Arizona - Arizona State Series History

All-Time Series: Arizona leads, 46-37-1

First Meeting: Nov. 30, 1899 (ASU 11, Arizona 2 at Tucson)

Last Meeting: Dec. 2, 201 (ASU 30, Arizona 29 in OT at Tucson)

Streak: UA won two straight prior to 2010 meeting. ASU won three straight from 2005-07.

Some Game Themes

The nation's oldest rivalry trophy game (as recognized by the NCAA) with the Territorial Cup on the line. The association recognizes the teams' initial meeting in 1899 as the first trophy contest... It's Wildcats vs. Sun Devils, another chapter in a rousing intra-state series... Arizona fights to snap a three-game losing streak, while the Sun Devils try to halt a two-game skid... UA works for a second league victory to avoid matching historical lows (1-7) by the 2002 and 2003 clubs... A loss would also put Arizona in the unenviable situation of the 12th-best league record in the new Pac-12... ASU, bowl eligible, needs a victory to cement its chances for a co-Pac-12 South title and a crack at the Pac-12 Championship Game Dec. 2... Arizona can have some tie-breaker influence in the league divisional title chase with a victory... A match of teams with yard-producing passing games led by UA's Nick Foles and ASU's Brock Osweiler... The Cats try to put some special in their kicking units against a club that's nationally a top 20 squad in kick returns... Based on recent games of 500 yards allowed by each team, defense doesn't appear high on the forecast... ASU opens a two-game home-stand at Sun Devil Stadium, where it's 5-0 in 2011... Look for some yellow -- the teams are near the very bottom of the FBS in penalties and penalty yardage... The Nov. 19 date for this game marks the earliest date on the calendar for which the schools have met since 1956.

Arizona Football Media Policies

Postgame Interviews

Arizona has a closed locker room policy after games. There is no player availability on the field immediately after the game.

Head coach Mike Stoops will address the assembled media only after his postgame radio show responsibilities have been completed both at home and on the road. Coach Stoops will address the media prior to any player comments.

At home games, individual players and coaches will be made available to media members for postgame interviews in the Media Room near Gate 15 only through request and approval of the media relations and coaching staffs. On the road, the locker room situation will dictate postgame protocol. Please consult the UA SID staff members.

Weekly Practices

All practices will be closed to the media during the season. Arizona players and coaches will be available post-practice to the media on Monday-Wednesday only. Players and coaches will not be available to the media post-practice on Thursdays and Fridays. Media members are requested to make post-practice interviews with individual players through the media relations staff.

Phone Interview Requests

Phone interviews Monday through Wednesday with requested players will be taken by the media relations staff and every effort will be made to fulfill them. However, due to class schedules and team commitments, not all interview requests can be honored. Student-athletes are not available for phone interviews on Sunday, Thursday or Friday. No student-athlete phone numbers will be provided to media members.

Weekly Availability

Monday's

Weekly Press Conference in McKale Center Room 106

11 a.m. -- Noon

Coaches and players may also be available to media members in attendance.

Tuesday's

Weekly Pac-12 media teleconference

Arizona Last Week

Arizona closed its road schedule in Boulder against Colorado and left with pie on its face after a 48-29 loss. The Buffaloes, struck first with an 80-yard drive keyed by a 39-yard pass from Tyler Hansen, and never trailed. UA responded with a drive for a John Bonano field goal, but CU again took the ball 80 yards to push the lead to 14-3. UA trimmed it to a three-point game with a 65-yard drive keyed by a Ka'Deem Carey 27-yard run, but two possessions later the Buffs took advantage of superior field position (UA 28 yard-line) when Wildcat punter Kyle Dugandzic was called for a knee down while picking up a low snap, and punched it in in three plays for 20-10 lead at the break. After two CU scoring drives in the third quarter, UA linebacker Tra'Mayne Bondurant's pick-six (29 yards) got UA back on the board, and another Nick Foles-driven drive made it look interesting in pulling UA to within a pari of scores, 34-23. But Colorado marched 80 yards in reply to put the game out of reach. The Cats picked up another score, and so did the Buffaloes, notching the most points they'd scored since 2007. CU running back Rodney Stewart finished with 181 yards and three TDs on 24 totes to spearhead a 273-yard rushing effort by the Buffaloes, who also picked up 213 passing yards from Hansen (and 2 scoring throws). CU was 7-for-7 on TDs in the red zone. Foles passed for 352 yards to become the Arizona all-time passing leader with 9,289 yards, but suffered three interceptions in some one-dimensionality by UA, which only rushed for 60 net yards. The loss dropped UA to sixth place in the Pac-12 South at 1-7,, a half-game behind Colorado.

The Coaches

Arizona - Tim Kish (Otterbein '76), interim head coach (1-3).. This is Kish's first assignment as a head coach. The 36-year veteran of the college ranks has coached at Pac-12, Big Ten (Illinois, Northwestern), the Ohio prep ranks, Mid-American Conference schools (Ball State, Bowling Green State, Ohio) and a service academy (Army). He has been on Mike Stoops' Arizona staff as linebackers coach each of the latter's eight years in Tucson, the last two as co- or defensive coordinator. Kish played college ball as a DB at Otterbein, and later earned a master's degree from Bowling Green. He began his coaching career as an assistant coach at Mariemont High School in Cincinnati, Ohio, in 1976. He has been on the defensive side of the ball all but one year in his college career, the 1982 season as QBs coach at Ball State. He and his wife, Angela, have two daughters and a son. His eldest, Megan, is a student at Ohio State. Arizona State - Dennis Erickson (Montana State '70) fifth year at ASU (31-28) and 24th year overall (178-93-1) as a head coach. Erickson has been Pac-10 Coach of the Year at ASU, Oregon State and Washington State, and won two national championships at Miami. He is 9-4 against Arizona with a 3-2 mark while at ASU. His first of seven head coaching stints began at Idaho in 1971.

The Territorial Cup

The Territorial Championship Cup was first presented to Tempe Normal School after its 11-2 victory over Arizona at Tucson's Carrillo Gardens field downtown on Thanksgiving Day, Nov. 30, 1899. That makes it the oldest rivalry trophy game in America. (Comparisons: Michigan-Minnesota/Little Brown Jug/1909; Indiana-Purdue/Old Oaken Bucket/1925). Carrillo Gardens was in a downtown park on a side street south of the current Tucson Convention Center in the Barrio Historico district. The Cup has been registered with the NCAA and thereby sanctions the game as the oldest trophy game. Early origins of the piece are unclear but the cup itself is silver-plated over base metal and was manufactured by Reed and Barton of Taunton, Mass., according to some reports, which also indicate a catalog price of $20. The lone inscription reads: "Arizona Foot Ball League 1899 Normal." The Cup's whereabouts for the next eight decades also remains unclear until its discovery among items found in the basement of a church near ASU in the early 1980s, and then displayed in various ASU collections. In 2001, then ASU President Lattie Coor led the move to have it again presented to the game winner. Over the years the Governor's Trophy (1953-1979) and a "Victory" sculpture by artist Ben Goo (1979-1997) were presented to the game's winner. The Saguaro Trophy, a bronze piece commissioned from artist Dora Perry in 1998, also has been in the mix, and now goes to the winning coach each year. The Bob Moran Most Outstanding Player in the game, named in 2008 after the late sportswriter who covered both teams, earns the Ben Goo sculpture for his school's hall of fame. The Cup on the sideline at the game itself is a replica, with the original piece requiring curator treatment for its hall of fame type display. The games themselves are not atypical of a state where the Territorial Legislature awarded one city (Phoenix) the initial economic prize, the state hospital, while the other town (Tucson) got the fledgling first state university. The games are competitive, territorial and a distinct matter of pride.

