Arizona-Washington Series History

All-Time Series: Washington leads, 18-9-1

First Meeting: Oct. 4, 1978 (Washington 31, Arizona 21 at Seattle, Wash.)

Last Meeting: Oct. 29, 2011 (Washington 42, Arizona 31 at Seattle, Wash.)

Some Game Themes: It's Family Weekend on the UA campus where a pair of 3-3 clubs with strikingly similar résumés try to snap unsavory losing streaks and spark a second-half surge after hitting the mid-point in their respective schedules ... Both sides have faced the daunting task of playing three-straight ranked opponents and four total over their first six games ... The Wildcats hope their one and only bye week presented some key players the necessary time to get healthy, rested and hungry ... The Huskies trek south for what will be the first of four road games over their final six contests ... Home teams have rewarded their crowds with a victory in each of the last four meetings, with UA claiming the last road victory in the series back in 2007 ... The stare-at-the-stats difference between the two teams is clear: UA has relied on its prolific offense to move the ball with ease and faces a stingy UW defense that has made up for a lackluster offensive unit that has yet to top 21 points against an FBS opponent ... A deeper look into the stats uncovers some interesting strategic dilemmas: Can UA's defense, ranked 107th nationally in sacks, pressure quarterback Keith Price and the Huskies who rank 100th nationally in sacks allowed? Can Arizona, which leads the Pac-12 in passing offense, establish the run game against what ranks as the league's worst rush defense? And can Price, who passed for 277 yards and a pair of touchdowns against the Cats last year, again find success through the air against the UA pass defense which is surrendering nearly 300 yards per game? ... Arizona's offensive playmakers Matt Scott, Ka'Deem Carey and Austin Hill set out to continue their stellar seasons as some notable single season top-10 charts may come within reach in the coming weeks ... The Wildcats' final crack at a north division foe before gearing up for a five-week stretch against Pac-12 South rivals to close the regular season.

The Coaches: Arizona – Rich Rodriguez (West Virginia '86), first year at Arizona (3-3) and 18th as a head coach overall (123-87-2). Rodriguez was introduced as the 30th head coach of the UA football program on Nov. 22, 2011. He carries Division I records of 3-3 at Arizona, 60-26 at West Virginia (2001-2007) and 15-22 at Michigan (2008-10). He began his head coaching career at Salem (W.Va.) University in 1988 and then coached at Glenville State (W.Va.) from 1990-96. Rodriguez's West Virginia teams were Big East Champions in 2003, 2004, 2005 and 2007 while appearing in two BCS bowls, the 2005 Sugar Bowl with a victory over Georgia for an 11-1 record and a victory over Oklahoma in the 2007 Fiesta Bowl to finish 10-2 shortly after Rodriguez had left for Michigan. Washington – Steve Sarkisian (BYU '97), fourth year at Washington (22-22) and fourth year overall as a head coach. A former WAC Offensive Player of the Year ('96) as a quarterback, he started his coaching career mentoring the position at El Camino College in 2000, and then spent three and four seasons at USC sandwiched around a QB coach job for the Oakland Raiders in 2004. His last two seasons in Los Angeles (2007-08) were as offensive coordinator. He's been on that side of the ball throughout his coaching career. He is 2-1 against Arizona with both victories in Seattle, and has guided UW to two consecutive bowl berths.

Last Week: Arizona enjoyed its much-welcomed bye week, which came at the midpoint of the 12-game regular season, and utilized the extra days to refocus on the fundamentals all while trying to get healthy for the stretch run of conference play. The Cats last played on Oct. 6, dropping an overtime contest, 54-48, at then-No. 18 Stanford. It was the third-straight week – and fourth in five weeks – that UA went toe-to-toe with a nationally ranked foe, a brutal stretch that left the Cats 3-3 after six matchups. Against the Cardinal, Matt Scott passed for the third-most yards in school history (491) and set school and Pac-12 Conference records with 45 completions on 69 attempts, including an astonishing 35 throws in the second quarter alone and 41 in the opening half. Austin Hill was the primary benefactor of the passing frenzy, grabbing a career-high 11 passes for another career high of 165 yards and two touchdowns. While not balanced, UA also got productivity out of its rushing game as Ka'Deem Carey went for 132 yards and three touchdowns against what had been the league's top-ranked rushing defense. The offensive production – 617 total yards – was impressive against a stout defense, especially considering the Cats were without stalwarts Trace Biskin and Kyle Quinn along the O-line. In the end, the Wildcats could neither hold on nor outscore the Cardinal. Stanford trailed by 14 points in the fourth quarter before scoring touchdowns on its final three possessions. QB Josh Nunes' 1-yard run with 6:34 remaining sparked the comeback, before the SU defense forced a rare three-and-out for the Cats' offense. Nunes then led the Cardinal back down the field on the ensuing drive, converting a pair of fourth downs, before the signal caller punched in a 3-yard run for the tying score after Jordan Williamson's extra point was good with 45 seconds left. Arizona's only turnover in a school and conference-record 103 plays came on its last play, when a Scott pass was deflected and intercepted by Chase Thomas on UA's opening possession of overtime. Then the Cardinal put an exclamation mark on a fine comeback with Stepfan Taylor's 21-yard game-winning touchdown on the second play of SU's overtime possession.

2011 Arizona at Washington (Full box score/recap on page 7 of this release): Arizona jumped to a 10-point lead at the onset but couldn't stop Washington from scoring 14 in a five-minute span in the fourth quarter to beat the Cats, 42-31, in a hard-fought battle in Seattle last October. The Cats had the lead, 31-28, and the ball after Trevin Wade's 12th career interception with a dozen minutes left, but UW held the Cats to a 3-and-out, and then drove 81 yards for the go-ahead points. On the next possession, receiver Juron Criner fumbled a potential first down catch and the Huskies drove 50 yards for the insurance points. It was not exactly a defensive game, with 900 total yards, but each team had three interceptions, including UA's Robert Golden taking a tipped ball back 91 yards for a score to knot the game at 21-all in the third period. Marquis Flowers added the Cats' third pick. Nick Foles, who threw for 388 yards and a pair of scores to Criner, was intercepted in Washington territory twice and in desperation mode near the end in UA's half of the field. The Huskies were led by running back Chris Polk, who finished with 144 yards and four rushing TDs, plus added 100 yards and a score on four receptions for a 244-yard all-purpose evening. Arizona's John Bonano, fresh off his first game as the kicker, socked three field goals including one of 47 yards, but two of those were part of the problem for UA -- points left in the red zone. The Cats had three red zone trips and got 13 points thereby. Washington had six red zone penetrations and scored six touchdowns. UA's rough night on third down -- 3-for-11 -- hurt, as did UW's whopping 10 yards per pass attempt and 18 yards per completion on a nice night from Keith Price. Criner turned in 11 catches for 118 yards. UA had a season-low 36 rushing yards on a season-low 19 tries and the single dimension helped Washington counter the Cats' moves. UA lost on the road for the fourth time in as many tries and fell to 1-5 in league play.

