Arizona-USC Series History

All-Time Series: USC leads, 28-7

First Meeting: Dec. 9, 1916 (USC 20, Arizona 7 at Phoenix, Ariz.)

Last Meeting: Oct. 1, 2011 (USC 48, Arizona 41 at Los Angeles, Calif.)

Some Game Themes: A top-25 team visits Arizona Stadium for the third time this season for a rather unusual, but welcomed lunchtime kickoff ... The preseason favorite in the Pac-12 South (USC) brings conference title and even national title aspirations to the Old Pueblo against the home-standing Wildcats, who commence a five-week stretch against intra-division foes after a four-game run against North Division foes ... A highly competitive series in recent seasons with the last five contests all decided by a touchdown or less ... Arizona seeks its first victory against the Trojans in Tucson since 1999 ... A showcase of explosive offenses and a plethora of skill position stars on each side ... Heisman hopeful Matt Barkley, who passed for a school-record 468 yards against the Cats in the Coliseum a year ago, faces a Wildcat defense that appeared reinvigorated against Washington following a bye week ... Barkley's counterpart, Matt Scott, faces the Trojans for the first time in his career and hopes to continue a run of stellar play in his first full season as a starter ... Rising star Ka'Deem Carey (12 TDs, 1,080 all-purpose yards) has packed some punch in the run game for the Cats and gets another crack against the team he burst onto the scene against as a true freshman (3 total TDs last year) ... Each school boasts two of the top-nine receivers in the Pac-12, led by USC's Marqise Lee's conference-leading 784-yard, eight-touchdown season and UA's Austin Hill's 678-yard, seven-score campaign ... Statistically, the Trojans possess an advantage on defense with the second-ranked scoring defense in the league ... The Cats counter with the second-highest scoring offense and hope their opportunistic, bend-but-don't-break defense can create some pressure the way it did against the Huskies ... Can UA, which has improved its red zone scoring in recent weeks, move the ball and punch it in the endzone against a USC squad that ranks among top-10 nationally for fewest redzone scores allowed ... USC seeks its 800th all-time victory, while Rich Rodriguez and Co. seek a signature conference win in the early stages of their program development.

Tuesdays: Pac-12 Coaches Call, Coach Rodriguez at 11:05 a.m.; Practice starts at 3:30 p.m., Video/photos first four periods (no walk-thru). Coach Rodriguez and offensive assistant coaches/players available for interviews after practice.

Wednesdays: Practice starts at 3:30 p.m., Coach Rodriguez and defensive assistant coaches/players available for interviews after practice.

Thursdays: UA injury report released (game weeks only); Afternoon practice, no interviews.

Fridays: No Interviews

Saturdays: Postgame press conference

Phone Interviews

The Arizona Athletics Communication Services office will make every attempt to fulfill phone interview requests for out-of-town media members. However, some requests may not be granted based on academic schedules and other team responsibilities. Sundays (after 2 p.m. MST) and Mondays (after 8 a.m. MST) are most conducive to the team's weekly schedule.

Interview requests for head coach Rich Rodriguez, his staff and UA players should be directed to Molly O'Mara (momara@arizona.edu) and/or Blair Willis (bmw23@arizona.edu). To make a request by phone, call 520-621-4163.

Postgame Interviews

Arizona has a closed locker room policy after games. There is no player availability on the field immediately after the game. Head coach Rich Rodriguez will address the assembled media only after his postgame radio show responsibilities have been completed both at home and on the road.

Coach Rodriguez will address the media prior to any player comments. At home games, Coach Rodriguez will hold a postgame press conference inside the Media/Photo Room at Gate 15. Selected offensive and defensive players will follow. For road games, each locker room situation will dictate postgame protocol.

Please direct any specific requests for players to Molly O'Mara and Blair Willis with the UA Communication Services staff.

The Coaches: Arizona – Rich Rodriguez (West Virginia '86), first year at Arizona (4-3) and 18th as a head coach overall (124-87-2). Rodriguez was introduced as the 30th head coach of the UA football program on Nov. 22, 2011. He carries Division I records of 4-3 at Arizona, 60-26 at West Virginia (2001-2007) and 15-22 at Michigan (2008-10). He began his head coaching career at Salem (W.Va.) University in 1988 and then coached at Glenville State (W.Va.) from 1990-96. Rodriguez's West Virginia teams were Big East Champions in 2003, 2004, 2005 and 2007 while appearing in two BCS bowls, the 2005 Sugar Bowl with a victory over Georgia for an 11-1 record and a victory over Oklahoma in the 2007 Fiesta Bowl to finish 10-2 shortly after Rodriguez had left for Michigan.

Southern California – Lane Kiffin (Fresno State '98), third year at USC (24-8) and fourth year overall as a head coach (31-14). His background includes two years as an NFL head coach (Oakland 2007-08), six years as a USC offensive assistant (2001-06) and the head job at Tennessee in 2009. He started as a student assistant at Fresno State in 1997.

UA-USC 2011 Rewind (full recap/box on page 7): Arizona spotted USC 17 points in the early going and couldn't overcome the deficit in a 1,000-yard track meet at the Coliseum, dropping a 48-41 decision for its fourth consecutive loss. Trojan QB Matt Barkley threw for 468 yards and four scores while UA's Nick Foles threw for 425 yards and four scores. One difference -- two picks off Foles in the first quarter that led to USC scoring drives. Nearly anything led to a USC scoring drive as the Trojans scored on their first six possessions before Barkley was picked by Shaq Richardson in the third stanza. That led to an Arizona score as well -- one of six consecutive scoring possessions for the Cats. Once the Cats started scoring they pulled to within a touchdown, 41-34, but couldn't get a stop and USC mounted a quick and definitive drive, going 79 yards in five plays for its final points with nine minutes left. Arizona answered but couldn't pull off an onside kick attempt inside the final minute. Foles (41-for-53, 77%) and Barkley (32-39, 82%) were sharp throughout, but USC's 12.0 yards per attempt -- fueled by the second play the Trojans ran, an 82-yard swing pass to Robert Woods for a score -- were devastating. Woods ended up with 14 receptions for 255 yards and two scores, joined by Marqise Lee with eight grabs for 144 yards and a score. Foles spread his goods around, complete three or more passes to nine different receivers and throws to a dozen overall. UA's running game improved, with Keola Antolin netting 87 markers on 15 tries and Ka'Deem Carey scoring twice on 12 tough runs. True freshman Carey added a first receiving score to the inaugural running touchdowns in his young career. The Wildcats posted a then-school-record 37 first downs, but USC was gaining yards in chunks (9.1 per play) and couldn't fit more than 26 first downs in its 582 yards of offense. The Cats gained 554. There were two punts in the game, one in each half by UA's Kyle Dugandzic. USC did not punt.

Oh So Close: They say you are what your record says you are. In that sense, the Wildcats are in fact 4-3. But with one more play here (vs. Oregon State) and one more play there (at Stanford), Arizona instead could be boasting at a 6-1 record. The Wildcats held a 35-31 lead over the Beavers at Arizona Stadium on Sept. 29, but OSU put together a 10-play, 75-yard drive over the next 4:25 for the game-winning touchdown in a 38-35 come-from-behind victory. Arizona twice had the Beavers facing third downs on the decisive drive, but couldn't muster one final stop. A week later at Stanford on Oct. 6, the Cats clawed their way to a 48-34 lead midway through the fourth quarter. However, the Cardinal rallied to get within one score, before converting on a pair of fourth down plays on its final drive to tie the game 48-48 and force overtime. Stanford prevailed 54-48. Indeed, the Cats have been a few plays short, but still a positive sign for where Rich Rodriguez and Co. have the program in their first season in Tucson.