State Farm Territorial Cup Series

Two years ago the insurance corporation sponsored the Territorial Cup Series, which counts all head-to-head sporting events between the schools (or, league-championships competition finishes), and the Territorial Cup football game is a component. Arizona took SFTCS titles in men's and women's cross country earlier this month, ASU earned the women's soccer point, and the schools' women's volleyball teams square off in Tucson Nov. 22 and in Tempe Nov. 26 for the next SFTCS competition. The University of Arizona won the 2009-10 and 2010-11 State Farm Territorial Cup Series by overall scores of 10.5 to 7.5 and 11.5 to 6.5, respectively. Eighteen sports are part of the computation.

Foles Facts

Last week, Nick Foles became Arizona's all-time passing leader as he moved past Willie Tuitama on the career yardage chart (9,289). The senior from Austin, Texas, also has school records for completions (865), pass attempts (1,301) and total offense (8,995). Foles has passed for at least 200 yards in 15 straight games played. In fact, he's done so in 20 of the last 21 contests he has played for the Wildcats. That streak could be longer if not for a second quarter knee injury at Washington State a year ago, which is the only time in the last two seasons that he has failed to reach 200 passing yards. Currently, Foles is averaging a Pac-12 best 361.2 yards per game, a figure that is No. 4 in the nation for FBS players. Foles' per game clip is currently ahead of the Pac-12 record, set by Washington's Cody Pickett in 2002 (342.9). Foles' 31.9 completions per game on the season are tied with Texas Tech's Seth Doege for the top mark in all of FBS.

Sun Cajuns?

Arizona will close its regular season against a team (Louisiana) other than Arizona State for the second time in three years, with a USC tilt in Los Angeles at the end of the 2009 year. Before that, you have to go back to 1986 when UA played a pseudo-bowl game (Coca Cola Bowl) against Stanford in Tokyo, Japan, to close the regular season. Before that, Hawaii in a gift-wrapped 12th game in early December 1977. Before that, New Mexico closed the regular season in 1963. Before that, college football was a different animal and in 20 years from 1948 to 1958 UA closed the season against Marquette, Kansas, Iowa State, Hawaii, Texas Tech, Wyoming, and Colorado along with a few ASU games as the regular-season finale. This year's contest falls on Nov. 19, which is the earliest date for a game in the series since 1956 when the schools played on Nov. 17.

Foles vs the Forks

UA senior QB Nick Foles will play his third career game against ASU. He was the winning QB of record in 2009 and the losing QB of record last year. He's completed 46 passes in 79 attempts (.582) for 410 yards, no interceptions and three TDs (all last year). A couple of other Cats have some multiple-game offensive numbers against ASU. Keola Antolin has rushed 25 times for 83 yards in three ASU games, Juron Criner has nine receptions for 107 yards in two games and David Roberts has nine catches for 64 yards in two games. Kicker Alex Zendejas, since knocked out of his job by John Bonano, has kicked three field goals (four attempts) in a pair of games, and hit four extra points. His two missed (blocked) PATs a year ago -- one at the end of regulation and one on the final play of double overtime -- were a big factor.

Take It To The House

Arizona's defense has forced just 12 turnovers this season, but it has made the most of them. Of the Wildcats nine interceptions this year, three have been taken back for touchdowns. That ranks tied for fourth nationally, trailing, among others, next week's opponent Louisiana-Lafayette, which has six to lead all FBS teams. Interestingly, all three pick-sixes have occurred on the road. Shaquille Richardson, who leads the Wildcats with three interceptions, recorded a 28-yard interception return for a score at Oregon State on Oct. 8. Robert Golden then made perhaps the play of the year for the Wildcats with a 91-yard interception return for a score at Washington on Oct. 29. Last week, true freshman Tra'Mayne Bondurant recorded his first career interception and returned it 29 yards for a touchdown. Senior Trevin Wade has two career touchdowns on interception returns, and Golden also had one in his sophomore season. That gives the UA defense six career scores on interceptions.

Gaining Experience

Arizona has trotted out 23 regular contributors who are either true freshmen (10) or redshirt freshmen (13) this season, including five different true freshmen that have started on UA's defense. The Cats have used DT Sani Fuimaono (started), LBs Rob Hankins and Hank Hobson (each with starts), DBs Tramayne Bondurant (four starts) and Cortez Johnson (two starts) on defense. Other key true freshmen contributors include RB Ka'Deem Carey, DE Reggie Gilbert, TE Michael Cooper, WR Trevor Ermisch (special teams) and Josh Elias (snapper). Arizona also has played 13 redshirt freshmen -- OT Mickey Baucus (starter), OT Fabbians Ebelle (starter), DT Aiulua Fanene, safety/nickel back Jourdon Grandon (formation starts), defensive back Blake Brady (special teams) receiver Austin Hill (has started), OG Carter Lees (has started), DE Dan Pettinato, WR Tyler Slavin, OT Trent Spurgeon, DT Kirifi Taula (has started), and receiver Garic Wharton (KOR starts).

Aerial Strikes

Nick Foles has thrown at least one touchdown pass in all 10 games this season and has a 15-game streak dating back to the end of the 2010 campaign. That 15-game stretch is a new individual school record, surpassing the previous standard set by Marc Reed (1966-67), who had 11 consecutive games with a passing touchdown over two seasons. Prior to Foles' 15-game stretch, Matt Scott had touchdown passes in consecutive games, filling in for then-injured Foles. The 17-game streak is also a new school record, besting the 16 games set by the 1997-98 squads. The only game over the last two seasons in which the Wildcats have failed to record a passing touchdown was at Washington State last October, when Foles went down with an injury and Scott came on to guide the squad to a 24-7 victory.

Take Your Pick

Actually, Nick Foles hopes it doesn't happen. He has 13 interceptions this year (in 466 attempts, .027 percent of his tosses) and with one more would hit the Arizona all-time Top 10 single-season picks-suffered chart where five players are tied for No. 9 with 14 apiece (Tom Tunnicliffe '82, Jim Krohn '79, Marc Reed '67, John Black '40 and Ted Bland '35). Tunnicliffe and Reed were on throwing offenses, but Foles' 466 are the second-most in UA history. Foles' 1,302 career pass attempts -- in three seasons -- are No. 1 overall as well, passing Willie Tuitama's 3+ years and 1,276 tosses last week. Foles' 32 career interceptions are well behind the record 56 pitched by Tunnicliffe (1980-83) and Alfred Jenkins' 38 (1983-86). Krohn was picked off 36 times in 513 career attempts running a veer-ish offense from 1976-79. Interestingly, Foles opened the season with a string of 193 pass attempts without an interception. Going back to last season, the stretch included 208 interception-free attempts, which set a school record and fell just eight tosses shy of matching the Pac-12 Conference record of 216 set by USC's Brad Otton (1994-95).

Bag It

The Cats had 11 sacks in the last two UA-Arizona State games. This year they have eight total sacks through 10 games. Gone are ends Ricky Elmore (5 in two games), Brooks Reed (2) and Donald Horton (2), who combined for most of those. Sophomore DT Justin Washington had a pair in the ASU game a year ago. Pass pressure, or the lack of it, clearly has been an issue for Arizona this year. UA young offensive line has given up 20, not bad for a unit with one career start (Kyle Quinn- Alamo Bowl) entering the season.

PF-PFA

Points for, points against. A little barometer of success. Arizona is seventh in the league with 293 points scored, and 11th among Pac-12 teams by giving up 361 points. Only Colorado has allowed more points than Arizona (416 by the Buffaloes). In differential of PF-PFA, the Cats are 9th. Here's how the Pac-12's teams stack up in that category: Stanford +262; Oregon +250; Ariz State +104; USC +93; Utah +59; California +59; Wash State -3; Washington -25; Arizona -68; UCLA -81; Oregon State -97; Colorado -182.