Mirror Images: The opponents may be different, but Arizona and Washington have played strikingly similar schedules and, not coincidentally, each sports a 3-3 record. Both schools have played four of their six games against ranked opponents (at the time of the game), with each side going 1-3 in those contests. The Wildcats defeated No. 18 Oklahoma State on Sept. 8, while the Huskies knocked off No. 8 Stanford on Sept. 27. Arizona dropped showdowns at then-No. 3 Oregon (49-0), vs. then-No. 18 Oregon State (38-35) and at then-No. 18 Stanford (54-48, OT). Meanwhile, Washington came up short at then-No. 2 LSU (41-3), at then-No. 2 Oregon (52-21) and vs. then-No. 11 USC (24-14). The combined record of Arizona's five FBS opponents to date is 24-5, with the teams that beat the Wildcats going 15-2 overall. Washington's five FBS opponents have a combined mark of 25-7, with the teams that beat the Dawgs posting a 17-2 record.

Ready For Red? A key this week just might be success in the red zone, an area that both Arizona and Washington have struggled in at times this season. In fact, the Wildcats are scoring at a 70 percent clip, which ranks in the bottom third of the Pac-12. Arizona has scored touchdowns on just 55 percent of its red zone trips (22-of-40). Meanwhile, Washington has scored at a 72-percent rate in the red zone, but has just a 61 percent clip for red zone touchdowns (11-of-18). Defensively, Arizona is allowing opponents to score at a 92 percent rate, while the Huskies' opponents are scoring at an 81 percent mark in the red zone. However, UW allows red zone touchdowns just 52 percent (11-21) of the time, while UA does so at a 75 percent clip (18-24).

Tracking The Cats (see page 11 of this release for top-10 charts): While understanding we're only halfway through the season and there is plenty of football still to be played, the midpoint of the regular season offers a good reference point for taking a peak at some potential season totals. Simply doubling the current statistics will yield some numbers to ponder in the coming weeks to see if the Cats can keep up their current pace through season's end. For instance: will 3,308 offensive yards become 6,616, nearly 1,000 more than the current school record (5,712 in 2010)? Also interesting to note is that Ka'Deem Carey is already tied for the fifth-most rushing touchdowns in a season at the school, while Matt Scott, who has three of the top-nine single game total offense outputs, is less than 300 yards away from cracking the single season top-10 for passing yards. Both players have chart-climbing potential in several categories and could challenge school records if their current numbers continue with healthy and productive second halves of the season.

Records Recap: Arizona's heart-breaking 54-48 overtime loss at Stanford on Oct. 6 included some record-breaking numbers. Here's a look at some of the notable feats:

- Matt Scott set Arizona and Pac-12 Conference records for pass attempts (69) and pass completions (45). Former UA quarterback Willie Tuitama (2005-08) previously held the top school and conference marks with 61 throws and 42 completions, set at California on Sept. 27, 2007.
- Matt Scott set an Arizona record and tied the top mark in conference history with 74 total offensive plays. The Pac-12 record was previously established by Oregon's Danny O'Neil in the 1995 Rose Bowl and by Washington State's Drew Bledsoe in 1992.
- Arizona set a new Pac-12 record for total offensive plays (103). The previous mark of 102 plays was set by Oregon in 2011, California in 1968 and matched by the Wildcats earlier this year against S.C. State.
- Arizona broke its school record for most offensive yards gained in a conference game (617). The Cats topped their previous high of 595 racked up against California in 1996.
- Arizona and Stanford combined for 65 first downs, breaking UA's school record for combined first downs (63) set last year at USC.
- Arizona tied its own school record and the Pac-12 mark for team passing first downs in a game. The Wildcats had 25 against the Cardinal, which matched UA's total at USC a year ago. Arizona State also had 25 in a game against Washington State in 1989 to set the initial conference record.

Matt's The Man: Quarterback Matt Scott, who redshirted in 2011, is putting together a stellar senior season, if statistics are any indication. The Corona, Calif., native entered 2012 with five previous career starts and is now a 11-game starter (7-4 record) as a Wildcat. He possesses a complete repertoire of skills at the quarterback position, including ability to make all the throws on the field and hurt defenses with his legs. Here's a look at his career statistics:

Year	Rushing			Comp	Passing			INT	Comp Pct.	Tot. Off.	GP	GS
	Rush	Yards	TD		Att	Yards	TD
2008	23	188	2	7	11	84	1	0	63.6%	272	6	0
2009	41	309	0	41	73	441	1	3	56.2%	750	9	3
2010	35	135	0	66	93	776	4	2	71.0%	911	7	2
2012	57	222	2	186	289	2,099	13	7	64.4%	2,321	6	6
TOTALS	156	854	4	300	466	3,400	19	12	64.4%	4,254	28	11

Slow Starts: Arizona would like nothing more than to get off to a fast start against Washington this week. It's something the Wildcats have failed to do seemingly all season. In fact, the Wildcats have scored just 20 of their 222 total points and are being outscored 35-20 in the first quarters of games this season. Arizona has not scored in the opening quarter of its three Pac-12 games. Meanwhile, Washington has scored 41 of its 128 total points in the first quarter of games. However, Husky opponents have also enjoyed some early success, scoring 48 points in the opening quarter.

Pass-A-Palooza: Matt Scott and the Arizona offense continue to put up impressive numbers in the pass game. Scott ranks No. 4 nationally and leads all Pac-12 quarterbacks with 2,099 passing yards, and the Wildcats rank No. 5 nationally and tops in the Pac-12 with 368.3 passing yards per game. Compare that to former head coach Mike Stoops' first season (2004) when Arizona passed for just 1,876 yards in 11 games. This year, Arizona's opponents are finding success through the air as well, totaling 1,789 yards on the season (297.0 per game). Combined, you have 3,999 passing yards during six Arizona football games to date (667 per game).

Wednesdays -- 11 a.m. on KTKT 990 in Tucson

Tracking Matt: Senior quarterback Matt Scott has emerged as one of the most prolific passers in the country in his first full season as a starter. Scott is averaging 349.8 passing yards per game, which leads the Pac-12 and ranks No. 4 nationally. Added with nearly 40 rushing yards per game, Scott is averaging 386.8 yards in total offense per game, which also leads the Pac-12 and ranks No. 5 nationally. Scott, who is averaging 11.3 yards per completion, has the third-most passing plays of 10-plus yards (91) of any quarterback in the country. He also has 29 passes of 20 or more yards, which ranks fourth-most among FBS quarterbacks. It's all amounts to Scott challenging some single season and career top-10 offensive charts. Here's a look at a few:

- Scott has three of Arizona's top-nine all-time single-game total offense performances (485 at Stanford, 461 vs. Toledo and 432 vs. Oregon State)
- Scott's 2,321 total offense yards in 2012 already rank No. 9 in single-season history. Another 144 yards will move him into the No. 6 spot.
- Scott is five passing touchdowns shy of tying Jim Krohn (1976-79) for the No. 10 spot on the UA career charts.
- Scott is 248 passing yards shy of matching Jason Johnson (2001) for the No. 10 spot and 269 yards shy of matching Marc Reed (1966) for the No. 9 spot on the school's single-season passing yardage chart.
- Scott is 23 pass attempts from tying Alfred Jenkins (312) for the No. 10 spot for single season attempts.
- Scott's 186 pass completions already rank No. 8 in single-season history and are just seven short of Marc Reed's (1966) 193 in the No. 7 spot.
- Scott is five passing TDs short of tying for No. 9 in single-season history (currently has 13).
- Scott's 64.4 percent completion percentage would rank No. 5 in single-season history if it were to hold up through season's end.

