days the play could have been recorded as an "intercepted fumble," the only way you could return a fumble prior to the rule change in the late 1980s -- if it didn't hit the ground. All-America linebacker Ricky Hunley had two of those among his 12 career picks. CB Trevin Wade tied Hunley and five others for No. 10 on Arizona's career INT chart with his 12th in Seattle...

Keep An Eye On...

- Nick Foles is one passing touchdown shy of 60 for his career. He has 20 so far in 2011, and his next will push his season tally to the third-best in program history.
- Foles is 40 pass attempts shy of matching the 410 throws he had as a junior, which ranks as third-most in a single season at Arizona.
- Foles is one pass completion short of matching the 260 he had as a sophomore in 2009, which stands as the No. 3 mark in program history. He is 27 completions away from equaling the 286 he completed a season ago.
- Foles is 66 yards away from having a 3,000-yard passing season. He is 257 yards away from his 3,191 yards established a year ago as third-most in single season history. Foles needs 393 yards to match Jason Johnson's 3,327 yards set in 2002 as second-most in a season.
- Foles needs 396 yards of total offense to match Willie Tuitama's school record of 8,727 set from 2005-08.
- Juron Criner is one touchdown reception shy of tying Theopolis "T" Bell's school record of 30 scores set from 1972-74.
- Criner is 47 receiving yards shy of matching Bell's career total of 2,509 receiving yards, which ranks No. 4 in school history.
- Trevin Wade has 12 career interceptions and is one shy of matching three former Wildcats (Dave Liggins – 1978-80, Russell Williams – 1972-74, Tony Bouie – 1991-94) to share the No. 7 mark all-time at Arizona.

Criner Climbing

Senior wide receiver Juron Criner has been etching his name into the Arizona career records for some time, but now he's quickly moving up some of the conference's all-time charts. Most notable are Criner's 29 receiving touchdowns, which put him No. 7 all-time in league history. One more scoring catch will give the 6-foot-4 target a share of No. 5 with Mario Bailey (Washington, 1988-91) and Mike Williams (USC, 2002-03). Two more grabs will equal Sean Dawkins (California, 1990-92) mark that ranks fourth, and three more will match Jason Hill (Washington State, 2003-06) and Ken Margerum (Stanford, 1977-80), who share second place. Dwayne Jarret (USC, 2004-06) is the league's all-time touchdown reception leaders. Criner is challenging for position on the chart with Washington's Jermaine Kearse, who has 28 scoring touchdowns entering this week's action. Criner ranks No. 40 all-time with 2,462 receiving yards and No. 23 with 181 career receptions. On the national scale, Criner's 29 receiving touchdowns rank fifth-most for active players, trailing only Oklahoma's Ryan Broyles (45), Notre Dame's Michael Floyd (33), Oklahoma State's Justin Blackmon (32) and Texas A&M's Jeff Fuller (31).

Running Game

Arizona is on pace for a 1,000-yard team rushing total in 2011, one that would rate 32nd among its 34 years in the Pac-10 or Pac-12. The lowest was a 527-yard rushing figure in 2002, on 360 attempts. UA toted the ball 320 times for 921 yards in 2007, next lowest. UA is on pace to finish with 324 rushing attempts, just head of that lowest total in Pac-10/12 history, the 2007 figure. On the other hand, Arizona's projected total offense of 5,500 yards would be its second-highest total ever behind last year's 5,712. Arizona's getting yards -- one way, through the air.

Lengths of the Field

Safety Robert Golden's 91-yard interception return for a score at Washington was Arizona's fifth-longest in history and gave him two of the top 10 longest. He took one back 79 yards for a score against Stanford (Andrew Luck) in a 2009 victory. He has 184 yards on interceptions returns (4) in his career, which rates somewhere behind Antoine Cason's school-record 349 yards in 15 picks, and Darryll Lewis' 252 yards on 14 interceptions, the top two figures by Wildcats -- and both Jim Thorpe Award winners. Classmate Trevin Wade also two career touchdown returns (both against Iowa in 2009 and 2010) among his 12 career picks that have resulted in 203 career return yards.

Sudden Change

The Arizona defense has not forced many turnovers this season. In fact, entering the Washington game, the Wildcats had turned opponents over just seven times in seven games. Because of this, the UA offense has not had many sudden change situations when it can capitalize off those turnovers. But against the Huskies, the Wildcats had some chances and couldn't capitalize. Late in the first half, with UW leading 14-13, Marquis Flowers grabbed a tipped pass for an interception near midfield. The offense trotted out with a chance to grab the lead, but five yards in three plays resulted in a punt. Later in the fourth quarter, Arizona was leading by three when Trevin Wade snared an interception to thwart a Huskies drive. Rather than chew some time off the clock or extend the lead, it was another quick three-and-out for the Wildcats' offense. Going forward, it will be a point of emphasis to capitalize on turnovers and find that killer instinct to finish games.

Did You Notice?

Last week at Washington, Arizona's top three tacklers were a true sophomore and two true freshmen. The leader of the group was sophomore safety Marquis Flowers who had 11, a continued sign that he's beginning to play faster. Next was freshman hybrid linebacker Tra'Mayne Bondurant, who flashed some of his ball-hawking abilities in his second career start with eight tackles, a sack and two pass breakups. The third was freshman corner Cortez Johnson, who made his first career start in the absence of suspended Shaquille Richardson. Johnson recorded seven tackles and a pass breakup in very solid debut effort in the secondary.