Passing the Baton

Barring unforeseen circumstances the UA-ASU game will provide a glimpse of the Arizona running back of the future even as senior Keola Antolin departs. Antolin, the 10-game starter this year with 22 career starts in 48 games played as a Wildcat, heads into his final two games with 2,321 rushing yards and 24 touchdowns. He's a durable darting runner with 472 career carries for an average of 4.9 yards per attempt. Meantime, in the wings is freshman Ka'Deem Carey, with 333 net yards on 78 carries (4.3) and a bright future before him. He's a slasher with speed and the power to run out of tackles. He has six TDs this year. His talent is evident. He and Daniel Jenkins, the nominal backup with 24 totes for 129 yards (5.4) could wage a nice battle for the top job in spring but most are giving a he's-the-guy nod to Carey.

Growing Up

Arizona opened the season with just one offensive lineman that had started a game: Kyle Quinn, whose only start was in the 2010 Alamo Bowl. The Wildcats were one of six school's nationally that began the season without a senior on its starting offensive line. Now 10 games into the season, the Wildcats' offensive line has matured and helped pave the way for one of the league's top offensive units. Now the unit has 50 collective starts on the season, headlined by redshirt freshmen tackles Mickey Baucus and Fabbians Ebbele, and Quinn, a junior center, who have each started all 10 games this season. Junior guards trace Biskin (eight starts) and Shane Zink (three starts), sophomore guard Chris Putton (seven starts), and redshirt freshman guard Carter Lees (two starts) have combined for the other 20 starts, with redshirt freshman tackle Trent Spurgeon getting plenty of meaningful work as a backup all season long. That's eight talented players that will return next season, and it goes without saying that line coach Robert Anae has been instrumental in the development of this group. Sure, the running game hasn't been as consistent as desired, but UA has spent much of the season playing from behind and needing to pass the ball in order to play catch-up.

Keep An Eye On...

- Juron Criner is one touchdown reception shy of tying Theopolis "T" Bell's school record of 30 scores set from 1972-74.
- Foles is five passing touchdowns shy of matching Willie Tuitama's school record of 67 career TDs.
- Foles' is five passing touchdowns shy of matching Tuitama's single-season record of 28 passing touchdowns.
- Keola Antolin (24) is one rushing touchdown short of tying Trung Canidate for No. 4 all-time in school history. Antolin is three TDs short of matching Ronald Veal's No. 3 mark of 27.
- Antolin needs 69 more rushing yards to surpass Jim Upchurch (1972-74) for No. 9 on the all-time rushing chart.
- Juron Criner is 12 points shy of tying for No. 9 on school's all-time scoring list.
- Trevin Wade is one interception shy of matching three players with 13 interceptions for the No. 7 spot on the school charts.
- Wade needs two more pass breakups to match Chris McAlister and Kelvin Hunter for No. 9 in school history (27 career PBUs).

Career Tracker

Here's a quick look at where some notable Wildcats rank nationally among active career leaders in respective statistical categories.

- Juron Criner's 191 career receptions are 15th-most for active players.
- Juron Criner's 2,596 career receiving yards are 18th-most for active players.
- Juron Criner's 29 career receiving touchdowns are 5th-most for active players
- Nick Foles' 865 career pass completions are 5th-most for active players
- Nick Foles' 9,289 passing yards are 8th-most for active players
- Nick Foles' 62 passing touchdowns are 14th-most for active players
- Nick Foles' 66.5% career completion percentage is 9th-best for active players
- Nick Foles' 281.5 career passing yards per game is 6th-best for active players
- Nick Foles' 26.2 career completions per game is 4th-best for active players
- Nick Foles' 1,301 career pass attempts is 7th-most for active players
- Nick Foles' 773 pass completions are 7th-most for active players
- Nick Foles 39.4 pass attempts per game is 4th-most for active players
- Nick Foles' 8,644 total offense yards are 12th-most for active players
- Trevin Wade's 12 career interceptions are tied for fourth nationally for active players.
- Trevin Wade's 203 interception return yards are fifth-most for active players.

Spread the Wealth

How effectively has Nick Foles spread the ball around this season? Consider that 13 different targets have a reception. Nine players have at least 100 receiving yards, nine have a reception of 26 yards or longer and nine have a touchdown reception. Seven players have a reception of 40 yards or longer. Added together, the group averages 11.3 yards per reception. The headliner -- Juron Criner -- has 693 yards and eight touchdowns on the season. The supporting cast includes seniors Gino Crump (56-537), David Douglas (51-566) and David Roberts (36-358). It also includes junior Dan Buckner (39-577), sophomore Richard Morrison (20-190) and redshirt freshman Austin Hill (21-311). The aerial attack also includes backfield targets Ka'Deem Carey (11-156), Keola Antolin (17-120) and Taimi Tutogi (8-76), who all have receiving touchdowns on the season. Those are some pretty talented players that Foles has to work with, and he includes them all.

Tra'Riffic

One could make the case that true freshman Tra'Mayne Bondurant has been the team's defensive MVP since taking over a starting role four games ago against UCLA (Oct.20). Since then, Bondurant has registered 28 tackles, including three for loss, to go with a sack, two pass breakups and an interception. His 29-yard interception return for a touchdown was perhaps his best play, as his instincts allowed him to read the eyes of CU's quarterback and jump a quick hitch pattern over the middle. Sure, Bondurant has made some youthful mistakes, but his confidence and competitive nature make him a quick-learner and a guy who is ready to put the last play behind him and move on to the next.

Toughest Schedule

According to Jeff Sagarin's NCAA Football ratings, Arizona's schedule ranks as the toughest in the Pac-12 and the 12th-toughest in the nation to date. The Wildcats have played four teams currently ranked in the Associated Press Top 25, including No. 2 Oklahoma State, No. 4 Oregon, No. 8 Stanford and No. 18 USC. Those games were played in consecutive weeks from mid-September through early October. The Wildcats have since played three of its last five games on the road, going 1-4 with a home victory against UCLA on Oct. 20.

Banged Up Defense

It started in spring practices and has continued each week throughout the season: Arizona's defense cannot shake the injury bug. Starters Adam Hall (safety) and Jake Fischer (linebacker) tore ACLs in spring practices and are out for the season. Defensive tackle Willie Mobley, projected to be in the two-deep rotation at the interior spots, later tore an ACL in a non-football activity in May forcing his season to end before it ever began. Starting cornerback Jonathan McKnight tore an ACL right before the start of the season in August to end his season as well. Since then, Arizona has lost starts to starting defensive tackle Justin Washington (knee/foot), starting ends CJ Parish (ankle) and Mohammed Usman (ankle) and starting cornerback Shaquille Richardson (ankle). True freshman linebacker Hank Hobson, who started at USC, has also battled a knee injury in recent weeks. Corner Trevin Wade has battled injuries off and on as well, and was forced to miss last week's Colorado game. And of course there are the usual week-to-week nicks and dings that all players sustain. Added up, the Wildcats haven't had any luck putting a consistent lineup of players on defense all season long. In the end, some younger guys have gained some premature experience that may be a blessing in disguise for years to come under a new coaching regime.

Bonano On Target

Senior place kicker John Bonano, who took over the starting role just four games ago, has continued to bring a calming presence to the once inconsistent kicking game. Bonano has converted all 14 extra point kicks he has tried, after the Wildcats missed five of their first 18 tries. The Salinas, Calif., native is 6-for-7 on field goal tries, with his only miss coming on a 57-yard attempt last week at Colorado where a bad snap messed up the timing of the kick. All together, Bonano has scored 32 points for the Wildcats. Prior to taking over the place-kicking duties, Bonano was UA's kickoff specialist. Bonano is tied for ninth nationally with 21 touchbacks this season.