Carey The Load: Sophomore running back Ka'Deem Carey, a local product out of Canyon del Oro High School, has emerged as UA's featured back and one of the most underrated players in the Pac-12 through the first six games of the season. Carey ranks third in the Pac-12 with 111.7 rushing yards per game and also checks in third in all-purpose yardage (151.8 ypg). The 5-foot-11, 195-pounder has 11 total scores (10 rushing, one receiving) to lead all Pac-12 players and rank tied for sixth-most nationally. Carey has topped 100 yard rushing four times this season alone, just a year after the Wildcats broke 100 yards as a team only five times in 12 contests in 2011.

More Ka'Deem: While Carey doesn't have the look of a power back, he's a tough, physical inside runner that picks up extra yards after contact. He has a 5.3 yards per carry average, boosted by 19 totes of 10 or more yards, tied for 21st-most nationally. Carey also is an explosive threat in the passing game, where he averages 10.5 yards per reception and ranks fourth on the club with 21 catches for 220 yards. Carey has 10 plays (rushing and passing) from scrimmage that have gone for 20-plus yards, which is tied for 19th-most nationally. His 890 yards from scrimmage are 12th-most individually among all FBS players.

Austin's A-Game: Sophomore receiver Austin Hill is turning in a breakout campaign, highlighted by a career day at then-No. 18 Stanford on Oct. 6. Against the Cardinal, Hill set career highs for receptions (11) and yards (165), while matching his career-best with two touchdowns. UA's most versatile receiver that can play any of the four positions, Hill has become the Wildcats' go-to guy in key situations, evidenced by 28 of his 42 overall receptions (66.7%) resulting in first downs or touchdowns. The Corona, Calif., native is also leading the club in explosive plays, with 11 total receptions going for 20-plus yards, helping him to a team-best 14.5 yards per catch. Those 11 20-plus yard receptions rank tied for sixth-most nationally. Hill is averaging 101.3 receiving yards per game, which ranks No. 14 nationally and No. 4 in the Pac-12 Conference.

Hill Climbing: At the midway point of the season, sophomore receiver Austin Hill is in position to move into some notable school single-season top-10 charts (see page 11 of this release) in the coming games should he remain healthy and productive. Through six games, Hill has 42 receptions for 608 yards and five touchdowns. He is 21 receptions shy of matching Dennis Northcutt's 63 grabs in 1998, which holds down the No. 10 spot. From a yardage standpoint, Hill is 308 yards short of Jeremy McDaniel's 916 markers from that 1998 season, also the No. 10 mark. In the touchdowns category, Hill is just three shy of matching five former Cats who share the No. 10 position.

Youth Movement: Arizona has played 40 freshmen or sophomores this season, comprising more than half of the nearly 75 Wildcats to see the field. The Wildcats have played 10 true freshmen, the fourth-most of any Pac-12 school and among the top-20 nationally (research courtesy of David Plati at Colorado). With redshirts mixed in, UA has played more than 20 freshmen, most on defense. In fact, the youth movement is most prominent on the defensive side of the ball, where 14 of the 22 players listed on the regular two-deep are freshmen or sophomores. From that group, six of UA's top eight tacklers are freshmen or sophomores, led by safeties Jourdon Grandon (42), Jared Tevis (42) and Tra'Mayne Bondurant (39). Bondurant leads the team with 10.5 tackles for loss.

Chain Gang: Arizona has more first downs (193) in six games than 13 Wildcat teams had in full seasons since Arizona affiliated with the Pac-10 in 1978. Tough to think a squad could average 32 per game, but with that amount in the next game the seven-game total would eclipse the season output for another nine Arizona squads in the era. Extrapolating all the way, it's clear the Cats have a shot at the school mark of 309 first downs by the Nick Foles-led Cats of 2011. Only that club and his junior-year Cats in 2008 had more (308) than 300.

Total Offense: Matt Scott needs just 53 yards through the air or on the ground to take over the No. 11 spot on Arizona's career total offense chart (see page 11 for top-10). He has 4,254 yards on 622 plays and trails veer quarterback Jim Krohn (1976-78), who had 4,307 yards on 893 plays. Scott, averaging a remarkable 386.8 yards per game this year, has a whiff of the all-time UA top five in the category, which would take some doing. Passers Nick Foles (9,712 yards from 2009-11), Willie Tuitama (8,727 from 2005-08 and Tom Tunnicliffe (7,336 from 1980-83) head the chart, followed by dual QBs Keith Smith (7,049 from 1996-99), Alfred Jenkins (6,307 from 1983-86), Bruce Hill (6,054 from 1973-75) and Ortege Jenkins (5,577 from 1997-00). Drop-back throwers Dan White (5,312/1993-95) and Jason Johnson (4,307/199-02) also are in front of Scott. The only four-year starter on the list is Tunnicliffe, although Smith and O. Jenkins split some duties for three years after Smitty's freshman year, and Krohn put in heavy duty as a freshman. Tuitama started the latter half of his freshman year and the rest of the way in his career. Foles and White were transfers who started three seasons. Scott's basically a one-year starter — 2012 — putting up some real numbers.

Kickin' Kyle: Senior punter Kyle Dugandzic is putting together a strong season, even if he is averaging less than four punts per game. Dugandzic's overall average is a hefty 44.4 yards per boot, with five 50-plus yarders. He ranks No. 3 in the Pac-12 in punting average (44.4), while UA ranks No. 4 in the conference and No. 26 nationally in net punting (39.7). He was named the Pac-12 Special Teams Player of the Week (Oct. 1) in a losing cause after a sensational performance against Oregon State that included a career-long 70-yard boomer and four of five total punts landing inside the 20-yard line. In that respect, Dugandzic has placed 10 of his 23 punts inside the 20-yard line and has just one touchback.

Dan's The Man: In the receiving jamboree, senior Dan Buckner has been overshadowed by youngster Austin Hill, but the upperclassman has turned in a strong campaign. Buckner is second on the team in receptions (39) and yards (513), and averages 13.2 yards per grab — also second-best on the squad. With a pair of 100-yard receiving games, Buckner joins Hill (three 100-yard games) as one of three Pac-12 duos with multiple 100-yard games. Buckner is tied for No. 7 nationally with 26 receptions of 10-plus yards. He has eight over 20 yards.