Get Back

Arizona will have two players available after their one-game suspensions by the Pac-12 for a fighting incident in the UCLA game. Cornerback Shaquille Richardson and nickel back Jourdan Grandon missed the UW trip. Richardson's status is in doubt after suffering an ankle injury in practice leading up to the UW game.

True Frosh Get 15

Arizona started true freshman linebacker Tra'Mayne Bondurant and true freshman cornerback Cortez Johnson against the Huskies. It was Bondurant's second consecutive start and probably the first couple in many for the 5-10, 195 pounder. His nose for the ball is evident -- matching career highs of eight and eight tackles in the two games, plus two tackles for loss, a sack and two PBUs. Johnson turned in a career-high seven hits and knocked down a pass in his first extended tour of action against UW. True freshmen Rob Hankins and Hank Hobson also started at the third LB position earlier this year. Bondurant, those two and redshirting (rehab) junior Jake Fischer (26 GP, 8 starts) figure to be in focus at that level of the defense next year...

Double-Digit Collisions

Safety Marquis Flowers' game-high 11 tackles at Washington was his second double-digit game after a career high of 16 against Stanford earlier this season. Wildcats have had 10 or more tackles three other times -- linebacker Paul Vassallo had 11 hits against the Ducks, safety Adam Hall had 10 at Oregon State and safety Mark Watley had 11 against the Ducks. Vassallo leads the team with 53 total tackles while Flowers leads the team with 6.9 hits per game.

Cats-Utes Flashback

Utah has visited Tucson for Homecoming just one other time before this Saturday's meeting: Nov. 16, 1969. Utah, then nicknamed the Redskins, carried a seven-game winning streak and a No. 20 national ranking into a late-season Western Athletic Conference contest in Tucson. A Utah victory would have ensured no worse than a tie for the league championship, but a resurgent Wildcat defense made big play after big play to lead Arizona to a thrilling Homecoming victory. It was a sluggish start to game as the two sides were scoreless after one quarter of play, but Utah claimed a 6-0 advantage early in the second period with a touchdown (the point after try was missed). Arizona's ensuing drive stalled out and led to a punt, but a Utah turnover deep inside its own territory changed the course of the game. Facing a 2nd-and-11 at his own 25-yard line, Utah quarterback Ray Groth was intercepted by Tucson native Rex Macklin, who returned to ball to the seven-yard line. The Wildcats punched it on the next play, as halfback Ron Gardin scooted the seven yards to the endzone to give Arizona a 7-6 lead. Utah kicked a go-ahead field goal with six seconds remaining in the first half and narrowly led, 9-7, at halftime despite out-gaining the Wildcats 215-80 in total offense. Arizona opened the second half with a strong defensive stand to force a punt after three plays, and Steve Wolfe returned the punt 46 yards to the Utah 39-yard line. The Wildcats wasted no time capitalizing on the momentum as fullback Willie Lewis scampered 39 yards off left tackle for the go-ahead touchdown. Utah answered with a 14-play, 80-yard drive to reclaim a 16-14 edge in the middle of the third quarter. Arizona's defense held Utah scoreless the rest of the way, and Steve Hurley booted a 21-yard field goal early in the fourth quarter to give the Wildcats a 17-16 lead. Utah had four more offensive possessions in the game, which ended with a three-and-out, two fumbles and an interception. Following the interception, the Wildcats ran the final two minutes off the clock to hold on for the stunning upset, 17-16.

Caretaking Coaching

UA defensive coordinator Tim Kish's fill-in work as a head coach (following the Oct. 10 dismissal of Mike Stoops) is unusual but not exclusively so. The acting job is a second for the Wildcats in the past decade. Then AD Jim Livengood removed John Mackovic from head coaching duties on Sunday, Sept. 28, 2003 after UA opened the season with a 1-4 record. He appointed defensive coordinator Mike Hankwitz to take over the program for the duration of the season. Hankwitz, now defensive coordinator at Northwestern, led UA to a 1-6 finish for the program's lowest mark in the modern era, 2-10 (.0167). (The 1957 club under Ed Doherty, 1-8-1, had a lower winning percentage (.015). A few months after Mackovic's ouster, Mike Stoops was appointed. A search by UA Athletics Director Greg Byrne for his successor is well under way.

Toughest Schedule

According to Jeff Sagarin's NCAA Football ratings, Arizona's schedule ranks as the toughest in the Pac-12 and the fourth-toughest in the nation to date. While not an excuse by any measure, four of UA's six losses have come on the road, while the two home foes (Stanford and Oregon) are a combined 15-1 on the season. Added together, Arizona's six losses have come against teams with a combined 37-11 record. Three of those teams are ranked in the top eight spots of the AP Top 25 poll and BCS standings this week, with Stanford and Oklahoma State boasting undefeated records.

The Davids

Senior wide receivers David Douglas (#85) and David Roberts (#81) have quietly put together a pair of similarly consistent careers as Wildcats. Each has played in 45 games and each has 122 receptions. Coincidence or not, the receivers have etched their names into the school's career receptions list. The 122 grabs ranks as the eighth-best tally in program history. Here's a look at how eerily the two careers stack up to this point:

	Games	Rec.	Yds.	TD
Roberts	44	122	1,246	5
Douglas	44	122	1,250	7
Totals		244	2,496	12

Bonano On Target

After two games as the starting placekicker, senior John Bonano has made the most of his opportunity. He has successfully converted all nine PAT kicks and all five field goal tries in two games. He has totaled 24 points scored, which is already more than the 19 combined points for UA placekickers over the first six games of the seasons. His efforts in his starting debut against UCLA (six PATs, two field goals) earned him Pac-12 Special Teams Player of the Week honors. He followed up that performance with a career-best three field goals against Washington, including a career-long 47-yarder, which was also UA's longest kick of the season. He also ranks No. 11 in the nation and No. 2 in the Pac-12 with 17 touchbacks on kickoffs.