Two Good Ones

With the Wildcats officially not eligible for a bowl this year, it can definitively be stated that senior defensive backs Trevin Wade and Robert Golden are down to their final three games as Wildcats. Wade was an overlooked talent out of Round Rock, Texas, that earned a scholarship to play in the secondary under Mike and Mark Stoops despite being a "two-star" prospect by recruiting services and whatever skill, if any, they have in evaluation. Golden was a highly touted prospect out of Fresno, Calif., that played as a true freshman and has bounced from corner to safety to corner and back to safety in his days as a Wildcat. Golden has started 36 games and Wade has 35 to his credit (did not play at Colorado) in the defensive backfield and both are now senior team captains. Wade has 12 interceptions in his career, which ties for third-most actively in the nation and ranks No. 10 all-time at the school. Golden has four interceptions and four forced fumbles to his credit. Both have two interception returns for touchdowns and over 200 INT return yards each. With two games left, they can add to those numbers with a few more big plays.

Criner Climbing

Senior wide receiver Juron Criner has been etching his name into the Arizona career records for some time, but now he's quickly moving up some of the conference's all-time charts. Most notable are Criner's 29 receiving touchdowns, which put him No. 7 all-time in league history. One more scoring catch will give the 6-foot-4 target a share of No. 5 with Mario Bailey (Washington, 1988-91) and Mike Williams (USC, 2002-03). Two more grabs will equal Sean Dawkins (California, 1990-92) mark that ranks fourth, and three more will match Jason Hill (Washington State, 2003-06) and Ken Margerum (Stanford, 1977-80), who share second place. Dwayne Jarret (USC, 2004-06) is the league's all-time touchdown reception leaders. Criner is challenging for position on the chart with Washington's Jermaine Kearse, who has 28 scoring touchdowns entering this week's action. Criner ranks No. 31 all-time with 2,596 receiving yards and No. 20 with 191 career receptions. On the national scale, Criner's 29 receiving touchdowns rank fifth-most for active players, trailing only Oklahoma's Ryan Broyles (45), Notre Dame's Michael Floyd (35), Oklahoma State's Justin Blackmon (36) and Texas A&M's Jeff Fuller (32).

Recording the Records

Arizona's 2-8 record makes for various historical scenarios. The Cats surely will record the worst record since Mike Stoops' second Arizona team checked in at 3-8 in 2005. The Cats' last losing record was Stoops' 5-7 mark in 2007, followed by three bowl years. John Mackovic's 2-10 team in 2003 was the program's only double-digit losses mark in its full football history. A 4-8 mark would match Mackovic's 2002 Wildcats. A 3-9 mark would be an Arizona first. The Cats only have lost eight or more games five times -- the 1-8-1 club of 1957 under Ed Doherty, the 2002 (4-8) and 2003 (2-10) under Mackovic, and Stoops' 3-8 teams in 2004 and 2005.

Game 1

Northern Arizona 10
 Arizona..... 41

Sept. 3, 2011 // Tucson, Ariz. // Arizona Stadium (51,761)
 Start: 7:07 p.m. // TOG: 2:56 // Weather: 95 degrees, clear

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP) -- Nick Foles threw for 412 yards and had three of his five touchdown passes in third quarter, helping Arizona shake off a first-half funk to open the season with a 41-10 win over Northern Arizona Saturday night.

The Wildcats flew around the field while building a 14-0 lead in the first quarter, then went stagnant in the second, allowing the FCS Lumberjacks to get within four points.

Triggered by Trevin Wade's interception, Arizona pulled away in the third quarter on touchdown passes from Foles to Keola Antolin, Richard Morrison and Austin Hill.

Juron Criner also caught a TD pass, finishing with six catches for 151 yards. Foles was 34 for 42 passing.

Northern Arizona's Cary Grossart threw for 179 yards on 20 of 26 passing. Zach Bauman ran for 99 yards on 27 carries.

The Wildcats were hoping Northern Arizona would serve as a warmup for a schedule that's about to get real tough.

After the Lumberjacks, Arizona has a short turnaround for a road game against No. 9 Oklahoma State on Thursday. Two home dates follow: against No. 7 Stanford and Heisman Trophy favorite Andrew Luck on Sept. 17, then third-ranked Oregon on Sept. 24.

With plenty of new players, including the entire offensive line, the Wildcats needed this game to build some confidence -- for the inexperienced guys and the ones who suffered through the season-ending five-game losing streak in 2010.

Everyone looked good early against Northern Arizona.

Foles opened by hitting Criner on a 42-yard play-action pass, then floated in a 10-yard touchdown pass to him in the corner of the end zone two plays later.

Arizona kept rolling, Taimi Tutogi making it 14-0 in the closing seconds of the first quarter on a 5-yard TD run through a huge hole off right tackle.

Arizona's defense was good, too, swarming the Lumberjacks while holding them to 14 yards on 12 plays.

Rout on the way, right? Not quite.

Once the second quarter started, the offense sputtered, with the running game nonexistent -- five yards on six carries in the first half -- and Foles unable to find his receivers as readily.

Grossart started to find some seams going the other way, picking the Wildcats apart to go 16 of 17 for 145 yards in the first half.

Matt Myers hit a 28-yard field goal midway through the second quarter, and Grossart found Khalil Paden on a 12-yard touchdown pass in the closing seconds of the half, getting NAU within 14-10.

Arizona quickly moved into position for a field-goal attempt, thanks to a 42-yard up-for-grabs catch by Criner, but Jaime Salazar's 36-yard attempt was way right.

It wasn't too much of a surprise that Northern Arizona kept it close; the Lumberjacks were within a touchdown in the fourth quarter against Arizona State last season and had the Wildcats still in their sights at halftime the year before.

Arizona was still in a fog to open the second half, going three-and-out.

Wade's interception jolted the Wildcats back.

Stepping front of a receiver on NAU's second play, Wade made the pick at the 12-yard line, and Antolin scored on a swing pass the next play, bowling over a defender, tightroping the sideline then diving the final few yards to the pylon.

Morrison followed with a 24-yard touchdown reception from Foles across the middle, and Hill all but sealed it with his first career catch, a 24-yard TD that Arizona up 34-10.

Arizona's defense was just as dominant, holding Northern Arizona to 25 yards in the third quarter and no points in the second half.

Game 2

Arizona..... 14
 (9) Oklahoma State 37

Sept. 8, 2011 // Stillwater, Okla. // Boone Pickens (54,654)
 Start: 7:06 p.m. // TOG: 3:16 // Weather: 81 degrees, clear

STILLWATER, Okla. (AP) - Brandon Weeden connected with Justin Blackmon on two short touchdown tosses, Joseph Randle ran for two scores and No. 9 Oklahoma State used an early burst of offense to beat Arizona 37-14 on Thursday night in a rematch of last year's Alamo Bowl.

The Cowboys (2-0) scored on their first three drives to open a 21-0 lead in the first 16 1/2 minutes, then put it away with two scores midway through the second half.

Randle had 121 yards rushing and nine catches for 99 yards, and Blackmon had 128 yards on 12 receptions to extend his NCAA record streak to 14 straight games with at least 100 yards receiving.

Weeden finished with 397 yards passing, one less than Arizona's Nick Foles, in a duel between the nation's top two passers from the first week of the season.

The Wildcats (1-1) played without Juron Criner, who was the Pac-10's top receiver last season and tied the school record with 11 touchdown catches. He had an appendectomy on Monday, and it's unclear whether he'll be able to return in time for Arizona's home games the next two weeks against No. 6 Stanford and No. 12 Oregon.