In a Rush: Arizona has rushed for 100 yards in five of its first six games in 2012, just a season removed when it did so in just five games last fall. The Wildcats have 1,098 yards on the ground, an average of 183.0 yards per game (No. 5 in Pac-12). That's a significant improvement over last season's 94.5 per-game tally, which finished ranked second to last in the Pac-12 and No. 114 nationally. In fact, this year's rushing total (1,098) is nearing last year's 12-game total of 1,134 yards. Running back Ka'Deem Carey leads the club with 670 yards, while quarterback Matt Scott ranks second with 222 yards. UA's leading rusher a year ago was senior Keola Antolin, who finished his final season at the school with 568 yards.

1,000-Yard Seasons: Ka'Deem Carey is more than half way toward a 1,000-yard season running the ball (670 yards). He's also half way (126) toward a 250-carry season, last accomplished by UA school-record holder Trung Canidate, who toted the ball 253 times in 1999 for the 1,602 yards that stand atop UA's single-season rushing chart. Clarence Farmer had 209 carries in a 1,229 season in 2001, the most since. Nic Grigsby had 214 totes for 1,196 yards in UA's 2008 season, the last 1,000-yard rusher. From the yardage standpoint, Carey could become Rich Rodriguez's first 1,000-yard rusher from the running back position since Steve Slaton had 1,051 in 2007 at West Virginia. Rodriguez's only 1,000-yard rusher at Michigan was quarterback Dennard Robinson (2010).

600-Yard Games: Before the season started, Arizona football games had produced just a dozen 600-yard total offense games by the Wildcats or their opponents. After six weeks, there have already been six such occurrences this season. Arizona rolled up 689 yards against South Carolina State (Sept. 15) and 624 yards against Toledo (Sept. 1), the second and third-most single-game offensive outputs in program history. However, UA's opponents have also notched a pair 600-yard games. Oklahoma State racked up 636 yards in a loss on Sept. 8, while Oregon State totaled 613 yards in last week's victory. At Stanford two weeks ago, both the Cats and Cardinal put up exactly 617 yards.

Big Play Bondurant: Perhaps one of the most underrated defenders in the Pac-12 is "Spur" safety Tra'Mayne Bondurant. The true sophomore has a nose for the football and has proven to be a pest for opposing teams. The Vallejo, Calif., native is fifth on the team with 39 total tackles, but he leads all players and ranks tied for fourth in the Pac-12 with 10.5 tackles for loss. The 10.5 stops behind the line surpass UA's season leader from a year ago, since-departed linebacker Derek Earls, who had 7.0 TFLs. Bondurant, who has four passes broken up and a forced fumble this season, turned in a breakout performance in just his second career start a year ago. Then a true freshman, Bondurant had eight tackles, a sack and two pass breakups in Seattle.

Meet The Jacksons: Interestingly, the two Jacksons on Arizona's roster are both walk-on redshirt freshmen. Sir Thomas Jackson has started six games at linebacker for the Wildcats and ranks sixth on the team with 37 tackles. A native of Seattle, Wash., Sir Thomas Jackson has 4.5 tackles for loss, one sack and three pass breakups. On the other side of the ball, San Diego, Calif., native Johnny Jackson has emerged as a weapon in the passing game. Johnny Jackson had a career-high 10 receptions for 75 yards at Stanford two weeks ago. Jackson, who has 18 receptions for 152 yards on the season, could see his role increase in the coming week.

A Budding Star: Converted safety Marquis Flowers continues to develop as a linebacker, a position he was switched to about a week before the start of the season. At 6-foot-3, 221 pounds, Flowers is Arizona's biggest linebacker and ranks as team's leader with 2.5 sacks. Flowers is also second with 6.5 tackles for loss and second on the squad with 44 total tackles. He has added two pass breakups and has forced one fumble.

Man In The Middle: Junior Jake Fischer has been a stalwart middle linebacker in Arizona's new 3-3-5 defensive scheme implemented this season by defense coordinator Jeff Casteel. Fischer, who missed the 2011 season with an ACL injury, leads all Pac-12 players and ranks No. 31 nationally with 9.7 tackles per game (58 total). That's just a couple tackles shy of 10 per game for the slightly undersized 6-foot, 215-pounder. Don't tell that to Fischer, though, who has shown a nose for the ball early in the season. Fischer has 3.5 tackles for loss, one pass breakup, two forced fumbles and a pair of fumble recoveries. He was named Pac-12 Defensive Player of the Week following a career-high 13-tackle season debut against Toledo on Sept. 1.

Step Right Up: When Jared Tevis went down with an ankle injury against Oregon State, the Wildcats turned to redshirt freshman Patrick Onwuasor (pronounced on-WAH-soh). A former receiver who switched to safety during fall camp, Onwuasor saw his first significant duty as a defender after emerging as a playmaker on special teams coverage units early in the season. Onwuasor, who has a team-high six tackles on special teams, finished the Oregon State game with eight tackles. He followed that up with eight more tackles and a pass breakup at Stanford.

Scoring In Perspective: Arizona's 222 points in six games are already challenging some season totals from the past decade. Mike Stoops' first UA team scored 164 points over 11 games in 2004, one season after the Wildcats scored 181 in an 11-game 2003 campaign. To his credit, Stoops' teams steadily improved after the lowly '04 campaign and topped out at 476 points in a 13-game season in 2008. In fact, the 36.6 points per game that season was the second-highest average in program history. The 1954 gridiron squad holds the top mark, a 38.5 per game clip. Rich Rodriguez's first team is sitting at 37.0 with half of the regular season schedule still to come.

Building for the Future: The Lowell-Stevens Football Facility, scheduled to open in August 2013, marks a dynamic shift in the Arizona football culture as it will become the centerpiece of the program on the north end of Arizona Stadium. Supported by private funds, including significant leadership gifts from David and Edith Lowell and from Jeff and Sharon Stevens, the $72.3 million project will provide the Wildcats with one of the premier football facilities in the nation. The facility will be a four-floor operations center with strength training, sports-medicine, coaches offices, locker rooms, meeting rooms, equipment and facility service areas. The structure will enclose the north end of the stadium and create a full bowl with nearly 4,000 premium spectator seats, including a donor lounge with outdoor seating. Additionally, stairways and elevator towers for the concourse will connect the structure to the existing east and west stadium sections. Restrooms, amenity areas and a cafeteria will also serve the campus community. Arizona Stadium has an official capacity of 51,811 for this season, but once work is completed on the Lowell-Stevens Football Facility, the venue will near the some 57,000 seats it has held in recent years.

Up Next: Arizona stays at home to take on No. 10 USC on Saturday, Oct. 27. The game will be televised on a regional basis by ABC at 12:30 p.m. (MST). For those who do not get the game on the ABC regional broadcast, it will be shown on a reverse mirror on ESPN2 to the rest of the country. Thereafter, the Wildcats hit the road for a Nov. 3 game at UCLA. Start time and television information is expected to be announced next Monday, Oct. 22.