Spread the Wealth

How effectively has Nick Foles spread the ball around this season? Consider that 13 different targets have a reception. Nine players have at least 100 receiving yards, nine have a reception of 26 yards or longer and nine have a touchdown reception. Seven players have a reception of 40 yards or longer. Added together, the group averages 11.3 yards per reception. The headliner – Juron Criner – has 559 yards eight touchdowns on the season. The supporting cast includes seniors Gino Crump (45-442), David Douglas (36-374) and David Roberts (33-334). It also includes junior Dan Buckner (38-568), sophomore Richard Morrison (17-169) and redshirt freshman Austin Hill (16-238). The aerial attack also includes backfield targets Ka'Deem Carey (9-140), Keola Antolin (16-116) and Taimi Tutogi (5-51), who all have receiving touchdowns on the season. Those are some pretty talented players that Foles has to work with, and he includes them all.

Youth Be Served

A lot of teams around the country have played true freshmen this year. Arizona has played a total of 10 in 2011. The Cats have used DT Sani Fuimaono (started), LBs Rob Hankins and Hank Hobson (each with starts), RB Ka'Deem Carey, DBs Tra'Mayne Bondurant and Cortez Johnson (three combined starts), DE Reggie Gilbert, TE Michael Cooper, WR Trevor Ermisch (special teams) and Josh Elias (snapper). Arizona also has played 13 redshirt freshmen -- OT Mickey Baucus (starter), OT Fabbians Ebelle (starter), DT Aiulua Fanene, safety/nickel back Jourdon Grandon (formation starts), defensive back Blake Brady (special teams) receiver Austin Hill (has started), OG Carter Lees (has started), DE Dan Pettinato, WR Tyler Slavin, OT Trent Spurgeon, DT Kirifi Taula (has started), and receiver Garic Wharton (KOR starts.). All added up, it's 23 freshmen playing for UA this season.

Chunk Plays

One of the goals for Arizona's defensive improvement will be to limit long plays by opponents. Through eight contests, the Wildcats have yielded 51 total offensive plays (14 rushing, 37 passing) of 20 or more yards, which is already more than the 41 allowed in 13 games a season ago. That's an astonishing 6.4 plays per game of 20 yards or more, for an average of nearly 140 yards. Sure, the competition has been much stiffer to start the 2011 campaign, but needless to say the Cats needs to find a solution to slowing down opposing teams. Forcing teams to matriculate the ball down the field without the chunk plays will be a good place to start.

Chunk Plays Part II

Nick Foles and the passing attack have totaled 36 plays of 20 or more yards through the air in the first seven games of the season. That's on the way to eclipsing the total of 46 long pass plays a year ago. In fact, nine different Wildcats have a reception of 20 or more yards so far, including seven with a 40-yarder and eight with a 30-yarder. But the Wildcats would also like to find some balance with the run. So far only four rushing plays have gained 20 or more yards -- all totes by Keola Antolin. In 2010, UA had 14 rushing plays of 20 or more yards, which leaves the Cats with some work to do if they would like to match that total.

Up Next

Arizona will wrap up its inaugural Pac-12 slate with a pair of road games in the coming weeks. The Wildcats play at Colorado (12:30 p.m. MST on FCS Pacific) on Saturday, Nov. 12, and then travel to Arizona State on Saturday, Nov. 19 (Time, TV is TBA). The regular season schedule concludes on Saturday, Nov. 26, at Arizona Stadium, when the Wildcats host non-conference foe Louisiana-Lafayette (Time, TV is TBA).

Game 1

Northern Arizona 10

Arizona..... 41

Sept. 3, 2011 // Tucson, Ariz. // Arizona Stadium (51,761)
 Start: 7:07 p.m. // TOG: 2:56 // Weather: 95 degrees, clear

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP) -- Nick Foles threw for 412 yards and had three of his five touchdown passes in third quarter, helping Arizona shake off a first-half funk to open the season with a 41-10 win over Northern Arizona Saturday night.

The Wildcats flew around the field while building a 14-0 lead in the first quarter, then went stagnant in the second, allowing the FCS Lumberjacks to get within four points.

Triggered by Trevin Wade's interception, Arizona pulled away in the third quarter on touchdown passes from Foles to Keola Antolin, Richard Morrison and Austin Hill.

Juron Criner also caught a TD pass, finishing with six catches for 151 yards. Foles was 34 for 42 passing.

Northern Arizona's Cary Grossart threw for 179 yards on 20 of 26 passing. Zach Bauman ran for 99 yards on 27 carries.

The Wildcats were hoping Northern Arizona would serve as a warmup for a schedule that's about to get real tough.

After the Lumberjacks, Arizona has a short turnaround for a road game against No. 9 Oklahoma State on Thursday. Two home dates follow: against No. 7 Stanford and Heisman Trophy favorite Andrew Luck on Sept. 17, then third-ranked Oregon on Sept. 24.

With plenty of new players, including the entire offensive line, the Wildcats needed this game to build some confidence -- for the inexperienced guys and the ones who suffered through the season-ending five-game losing streak in 2010.