Treacherous Schedule: For the fifth time in eight games -- and the fourth in the last five -- Arizona is set to take on a nationally-ranked opponent. So far, UA's FBS opponents are a combined 32-9 this season, and Jeff Sagarin ranks UA's schedule as the 11th-toughest in the nation. The Wildcats have defeated Toledo (7-1 overall record), Oklahoma State (4-2) and Washington (3-4) in Tucson, while losing to Oregon (7-0) on the road, Oregon State (6-0) in Tucson, and Stanford (5-2) on the road. The three losses have each been at the hands of ranked opponents, while the Cats knocked off a nationally-ranked Oklahoma State in the second week of the season. Oh, and UA's opening foe, Toledo, has won seven straight games since leaving Tucson with a season-opening loss on Sept. 1. So now comes No. 10 USC, a team with a 6-1 record and potential Pac-12 and national championship aspirations on the line. The Cats can certainly make another claim at relevancy this week.

Nifty Fifty: Arizona has topped the 50-point mark in three of its seven games to date, something that hasn't been done in a single season at the school since 1954. It's an impressive feat considering how few 50-point games have been for the Wildcats in that span. Including the 59, 56 and 52 points scored in games this year, Arizona has reached the half-century number only 20 times since the 1954 season, boasting a record of 19-1 in such contests (defeat was a 56-55, 30T loss at California in 1996). Only the 2008, 1998 and 1983 squads put up 50 or more points in a game on two occasions. The 1954 gridiron club defeated New Mexico State (58-0), Utah (54-20) and Arizona State (54-14).

Matinee Matchup: Saturday's 12:30 p.m. kickoff will be an early one for patrons at Arizona Stadium accustomed to 7 p.m. or later starts at each of the first five home games in 2012. In fact, it will be the earliest start to a UA home game since also kicking off at 12:30 p.m. for an eventual 34-27 Homecoming victory against UCLA on Nov. 3, 2007. Arizona Stadium has played host to some memorable afternoon games over the years, with the most notable being a 16-3 upset of then-No. 1 Washington on Nov. 7, 1992. That game kicked off at 1:30 p.m. local time, though on the ABC telecast that day it was in the same 3:30 p.m. ET slot (after the time change, which the state of Arizona does not observe) in which this week's UA-USC contest is set.

Long Drives: Arizona's offense, second in the Pac-12 with a 39.1 points per game scoring average, has produced 34 touchdowns. Of those, 19 have come on drives of 75 yards or longer, with eight covering 80 yards or more. A year ago, the Wildcats cranked out touchdown drives of 75-plus yards on 20 occasions over a 12-game schedule.

Youth Movement: Arizona has played 40 freshmen or sophomores this season, comprising more than half of the nearly 75 Wildcats to see the field. The Wildcats have played 10 true freshmen, the fourth-most of any Pac-12 school and among the top-20 nationally (research courtesy of David Plati at Colorado). With redshirts mixed in, UA has played more than 20 freshmen, most on defense. In fact, the youth movement is most prominent on the defensive side of the ball, where 14 of the 22 players listed on the regular two-deep are freshmen or sophomores. From that group, six of UA's top eight tacklers are freshmen or sophomores, led by safeties Jourdon Grandon (47), Jared Tevis (42) and Tra'Mayne Bondurant (44). Bondurant leads the team with 10.5 tackles for loss.

Matt's The Man: Quarterback Matt Scott, who redshirted in 2011, is putting together a stellar senior season, if statistics are any indication. The Corona, Calif., native entered 2012 with five previous career starts and is now a 12-game starter (8-4 record) as a Wildcat. He possesses a complete repertoire of skills at the quarterback position, including ability to make all the throws on the field and hurt defenses with his legs. Here's a look at his career statistics:

Year	Rushing			Passing				INT	Comp Pct.	Tot. Off.	GP	GS
	Rush	Yards	TD	Comp	Att	Yards	TD
2008	23	188	2	7	11	84	1	0	63.6%	272	6	0
2009	41	309	0	41	73	441	1	3	56.2%	750	9	3
2010	35	135	0	66	93	776	4	2	71.0%	911	7	2
2012	65	265	3	200	330	2,466	17	8	64.3	2,620	7	7
TOTALS	164	897	5	314	488	3,656	23	13	64.4%	4,553	29	12

Tracking Matt: Senior quarterback Matt Scott has emerged as one of the most prolific passers in the country in his first full season as a starter. Scott is averaging 336.4 passing yards per game, which leads the Pac-12 and ranks No. 4 nationally. Added with nearly 40 rushing yards per game, Scott is averaging 374.3 yards in total offense per game, which also leads the Pac-12 and ranks No. 4 nationally. Scott, who is averaging 11.8 yards per completion, has the third-most passing plays of 10-plus yards (99) of any quarterback in the country. He also has 34 passes of 20 or more yards, which ranks third-most among FBS quarterbacks. It's all amounts to Scott challenging some single season and career top-10 offensive charts. Here's a look at a few:

- Scott has three of Arizona's top-nine all-time single-game total offense performances (485 at Stanford, 461 vs. Toledo and 432 vs. Oregon State)
- Scott's 2,620 total offense yards in 2012 already rank No. 6 in single-season history. Another 350 yards will move him into the No. 4 spot.
- Scott is one passing touchdowns shy of tying Jim Krohn (1976-79) for the No. 10 spot on the UA career charts.
- Scott (2,355 yards) ranks No. 10 on the school's single-season passing yardage list. He is 166 yards away from moving up to No. 6.
- Scott's 200 pass completions rank No. 7 in single-season history.
- Scott is one passing TDs short of tying for No. 9 in single-season history (currently has 17).
- Scott's 64.3 percent completion percentage would rank No. 5 in single-season history if it were to hold up through season's end.

Carey The Load: Sophomore running back Ka'Deem Carey, a local product out of Canyon del Oro High School, has emerged as UA's featured back and one of the most underrated players in the Pac-12 through the first seven games of the season. Carey ranks fourth in the Pac-12 with 120.3 rushing yards per game and checks in third in all-purpose yardage (154.3 ypg). The 5-foot-11, 195-pounder has 12 total scores (11 rushing, one receiving) to rank second among all Pac-12 players and rank tied for 12th-most nationally. Carey has topped 100 yards rushing five times this season alone, just a year after the Wildcats broke 100 yards as a team only five times in 12 contests in 2011.

More Ka'Deem: While Carey doesn't have the look of a power back, he's a tough, physical inside runner that picks up extra yards after contact. He has a 5.4 yards per carry average, boosted by 24 totes of 10 or more yards, tied for 11th-most nationally. Carey also is an explosive threat in the passing game, where he averages 10.1 yards per reception and ranks fourth on the club with 21 catches for 220 yards. Carey has 11 plays (rushing and passing) from scrimmage that have gone for 20-plus yards, which is tied for 18th-most nationally. His 1,064 yards from scrimmage are 8th-most individually among all FBS players. A season ago, Carey had 191 all-purpose yards and three touchdowns against the Trojans in the Coliseum.

Ka'Deem In Perspective: How good of a season is Ka'Deem Carey putting together? Well, a look at the Pac-12 stats won't do him justice. Carey currently ranks fourth in the conference with 842 rushing yards, narrowly trailing some well-known talents like UCLA's Jonathan Franklin (878), Oregon's Kenjon Barner (870) and Stanford's Stepfan Taylor (846). However, Carey's rushing total would lead all rushers in four other BCS conferences, including the ACC, Big 12, Big East and SEC. No player in those conferences has reached the 800-yard mark this season.

Sack Attack: Arizona defenders finally found a way to get to the quarterback last week, combining for a season-high four sacks against Keith Price and the Huskies. Sophomore defensive lineman Reggie Gilbert, who missed the Stanford game with an ankle injury, returned with a vengeance by collecting a career-best 1.5 sacks. Sophomore linebacker Hank Hobson shared a half-sack with Gilbert, the second-consecutive game in which Hobson split a sack. Senior end Taimi Tutogi, who doubles as UA's starting fullback on offense, registered his first career sack and had career highs in tackles (3) and tackles for loss (1.5). Junior linebacker Marquis Flowers picked up a sack to push his team-leading tally to 3.5 sacks on the season. Arizona, which went from six to 10 sacks on the season in one game, turned in more than two sacks in a single game for the first time since totaling six against Arizona State on Dec. 2, 2010 — a span of 19 games in between. The Wildcats, who had just three sacks over the first four games, have seven in their last three.