Last Meeting: Arizona at Washington

Arizona..... 31

Washington..... 42

Oct. 29, 2011 // Seattle, Wash. // Husky Stadium (59,825)

Start: 7:41 p.m. // TOG: 3:20 // Weather: 52 degrees, Mostly Cloudy

SEATTLE, Wash. -- Chris Polk scored five touchdowns and became the first player in Washington history with 100 yards rushing and receiving in a game as the Huskies rallied for a 42-31 over Arizona on Saturday night.

Washington (6-2, 4-1 Pac-12) withstood another crazy play in the series with the Wildcats - a bobbled pass that was intercepted and returned 91 yards for a touchdown by Robert Golden - and another night of shoddy defense to become bowl eligible for the second straight season.

Polk finished with 144 yards rushing on 34 carries and 100 yards receiving. He scored on touchdown runs of 1, 1, 5 and 2 yards and had a 17-yard TD reception from Keith Price. Polk's 5-yard scamper with 8:21 left gave Washington the lead, and he pushed the advantage to 11 with 3:59 left when he high-stepped in from the 2.

Nick Foles threw for 388 yards for the Wildcats (2-6, 1-5) but couldn't do enough to counter Polk's monster night. Foles finished 32 of 50 passing, and receiver Juron Criner had 11 catches for 118 yards and touchdowns of 24 and 9 yards.

But any Arizona rally and hope of a second straight win under interim coach Tim Kish was dashed when Sean Parker picked off Foles at the Washington 20 with 2:10 left. Foles was intercepted for a third time with 29 seconds left by Washington's Cort Dennison.

Following Polk's third rushing TD to put the Huskies up 35-31, Foles led the Wildcats to midfield, but on a quick screen, Criner was stripped by Washington's Will Shamburger, and freshman linebacker Princeton Fuimaono recovered. Price then hit Jermaine Kearse for 24 yards, Polk sprinted for 14, and the Huskies were back on the Wildcats' doorstep. On third-and-1 at the Arizona 3, Polk squeezed for the needed yard, then scored on the next play.

Polk set a new school record with his 18th career 100-yard rushing game and topped 1,000 yards for the season.

Kearse ran for a 6-yard touchdown in the first quarter on a lateral pass from Price.

It wasn't the sharpest night for Price, who didn't get much help from his receivers at times. Price was 16 of 30 for 277 yards and a TD. He threw a career-high three interceptions, but one came when the receiver slipped and another on one more strange bounce in this series.

After a 43-yard pass to Polk, Washington was on the cusp of taking a two-touchdown lead early in the third quarter. Price threw for James Johnson, who stumbled and never gained full control of the pass. The ball deflected out of his hands and into the arms of Golden. He wove through Washington's offensive personnel for a 91-yard interception return for a touchdown.

The wacky play rivaled Mason Foster's game-winning interception return for Washington two years ago in a 36-33 win over the Wildcats that bounced off the foot of an Arizona receiver and into Foster's arms.

Washington answered with Polk's second touchdown run, but Arizona ran off the next 10 points and led 31-28 going to the fourth quarter.

Washington got the big play it needed when freshman Kasen Williams took a quick post from Price, bounced off one tackle and carried another defender for a 48-yard gain to the Arizona 21 with less than 10 minutes remaining. After a 26-yard pass to Kevin Smith got the Huskies to the Arizona 5, Polk walked in to give the Huskies a 35-31 lead with 8:21 left.

Arizona still carved up Washington's struggling defense for 424 total yards a week after the Huskies surrendered 615 yards to No. 4 Stanford. At one point in the first quarter, the Wildcats had 132 total yards to Washington's minus-10.

But Arizona twice settled for first-half field goals when touchdowns were needed.

Game 1

Toledo ..... 17
 Arizona..... 24 OT

Sept. 1, 2012 // Tucson, Ariz. // Arizona Stadium (48,670)
 Start: 7:37 p.m. // TOG: 3:47 // Weather: 93 degrees, Partly cloudy

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP) -- Toledo coach Matt Campbell flipped a coin to determine his starting quarterback on Saturday. Unfortunately for him and the Rockets, who took snaps for Arizona did not come down to chance.

Arizona quarterback Matt Scott, scrambling to his right, barely inbounds and with a defender grabbing his jersey, tossed a 10-yard touchdown pass to Terrence Miller in overtime to give the Wildcats a 24-17 victory on Saturday night.

Arizona pulled out Rich Rodriguez's coaching debut after its kicker, John Bonano, missed a 25-yard field goal as regulation ended. Bonano missed a 24-yarder earlier in the game.

Scott threw for a career-high 387 yards and rushed for 74 yards. Ka'Deem Carey had 147 yards on 20 carries, including a 73-yard touchdown run.

Arizona amassed 624 yards, second-most in school history, to Toledo's 358 but had two touchdowns called back by penalties, turned the ball over three times and missed the two short field goals.

Terrance Owens threw a 59-yard TD pass to Alonzo Russell for the Rockets, who have never beaten a Pac-12 team.

With both teams disdaining the huddle, the game was played at a frenetic pace. In all, the teams combined for 182 plays, 94 by Toledo and 88 by Arizona.

Campbell, at 32 the youngest head coach in the FBS subdivision, flipped a coin to decide which of his experienced quarterbacks would start. Austin Dantin won the toss, but Owens replaced him after two series.

Owens didn't return after he was hit hard and fumbled the ball away in the third quarter. Owens was 11 of 22 for 134 yards, Dantin 10 of 25 for 63 yards.

Scott, who sat out last season as a redshirt junior while Nick Foles completed his college eligibility, kept Arizona's offense on the move all night. He completed 30 of 46 passes, including two touchdowns. He was intercepted once.

Dan Buckner caught 10 for 116 yards and Austin Hill seven for 139 yards, including a spectacular, diving, fingertip grab of Scott's 30-yard pass for Arizona's first touchdown.

Arizona seemed to have the game in hand when Scott rushed for 31 yards in three carries as the Wildcats drove to the Toledo 5 in the waning seconds, but he was tackled near the right hash mark, leaving Bonano a slight angle on his kick. The attempt wasn't even close, hooking far to the left to send the game into overtime.

Toledo, with both quarterbacks and several other significant players returning from last season's 9-4 team, moved the ball most of the night on the young, susceptible Arizona defense. But the Wildcats stopped David Fluellen for a 2-yard loss on third-and-1 at the Arizona 21, forcing the Rockets to settle for Jeremiah Detmer's 40-yard field goal that tied it at 17-17 with 14:18 to play.

Arizona led 3-0 after the first quarter on Bonano's 26-yard field goal.

After Detmer missed a 48-yard field goal, Arizona quickly advanced to the Rockets' 9-yard line. But after Richard Morrison caught a short pass from Scott, he dropped the ball, and Toledo's Toll Molls recovered at the Rockets' 6.