Everyone looked good early against Northern Arizona.

Foles opened by hitting Criner on a 42-yard play-action pass, then floated in a 10-yard touchdown pass to him in the corner of the end zone two plays later.

Arizona kept rolling, Taimi Tutogi making it 14-0 in the closing seconds of the first quarter on a 5-yard TD run through a huge hole off right tackle.

Arizona's defense was good, too, swarming the Lumberjacks while holding them to 14 yards on 12 plays.

Rout on the way, right? Not quite.

Once the second quarter started, the offense sputtered, with the running game nonexistent -- five yards on six carries in the first half -- and Foles unable to find his receivers as readily.

Grossart started to find some seams going the other way, picking the Wildcats apart to go 16 of 17 for 145 yards in the first half.

Matt Myers hit a 28-yard field goal midway through the second quarter, and Grossart found Khalil Paden on a 12-yard touchdown pass in the closing seconds of the half, getting NAU within 14-10.

Arizona quickly moved into position for a field-goal attempt, thanks to a 42-yard up-for-grabs catch by Criner, but Jaime Salazar's 36-yard attempt was way right.

It wasn't too much of a surprise that Northern Arizona kept it close; the Lumberjacks were within a touchdown in the fourth quarter against Arizona State last season and had the Wildcats still in their sights at halftime the year before.

Arizona was still in a fog to open the second half, going three-and-out.

Wade's interception jolted the Wildcats back.

Stepping front of a receiver on NAU's second play, Wade made the pick at the 12-yard line, and Antolin scored on a swing pass the next play, bowling over a defender, tightroping the sideline then diving the final few yards to the pylon.

Morrison followed with a 24-yard touchdown reception from Foles across the middle, and Hill all but sealed it with his first career catch, a 24-yard TD that Arizona up 34-10.

Arizona's defense was just as dominant, holding Northern Arizona to 25 yards in the third quarter and no points in the second half.

Game 2

Arizona..... 14

(9) Oklahoma State 37

Sept. 8, 2011 // Stillwater, Okla. // Boone Pickens (54,654)

Start: 7:06 p.m. // TOG: 3:16 // Weather: 81 degrees, clear

STILLWATER, Okla. (AP) - Brandon Weeden connected with Justin Blackmon on two short touchdown tosses, Joseph Randle ran for two scores and No. 9 Oklahoma State used an early burst of offense to beat Arizona 37-14 on Thursday night in a rematch of last year's Alamo Bowl.

The Cowboys (2-0) scored on their first three drives to open a 21-0 lead in the first 16 1/2 minutes, then put it away with two scores midway through the second half.

Randle had 121 yards rushing and nine catches for 99 yards, and Blackmon had 128 yards on 12 receptions to extend his NCAA record streak to 14 straight games with at least 100 yards receiving.

Weeden finished with 397 yards passing, one less than Arizona's Nick Foles, in a duel between the nation's top two passers from the first week of the season.

The Wildcats (1-1) played without Juron Criner, who was the Pac-10's top receiver last season and tied the school record with 11 touchdown catches. He had an appendectomy on Monday, and it's unclear whether he'll be able to return in time for Arizona's home games the next two weeks against No. 6 Stanford and No. 12 Oregon.

But even with Criner out, Foles flung it around without many issues. Texas transfer Dan Buckner had 10 catches for 142 yards, including a 54-yarder for a touchdown, and Austin Hill had 128 yards on eight receptions.

The Wildcats' running game continued to struggle. Keola Antonin had just 22 yards on 13 carries, including a 1-yard touchdown run during a stretch when Arizona made five straight defensive stops to give itself a chance.

Oklahoma State flipped the field when punter Quinn Sharp took off for a 23-yard gain on a fake, and the Wildcats then got in their own way with a series of penalties that backed them up to their own 1-yard line before punting it back.

Weeden capitalized on the short field by feeding Blackmon on four straight plays, the last one a 3-yard fade pattern to the right side of the end zone. Randle highlighted the Cowboys' next drive by coming out of the backfield to catch a 63-yard flip over the middle and set up Jeremy Smith's 6-yard TD run that made it 34-7 early in the fourth quarter.

Buckner answered with his long TD on a stop-and-go down the right sideline against Devin Hedgepeth, but it was too little, too late for Arizona.

The Wildcats, who lost 36-10 in the Alamo Bowl to complete a five-game free fall at the end of last season, hadn't put up nearly enough resistance at the start and lost to OSU for the second time in nine months.

Weeden completed 19 of his first 20 passes as Oklahoma State charged down the field on scoring drives of 88, 80 and 70 yards. Randle had touchdown runs of 1 and 4 yards, and in between Weeden tossed a 3-yard fade pass that Blackmon caught over his shoulder before tapping his right foot in the corner of the end zone.

Weeden's first 13 passes were completed before he overshot Tracy Moore on a deep ball. He then reeled off nine more completions before finishing the first half with 240 yards on 28-for-32 passing.

Game 3

(6) Stanford 37

Arizona..... 10

Sept. 17, 2011 // Tucson, Ariz. // Arizona Stadium (49,636)

Start: 7:51 p.m. // TOG: 3:18 // Weather: 78 degrees, clear

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP) - Andrew Luck threw for 325 yards and had both of his touchdown passes in the second half, helping No. 6 Stanford pull away for a 37-10 victory over Arizona on Saturday night in the Pac-12 opener for both teams.

Stanford (3-0) struggled to find the end zone in the first half, then wore Arizona down in the second.