But even with Criner out, Foles flung it around without many issues. Texas transfer Dan Buckner had 10 catches for 142 yards, including a 54-yarder for a touchdown, and Austin Hill had 128 yards on eight receptions.

The Wildcats' running game continued to struggle. Keola Antonin had just 22 yards on 13 carries, including a 1-yard touchdown run during a stretch when Arizona made five straight defensive stops to give itself a chance.

Oklahoma State flipped the field when punter Quinn Sharp took off for a 23-yard gain on a fake, and the Wildcats then got in their own way with a series of penalties that backed them up to their own 1-yard line before punting it back.

Weeden capitalized on the short field by feeding Blackmon on four straight plays, the last one a 3-yard fade pattern to the right side of the end zone. Randle highlighted the Cowboys' next drive by coming out of the backfield to catch a 63-yard flip over the middle and set up Jeremy Smith's 6-yard TD run that made it 34-7 early in the fourth quarter.

Buckner answered with his long TD on a stop-and-go down the right sideline against Devin Hedgepeth, but it was too little, too late for Arizona.

The Wildcats, who lost 36-10 in the Alamo Bowl to complete a five-game free fall at the end of last season, hadn't put up nearly enough resistance at the start and lost to OSU for the second time in nine months.

Weeden completed 19 of his first 20 passes as Oklahoma State charged down the field on scoring drives of 88, 80 and 70 yards. Randle had touchdown runs of 1 and 4 yards, and in between Weeden tossed a 3-yard fade pass that Blackmon caught over his shoulder before tapping his right foot in the corner of the end zone.

Weeden's first 13 passes were completed before he overshot Tracy Moore on a deep ball. He then reeled off nine more completions before finishing the first half with 240 yards on 28-for-32 passing.

Game 3

(6) Stanford 37

Arizona..... 10

Sept. 17, 2011 // Tucson, Ariz. // Arizona Stadium (49,636)

Start: 7:51 p.m. // TOG: 3:18 // Weather: 78 degrees, clear

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP) - Andrew Luck threw for 325 yards and had both of his touchdown passes in the second half, helping No. 6 Stanford pull away for a 37-10 victory over Arizona on Saturday night in the Pac-12 opener for both teams.

Stanford (3-0) struggled to find the end zone in the first half, then wore Arizona down in the second.

Luck picked the Wildcats apart on 20-of-31 passing, throwing touchdown passes to Zach Ertz in the third quarter and Levine Toilolo in the fourth. Stepfan Taylor added a career-high 153 yards rushing and Stanford had a balanced 567 yards to win its 11th straight game, the Cardinal's longest run since taking 13 straight from 1939-41.

Nick Foles threw for 239 yards and a touchdown, but couldn't overcome Arizona's anemic running game by himself. The Wildcats (1-2) had just 51 yards rushing on 23 carries in their sixth straight loss to an FBS team.

Stanford rolled through its first two games, outscoring San Jose State and Duke by a combined score of 101-17. Luck, not surprisingly, was the catalyst, throwing for 461 yards and six touchdowns with one interception.

Playing Arizona in the desert figured to be a stiffer challenge for the Cardinal.

The Wildcats have one of the nation's best quarterbacks in Foles, who, like Luck, figures to be a first-round NFL draft pick. The 6-foot-5 senior doesn't have the polish that Luck has, but is prolific, completing 76 percent of his passes for 810 yards and six touchdowns the first two games.

Arizona also sent Stanford home with a disappointing loss in its last trip to Tucson, scoring two touchdowns in the fourth quarter for a 43-38 comeback victory.

That was just two years ago, but it seems like forever with the direction these teams have headed since.

The Cardinal rolled over the Wildcats 42-17 last season behind Luck's 293 yards and two touchdowns. Luck may be even better this season and Arizona struggled against a good passer last week, allowing Oklahoma State's Brandon Weedon to pick it apart for 397 yards and two touchdowns in a 17-point loss.

The Wildcats also have been one-dimensional on offense, relying almost solely on Foles while the running game has averaged just 58 yards per game, 115th in the nation. Stanford was second nationally through the first two games, allowing 28.5 yards per game, so it was weakness against strength.

And, though it wasn't pretty at times, the game turned out about how you might think.

Arizona again had trouble running the ball - minus-6 yards on 10 carries in the first half - but Foles made up for it, completing his first 17 passes while throwing for 198 yards and a touchdown. The score went on a 6-yard pass to Juron Criner, who showed no ill effects from the appendectomy that kept him out of last week's game against Oklahoma State.

The Wildcats kept it close, but could have been closer: Jaime Salazar missed field goals to end the second quarter and start the third, making him 1-for-4 on the season after Arizona was haunted by missed kicks a year ago.

Stanford's kicking game worked just fine - Jordan Williamson hit from 20, 45 and 33 yards - but the Cardinal wanted touchdowns after getting so deep into Arizona's end. The only one Stanford got came late in the first quarter, when Anthony Wilkerson scored on a 24-yard run on a fourth-and-a-foot misdirection play.

Leading 16-10 after one half, Stanford stomped the Wildcats down in the second.

Luck hit tight end Ertz on a 16-yard touchdown pass in the third quarter, then had two choices to open the fourth quarter on a defensive breakdown by Arizona. He settled on Toilolo (he was deeper), who scored easily on a 34-yard pass to put the Cardinal up 30-10.

That's seven touchdowns to tight ends - out of nine - for Luck this season and 53 TDs overall, moving him one ahead of Jim Plunkett for third all-time in Stanford history.

Stanford closed it out with a drive that took nearly seven minutes, capped by Jeremy Stewart's 2-yard TD run.

Game 4

(10) Oregon 56
 Arizona..... 31

Sept. 24, 2011 // Tucson, Ariz. // Arizona Stadium (56,096)
 Start: 7:26 p.m. // TOG: 3:28 // Weather: 88 degrees, high clouds

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP) - LaMichael James kept zipping and zagging through the desert night, playing the Road Runner to Arizona's Wile E. Coyote.

By the time he had finished slashing his way through and around the Wildcats on Saturday night, he had a school record 288 yards. He also broke the Oregon mark for career rushing touchdowns with two scores to lead the No. 10 Ducks to a 56-31 victory over Arizona in their Pac-12 opener.

Oregon (3-1), the two-time defending Pac-10 champion, won its 13th consecutive conference game, blowing open a 35-3 lead and then holding off a Wildcats rally before pulling away again with its lightning-quick offense.

All but the last of the Ducks' seven touchdown drives lasted less than three minutes. Darron Thomas passed for two scores and ran for two more

Nick Foles completed 33 of 55 passes for 391 yards and three touchdowns for the Wildcats (1-3).

Arizona, playing its third consecutive top-10 team, has lost eight of nine dating to last year. The lone victory was this season's opener against Northern Arizona.

Oregon has the top-ranked offense in the Pac-12. Arizona's defense statistically is the worst. So the results from the opening kickoff were predictable.

James, who also had a 51-yard punt return, averaged 12.2 yards per carry in his second consecutive and fifth career 200-yard rushing game. He broke Oregon's single-game rushing record of 257 yards by Ontario Smith against Washington State in 2001.

With his touchdown runs of 12 and 19 yards, the speedy back has 43 scoring runs, breaking Derek Loville's school record of 42.

Oregon coach Chip Kelly said defenses have a tough time with the Ducks' triple running threat of James, Thomas and Kenjon Barner.

The Ducks amassed 516 yards, 415 on the ground.

With his team down 35-3, Foles led the Wildcats to three consecutive touchdowns. His 7-yard pass to David Roberts, and 2-point conversion toss to David Douglas, cut Oregon's lead to 35-24 with 3:14 to go in the third quarter. Kelly had seen Foles do this in previous encounters.