Toledo took it downfield from there, going 94 yards in 10 plays, with Owens finding Russell wide open on the 59-yard touchdown play that made it 7-3 with 13:55 left in the half. The Wildcats came back with a 10-play, 64-yard scoring drive, ending with Hill's diving grab to put Arizona ahead 10-7 with 12:04 left in the half.

Arizona had a 67-yard touchdown run by Daniel Jenkins negated by a holding penalty. Toledo regained the lead with a 63-yard drive aided by a defensive holding penalty and personal foul against Arizona.

Owens had a 23-yard pass to Cordale Scott on the drive, which ended with Cassius McDowell scoring on a 1-yard run to put the Rockets ahead 14-10 with 12:04 left in the second quarter, a lead that held until halftime.

Arizona blew another scoring opportunity in the second quarter when Scott threw over the middle to Hill on a 32-yard play, but the receiver fumbled when he was hit, and the ball bounced into the hands of Toledo's Robert Bell at the Rockets' 34-yard line.

Game 2

18) Oklahoma State..... 38

Arizona..... 59

Sept. 8, 2012 // Tucson, Ariz. // Arizona Stadium (45,602)
 Start: 7:37 p.m. // TOG: 3:36 // Weather: 80 degrees, Windy

TUCSON, Ariz. -- Oklahoma State quarterback Wes Lunt set a Big 12 freshman record by throwing for 436 yards and connected with Tracy Moore for four touchdown passes.

The Cowboys piled up 636 yards of offense, the second straight week they eclipsed 600 yards, and scored 38 points.

Those weren't the numbers that mattered.

Lunt threw three interceptions and Oklahoma State set a school record with 167 penalty yards, sending the 18th-ranked Cowboys to a frustrating 59-38 loss to Arizona in the desert on Saturday night.

Arizona (2-0) fell into a quick 14-0 hole before scoring the next 30 points as Oklahoma State (1-1) unraveled under a shower of yellow flags. Even with all the penalties, the Cowboys settled down enough to rally within two points late in the third quarter.

The Wildcats wouldn't let them any closer, scoring 29 points after the 3-minute mark of the third quarter to run away from the Cowboys.

Ka'Deem Carey ran for 147 yards in his debut as the featured back last week and followed it up by scoring four touchdowns while rushing for 126 yards on 26 carries.

Matt Scott also had a nice follow-up to his dazzling opener, throwing for 320 yards and two touchdowns on 28-of-41 passing while running for 55 yards and another score.

Together, they helped Arizona take a step toward becoming relevant again.

Lunt hit 37 of 60 passes and threw for the fourth-most yards in school history in his second game as Oklahoma State's starter. He also had some shaky moments, tossing three interceptions, including one returned 48 yards for a touchdown by Jonathan McKnight in the fourth quarter.

Joseph Randle added 123 yards on 23 carries but the Cowboys just couldn't seem to stay out of their own way, committing 15 penalties and turning it over four times.

Defensive tackle Calvin Barnett was called for consecutive personal fouls on one play, setting up Scott's 15-yard touchdown pass to Richard Morrison.

A fumble by Randle on the next drive, followed by a late-hit penalty on cornerback Broderick Brown, set up a 22-yard field goal by John Bonano.

A fourth personal foul by Oklahoma State in the half, on linebacker Shaun Lewis for hitting Scott as he slid, led to a third field goal by Bonano, a 24-yarder. Carey added a 1-yard touchdown run - with a little help from teammates - late in the quarter to put Arizona up 23-14 at halftime.

Oklahoma State had nine penalties for 110 yards in the half and its last drive ended when Arizona's Jared Tevis intercepted a tipped pass by Lunt at the Wildcats' 29.

The second half opened the same way: Barnett was flagged for a late hit on the opening play and Arizona scored on a 13-yard screen pass from Scott to Carey for a 30-14 lead.

But the score seemed to snap the Cowboys out of their funk.

Lunt hit Morgan for a 9-yard touchdown pass and the Cowboys kept marching on Arizona the next drive, setting up Jeremy Smith's 10-yard touchdown run that cut Arizona's lead to 30-28.

It turned out to be their last gasp.

The Wildcats raced down the field on their next drive, setting up Scott's 8-yard touchdown run up the middle. Lunt, facing pressure for one of the few times all game, threw up a weak pass early in the fourth quarter and McKnight picked it off for an easy touchdown. Oklahoma State was called for pass interference on the 2-point try - naturally - and Arizona converted on the second attempt to go up 45-31.

Carey sealed it with a 25-yard TD run up the middle and added a 1-yarder for good measure in the closing minutes to send the Zona Zoo into a frenzy and the Wildcats to a look-at-us win.

"There's some excited guys in the locker room and I'm proud of them," Rodriguez said. "It's a nice win, the guys played and made the plays when they needed to."

And with it should come some extra - and wanted - attention.

Game 3

South Carolina State ..... 0
24) Arizona ..... 56

Sept. 15, 2012 // Tucson, Ariz. // Arizona Stadium (43,919)
Start: 7:37 p.m. // TOG: 2:59 // Weather: 83 degrees, clear, calm

☒ TUCSON, Ariz. (AP) — South Carolina State had trouble stopping No. 24 Arizona's offense, allowing the Wildcats to run a whopping 102 plays.

It was just as bad for the Bulldogs on offense, maybe even worse.

Overmatched against the bigger, faster Wildcats, South Carolina State managed just eight first downs in a 56-0 loss to Arizona on Saturday night.

Arizona knocked off No. 18 Oklahoma State last week and opens the Pac-12 next weekend at No. 4 Oregon. Sandwiched in between was a game against the Bulldogs, one the Wildcats couldn't afford to take lightly.

They didn't.

Instead of a letdown as coach Rich Rodriguez feared, Arizona (3-0) handled a from the Football Championship Subdivision as any good program would, racing out to a 28-0 lead by halftime and a school-record 43 first downs overall.

Matt Scott threw for 288 yards and three touchdowns on 30-of-36 passing, and added a 10-yard scoring run in another stellar performance to start his senior season.

Arizona's try-to-keep-up-with-us offense ran a school-record 102 plays and had 689 total yards, two short of another record.

The defense was just as dominant, holding South Carolina State (1-2) to 154 total yards for its first shutout in four years.

Yep, this was just the kind of confidence-building tuneup the Wildcats needed before heading to rowdy Autzen Stadium for their first road game of the season.

South Carolina State had little chance against Arizona's athleticism, unable to top the Wildcats from marching down the field or get anything going on offense.

The Bulldogs failed to crack double-digits in first downs and had virtually no running game, gaining 65 yards on 29 carries. Quarterback Richard Cue trouble against Arizona's speedy defenders, badly missing several receivers while going 12 for 25 for 89 yards with an interception.

After rolling over Oklahoma State 59-38 last week, the Wildcats moved into The Associated Press poll for the first time in nearly two years.