Luck picked the Wildcats apart on 20-of-31 passing, throwing touchdown passes to Zach Ertz in the third quarter and Levine Toilolo in the fourth. Stepfan Taylor added a career-high 153 yards rushing and Stanford had a balanced 567 yards to win its 11th straight game, the Cardinal's longest run since taking 13 straight from 1939-41.

Nick Foles threw for 239 yards and a touchdown, but couldn't overcome Arizona's anemic running game by himself. The Wildcats (1-2) had just 51 yards rushing on 23 carries in their sixth straight loss to an FBS team.

Stanford rolled through its first two games, outscoring San Jose State and Duke by a combined score of 101-17. Luck, not surprisingly, was the catalyst, throwing for 461 yards and six touchdowns with one interception.

Playing Arizona in the desert figured to be a stiffer challenge for the Cardinal.

The Wildcats have one of the nation's best quarterbacks in Foles, who, like Luck, figures to be a first-round NFL draft pick. The 6-foot-5 senior doesn't have the polish that Luck has, but is prolific, completing 76 percent of his passes for 810 yards and six touchdowns the first two games.

Arizona also sent Stanford home with a disappointing loss in its last trip to Tucson, scoring two touchdowns in the fourth quarter for a 43-38 comeback victory.

That was just two years ago, but it seems like forever with the direction these teams have headed since.

The Cardinal rolled over the Wildcats 42-17 last season behind Luck's 293 yards and two touchdowns. Luck may be even better this season and Arizona struggled against a good passer last week, allowing Oklahoma State's Brandon Weedon to pick it apart for 397 yards and two touchdowns in a 17-point loss.

The Wildcats also have been one-dimensional on offense, relying almost solely on Foles while the running game has averaged just 58 yards per game, 115th in the nation. Stanford was second nationally through the first two games, allowing 28.5 yards per game, so it was weakness against strength.

And, though it wasn't pretty at times, the game turned out about how you might think.

Arizona again had trouble running the ball - minus-6 yards on 10 carries in the first half - but Foles made up for it, completing his first 17 passes while throwing for 198 yards and a touchdown. The score went on a 6-yard pass to Juron Criner, who showed no ill effects from the appendectomy that kept him out of last week's game against Oklahoma State.

The Wildcats kept it close, but could have been closer: Jaime Salazar missed field goals to end the second quarter and start the third, making him 1-for-4 on the season after Arizona was haunted by missed kicks a year ago.

Stanford's kicking game worked just fine - Jordan Williamson hit from 20, 45 and 33 yards - but the Cardinal wanted touchdowns after getting so deep into Arizona's end. The only one Stanford got came late in the first quarter, when Anthony Wilkerson scored on a 24-yard run on a fourth-and-a-foot misdirection play.

Leading 16-10 after one half, Stanford stomped the Wildcats down in the second.

Luck hit tight end Ertz on a 16-yard touchdown pass in the third quarter, then had two choices to open the fourth quarter on a defensive breakdown by Arizona. He settled on Toilolo (he was deeper), who scored easily on a 34-yard pass to put the Cardinal up 30-10.

That's seven touchdowns to tight ends - out of nine - for Luck this season and 53 TDs overall, moving him one ahead of Jim Plunkett for third all-time in Stanford history.

Stanford closed it out with a drive that took nearly seven minutes, capped by Jeremy Stewart's 2-yard TD run.

Game 4

(10) Oregon 56
 Arizona..... 31

Sept. 24, 2011 // Tucson, Ariz. // Arizona Stadium (56,096)
 Start: 7:26 p.m. // TOG: 3:28 // Weather: 88 degrees, high clouds

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP) - LaMichael James kept zipping and zagging through the desert night, playing the Road Runner to Arizona's Wile E. Coyote.

By the time he had finished slashing his way through and around the Wildcats on Saturday night, he had a school record 288 yards. He also broke the Oregon mark for career rushing touchdowns with two scores to lead the No. 10 Ducks to a 56-31 victory over Arizona in their Pac-12 opener.

Oregon (3-1), the two-time defending Pac-10 champion, won its 13th consecutive conference game, blowing open a 35-3 lead and then holding off a Wildcats rally before pulling away again with its lightning-quick offense.

All but the last of the Ducks' seven touchdown drives lasted less than three minutes. Darron Thomas passed for two scores and ran for two more

Nick Foles completed 33 of 55 passes for 391 yards and three touchdowns for the Wildcats (1-3).

Arizona, playing its third consecutive top-10 team, has lost eight of nine dating to last year. The lone victory was this season's opener against Northern Arizona.

Oregon has the top-ranked offense in the Pac-12. Arizona's defense statistically is the worst. So the results from the opening kickoff were predictable.

James, who also had a 51-yard punt return, averaged 12.2 yards per carry in his second consecutive and fifth career 200-yard rushing game. He broke Oregon's single-game rushing record of 257 yards by Ontario Smith against Washington State in 2001.

With his touchdown runs of 12 and 19 yards, the speedy back has 43 scoring runs, breaking Derek Loville's school record of 42.

Oregon coach Chip Kelly said defenses have a tough time with the Ducks' triple running threat of James, Thomas and Kenjon Barner.

The Ducks amassed 516 yards, 415 on the ground.

With his team down 35-3, Foles led the Wildcats to three consecutive touchdowns. His 7-yard pass to David Roberts, and 2-point conversion toss to David Douglas, cut Oregon's lead to 35-24 with 3:14 to go in the third quarter. Kelly had seen Foles do this in previous encounters.