Rich Rodriguez Head Coach

Arizona: 1st Year (4-3)
Career: 19th year (124-87-2)
FBS Career: 11th year (79-51)

- Became Arizona's 30th head coach on Nov. 22, 2011.
- A four-time Big East Champion at West Virginia, where he led the program to a 60-26 record as head coach from 2001-07.
- Led West Virginia to three 11-win seasons.
- Spent three seasons at Michigan (2008-2011), while compiling a 15-22 record and guiding the Wolverines to the Gator Bowl in his final season.
- Guided his teams to bowl games in seven of his 10 FBS seasons. His teams are 3-4 in bowls, including 2-0 in BCS games.
- Prior to accepting the head coach position at West Virginia, spent time as an assistant at Clemson (1999-2000), Tulane (1997-98), West Virginia (1985, 1989) and the head coach of Glenville State (1990-96) following three years at Salem Univ. where he had his first head coaching experience (1988).
- In his 18-year head coaching career, has led teams to seven conference championships and four 10-plus victory seasons.
- During four seasons as an offensive coordinator at Tulane (1997-1998) and Clemson (1999-2000), his teams went a combined 34-13.
- Rodriguez-coached players have rushed for 1,000 yards in a season nine times in 10 seasons as FBS head coach.
- His teams at WVU and Michigan averaged 30.5 ppg over his 10 seasons in charge at those schools.
- Has a career 62-6 FBS record when scoring 30 or more points and is 36-2 when scoring 40 or more. Was 49-1 in 30-plus point games and 28-0 in 40-plus point games at West Virginia.

Nothing Negative Here: In a season full of mind-boggling offensive superlatives, it's not points scored, first downs gained or total plays ran that will catch your eye when looking back at Saturday's stats. A deeper look at the stat sheet, notably the defensive page, shows Washington did not record a single tackle for loss. That sounds impressive by itself, but it's actually the first time in 202 games that the Wildcats did not yield a tackle for loss to an opponent. The last such occurrence was in a 19-14 win at Georgia Tech on Sept. 1, 1994. The Cats did lose yardage on one offensive play last week when a pass attempt slipped out of Matt Scott's hands for a fumble and a loss of eight yards. There was no tackle credited, however, since Scott recovered the ball on his own while on the ground.

Pitching a Shutout: Kudos to the Wildcat defense, which shut out Washington in the second half of last week's game. It was the second time Arizona blanked an opponent in the second half this season (beat SC State 56-0 on Sept. 15), but it was the first time it has done so against a conference opponent in two years. In fact, the last time the Cats' defense posted a second half zero on the scoreboard was against Washington on Oct. 23, 2010 (44-14 victory).

Austin's A-Game: Sophomore receiver Austin Hill is turning in a breakout campaign, highlighted by a career day at then-No. 18 Stanford on Oct. 6. Against the Cardinal, Hill set career highs for receptions (11) and yards (165), while matching his career-best with two touchdowns. UA's most versatile receiver that can play any of the four positions, Hill has become the Wildcats' go-to guy in key situations, evidenced by 30 of his 44 overall receptions (68.2%) resulting in first downs or touchdowns. The Corona, Calif., native is also leading the club in explosive plays, with 12 total receptions going for 20-plus yards, helping him to a team-best 15.4 yards per catch. Those 12 20-plus yard receptions rank tied for eight-most nationally. Hill is averaging 96.9 receiving yards per game, which ranks No. 14 nationally and No. 4 in the Pac-12 Conference.

Hill Climbing: Just past the midway point of the season, sophomore receiver Austin Hill is in position to move into some notable school single-season top-10 charts (see page 11 of this release) in the coming games should he remain healthy and productive. Through seven games, Hill has 44 receptions for 678 yards and seven touchdowns. He is 19 receptions shy of matching Dennis Northcutt's 63 grabs in 1998, which holds down the No. 10 spot. From a yardage standpoint, Hill is 238 yards short of Jeremy McDaniel's 916 markers from that 1998 season, also the No. 10 mark. In the touchdowns category, Hill is just one shy of matching five former Cats who share the No. 10 position.

Dan's The Man: In the receiving jamboree, senior Dan Buckner has been overshadowed by youngster Austin Hill, but the upperclassman has turned in a strong campaign. Buckner is tied for the team lead in receptions (44) and checks in second in yards (599), averaging 13.6 yards per grab – also second-best on the squad. With a pair of 100-yard receiving games, Buckner joins Hill (three 100-yard games) as one of three Pac-12 duos with multiple 100-yard games. Buckner is tied for No. 5 nationally with 29 receptions of 10-plus yards. He has 10 over 20 yards.

Taimi Time: Senior Taimi Tutogi, a mainstay as a starting fullback/tight end throughout his career, added the role of a third down pass rush specialist to his list of responsibilities during fall camp. His continued development as a pass rusher came to fruition last week against Washington as he registered his first career sack and set career-highs with three tackles and 1.5 tackles for loss. On the season, Tutogi has four tackles, one sack and a fumble recovery, to go with nine receptions for 60 yards and a touchdown on offense.

Morrison Breaks One: Junior receiver Richard Morrison, named the Pac-12 Special Teams Player of the Week on Monday, has been the team's starting punt returner throughout the season, but he had just 10 returns for 63 yards entering last weekend's game against Washington. That changed in a blink of an eye when Morrison took a third-quarter punt to the house for a 63-yard touchdown to double his season tally for return yards and notch his first career special teams touchdown (has four receiving scores). Morrison received some key blocks along the way, including a screen from Mark Watley to allow him to cruise into the endzone for the final 15 yards. The Wildcats saw their punt return average go from No. 86 in the nation (6.3 ypr) to No. 33 (11.5 ypr). It was UA's first punt return for a touchdown since William "Bug" Wright covered 89 yards for a score against Washington State on Nov. 7, 2009, at Arizona Stadium.

For Starters: After being shutout in the opening period of the first three conference games, the Wildcats enjoyed a 10-3 lead at the end of the first quarter last week against Washington. The pesky first quarter has been troublesome for UA, which is being outscored 38-30 by opponents this season. That could be something to keep an eye on this week as the Trojans have been a dominant first quarter team, outscoring foes 70-31. Second quarters of games have not been much better for USC opponents, as the Trojans own a 91-16 advantage in that period. Overall, it's a 161-47 scoring advantage in the first half of games this season for USC. After halftime is interesting: UA's highest-scoring single quarter has been the third quarter, when it has combined for 90 points against 59 opposing points. Conversely, USC has been outscored 43-21 in the third period.

A Shot at the South: Arizona opened Pac-12 Conference action with four games against teams from the North Division, and inconveniently the Wildcats were lined up to play Oregon, Oregon State and Stanford over three consecutive weeks. In fact, because of that schedule, Arizona is the only Pac-12 school which will play all four conference teams currently ranked in the AP Top 25 this season. The fourth school is this week's opponent (USC, ranked No. 10), which begins five straight weeks against South Division rivals to close the regular season. So while UA finds itself in a hole with a 1-3 conference mark, it can quickly make up ground in the South Division with some victories against its rivals.

A Rarity: Ka'Deem Carey had touched the ball (rush attempt, pass reception or kick return) 332 times in his Arizona career without losing a fumble. In fact, he had fumbled just once (it was recovered by UA) in those 332 touches. But on his first rush of the second half against Washington, Carey fumbled and the Huskies recovered. Fortunately for the Wildcats, Marquis Flowers forced a fumble on the very next Washington play, and Dan Pettinato recovered to give the Wildcats the ball back to set up a touchdown to give them a 38-17 lead early in the third quarter.

600-Yard Games: Before the season started, Arizona football games had produced just a dozen 600-yard total offense games by the Wildcats or their opponents. After six weeks, there have already been six such occurrences this season. Arizona rolled up 689 yards against South Carolina State (Sept. 15) and 624 yards against Toledo (Sept. 1), the second and third-most single-game offensive outputs in program history. However, UA's opponents have also notched a pair 600-yard games. Oklahoma State racked up 636 yards in a loss on Sept. 8, while Oregon State totaled 613 yards in a Sept. 29 win. At Stanford earlier this month, both the Cats and Cardinal put up exactly 617 yards.