But the Ducks simply zipped to another score. James had a 31-yard run, and Thomas went the final 5 yards for the touchdown.

Foles got Arizona to the Oregon 6 on the subsequent kickoff, but the drive stalled. On fourth down he was sacked.

The Ducks reeled off five of their trademark lightning-fast touchdown drives, in six possessions, to open a 35-9 lead at the half.

James led the way, rushing for 133 yards in 11 carries in the first two quarters.

Oregon's first-half TD drives went 2:42 (8 plays, 80 yards), 2:19 (10 plays, 72 yards), 2:06 (8 plays, 80 yards), 2:02 (6 plays, 55 yards) and 1:37 (4 plays, 28 yards).

The Ducks amassed 300 yards in the first two quarters, 214 on the ground. Barner also ran for a pair of scores.

Of the Ducks' 28 touchdown drives this season, 22 have taken less than three minutes. Another went 3:01.

The stadium was almost full, and the student section was packed at kickoff, but about half of the students and a good share of the rest of the crowd was gone by halftime.

Foles' performance included a left-handed toss as he was being swarmed on the sideline - 11 yards to Keola Antolin and a first down at the Oregon 34 as the third quarter ended.

Game 5

Arizona..... 41
 USC 48

Oct. 1, 2011 // Los Angeles // L.A. Memorial Coliseum (63,707)
 Start: 12:41 p.m. // TOG: 3:07 // Weather: Sunny, 85 degrees

LOS ANGELES (AP) -- Matt Barkley passed for a school-record 468 yards and four touchdowns, Robert Woods made 14 catches for 255 yards and two scores, and Southern California outlasted Arizona 48-41 Saturday.

Freshmen Marqise Lee and Xavier Grimble caught TD passes from Barkley, who also rushed for a score while breaking Carson Palmer's 2002 yardage record with a blistering performance against Arizona's maligned defense.

The Trojans (4-1, 2-1 Pac-12) needed almost every yard against Arizona's Nick Foles, who passed for 425 yards and four TDs of his own. USC outgained Arizona 582-554 in a game largely devoid of defense.

Ka'Deem Carey rushed for two touchdowns and caught another scoring pass for the Wildcats (1-4, 0-3), who haven't beaten an FBS opponent in nearly a year.

Barkley went 32 for 39 with one interception, bouncing back from a rough start at Arizona State last week with another landmark game. After setting the USC record for single-game completions in the season opener, the junior has thrown nine TD passes in his last two home games.

Woods is having the most prolific season by a receiver in USC's long history through five games, starting off this chapter with an 82-yard score on the Trojans' second play.

The speedy sophomore, who set the USC mark with 17 catches in that season-opening win over Minnesota, fell 5 yards short of R. Jay Soward's 260-yard school record when Arizona held him to one catch for 2 yards in the fourth quarter.

Keola Antolin rushed for 87 yards for Arizona, which has lost four straight despite its prolific offense. Star receiver Juron Criner was limited to three catches for 29 yards and a touchdown.

Foles went 41 for 53, but threw two drive-killing interceptions to T.J. McDonald in the first half that allowed USC to pull away with a 27-12 halftime lead. The Trojans stayed ahead throughout the second half to stay unbeaten in four home games this season, repeatedly covering up for defensive struggles with offensive brilliance.

Woods took charge from USC's second play, catching a short pass from Barkley and splitting two defenders before outrunning the entire Arizona secondary down the sideline for a score. Lee caught a wide-open 38-yard TD pass from Barkley late in the first quarter when Arizona's entire defense appeared to focus on Woods, and Grimble caught a 7-yard scoring strike midway through the second quarter.

Arizona's spread offense also moved the ball easily against USC, punting just once in the first three quarters -- but Foles' mistakes put the Wildcats in a huge hole. Foles' first interception of the season killed the Wildcats' second drive in USC territory, and Foles badly overthrew David Douglas in the Trojans' end on the next drive.

McDonald, the hard-hitting safety, made both interceptions for the Trojans, who had just one interception in their first four games.

Woods caught a 28-yard TD pass down the middle just 2:03 into the third quarter, putting the Trojans up 34-12. But Foles kept the Wildcats moving for back-to-back touchdowns in the third quarter, bookending Barkley's only turnover.

After Curtis McNeal rushed for a 9-yard score with 9:28 to play to put the Trojans up by 14 points, USC turned the ball over on downs at midfield in the closing minutes. Austin Hill caught a 4-yard TD pass from Foles with 1 minute to play, but McDonald recovered an onside kick to seal it.

USC has won nine of its last 10 meetings with the Wildcats, who won in their last visit to the Coliseum two years ago.

Arizona..... 27
 Oregon State 37

Oct. 8, 2011 // Corvallis, Ore. // Reser Stadium (40,403)
 Start: 12:40 p.m. // TOG: 3:14 // Weather: 59 degrees, partly cloudy

CORVALLIS, Ore. -- Sean Mannion threw for 267 yards and two touchdowns and Oregon State defeated the mistake-prone Arizona Wildcats 37-27 on Saturday for the Beavers' first victory of the season.

Quarterback Nick Foles was intercepted twice and the Wildcats (1-5, 0-3 Pac-12) lost two fumbles in their fifth straight loss overall and eighth straight conference loss.

Oregon State (1-4, 1-2) led 27-6 at halftime and nearly squandered it but held on to snap a six-game losing streak dating to last season.

With only a narrow 30-27 lead and 5:22 left, Oregon State went for it on fourth-and-2 -- succeeding when Mannion hit diving tight end Joe Halahuni for the touchdown.

The Beavers made a crucial stand on the other end when the Wildcats also took a chance on fourth down with two yards to go, and Dan Buckner couldn't catch Foles' pass in the end zone.

Foles completed 31 of 45 passes for 378 yards and a touchdown to Buckner, who caught eight passes for 144 yards.

Mannion, a redshirt freshman who didn't become the Beavers' official starter until the third game of the season, completed 32 of 41 passes.

The Wildcats were hurt early after starting wide receiver Juron Criner left with what appeared to be a right knee injury. Criner, ranked second in career touchdown catches for the Wildcats, has three this season.

The Beavers went up on Jovan Stevenson's 1-yard touchdown run, then extended it in the second quarter when Clayton York blocked an Arizona punt and ran the ball back for a score.

Arizona answered with Foles' 28-yard TD pass to Buckner, but Alex Zendejas' extra-point attempt was wide left to make it 14-6.

The Beavers pulled off a fake punt to keep alive a drive that ended with Trevor Romaine's 37-yard field goal. On Arizona's ensuing drive, Foles' arm was hit and he was intercepted by Michael Doctor and the Beavers capitalized with Mannion's 3-yard scoring pass to Halahuni.

The Wildcats had one more chance in the first half, but fumbled and gave the ball back to the Beavers, who got a 40-yard field goal from Romaine.

Arizona running back Daniel Jenkins fumbled on Arizona's first drive of the second half and Beavers safety Lance Mitchell recovered, before the Beavers went up 30-6 on Romaine's 20-yard field goal.

The Wildcats had a scary moment midway through the third quarter when Foles was hit hard and stayed prone on the field for several moments while trainers attended to him. After he made his way to the sidelines, Keola Antolin ran 13 yards for a score. Foles came back and completed the two-point conversion pass to David Douglas.

The Wildcats' rally continued when Mannion was intercepted by Shaquille Richardson, who ran it back 20 yards for a touchdown. This time the two-point try failed, but Arizona was back in it at 30-20.

Oregon State missed a chance to extend its lead when James Rodgers' catch in the end zone was called back by a penalty and Romaine's 42-yard field goal attempt at the end of the third quarter went wide left.

Arizona pulled to within 30-27 early in the fourth quarter on Ka'Deem Carey's 1-yards scoring run.