But the Ducks simply zipped to another score. James had a 31-yard run, and Thomas went the final 5 yards for the touchdown.

Foles got Arizona to the Oregon 6 on the subsequent kickoff, but the drive stalled. On fourth down he was sacked.

The Ducks reeled off five of their trademark lightning-fast touchdown drives, in six possessions, to open a 35-9 lead at the half.

James led the way, rushing for 133 yards in 11 carries in the first two quarters.

Oregon's first-half TD drives went 2:42 (8 plays, 80 yards), 2:19 (10 plays, 72 yards), 2:06 (8 plays, 80 yards), 2:02 (6 plays, 55 yards) and 1:37 (4 plays, 28 yards).

The Ducks amassed 300 yards in the first two quarters, 214 on the ground. Barner also ran for a pair of scores.

Of the Ducks' 28 touchdown drives this season, 22 have taken less than three minutes. Another went 3:01.

The stadium was almost full, and the student section was packed at kickoff, but about half of the students and a good share of the rest of the crowd was gone by halftime.

Foles' performance included a left-handed toss as he was being swarmed on the sideline - 11 yards to Keola Antolin and a first down at the Oregon 34 as the third quarter ended.

Game 5

Arizona..... 41

USC 48

Oct. 1, 2011 // Los Angeles // L.A. Memorial Coliseum (63,707)

Start: 12:41 p.m. // TOG: 3:07 // Weather: Sunny, 85 degrees

LOS ANGELES (AP) -- Matt Barkley passed for a school-record 468 yards and four touchdowns, Robert Woods made 14 catches for 255 yards and two scores, and Southern California outlasted Arizona 48-41 Saturday.

Freshmen Marqise Lee and Xavier Grimble caught TD passes from Barkley, who also rushed for a score while breaking Carson Palmer's 2002 yardage record with a blistering performance against Arizona's maligned defense.

The Trojans (4-1, 2-1 Pac-12) needed almost every yard against Arizona's Nick Foles, who passed for 425 yards and four TDs of his own. USC outgained Arizona 582-554 in a game largely devoid of defense.

Ka'Deem Carey rushed for two touchdowns and caught another scoring pass for the Wildcats (1-4, 0-3), who haven't beaten an FBS opponent in nearly a year.

Barkley went 32 for 39 with one interception, bouncing back from a rough start at Arizona State last week with another landmark game. After setting the USC record for single-game completions in the season opener, the junior has thrown nine TD passes in his last two home games.

Woods is having the most prolific season by a receiver in USC's long history through five games, starting off this chapter with an 82-yard score on the Trojans' second play.

The speedy sophomore, who set the USC mark with 17 catches in that season-opening win over Minnesota, fell 5 yards short of R. Jay Soward's 260-yard school record when Arizona held him to one catch for 2 yards in the fourth quarter.

Keola Antolin rushed for 87 yards for Arizona, which has lost four straight despite its prolific offense. Star receiver Juron Criner was limited to three catches for 29 yards and a touchdown.

Foles went 41 for 53, but threw two drive-killing interceptions to T.J. McDonald in the first half that allowed USC to pull away with a 27-12 halftime lead. The Trojans stayed ahead throughout the second half to stay unbeaten in four home games this season, repeatedly covering up for defensive struggles with offensive brilliance.

Woods took charge from USC's second play, catching a short pass from Barkley and splitting two defenders before outrunning the entire Arizona secondary down the sideline for a score. Lee caught a wide-open 38-yard TD pass from Barkley late in the first quarter when Arizona's entire defense appeared to focus on Woods, and Grimble caught a 7-yard scoring strike midway through the second quarter.

Arizona's spread offense also moved the ball easily against USC, punting just once in the first three quarters -- but Foles' mistakes put the Wildcats in a huge hole. Foles' first interception of the season killed the Wildcats' second drive in USC territory, and Foles badly overthrew David Douglas in the Trojans' end on the next drive.

McDonald, the hard-hitting safety, made both interceptions for the Trojans, who had just one interception in their first four games.

Woods caught a 28-yard TD pass down the middle just 2:03 into the third quarter, putting the Trojans up 34-12. But Foles kept the Wildcats moving for back-to-back touchdowns in the third quarter, bookending Barkley's only turnover.

After Curtis McNeal rushed for a 9-yard score with 9:28 to play to put the Trojans up by 14 points, USC turned the ball over on downs at midfield in the closing minutes. Austin Hill caught a 4-yard TD pass from Foles with 1 minute to play, but McDonald recovered an onside kick to seal it.

USC has won nine of its last 10 meetings with the Wildcats, who won in their last visit to the Coliseum two years ago.

Game 6

Arizona..... 27

Oregon State 37

Oct. 8, 2011 // Corvallis, Ore. // Reser Stadium (40,403)

Start: 12:40 p.m. // TOG: 3:14 // Weather: 59 degrees, partly cloudy

CORVALLIS, Ore. --- Sean Mannion threw for 267 yards and two touchdowns and Oregon State defeated the mistake-prone Arizona Wildcats 37-27 on Saturday for the Beavers' first victory of the season.

Quarterback Nick Foles was intercepted twice and the Wildcats (1-5, 0-3 Pac-12) lost two fumbles in their fifth straight loss overall and eighth straight conference loss.

Oregon State (1-4, 1-2) led 27-6 at halftime and nearly squandered it but held on to snap a six-game losing streak dating to last season.