Big Play Bondurant: Perhaps one of the most underrated defenders in the Pac-12 is "Spur" safety Tra'Mayne Bondurant. The true sophomore has a nose for the football and has proven to be a pest for opposing teams. The Vallejo, Calif., native is fifth on the team with 43 total tackles, but he leads all players and ranks tied for sixth in the Pac-12 with 10.5 tackles for loss. The 10.5 stops behind the line surpass UA's season leader from a year ago, since-departed linebacker Derek Earls, who had 7.0 TFLs. Bondurant, who has four passes broken up and a forced fumble this season, intercepted his first pass of the season last week against Washington, returning it 43 yards to help set up Arizona's second touchdown.

A Budding Star: Converted safety Marquis Flowers continues to develop as a linebacker, a position he was switched to about a week before the start of the season. At 6-foot-3, 221 pounds, Flowers is Arizona's biggest linebacker and ranks as team's leader with 3.5 sacks. Flowers is also second on the squad with 7.5 tackles for loss and second with 48 total tackles. He has added two pass breakups and has forced one fumble. Flowers turned in a pair of big plays against the Huskies last week, collecting one of the team's four sacks and forcing a key turnover. After UA fumbled on its opening possession of the second half, the Huskies had the ball near midfield and were poised to cut the game to a one-score deficit. However, on the first play of the drive, Flowers pressured QB Keith Price and forced a fumble that was recovered by Dan Pettinato. The Cats outscored Washington 21-0 from that point on.

Man In The Middle: Junior Jake Fischer has been a stalwart middle linebacker in Arizona's new 3-3-5 defensive scheme implemented this season by defense coordinator Jeff Casteel. Fischer, who missed the 2011 season with an ACL injury, leads all Pac-12 players and ranks No. 31 nationally with 9.7 tackles per game (58 total). That's just a couple tackles shy of 10 per game for the slightly undersized 6-foot, 215-pounder. Don't tell that to Fischer, though, who has shown a nose for the ball early in the season. Fischer has 3.5 tackles for loss, one pass breakup, two forced fumbles and a pair of fumble recoveries. He was named Pac-12 Defensive Player of the Week following a career-high 13-tackle season debut against Toledo on Sept. 1.

Step Right Up: When Jared Tevis went down with an ankle injury against Oregon State, the Wildcats turned to redshirt freshman Patrick Onwuasor (pronounced oh-WAH-soh). A former receiver who switched to safety during fall camp, Onwuasor (affectionately called "Peanut" by coaches and teammates) saw his first significant duty as a defender after emerging as a playmaker on special teams coverage units early in the season. Onwuasor, who has a team-high six tackles on special teams, finished the Oregon State game with eight tackles. He followed that up with eight more tackles and a pass breakup at Stanford, and then five more tackles and a half tackle for loss against Washington in his second career start.

Tevis A Go? The Wildcats have been without one of their top defenders over the last two-and-a-half games since "Bandit" Jared Tevis went down with an ankle injury against Oregon State on Sept. 29. He was listed as questionable for last week's game against Washington, and his status remains to be determined for this week's game. His absence has been felt and his return, whenever it is, will be welcomed. A former walk-on who earned a scholarship after spring ball, Tevis ranked second in the Pac-12 with 42 tackles prior to his injury. He still ranks second on the squad with two interceptions and has added five pass breakups.

Missing Men: Arizona has been without two of its senior leaders along the offensive line over the last several weeks. Center Kyle Quinn and guard Trace Biskin, both graduate students, have 34 combined career starts, but each went down with an injury in late September and have not been available in October. Biskin has missed three starts, while Quinn has missed two. Others have filled in nicely in their absence, notably senior center Addison Bachman and senior guard/tackle Shane Zink, but depth remains an issue. When Quinn and Biskin return to the lineup, they'll not only bring necessary leadership to the O-line, but also give the Wildcats the needed depth for the stretch run of conference play.

Kickin' Kyle: Senior punter Kyle Dugandzic is putting together a strong season, even if he is averaging less than four punts per game. Dugandzic's overall average is a hefty 44.2 yards per boot, with five 50-plus yarders. He ranks No. 3 in the Pac-12 in punting average (44.2), while UA ranks No. 2 in the conference and No. 23 nationally in net punting (39.8). He was named the Pac-12 Special Teams Player of the Week (Oct. 1) in a losing cause after a sensational performance against Oregon State that included a career-long 70-yard boomer and four of five total punts landing inside the 20-yard line. In that respect, Dugandzic has placed 10 of his 25 punts inside the 20-yard line and has just one touchback.

Welcome Back, J-Wash: Junior defensive end Justin Washington made his first start of the season last week against Washington, but it was nothing new for the Cypress, Texas, native. Washington was a nine-game starter as a redshirt freshman in 2010 when he earned freshman all-america honors from multiple publications. That year Washington finished with 46 tackles, 11.5 tackles for loss, six sacks and a blocked kick. As a sophomore, he started six games but saw his production drop before injuries limited his time late in the year. He then got off to a sluggish start under the new coaching regime and later faced an indefinite suspension for a violation of team rules in August. He was reinstated to the club in September and has since worked his way up from scout team back to a starting role. Washington's first game action was at Stanford (Oct. 6) followed by the start against the Huskies last week, in which he collected four tackles and helped create some push up front that led to a season-high four sacks for the Wildcats. A 16-game starter throughout his career, Washington has 69 tackles, including 13.5 for loss, along with six sacks at Arizona.

Scoring In Perspective: Arizona's 274 points in six games are already challenging some season totals from the past decade. In fact, none of the five UA teams from 2002-06 scored as many points in a season as the Wildcats already have this year. Mike Stoops' first UA team scored 164 points over 11 games in 2004, one season after the Wildcats scored 181 in an 11-game 2003 campaign. To his credit, Stoops' teams steadily improved after the lowly '04 campaign and topped out at 476 points in a 13-game season in 2008. In fact, the 36.6 points per game that season was the second-highest average in program history. The 1954 gridiron squad holds the top mark, a 38.5 per game clip. Rich Rodriguez's first team is sitting at 39.1 with plenty of season still to come.

In A Rush: Arizona has rushed for 100 yards in six of its first seven games in 2012, just a season removed when it did so in just five games last fall. The Wildcats have 1,375 yards on the ground, an average of 196.4 yards per game (No. 3 in Pac-12). That's a significant improvement over last season's 94.5 per-game tally, which finished ranked second-to-last in the Pac-12 and No. 114 nationally. In fact, this year's rushing total (1,375) has surpassed last year's 12-game total of 1,134 yards. Running back Ka'Deem Carey leads the club with 842 yards, while quarterback Matt Scott ranks second with 265 yards. UA's leading rusher a year ago was senior Keola Antolin, who finished his final season at the school with 568 yards.

1,000-Yard Seasons: Ka'Deem Carey is nearing a 1,000-yard season running the ball (842 yards). He's also more than half way (155) toward a 250-carry season, last accomplished by UA school-record holder Trung Canidate, who toted the ball 253 times in 1999 for the 1,602 yards that stand atop UA's single-season rushing chart. Clarence Farmer had 209 carries in a 1,229 season in 2001, the most since. Nic Grigsby had 214 totes for 1,196 yards in UA's 2008 season, the last 1,000-yard rusher. From the yardage standpoint, Carey could become Rich Rodriguez's first 1,000-yard rusher from the running back position since Steve Slaton had 1,051 in 2007 at West Virginia. Rodriguez's only 1,000-yard rusher at Michigan was quarterback Dennard Robinson (2010).