They needed an easy win with a tough Pac-12 run coming up next. After the Ducks next weekend, Arizona plays a conference schedule that includes No. 2 Southern California, No. 21 Stanford, No. 22 UCLA and rival Arizona State.

The Wildcats had no trouble moving the ball against the Bulldogs, but did have a little problem getting out of their own way in the early going.

Arizona raced to a touchdown on its first possession, Scott capping it with a 15-yard touchdown pass to Richard Morrison.

Moving quickly again, the Wildcats lost the ball near midfield when Morrison fumbled and the Bulldogs recovered. Another fast-moving drive ended with John Bonano, the reigning Pac-12 special teams player of the week, pushing a 25-yard field goal wide right.

Those turned out to be just blips in the Wildcats' march of dominance.

Scott hit Taimi Tutogi on a 14-yard touchdown to open the second quarter after the Bulldogs bit hard on a play-action fake. Ka'Deem Carey capped the next drive with a 7-yard touchdown run around the right end.

Scott closed out the impressive first half by pinballing off several defenders into the end zone for a 10-yard run that made it 28-0.

Scott, who entered the game tied with Syracuse's Ryan Nassib for the national lead with 836 total yards, threw for 175 yards and ran for 61 more in the first half.

Arizona's offense had 323 yards by halftime and its defense held South Carolina State to 69.

If it wasn't over already, the Wildcats made sure in the third quarter, when Scott hit Dan Buckner on a 27-yard touchdown pass and Jenkins carried half of South Carolina State's defense with him on a 5-yard scoring run that made it 42-0.

By then, pretty much all of Arizona's starters were on the sideline, resting up for what will certainly be a much tougher task against the fast-flying Ducks.

The Wildcats will at least go there on a high instead of coming off letdown after taking care of the Bulldogs.

Game 4

22) Arizona ..... 0

3) Oregon ..... 49

Sept. 22, 2012 // Eugene, Ore. // Autzen Stadium (58,334)
Start: 7:36 p.m. // TOG: 3:19 // Weather: 65 degrees, cloudy, drizzle

EUGENE, Ore. (AP) — Redshirt freshman Marcus Mariota threw for 260 yards and two touchdowns, including a 55-yard scoring pass to freshman Bralon Addison late in the third quarter, and No. 3 Oregon beat No. 22 Arizona 49-0 Saturday night.

Billed as an offensive juggernaut between the Pac-12's fastest scoring teams, Oregon didn't find its stride until the second half — and Arizona never did — and the Ducks (4-0, 1-0) got their seventh straight conference-opening victory.

Much had been made about the meeting between the quick-striking Ducks under Chip Kelly and Arizona's spread offense under no-huddle, up-tempo pioneer Rich Rodriguez. Oregon went into it the averaging 54 points per game, while Arizona wasn't far behind with an average of a little more than 46 points.

However, Arizona (3-1, 0-1) couldn't find the end zone and quarterback Matt Scott, a fifth-year senior who spent the last two seasons behind Nick Foles, passed for 210 yards but was intercepted three times — one returned for a touchdown.

The game got off to a sloppy start as Oregon failed on fourth down and each team turned the ball over before Mariota found Daryle Hawkins with a 17-yard touchdown pass midway through the first quarter.

Arizona got as close as the 2-yard line on the next series, but couldn't punch it in and turned the ball over on downs. The Wildcats' struggles continued when John Bonano's 31-yard field goal was blocked early in the second quarter.

Rob Beard hit a 27-yard field goal to increase Oregon's advantage to 10-0. It was the Ducks' first FG of the season. Beard added a 41-yarder late in the first half to make it 13-0 at the break.

While both offenses appeared to sputter at times, defenses made the difference in the first half. Oregon's hybrid 3-4 under longtime defensive coordinator Nick Aliotti held the Wildcats to 141 yards in total offense in the first 30 minutes. Meanwhile, Arizona's new 3-3-5 defense kept the normally prolific Ducks from piling on points.

There was more of the same to open the second half, and the first two possessions by both teams ended in punts.

But then the Ducks started rolling. De'Anthony Thomas returned Arizona's third-straight punt 38 yards, setting up a 35-yard pass to Colt Lyerla, who finished it off with a 1-yard touchdown run. The drive took just three plays and 29 seconds.

Kiko Alonso intercepted Scott, leading to Mariota's long TD pass to Addison, before Ifo Ekpre-Olomu ran his interception back 54 yards to make it 35-0.

Bryan Bennett added an 8-yard scoring run with 4:02 left in the game before Troy Hill intercepted Scott's backup, B.J. Denker, for a 29-yard touchdown and the final margin.

Arizona opened coach Rodriguez's tenure with a victory over Toledo before upsetting then-No. 18 Oklahoma State 59-38 in their second game. Last weekend in a 56-0 win over South Carolina State, the Wildcats ran a school-record 102 offensive plays.

The Wildcats were the first big test for Oregon, which opened the season with victories over Arkansas State, Fresno State and lower-division Tennessee Tech.

Before this season, Arizona hadn't been ranked in the AP Top 25 since November 2010, when the No. 20 Wildcats were knocked out with a 48-29 loss to the then-No. 1 Ducks.

Last season, Oregon defeated Arizona 56-31 in Tucson.

Oregon's last shutout of Arizona came in 1964, when the Ducks won 21-0 at Hayward Field in Eugene.

Game 5

18) Oregon State ..... 38

Arizona..... 35

Sept. 29, 2012 // Tucson, Ariz. // Arizona Stadium (44,153)

Start: 7:08 p.m. // TOG: 3:35 // Weather: 86 degrees, clear

TUCSON, Ariz. -- A momentum-swinging game hanging in the balance, Oregon State coach Mike Riley pulled out a play he had been saving all game.

So what if he would have liked more space to run it. This was the time to do -- and it couldn't have worked out any better.

Sean Mannion threw for a career-high 433 yards and hit Connor Hamlett on a 9-yard pass with 1:09 left for his third touchdown, lifting No. 18 Oregon State to wild 38-35 win over Arizona Saturday night.

Oregon State (3-0, 1-1 Pac-12) took a 17-0 lead, Arizona charged back and the teams traded scores in the second half of a game filled with big plays and 1,158 yards of combined offense.

Arizona (3-2, 0-1 Pac-12) landed a big blow in the can-you-top this second half, going up 35-31 with 5:34 left when Matt Scott hit Austin Hill on a 7-yard touchdown. The problem was that it left too much time for Mannion.

Knowing his team had moved the ball all game against the Wildcats, the calm-and-cool sophomore guided the Beavers 75 yards down the field in 10 plays. Facing a third-and-5 with just over a minute left, Mannion called out a play that sent one receiver into the left flat and Hamlett down the sideline. Arizona's defenders followed the receiver in the flat and Mannion whipped a pass to Hamlett, who slipped just inside the pylon for the winning score.