With only a narrow 30-27 lead and 5:22 left, Oregon State went for it on fourth-and-2 -- succeeding when Mannion hit diving tight end Joe Halahuni for the touchdown.

The Beavers made a crucial stand on the other end when the Wildcats also took a chance on fourth down with two yards to go, and Dan Buckner couldn't catch Foles' pass in the end zone.

Foles completed 31 of 45 passes for 378 yards and a touchdown to Buckner, who caught eight passes for 144 yards.

Mannion, a redshirt freshman who didn't become the Beavers' official starter until the third game of the season, completed 32 of 41 passes.

The Wildcats were hurt early after starting wide receiver Juron Criner left with what appeared to be a right knee injury. Criner, ranked second in career touchdown catches for the Wildcats, has three this season.

The Beavers went up on Jovan Stevenson's 1-yard touchdown run, then extended it in the second quarter when Clayton York blocked an Arizona punt and ran the ball back for a score.

Arizona answered with Foles' 28-yard TD pass to Buckner, but Alex Zendejas' extra-point attempt was wide left to make it 14-6.

The Beavers pulled off a fake punt to keep alive a drive that ended with Trevor Romaine's 37-yard field goal. On Arizona's ensuing drive, Foles' arm was hit and he was intercepted by Michael Doctor and the Beavers capitalized with Mannion's 3-yard scoring pass to Halahuni.

The Wildcats had one more chance in the first half, but fumbled and gave the ball back to the Beavers, who got a 40-yard field goal from Romaine.

Arizona running back Daniel Jenkins fumbled on Arizona's first drive of the second half and Beavers safety Lance Mitchell recovered, before the Beavers went up 30-6 on Romaine's 20-yard field goal.

The Wildcats had a scary moment midway through the third quarter when Foles was hit hard and stayed prone on the field for several moments while trainers attended to him. After he made his way to the sidelines, Keola Antolin ran 13 yards for a score. Foles came back and completed the two-point conversion pass to David Douglas.

The Wildcats' rally continued when Mannion was intercepted by Shaquille Richardson, who ran it back 20 yards for a touchdown. This time the two-point try failed, but Arizona was back in it at 30-20.

Oregon State missed a chance to extend its lead when James Rodgers' catch in the end zone was called back by a penalty and Romaine's 42-yard field goal attempt at the end of the third quarter went wide left.

Arizona pulled to within 30-27 early in the fourth quarter on Ka'Deem Carey's 1-yards scoring run.

The Wildcats have struggled this season with a brutal schedule, with losses to top-10 teams Oklahoma State, Stanford and Oregon, as well as their 48-41 loss last weekend at USC.

The Beavers were off to their worst start since 1996. After a season-opening overtime loss to lower-division Sacramento State, Oregon State dropped games to Wisconsin, UCLA and Arizona State.

Last season, Foles threw for 440 yards and three touchdowns against the Beavers, but Oregon State pulled out a 29-27 upset over the then-No. 9 Wildcats. Rodgers went down with a knee injury in that game that would require two surgeries and keep him out until the Beavers' third game this season.

Game 7

UCLA 12

Arizona..... 48

Oct. 20, 2011 // Tucson, Ariz. // Arizona Stadium (46,565)
 Start: 6:02 p.m. // TOG: 3:42 // Weather: Clear, 80 degrees

TUCSON, Ariz. -- Tim Kish has had a simple message for his players since taking over for Mike Stoops: Have fun.

The Wildcats did just that with an emotional victory that was marred by a wild brawl, giving their interim coach a victory in his first game while sending UCLA's coach possibly closer to losing his job.

Dusting off an aggressive defensive scheme and relying on a recharged running game to complement Nick Foles' passing, Arizona ran over the Bruins 48-12 Thursday night.

Foles threw for 291 yards and connected with Juron Criner for three touchdown passes. That wasn't much of a surprise considering the way Arizona (2-5, 1-4 Pac-12) has piled up yards through the air.

The running game, dormant all season, came to life behind huge holes created by the much-maligned offensive line, churning out 254 of Arizona's season-high 573 yards and three touchdowns -- two by Taimi Tutogi.

The defense, another sore spot under Stoops, was just as good behind a throwback scheme called the "Double Eagle Flex," an aggressive front designed to clog up lanes against good running teams.

The combination allowed the Wildcats to build a 35-point halftime lead and cruise to an emotional victory, ending a five-game losing streak that had cost Stoops his job on Oct. 10.

The Bruins (3-4, 2-2) couldn't withstand the emotion of a team playing under a new coach and may have put theirs in jeopardy with a lackluster effort. On the hot seat before the season started, Rick Neuheisel may have taken big blow with a loss that puts a serious dent in UCLA's bowl chances.

Within a half-game of Arizona State and USC in the Pac-12 South heading into the game, the Bruins came out flat against Arizona in front of a national TV audience, which likely won't go over well back in Southern California.

One of the nation's best rushing teams, UCLA had 37 yards on 25 carries against a team that was 100th in the nation at 196 yards per game. Kevin Prince was mostly ineffective in his return to the starting lineup, hitting 17 of 35 passes for 286 yards and a touchdown.

The Bruins also lost a pair of fumbles in the first half and the defense had no chance at stopping the Wildcats -- ground or air -- as the game quickly got out of hand.

Frustration boiled over in the closing seconds of the first half, when a wild brawl spread about 60 yards across the field after a streaker dressed like an official ran onto the field.

Players pushed and shoved, a few wild punches were thrown and two players were ejected: Arizona defensive back Shaquille Richardson and UCLA receiver Taylor Embree.