Total Offense: Matt Scott has taken over the No. 11 spot on Arizona's career total offense chart (see page 11 for top-10). He has 4,453 yards on 652 plays and trails pro-style passer Jason Johnson (5,285, 1999-2002) for the No. 10 spot. Scott, averaging a remarkable 374.3 yards per game this year, has a whiff of the all-time UA top five in the category, which would take some doing. Passers Nick Foles (9,712 yards from 2009-11), Willie Tuitama (8,727 from 2005-08) and Tom Tunnicliffe (7,336 from 1980-83) head the chart, followed by dual QBs Keith Smith (7,049 from 1996-99), Alfred Jenkins (6,307 from 1983-86), Bruce Hill (6,054 from 1973-75) and Ortege Jenkins (5,577 from 1997-00). Drop-back thrower Dan White (5,312/1993-95) and is also in front of Scott. The only four-year starter on the list is Tunnicliffe, although Smith and O. Jenkins split some duties for three years after Smitty's freshman year, and Krohn put in heavy duty as a freshman. Tuitama started the latter half of his freshman year and the rest of the way in his career. Foles and White were transfers who started three seasons. Scott's basically a one-year starter -- 2012 -- putting up some real numbers.

Chain Gang: Arizona, which leads all FBS teams with 31.1 first downs per game, has more first downs (218) in seven games than 19 Wildcat teams had in full seasons since Arizona affiliated with the Pac-10/12 in 1978. Tough to think a squad could average 31 per game, but with that amount in the next game the Cats can crack the single season top-five with still four (plus a bowl?) games to go. Extrapolating all the way, it's clear the Cats have a shot at the school mark of 309 first downs by the Nick Foles-led Cats of 2011. Only that club and his junior-year Cats in 2008 had more (308) than 300.

Building for the Future: The Lowell-Stevens Football Facility, scheduled to open in August 2013, marks a dynamic shift in the Arizona football culture as it will become the centerpiece of the program on the north end of Arizona Stadium. Supported by private funds, including significant leadership gifts from David and Edith Lowell and from Jeff and Sharon Stevens, the $72.3 million project will provide the Wildcats with one of the premier football facilities in the nation. The facility will be a four-floor operations center with strength training, sports-medicine, coaches offices, locker rooms, meeting rooms, equipment and facility service areas. The structure will enclose the north end of the stadium and create a full bowl with nearly 4,000 premium spectator seats, including a donor lounge with outdoor seating. Additionally, stairways and elevator towers for the concourse will connect the structure to the existing east and west stadium sections. Restrooms, amenity areas and a cafeteria will also serve the campus community. Arizona Stadium has an official capacity of 51,811 for this season, but once work is completed on the Lowell-Stevens Football Facility, the venue will near the some 57,000 seats it has held in recent years.

Up Next: Arizona hits the road for just the third time this season when it takes on UCLA at the Rose Bowl in Pasadena, Calif., on Saturday, Nov. 3. Kickoff time has been set for 7:30 p.m. (PT) and the game will be televised on the Pac-12 Networks.

The Last Meeting: 2011 Arizona at USC

Arizona..... 41

USC 48

Oct. 1, 2011 // Los Angeles // L.A. Memorial Coliseum (63,707)

Start: 12:41 p.m. // TOG: 3:07 // Weather: Sunny, 85 degrees

LOS ANGELES (AP) -- Matt Barkley passed for a school-record 468 yards and four touchdowns, Robert Woods made 14 catches for 255 yards and two scores, and Southern California outlasted Arizona 48-41 Saturday.

Freshmen Marqise Lee and Xavier Grimble caught TD passes from Barkley, who also rushed for a score while breaking Carson Palmer's 2002 yardage record with a blistering performance against Arizona's maligned defense.

The Trojans (4-1, 2-1 Pac-12) needed almost every yard against Arizona's Nick Foles, who passed for 425 yards and four TDs of his own. USC outgained Arizona 582-554 in a game largely devoid of defense.

Ka'Deem Carey rushed for two touchdowns and caught another scoring pass for the Wildcats (1-4, 0-3), who haven't beaten an FBS opponent in nearly a year.

Barkley went 32 for 39 with one interception, bouncing back from a rough start at Arizona State last week with another landmark game. After setting the USC record for single-game completions in the season opener, the junior has thrown nine TD passes in his last two home games.

Woods is having the most prolific season by a receiver in USC's long history through five games, starting off this chapter with an 82-yard score on the Trojans' second play.

The speedy sophomore, who set the USC mark with 17 catches in that season-opening win over Minnesota, fell 5 yards short of R. Jay Soward's 260-yard school record when Arizona held him to one catch for 2 yards in the fourth quarter.

Keola Antolin rushed for 87 yards for Arizona, which has lost four straight despite its prolific offense. Star receiver Juron Criner was limited to three catches for 29 yards and a touchdown.

Foles went 41 for 53, but threw two drive-killing interceptions to T.J. McDonald in the first half that allowed USC to pull away with a 27-12 halftime lead. The Trojans stayed ahead throughout the second half to stay unbeaten in four home games this season, repeatedly covering up for defensive struggles with offensive brilliance.

Woods took charge from USC's second play, catching a short pass from Barkley and splitting two defenders before outrunning the entire Arizona secondary down the sideline for a score. Lee caught a wide-open 38-yard TD pass from Barkley late in the first quarter when Arizona's entire defense appeared to focus on Woods, and Grimble caught a 7-yard scoring strike midway through the second quarter.

Arizona's spread offense also moved the ball easily against USC, punting just once in the first three quarters -- but Foles' mistakes put the Wildcats in a huge hole. Foles' first interception of the season killed the Wildcats' second drive in USC territory, and Foles badly overthrew David Douglas in the Trojans' end on the next drive.

McDonald, the hard-hitting safety, made both interceptions for the Trojans, who had just one interception in their first four games.

Woods caught a 28-yard TD pass down the middle just 2:03 into the third quarter, putting the Trojans up 34-12. But Foles kept the Wildcats moving for back-to-back touchdowns in the third quarter, bookending Barkley's only turnover.

After Curtis McNeal rushed for a 9-yard score with 9:28 to play to put the Trojans up by 14 points, USC turned the ball over on downs at midfield in the closing minutes. Austin Hill caught a 4-yard TD pass from Foles with 1 minute to play, but McDonald recovered an onside kick to seal it.

USC has won nine of its last 10 meetings with the Wildcats, who won in their last visit to the Coliseum two years ago.

Game 1

Toledo 17
Arizona..... 24 OT

Sept. 1, 2012 // Tucson, Ariz. // Arizona Stadium (48,670)
Start: 7:37 p.m. // TOG: 3:47 // Weather: 93 degrees, Partly cloudy

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP) -- Toledo coach Matt Campbell flipped a coin to determine his starting quarterback on Saturday. Unfortunately for him and the Rockets, who took snaps for Arizona did not come down to chance.

Arizona quarterback Matt Scott, scrambling to his right, barely inbounds and with a defender grabbing his jersey, tossed a 10-yard touchdown pass to Terrence Miller in overtime to give the Wildcats a 24-17 victory on Saturday night.

Arizona pulled out Rich Rodriguez's coaching debut after its kicker, John Bonano, missed a 25-yard field goal as regulation ended. Bonano missed a 24-yarder earlier in the game.

Scott threw for a career-high 387 yards and rushed for 74 yards. Ka'Deem Carey had 147 yards on 20 carries, including a 73-yard touchdown run.

Arizona amassed 624 yards, second-most in school history, to Toledo's 358 but had two touchdowns called back by penalties, turned the ball over three times and missed the two short field goals.

Terrance Owens threw a 59-yard TD pass to Alonzo Russell for the Rockets, who have never beaten a Pac-12 team.

With both teams disdaining the huddle, the game was played at a frenetic pace. In all, the teams combined for 182 plays, 94 by Toledo and 88 by Arizona.

Campbell, at 32 the youngest head coach in the FBS subdivision, flipped a coin to decide which of his experienced quarterbacks would start. Austin Dantin won the toss, but Owens replaced him after two series.

Owens didn't return after he was hit hard and fumbled the ball away in the third quarter. Owens was 11 of 22 for 134 yards, Dantin 10 of 25 for 63 yards.

Scott, who sat out last season as a redshirt junior while Nick Foles completed his college eligibility, kept Arizona's offense on the move all night. He completed 30 of 46 passes, including two touchdowns. He was intercepted once.