The Wildcats have struggled this season with a brutal schedule, with losses to top-10 teams Oklahoma State, Stanford and Oregon, as well as their 48-41 loss last weekend at USC.

The Beavers were off to their worst start since 1996. After a season-opening overtime loss to lower-division Sacramento State, Oregon State dropped games to Wisconsin, UCLA and Arizona State.

Last season, Foles threw for 440 yards and three touchdowns against the Beavers, but Oregon State pulled out a 29-27 upset over the then-No. 9 Wildcats. Rodgers went down with a knee injury in that game that would require two surgeries and keep him out until the Beavers' third game this season.

Game 7

UCLA 12
Arizona..... 48

Oct. 20, 2011 // Tucson, Ariz. // Arizona Stadium (46,565)
 Start: 6:02 p.m. // TOG: 3:42 // Weather: Clear, 80 degrees

TUCSON, Ariz. -- Tim Kish has had a simple message for his players since taking over for Mike Stoops: Have fun.

The Wildcats did just that with an emotional victory that was marred by a wild brawl, giving their interim coach a victory in his first game while sending UCLA's coach possibly closer to losing his job.

Dusting off an aggressive defensive scheme and relying on a recharged running game to complement Nick Foles' passing, Arizona ran over the Bruins 48-12 Thursday night.

Foles threw for 291 yards and connected with Juron Criner for three touchdown passes. That wasn't much of a surprise considering the way Arizona (2-5, 1-4 Pac-12) has piled up yards through the air.

The running game, dormant all season, came to life behind huge holes created by the much-maligned offensive line, churning out 254 of Arizona's season-high 573 yards and three touchdowns -- two by Taimi Tutogi.

The defense, another sore spot under Stoops, was just as good behind a throwback scheme called the "Double Eagle Flex," an aggressive front designed to clog up lanes against good running teams.

The combination allowed the Wildcats to build a 35-point halftime lead and cruise to an emotional victory, ending a five-game losing streak that had cost Stoops his job on Oct. 10.

The Bruins (3-4, 2-2) couldn't withstand the emotion of a team playing under a new coach and may have put theirs in jeopardy with a lackluster effort. On the hot seat before the season started, Rick Neuheisel may have taken big blow with a loss that puts a serious dent in UCLA's bowl chances.

Within a half-game of Arizona State and USC in the Pac-12 South heading into the game, the Bruins came out flat against Arizona in front of a national TV audience, which likely won't go over well back in Southern California.

One of the nation's best rushing teams, UCLA had 37 yards on 25 carries against a team that was 100th in the nation at 196 yards per game. Kevin Prince was mostly ineffective in his return to the starting lineup, hitting 17 of 35 passes for 286 yards and a touchdown.

The Bruins also lost a pair of fumbles in the first half and the defense had no chance at stopping the Wildcats -- ground or air -- as the game quickly got out of hand.

Frustration boiled over in the closing seconds of the first half, when a wild brawl spread about 60 yards across the field after a streaker dressed like an official ran onto the field.

Players pushed and shoved, a few wild punches were thrown and two players were ejected: Arizona defensive back Shaquille Richardson and UCLA receiver Taylor Embree.

The streaker? He got down to his underwear before a security person made a crushing tackle -- one as good as any UCLA made in the entire first half.

One of Kish's main goals was to make football fun again for the Wildcats, who had lost 10 straight games against FBS opponents and eight straight in conference.

They certainly enjoyed themselves against UCLA, getting touchdowns on all six of their first-half drives while scoring 42 points, their most in a half in Pac-10/Pac-12 play and more than any of their previous six games.

Keola Antolin ran for 77 yards on just eight carries, freshman Ka'Deem Carey had an 18-yard TD run and Criner finished with 10 catches for 101 yards to give Arizona its first win over an FBS opponent since beating UCLA 29-21 last Oct. 30 in Pasadena.

Neuheisel was concerned about Arizona's passing game and rightly so after Foles had thrown for more than 2,200 yards and 15 touchdowns the first six games.

Foles did what he expected, hitting 26 of 39 passes while connecting with Criner on TD passes of 4, 7 and 25 yards in the first half.

What Neuheisel didn't anticipate was getting run over by the Wildcats.

One of the nation's worst rushing teams, Arizona carved out huge holes in UCLA's defense that Antolin, Tutogi and Carey had no trouble racing through. The Wildcats surpassed their season average of 71.8 yards per game after one quarter and had 174 by halftime.

Arizona also had been plagued by slow starts, left scrambling after being outscored 41-3 in the first quarter in its previous five losses.

No such problem this time.

Foles hit Criner on a 4-yard TD pass on the Wildcats' opening drive. Carey followed with a juking, dive-for-the-ylon score from 18 yards out.

Criner added his second touchdown by snatching the ball away from UCLA's Aaron Hester early in the second quarter. UCLA fumbled, Tutogi scored on a 1-yard dive, then Foles and Criner connected again, this time from 25 yards.

Game 8

Arizona..... 31
 Washington..... 42

Oct. 29, 2011 // Seattle, Wash. // Husky Stadium (59,825)
 Start: 7:41 p.m. // TOG: 3:20 // Weather: 52 degrees, Mostly Cloudy

SEATTLE, Wash. -- Chris Polk scored five touchdowns and became the first player in Washington history with 100 yards rushing and receiving in a game as the Huskies rallied for a 42-31 over Arizona on Saturday night.

Washington (6-2, 4-1 Pac-12) withstood another crazy play in the series with the Wildcats - a bobbled pass that was intercepted and returned 91 yards for a touchdown by Robert Golden - and another night of shoddy defense to become bowl eligible for the second straight season.

Polk finished with 144 yards rushing on 34 carries and 100 yards receiving. He scored on touchdown runs of 1, 1, 5 and 2 yards and had a 17-yard TD reception from Keith Price. Polk's 5-yard scamper with 8:21 left gave Washington the lead, and he pushed the advantage to 11 with 3:59 left when he high-stepped in from the 2.

Nick Foles threw for 388 yards for the Wildcats (2-6, 1-5) but couldn't do enough to counter Polk's monster night. Foles finished 32 of 50 passing, and receiver Juron Criner had 11 catches for 118 yards and touchdowns of 24 and 9 yards.

But any Arizona rally and hope of a second straight win under interim coach Tim Kish was dashed when Sean Parker picked off Foles at the Washington 20 with 2:10 left. Foles was intercepted for a third time with 29 seconds left by Washington's Cort Dennison.

Following Polk's third rushing TD to put the Huskies up 35-31, Foles led the Wildcats to midfield, but on a quick screen, Criner was stripped by Washington's Will Shamburger, and freshman linebacker Princeton Fuimaono recovered. Price then hit Jermaine Kearse for 24 yards, Polk sprinted for 14, and the Huskies were back on the Wildcats' doorstep. On third-and-1 at the Arizona 3, Polk squeezed for the needed yard, then scored on the next play.

Polk set a new school record with his 18th career 100-yard rushing game and topped 1,000 yards for the season.

Kearse ran for a 6-yard touchdown in the first quarter on a lateral pass from Price.

It wasn't the sharpest night for Price, who didn't get much help from his receivers at times. Price was 16 of 30 for 277 yards and a TD. He threw a career-high three interceptions, but one came when the receiver slipped and another on one more strange bounce in this series.

After a 43-yard pass to Polk, Washington was on the cusp of taking a two-touchdown lead early in the third quarter. Price threw for James Johnson, who stumbled and never gained full control of the pass. The ball deflected out of his hands and into the arms of Golden. He wove through Washington's offensive personnel for a 91-yard interception return for a touchdown.