Mannion finished 29 of 45 for the fifth-most passing yards in school history while setting a career high for the second week. He hit Markus Wheaton 10 times for 166 yards and a pair of touchdowns, and Brandin Cooks nine times for 149 yards.

Storm Woods added for 161 yards and a touchdown for the Beavers, off to their first 3-0 start since 2002. Arizona nearly kept up with them.

Scott fought through a sprained ankle in the second half to throw for a career-high 403 yards and three touchdowns, but had two interceptions, including one near midfield in the final minute. Ka'Deem Carey ran for 115 yards and two touchdowns. Dan Buckner caught six passes for 119 yards and a score.

It wasn't enough for Arizona, which has lost two straight after opening 3-0.

Mannion was sharp early, hitting Cooks on a 57-yard pass in the first quarter to set up a 2-yard touchdown pass to Wheaton in the back of the end zone.

Next series, Mannion hit Wheaton for a 51-yard gain, leading to Trevor Romaine's 30-yard field goal.

Mannion found Kevin Cummings next, on a 38-yard pass to position Tyler Anderson for a 1-yard touchdown dive that put the Beavers up 17-0.

Arizona's offense tried to answer after sputtering early.

The Beavers bogged Arizona down in the first quarter and held when the Wildcats had their first sustained drive, which ended with John Bonano pushing a 30-yard field goal wide right after Scott was called for intentional grounding.

That wasn't a good sign for the Wildcats, who went 0-for-6 in the red zone in a 49-0 loss to Oregon last week.

Arizona managed to end its red-zone woes late in the second quarter, though, when the officials checked the replay to see if Carey fumbled at the 1-yard line and determined he actually went into the end zone for a score that cut Oregon State's lead to 17-7.

Arizona kept rolling on its opening drive of the second half, quickly marching 91 yards in 10 plays for a 3-yard pass from Scott to Hill.

The Wildcats needed a minute to score again, this one a 24-yard run up the middle by Carey, who carried a couple of Oregon State defenders into the end zone with him to put Arizona up 21-17.

Scott made a mistake on the next drive, when Jordan Poyer missed an interception at midfield, then got it when the ball caromed off Richard Morrison. That set up a 1-yard touchdown run by Woods to give Oregon State the lead back.

Woods followed with a mistake of his own, losing a fumble at Oregon State's 40. Scott then threw to the corner of the end zone to Buckner, who's over-the-shoulder, 16-yard TD catch put the Wildcats up 28-24.

Mannion's turn was next. Using a pump fake, he got the entire right side of Arizona's defense to bite and winged a 20-yard touchdown to Wheaton that put the Beavers back out front.

Scott answered, marching the Wildcats for a 7-yard touchdown pass to Hill, who dived in the final yard to make it 35-31.

He just left too much time for Mannion and the Beavers, who head home to play Washington State next week with plenty of momentum on their side.

Game 6

Arizona..... 48 OT
 Stanford..... 54

Oct. 6, 2012 // Tucson, Ariz. // Stanford Stadium (48,204)
 Start: 12:05 p.m. // TOG: 3:51 // Weather: Upper 60s, Partly Cloudy

STANFORD, Calif. -- Josh Nunes bailed out Stanford's defense for a change and started to erase doubts about whether he's the right man to replace Andrew Luck after all.

Nunes threw for a career-high 360 yards and two touchdowns and ran for three more scores, rallying No. 18 Stanford from a two-touchdown deficit to stun Arizona 54-48 in overtime Saturday.

Chase Thomas intercepted a tipped pass by Matt Scott in the extra period and Stepfan Taylor ran for a 21-yard touchdown two plays later to end a week of second-guessing Nunes with a wild celebration in the Cardinal (4-1, 2-1 Pac-12) side of the north end zone.

The offense failed to find the end zone in a 17-13 loss at Washington last week. Nunes underthrew several passes or misfired completely, and critics began to mount enough for Shaw to open his weekly news conference defending his new quarterback and boldly calling any question about a change "asinine."

Nunes followed his coach's words with his most solid game of the season. He completed 21 of 34 passes, scrambled for first downs and -- most importantly -- offset Scott's record-setting performance.

Scott completed 45 of 69 passes -- both school records -- for 491 yards and three touchdowns until Henry Anderson tipped his final pass in overtime that Thomas intercepted. Arizona (3-3, 0-3) amassed 617 total yards -- same as Stanford -- but lost for the third straight game and is still winless in conference play.

For most of the afternoon, the Wildcats scored at will and looked more like the team that beat Oklahoma State to start 3-0 than the one that lost to Oregon and Oregon State the previous two weeks. Facing its third straight ranked opponent, Arizona's aerial attack shredded Stanford's defense in a way few have the past few seasons.

The Wildcats became the first team to eclipse 400 yards passing against the Cardinal since Oklahoma in the 2009 Sun Bowl. The Sooners threw for 418 yards in that 31-27 win over the Cardinal.

Arizona's defense couldn't hold up when it counted.

Nunes ran his second short touchdown to trim Arizona's lead to 48-41 with 6:34 remaining. The Cardinal held the Wildcats to only their third three-and-out on the next possession, and Nunes led a drive that will help ease concerns about Luck's successor.

The redshirt junior ran for 16 yards on third-and-7 from midfield, threw 17 yards to tight end Zach Ertz on fourth-and-9 from Arizona's 20 and ran for the tying touchdown with 45 seconds left in regulation.

This time, Stanford's offense showed some fight from the start.

Taylor, who finished with 142 yards rushing and two touchdowns, ran for 35 yards on seven carries before Nunes lofted an 11-yard touchdown pass to Ertz in the corner of the end zone to give the Cardinal a 7-0 lead on the game's first possession.

While the offense finally found its rhythm, Stanford's defense struggled to slow down Arizona's up-tempo style.

Ka'Deem Carey ran for 13 yards for the first of his three touchdowns, and John Bonano kicked a 34-yard field goal to give the Wildcats a 10-7 lead later in the second quarter.

Nunes stayed steady and sharp, finding Levine Toilolo for a 12-yard touchdown pass to put Stanford back ahead 14-10. Bonano kicked a 33-yard field goal to slice Stanford's lead to 14-13 at half.

The pace picked up even more following the break.

Scott threaded a 27-yard strike to Terrence Miller inches short of the goal line that set up Carey's short touchdown run to put Arizona in front 20-14 less than 2 minutes into the third quarter.

Although the Cardinal prefer to play grind-it-out games and control the clock, Arizona simply wouldn't let them.

The teams traded touchdowns for most of the second half until Jourdon Grandon stripped Ty Montgomery after a 16-yard catch early in the fourth quarter. Arizona recovered and took over at Stanford's 45.

Scott quickly led the offense down field and hooked up with Miller for a 10-yard completion that gave the Wildcats a 48-34 lead -- the biggest either side had all afternoon. Scott nearly set the school passing record set by Willie Tuitama, who threw for a school-record 510 yards in a 48-41 win over Washington on Oct. 27, 2007.