Dan Buckner caught 10 for 116 yards and Austin Hill seven for 139 yards, including a spectacular, diving, fingertip grab of Scott's 30-yard pass for Arizona's first touchdown.

Arizona seemed to have the game in hand when Scott rushed for 31 yards in three carries as the Wildcats drove to the Toledo 5 in the waning seconds, but he was tackled near the right hash mark, leaving Bonano a slight angle on his kick. The attempt wasn't even close, hooking far to the left to send the game into overtime.

Toledo, with both quarterbacks and several other significant players returning from last season's 9-4 team, moved the ball most of the night on the young, susceptible Arizona defense. But the Wildcats stopped David Fluellen for a 2-yard loss on third-and-1 at the Arizona 21, forcing the Rockets to settle for Jeremiah Detmer's 40-yard field goal that tied it at 17-17 with 14:18 to play.

Arizona led 3-0 after the first quarter on Bonano's 26-yard field goal.

After Detmer missed a 48-yard field goal, Arizona quickly advanced to the Rockets' 9-yard line. But after Richard Morrison caught a short pass from Scott, he dropped the ball, and Toledo's Toll Molls recovered at the Rockets' 6.

Toledo took it downfield from there, going 94 yards in 10 plays, with Owens finding Russell wide open on the 59-yard touchdown play that made it 7-3 with 13:55 left in the half. The Wildcats came back with a 10-play, 64-yard scoring drive, ending with Hill's diving grab to put Arizona ahead 10-7 with 12:04 left in the half.

Arizona had a 67-yard touchdown run by Daniel Jenkins negated by a holding penalty. Toledo regained the lead with a 63-yard drive aided by a defensive holding penalty and personal foul against Arizona.

Owens had a 23-yard pass to Cordale Scott on the drive, which ended with Cassius McDowell scoring on a 1-yard run to put the Rockets ahead 14-10 with 12:04 left in the second quarter, a lead that held until halftime.

Arizona blew another scoring opportunity in the second quarter when Scott threw over the middle to Hill on a 32-yard play, but the receiver fumbled when he was hit, and the ball bounced into the hands of Toledo's Robert Bell at the Rockets' 34-yard line.

18) Oklahoma State..... 38

Arizona..... 59

Sept. 8, 2012 // Tucson, Ariz. // Arizona Stadium (45,602)
 Start: 7:37 p.m. // TOG: 3:36 // Weather: 80 degrees, Windy

TUCSON, Ariz. -- Oklahoma State quarterback Wes Lunt set a Big 12 freshman record by throwing for 436 yards and connected with Tracy Moore for four touchdown passes.

The Cowboys piled up 636 yards of offense, the second straight week they eclipsed 600 yards, and scored 38 points.

Those weren't the numbers that mattered.

Lunt threw three interceptions and Oklahoma State set a school record with 167 penalty yards, sending the 18th-ranked Cowboys to a frustrating 59-38 loss to Arizona in the desert on Saturday night.

Arizona (2-0) fell into a quick 14-0 hole before scoring the next 30 points as Oklahoma State (1-1) unraveled under a shower of yellow flags. Even with all the penalties, the Cowboys settled down enough to rally within two points late in the third quarter.

The Wildcats wouldn't let them any closer, scoring 29 points after the 3-minute mark of the third quarter to run away from the Cowboys.

Ka'Deem Carey ran for 147 yards in his debut as the featured back last week and followed it up by scoring four touchdowns while rushing for 126 yards on 26 carries.

Matt Scott also had a nice follow-up to his dazzling opener, throwing for 320 yards and two touchdowns on 28-of-41 passing while running for 55 yards and another score.

Together, they helped Arizona take a step toward becoming relevant again.

Lunt hit 37 of 60 passes and threw for the fourth-most yards in school history in his second game as Oklahoma State's starter. He also had some shaky moments, tossing three interceptions, including one returned 48 yards for a touchdown by Jonathan McKnight in the fourth quarter.

Joseph Randle added 123 yards on 23 carries but the Cowboys just couldn't seem to stay out of their own way, committing 15 penalties and turning it over four times.

Defensive tackle Calvin Barnett was called for consecutive personal fouls on one play, setting up Scott's 15-yard touchdown pass to Richard Morrison.

A fumble by Randle on the next drive, followed by a late-hit penalty on cornerback Broderick Brown, set up a 22-yard field goal by John Bonano.

A fourth personal foul by Oklahoma State in the half, on linebacker Shaun Lewis for hitting Scott as he slid, led to a third field goal by Bonano, a 24-yarder. Carey added a 1-yard touchdown run - with a little help from teammates - late in the quarter to put Arizona up 23-14 at halftime.

Oklahoma State had nine penalties for 110 yards in the half and its last drive ended when Arizona's Jared Tevis intercepted a tipped pass by Lunt at the Wildcats' 29.

The second half opened the same way: Barnett was flagged for a late hit on the opening play and Arizona scored on a 13-yard screen pass from Scott to Carey for a 30-14 lead.

But the score seemed to snap the Cowboys out of their funk.

Lunt hit Morgan for a 9-yard touchdown pass and the Cowboys kept marching on Arizona the next drive, setting up Jeremy Smith's 10-yard touchdown run that cut Arizona's lead to 30-28.

It turned out to be their last gasp.

The Wildcats raced down the field on their next drive, setting up Scott's 8-yard touchdown run up the middle. Lunt, facing pressure for one of the few times all game, threw up a weak pass early in the fourth quarter and McKnight picked it off for an easy touchdown. Oklahoma State was called for pass interference on the 2-point try - naturally - and Arizona converted on the second attempt to go up 45-31.

Carey sealed it with a 25-yard TD run up the middle and added a 1-yarder for good measure in the closing minutes to send the Zona Zoo into a frenzy and the Wildcats to a look-at-us win.

"There's some excited guys in the locker room and I'm proud of them," Rodriguez said. "It's a nice win, the guys played and made the plays when they needed to."

And with it should come some extra - and wanted - attention.

Game 3

South Carolina State 0
24) Arizona 56

Sept. 15, 2012 // Tucson, Ariz. // Arizona Stadium (43,919)
Start: 7:37 p.m. // TOG: 2:59 // Weather: 83 degrees, clear, calm

☒ TUCSON, Ariz. (AP) — South Carolina State had trouble stopping No. 24 Arizona's offense, allowing the Wildcats to run a whopping 102 plays.

It was just as bad for the Bulldogs on offense, maybe even worse.

Overmatched against the bigger, faster Wildcats, South Carolina State managed just eight first downs in a 56-0 loss to Arizona on Saturday night.

Arizona knocked off No. 18 Oklahoma State last week and opens the Pac-12 next weekend at No. 4 Oregon. Sandwiched in between was a game against the Bulldogs, one the Wildcats couldn't afford to take lightly.

They didn't.

Instead of a letdown as coach Rich Rodriguez feared, Arizona (3-0) handled a from the Football Championship Subdivision as any good program would, racing out to a 28-0 lead by halftime and a school-record 43 first downs overall.

Matt Scott threw for 288 yards and three touchdowns on 30-of-36 passing, and added a 10-yard scoring run in another stellar performance to start his senior season.

Arizona's try-to-keep-up-with-us offense ran a school-record 102 plays and had 689 total yards, two short of another record.

The defense was just as dominant, holding South Carolina State (1-2) to 154 total yards for its first shutout in four years.

Yep, this was just the kind of confidence-building tuneup the Wildcats needed before heading to rowdy Autzen Stadium for their first road game of the season.

South Carolina State had little chance against Arizona's athleticism, unable to top the Wildcats from marching down the field or get anything going on offense.

The Bulldogs failed to crack double-digits in first downs and had virtually no running game, gaining 65 yards on 29 carries. Quarterback Richard Cue trouble against Arizona's speedy defenders, badly missing several receivers while going 12 for 25 for 89 yards with an interception.

After rolling over Oklahoma State 59-38 last week, the Wildcats moved into The Associated Press poll for the first time in nearly two years.