The streaker? He got down to his underwear before a security person made a crushing tackle -- one as good as any UCLA made in the entire first half.

One of Kish's main goals was to make football fun again for the Wildcats, who had lost 10 straight games against FBS opponents and eight straight in conference.

They certainly enjoyed themselves against UCLA, getting touchdowns on all six of their first-half drives while scoring 42 points, their most in a half in Pac-10/Pac-12 play and more than any of their previous six games.

Keola Antolin ran for 77 yards on just eight carries, freshman Ka'Deem Carey had an 18-yard TD run and Criner finished with 10 catches for 101 yards to give Arizona its first win over an FBS opponent since beating UCLA 29-21 last Oct. 30 in Pasadena.

Neuheisel was concerned about Arizona's passing game and rightly so after Foles had thrown for more than 2,200 yards and 15 touchdowns the first six games.

Foles did what he expected, hitting 26 of 39 passes while connecting with Criner on TD passes of 4, 7 and 25 yards in the first half.

What Neuheisel didn't anticipate was getting run over by the Wildcats.

One of the nation's worst rushing teams, Arizona carved out huge holes in UCLA's defense that Antolin, Tutogi and Carey had no trouble racing through. The Wildcats surpassed their season average of 71.8 yards per game after one quarter and had 174 by halftime.

Arizona also had been plagued by slow starts, left scrambling after being outscored 41-3 in the first quarter in its previous five losses.

No such problem this time.

Foles hit Criner on a 4-yard TD pass on the Wildcats' opening drive. Carey followed with a juking, dive-for-the-ylon score from 18 yards out.

Criner added his second touchdown by snatching the ball away from UCLA's Aaron Hester early in the second quarter. UCLA fumbled, Tutogi scored on a 1-yard dive, then Foles and Criner connected again, this time from 25 yards.

Washington..... 42

Oct. 29, 2011 // Seattle, Wash. // Husky Stadium (59,825)

Start: 7:41 p.m. // TOG: 3:20 // Weather: 52 degrees, Mostly Cloudy

SEATTLE, Wash. -- Chris Polk scored five touchdowns and became the first player in Washington history with 100 yards rushing and receiving in a game as the Huskies rallied for a 42-31 over Arizona on Saturday night.

Washington (6-2, 4-1 Pac-12) withstood another crazy play in the series with the Wildcats - a bobbled pass that was intercepted and returned 91 yards for a touchdown by Robert Golden - and another night of shoddy defense to become bowl eligible for the second straight season.

Polk finished with 144 yards rushing on 34 carries and 100 yards receiving. He scored on touchdown runs of 1, 1, 5 and 2 yards and had a 17-yard TD reception from Keith Price. Polk's 5-yard scamper with 8:21 left gave Washington the lead, and he pushed the advantage to 11 with 3:59 left when he high-stepped in from the 2.

Nick Foles threw for 388 yards for the Wildcats (2-6, 1-5) but couldn't do enough to counter Polk's monster night. Foles finished 32 of 50 passing, and receiver Juron Criner had 11 catches for 118 yards and touchdowns of 24 and 9 yards.

But any Arizona rally and hope of a second straight win under interim coach Tim Kish was dashed when Sean Parker picked off Foles at the Washington 20 with 2:10 left. Foles was intercepted for a third time with 29 seconds left by Washington's Cort Dennison.

Following Polk's third rushing TD to put the Huskies up 35-31, Foles led the Wildcats to midfield, but on a quick screen, Criner was stripped by Washington's Will Shamburger, and freshman linebacker Princeton Fuimaono recovered. Price then hit Jermaine Kearse for 24 yards, Polk sprinted for 14, and the Huskies were back on the Wildcats' doorstep. On third-and-1 at the Arizona 3, Polk squeezed for the needed yard, then scored on the next play.

Polk set a new school record with his 18th career 100-yard rushing game and topped 1,000 yards for the season.

Kearse ran for a 6-yard touchdown in the first quarter on a lateral pass from Price.

It wasn't the sharpest night for Price, who didn't get much help from his receivers at times. Price was 16 of 30 for 277 yards and a TD. He threw a career-high three interceptions, but one came when the receiver slipped and another on one more strange bounce in this series.

After a 43-yard pass to Polk, Washington was on the cusp of taking a two-touchdown lead early in the third quarter. Price threw for James Johnson, who stumbled and never gained full control of the pass. The ball deflected out of his hands and into the arms of Golden. He wove through Washington's offensive personnel for a 91-yard interception return for a touchdown.

The wacky play rivaled Mason Foster's game-winning interception return for Washington two years ago in a 36-33 win over the Wildcats that bounced off the foot of an Arizona receiver and into Foster's arms.

Washington answered with Polk's second touchdown run, but Arizona ran off the next 10 points and led 31-28 going to the fourth quarter.

Washington got the big play it needed when freshman Kasen Williams took a quick post from Price, bounced off one tackle and carried another defender for a 48-yard gain to the Arizona 21 with less than 10 minutes remaining. After a 26-yard pass to Kevin Smith got the Huskies to the Arizona 5, Polk walked in to give the Huskies a 35-31 lead with 8:21 left.

Arizona still carved up Washington's struggling defense for 424 total yards a week after the Huskies surrendered 615 yards to No. 4 Stanford. At one point in the first quarter, the Wildcats had 132 total yards to Washington's minus-10.

But Arizona twice settled for first-half field goals when touchdowns were needed.