The wacky play rivaled Mason Foster's game-winning interception return for Washington two years ago in a 36-33 win over the Wildcats that bounced off the foot of an Arizona receiver and into Foster's arms.

Washington answered with Polk's second touchdown run, but Arizona ran off the next 10 points and led 31-28 going to the fourth quarter.

Washington got the big play it needed when freshman Kasen Williams took a quick post from Price, bounced off one tackle and carried another defender for a 48-yard gain to the Arizona 21 with less than 10 minutes remaining. After a 26-yard pass to Kevin Smith got the Huskies to the Arizona 5, Polk walked in to give the Huskies a 35-31 lead with 8:21 left.

Arizona still carved up Washington's struggling defense for 424 total yards a week after the Huskies surrendered 615 yards to No. 4 Stanford. At one point in the first quarter, the Wildcats had 132 total yards to Washington's minus-10.

But Arizona twice settled for first-half field goals when touchdowns were needed.

Game 9

Utah..... 34

Arizona..... 21

Nov. 5, 2011 // Tucson, Ariz. // Arizona Stadium (50,839)
Start: 4:05 p.m. // TOG: 3:00 // Weather: 59 degrees, high clouds

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP) - John Hays threw for 199 yards and a pair of touchdowns, and Utah's defense hounded Arizona quarterback Nick Foles into a pair of big mistakes en route to a 34-21 win over the Wildcats on Saturday.

Utah (5-4, 2-4 Pac-12) had another solid defensive game, hitting Foles early and often to set up two interceptions.

Hays continued to build confidence after his solid start against Oregon State last week, connecting on 12 of 21 passes. John White added 109 yards and a pair of touchdowns on the ground, moving Utah within a game of becoming bowl eligible for the ninth straight season.

Needing to win its final four games to become bowl eligible, Arizona (2-7, 1-6) fell flat.

The Wildcats had trouble protecting Foles and had some ugly miscues on special teams in the first half, including two blocked punts and a badly botched fake field goal.

Foles hit 25 of 43 passes for 326 yards and had a pair of touchdown passes to David Douglas, but threw two interceptions, including one in the end zone with the Wildcats on Utah's 2-yard line in the fourth quarter. Douglas finished with 10 catches for a career-high 156 yards.

The game figured to be a clash of strengths. Arizona has one of the nation's best passing offenses behind Foles, the nation's leader with over 32 completions per game.

Utah, despite its struggles in the Pac-12, has the nation's 22nd-ranked defense, allowing just over 325 yards per game, and is second in the conference in defensive scoring.

The advantage went to the Utes.

Utah pressured Foles relentlessly, sacking him twice in the first half while forcing him to make numerous throws on the run or with someone in his face throughout the game.

The Utes forced an interception in the second quarter by getting to Foles, who threw off-balance and Utah linebacker Matt Martinez made a diving grab at Arizona's 30-yard line. White scored four plays later on an 18-yard run off of the left tackle to put Utah up 17-0.

Utah had sustained success on special teams, too, breaking through to block two punts in the first half.

Greg Bird got to Kyle Dugandzic's first punt of the game, setting up a 32-yard field goal by Coleman Peterson. He missed from 42 yards after another partially-blocked punt in the second quarter.

Utah's offense wasn't bad, either.

Arizona stacked the box to stop the run early in the game and Utah made them pay for it, using play-action to spring DeVonte Christopher for a 65-yard touchdown pass from Hays that put the Utes up 10-0 on the second play of the second quarter.

Hays also opened the second half with a 44-yard touchdown pass to Reggie Dunn after Arizona cornerback Lyle Brown slipped, putting the Utes up 27-7.

Arizona's offense struggled before finally showing some life late in the second quarter, moving 73 yards in seven plays to set up Douglas' acrobatic 23-yard touchdown catch from Foles. Douglas made the catch over his shoulder while diving and barely got his foot in for the highlight-worthy score.

Foles hit Douglas again late in the third quarter, throwing on the run for a 42-yard touchdown that cut Utah's lead to 27-14.

Foles again had the Wildcats driving midway through the fourth quarter, but his lazy fade pass in the end zone from the 2-yard line was picked off by Utah's Conroy Black, who returned it across midfield. White followed with an 11-yard score to put the game out of reach.

Game 10

Arizona..... 29
 Colorado..... 48

Nov. 12, 2011 // Boulder, Colo. // Folsom Field (48,111)
 Start: 12:41 p.m. // TOG: 3:22 // Weather: 57 degrees, Gusty Winds

BOULDER, Colo. -- Rodney Stewart ran for 181 yards and three touchdowns and threw for another, helping Colorado avoid its first winless season at 87-year Folsom Field with a 48-29 win over Arizona Saturday.

Tyler Hansen threw two TD passes and hauled in Stewart's touchdown toss on a flea-flicker as the Buffaloes (2-9) recorded their first Pac-12 win after six losses in their new league since bolting the Big 12 last year.

The Wildcats (2-8, 1-7) came in as double-digit favorites but fell behind quickly and their comeback attempt wasn't helped by the sustained 45 mph winds that gusted to 71 mph in the fourth quarter.

Arizona's Nick Foles was 35 for 53 for 352 yards, but he had three interceptions and lost a fumble to go with his one touchdown.

The Wildcats trailed by 24 in the third quarter but cut their deficit to 34-23. Linebacker Tra'Mayne Bondurant returned an interception 29 yards for a touchdown and then Foles completed all six of his passes for 68 yards on an 88-yard drive that ended with his 11-yard strike to David Douglas. However, Douglas couldn't hold onto the 2-point conversion pass.

The Buffaloes went 80 yards in six plays with Stewart taking the handoff and scoring from 11 yards out to make it 41-23, then the Wildcats scored again on Ka'Deem Carey's second rushing touchdown, and again the 2-point conversion pass fell incomplete.

After the Cats recovered the onside kick, Jason Espinoza's interception at midfield led to Stewart's fourth touchdown, a 9-yard scamper.

The Buffaloes benefited from a couple of questionable calls on two TD drives as they built a 34-10 lead, their biggest of the season.

Arizona punter Kyle Dugandzic fielded a low snap from Josh Elias and trapped the ball on the grass. The officials ruled that before he recovered and got the punt off, his knee also touched the turf, downing the ball at the Wildcats 38. Although television replays showed his knee never touched, the play wasn't overruled.

Three snaps later, tailback Josh Ford burst through the middle for a 29-yard score that put the Buffs ahead 20-10 at the half.

Colorado took the second-half kickoff and Hansen didn't slide after a 19-yard scramble and was hit by cornerback Shaquille Richardson, who was whistled for a personal foul, tacking on 15 yards. That led to Hansen's 15-yard TD toss to a diving Toney Clemons for a 27-10 lead.

On their next possession, Hansen tossed the ball Stewart, then flared out into the left flat to haul in a 14-yard flea-flicker touchdown throw from his tailback for his first career catch and a 34-10 lead.

Stewart's only other career pass attempt, last season, also went for a touchdown.

High winds ahead of a winter storm wreaked havoc, especially in the kicking game, but also in the passing game, causing some throws to sail and others to sink. The goal post in the north end zone whipsawed much of the day and there were constant swirls of trash tumbling across the field, along with a couple of marching band members' black hats.

Before the game, tents were prohibited from tailgating parties and some events with bounce houses and other inflatables were scrubbed. Even the kicking tee was tipped over by the winds during warm-ups.

Wide receiver Keenan Canty turned a short catch into a 39-yard gain on Colorado's first drive, setting up Stewart's 5-yard TD run.

After John Bonano's 25-yard field goal, Hansen hooked up with freshman tailback Tony Jones for a 5-yard TD two plays after his errant pitch to Jones resulted in a 13-yard loss. Will Oliver's extra point sailed wide left, his first miss in 23 tries.