They needed an easy win with a tough Pac-12 run coming up next. After the Ducks next weekend, Arizona plays a conference schedule that includes No. 2 Southern California, No. 21 Stanford, No. 22 UCLA and rival Arizona State.

The Wildcats had no trouble moving the ball against the Bulldogs, but did have a little problem getting out of their own way in the early going.

Arizona raced to a touchdown on its first possession, Scott capping it with a 15-yard touchdown pass to Richard Morrison.

Moving quickly again, the Wildcats lost the ball near midfield when Morrison fumbled and the Bulldogs recovered. Another fast-moving drive ended with John Bonano, the reigning Pac-12 special teams player of the week, pushing a 25-yard field goal wide right.

Those turned out to be just blips in the Wildcats' march of dominance.

Scott hit Taimi Tutogi on a 14-yard touchdown to open the second quarter after the Bulldogs bit hard on a play-action fake. Ka'Deem Carey capped the next drive with a 7-yard touchdown run around the right end.

Scott closed out the impressive first half by pinballing off several defenders into the end zone for a 10-yard run that made it 28-0.

Scott, who entered the game tied with Syracuse's Ryan Nassib for the national lead with 836 total yards, threw for 175 yards and ran for 61 more in the first half.

Arizona's offense had 323 yards by halftime and its defense held South Carolina State to 69.

If it wasn't over already, the Wildcats made sure in the third quarter, when Scott hit Dan Buckner on a 27-yard touchdown pass and Jenkins carried half of South Carolina State's defense with him on a 5-yard scoring run that made it 42-0.

By then, pretty much all of Arizona's starters were on the sideline, resting up for what will certainly be a much tougher task against the fast-flying Ducks.

The Wildcats will at least go there on a high instead of coming off letdown after taking care of the Bulldogs.

Game 4

22) Arizona 0

3) Oregon 49

Sept. 22, 2012 // Eugene, Ore. // Autzen Stadium (58,334)
Start: 7:36 p.m. // TOG: 3:19 // Weather: 65 degrees, cloudy, drizzle

EUGENE, Ore. (AP) — Redshirt freshman Marcus Mariota threw for 260 yards and two touchdowns, including a 55-yard scoring pass to freshman Bralon Addison late in the third quarter, and No. 3 Oregon beat No. 22 Arizona 49-0 Saturday night.

Billed as an offensive juggernaut between the Pac-12's fastest scoring teams, Oregon didn't find its stride until the second half — and Arizona never did — and the Ducks (4-0, 1-0) got their seventh straight conference-opening victory.

Much had been made about the meeting between the quick-striking Ducks under Chip Kelly and Arizona's spread offense under no-huddle, up-tempo pioneer Rich Rodriguez. Oregon went into it the averaging 54 points per game, while Arizona wasn't far behind with an average of a little more than 46 points.

However, Arizona (3-1, 0-1) couldn't find the end zone and quarterback Matt Scott, a fifth-year senior who spent the last two seasons behind Nick Foles, passed for 210 yards but was intercepted three times — one returned for a touchdown.

The game got off to a sloppy start as Oregon failed on fourth down and each team turned the ball over before Mariota found Daryle Hawkins with a 17-yard touchdown pass midway through the first quarter.

Arizona got as close as the 2-yard line on the next series, but couldn't punch it in and turned the ball over on downs. The Wildcats' struggles continued when John Bonano's 31-yard field goal was blocked early in the second quarter.

Rob Beard hit a 27-yard field goal to increase Oregon's advantage to 10-0. It was the Ducks' first FG of the season. Beard added a 41-yarder late in the first half to make it 13-0 at the break.

While both offenses appeared to sputter at times, defenses made the difference in the first half. Oregon's hybrid 3-4 under longtime defensive coordinator Nick Aliotti held the Wildcats to 141 yards in total offense in the first 30 minutes. Meanwhile, Arizona's new 3-3-5 defense kept the normally prolific Ducks from piling on points.

There was more of the same to open the second half, and the first two possessions by both teams ended in punts.

But then the Ducks started rolling. De'Anthony Thomas returned Arizona's third-straight punt 38 yards, setting up a 35-yard pass to Colt Lyerla, who finished it off with a 1-yard touchdown run. The drive took just three plays and 29 seconds.

Kiko Alonso intercepted Scott, leading to Mariota's long TD pass to Addison, before Ifo Ekpre-Olomu ran his interception back 54 yards to make it 35-0.

Bryan Bennett added an 8-yard scoring run with 4:02 left in the game before Troy Hill intercepted Scott's backup, B.J. Denker, for a 29-yard touchdown and the final margin.

Arizona opened coach Rodriguez's tenure with a victory over Toledo before upsetting then-No. 18 Oklahoma State 59-38 in their second game. Last weekend in a 56-0 win over South Carolina State, the Wildcats ran a school-record 102 offensive plays.

The Wildcats were the first big test for Oregon, which opened the season with victories over Arkansas State, Fresno State and lower-division Tennessee Tech.

Before this season, Arizona hadn't been ranked in the AP Top 25 since November 2010, when the No. 20 Wildcats were knocked out with a 48-29 loss to the then-No. 1 Ducks.

Last season, Oregon defeated Arizona 56-31 in Tucson.

Oregon's last shutout of Arizona came in 1964, when the Ducks won 21-0 at Hayward Field in Eugene.

Game 5

18) Oregon State 38

Arizona..... 35

Sept. 29, 2012 // Tucson, Ariz. // Arizona Stadium (44,153)

Start: 7:08 p.m. // TOG: 3:35 // Weather: 86 degrees, clear

TUCSON, Ariz. -- A momentum-swinging game hanging in the balance, Oregon State coach Mike Riley pulled out a play he had been saving all game.

So what if he would have liked more space to run it. This was the time to do -- and it couldn't have worked out any better.

Sean Mannion threw for a career-high 433 yards and hit Connor Hamlett on a 9-yard pass with 1:09 left for his third touchdown, lifting No. 18 Oregon State to wild 38-35 win over Arizona Saturday night.

Oregon State (3-0, 1-1 Pac-12) took a 17-0 lead, Arizona charged back and the teams traded scores in the second half of a game filled with big plays and 1,158 yards of combined offense.

Arizona (3-2, 0-1 Pac-12) landed a big blow in the can-you-top this second half, going up 35-31 with 5:34 left when Matt Scott hit Austin Hill on a 7-yard touchdown. The problem was that it left too much time for Mannion.

Knowing his team had moved the ball all game against the Wildcats, the calm-and-cool sophomore guided the Beavers 75 yards down the field in 10 plays. Facing a third-and-5 with just over a minute left, Mannion called out a play that sent one receiver into the left flat and Hamlett down the sideline. Arizona's defenders followed the receiver in the flat and Mannion whipped a pass to Hamlett, who slipped just inside the pylon for the winning score.

Mannion finished 29 of 45 for the fifth-most passing yards in school history while setting a career high for the second week. He hit Markus Wheaton 10 times for 166 yards and a pair of touchdowns, and Brandin Cooks nine times for 149 yards.

Storm Woods added for 161 yards and a touchdown for the Beavers, off to their first 3-0 start since 2002. Arizona nearly kept up with them.

Scott fought through a sprained ankle in the second half to throw for a career-high 403 yards and three touchdowns, but had two interceptions, including one near midfield in the final minute. Ka'Deem Carey ran for 115 yards and two touchdowns. Dan Buckner caught six passes for 119 yards and a score.

It wasn't enough for Arizona, which has lost two straight after opening 3-0.

Mannion was sharp early, hitting Cooks on a 57-yard pass in the first quarter to set up a 2-yard touchdown pass to Wheaton in the back of the end zone.

Next series, Mannion hit Wheaton for a 51-yard gain, leading to Trevor Romaine's 30-yard field goal.

Mannion found Kevin Cummings next, on a 38-yard pass to position Tyler Anderson for a 1-yard touchdown dive that put the Beavers up 17-0.

Arizona's offense tried to answer after sputtering early.

The Beavers bogged Arizona down in the first quarter and held when the Wildcats had their first sustained drive, which ended with John Bonano pushing a 30-yard field goal wide right after Scott was called for intentional grounding.

That wasn't a good sign for the Wildcats, who went 0-for-6 in the red zone in a 49-0 loss to Oregon last week.

Arizona managed to end its red-zone woes late in the second quarter, though, when the officials checked the replay to see if Carey fumbled at the 1-yard line and determined he actually went into the end zone for a score that cut Oregon State's lead to 17-7.

Arizona kept rolling on its opening drive of the second half, quickly marching 91 yards in 10 plays for a 3-yard pass from Scott to Hill.

The Wildcats needed a minute to score again, this one a 24-yard run up the middle by Carey, who carried a couple of Oregon State defenders into the end zone with him to put Arizona up 21-17.

Scott made a mistake on the next drive, when Jordan Poyer missed an interception at midfield, then got it when the ball caromed off Richard Morrison. That set up a 1-yard touchdown run by Woods to give Oregon State the lead back.

Woods followed with a mistake of his own, losing a fumble at Oregon State's 40. Scott then threw to the corner of the end zone to Buckner, who's over-the-shoulder, 16-yard TD catch put the Wildcats up 28-24.

Mannion's turn was next. Using a pump fake, he got the entire right side of Arizona's defense to bite and winged a 20-yard touchdown to Wheaton that put the Beavers back out front.

Scott answered, marching the Wildcats for a 7-yard touchdown pass to Hill, who dived in the final yard to make it 35-31.

He just left too much time for Mannion and the Beavers, who head home to play Washington State next week with plenty of momentum on their side.

Game 6

Arizona..... 48 OT
Stanford..... 54

Oct. 6, 2012 // Tucson, Ariz. // Stanford Stadium (48,204)
Start: 12:05 p.m. // TOG: 3:51 // Weather: Upper 60s, Partly Cloudy

STANFORD, Calif. -- Josh Nunes bailed out Stanford's defense for a change and started to erase doubts about whether he's the right man to replace Andrew Luck after all.

Nunes threw for a career-high 360 yards and two touchdowns and ran for three more scores, rallying No. 18 Stanford from a two-touchdown deficit to stun Arizona 54-48 in overtime Saturday.

Chase Thomas intercepted a tipped pass by Matt Scott in the extra period and Stepfan Taylor ran for a 21-yard touchdown two plays later to end a week of second-guessing Nunes with a wild celebration in the Cardinal (4-1, 2-1 Pac-12) side of the north end zone.

The offense failed to find the end zone in a 17-13 loss at Washington last week. Nunes underthrew several passes or misfired completely, and critics began to mount enough for Shaw to open his weekly news conference defending his new quarterback and boldly calling any question about a change "asinine."

Nunes followed his coach's words with his most solid game of the season. He completed 21 of 34 passes, scrambled for first downs and -- most importantly -- offset Scott's record-setting performance.

Scott completed 45 of 69 passes -- both school records -- for 491 yards and three touchdowns until Henry Anderson tipped his final pass in overtime that Thomas intercepted. Arizona (3-3, 0-3) amassed 617 total yards -- same as Stanford -- but lost for the third straight game and is still winless in conference play.

For most of the afternoon, the Wildcats scored at will and looked more like the team that beat Oklahoma State to start 3-0 than the one that lost to Oregon and Oregon State the previous two weeks. Facing its third straight ranked opponent, Arizona's aerial attack shredded Stanford's defense in a way few have the past few seasons.

The Wildcats became the first team to eclipse 400 yards passing against the Cardinal since Oklahoma in the 2009 Sun Bowl. The Sooners threw for 418 yards in that 31-27 win over the Cardinal.

Arizona's defense couldn't hold up when it counted.

Nunes ran his second short touchdown to trim Arizona's lead to 48-41 with 6:34 remaining. The Cardinal held the Wildcats to only their third three-and-out on the next possession, and Nunes led a drive that will help ease concerns about Luck's successor.

The redshirt junior ran for 16 yards on third-and-7 from midfield, threw 17 yards to tight end Zach Ertz on fourth-and-9 from Arizona's 20 and ran for the tying touchdown with 45 seconds left in regulation.

This time, Stanford's offense showed some fight from the start.

Taylor, who finished with 142 yards rushing and two touchdowns, ran for 35 yards on seven carries before Nunes lofted an 11-yard touchdown pass to Ertz in the corner of the end zone to give the Cardinal a 7-0 lead on the game's first possession.

While the offense finally found its rhythm, Stanford's defense struggled to slow down Arizona's up-tempo style.

Ka'Deem Carey ran for 13 yards for the first of his three touchdowns, and John Bonano kicked a 34-yard field goal to give the Wildcats a 10-7 lead later in the second quarter.

Nunes stayed steady and sharp, finding Levine Toilolo for a 12-yard touchdown pass to put Stanford back ahead 14-10. Bonano kicked a 33-yard field goal to slice Stanford's lead to 14-13 at half.

The pace picked up even more following the break.

Scott threaded a 27-yard strike to Terrence Miller inches short of the goal line that set up Carey's short touchdown run to put Arizona in front 20-14 less than 2 minutes into the third quarter.

Although the Cardinal prefer to play grind-it-out games and control the clock, Arizona simply wouldn't let them.

The teams traded touchdowns for most of the second half until Jourdon Grandon stripped Ty Montgomery after a 16-yard catch early in the fourth quarter. Arizona recovered and took over at Stanford's 45.

Scott quickly led the offense down field and hooked up with Miller for a 10-yard completion that gave the Wildcats a 48-34 lead -- the biggest either side had all afternoon. Scott nearly set the school passing record set by Willie Tuitama, who threw for a school-record 510 yards in a 48-41 win over Washington on Oct. 27, 2007.

Game 7

Washington 17

Arizona..... 52

Oct. 20, 2012 // Tucson, Ariz. // Arizona Stadium (50,148)

Start: 7:06 p.m. // TOG: 3:13 // Weather: Upper 70s, clear

TUCSON, Ariz. -- Matt Scott threw for 256 yards and four touchdowns, Ka'Deem Carey ran for 172 yards and Arizona raced out of its bye week with a 52-17 rout over Washington Saturday night.

Arizona (4-3, 1-3 Pac-12) went into its bye worn down and beaten up after three straight losses to ranked opponents.

Refreshed and mostly recuperated, the Wildcats had their way with Washington's defense from the opening drive, edipsing 500 total yards (533) for the sixth time this season.

Scott finished 14 of 22, throwing two touchdowns to Austin Hill, and ran for another score. Carey scored on a 2-yard run, and Richard Morrison added a 63-yard touchdown on a punt return to give coach Rich Rodriguez his first Pac-12 win.

Washington (3-4, 1-3) had no chance against Arizona's fast-paced offense, and quarterback Keith Price had another so-so game in the Huskies' third straight loss.

Price matched Scott with 256 yards passing, but his line didn't look quite as good, needing 52 attempts to get there and with two interceptions to offset his one touchdown.

Washington played a brutal schedule the first half of the season, facing four teams in the top 11 of the AP poll. The Huskies were run over in two of those, on the road against LSU and Oregon, but beat Stanford and stayed close to USC last week despite four turnovers and a blocked punt.

It didn't figure to get any easier against Arizona and its go-all-the-time offense, particularly since it didn't go so well the last time the Huskies faced an up-tempo team.

Of course, that was against arguably the fastest team in the country, No. 2 Oregon, which ran past them for a 52-21 victory.

Preparing for a no-huddle team and seeing one live should have helped the Huskies against Arizona, which had run more plays than all but one team before its bye week.

It didn't.

Snapping the ball almost as soon as the officials placed it, the Wildcats picked Washington's defense apart behind Carey's quick-burst running and Scott's pinpoint passing.

Scott set Pac-12 records for completions (45) and attempts (69) while throwing for 491 yards and three touchdowns in Arizona's 54-48 loss to Stanford two weeks ago.

The fifth-year senior didn't have to work quite as hard against Washington.

He opened by getting two Washington defenders to bite on a pump fake to set up a floating, 27-yard touchdown pass to David Richards.

Scott did it next with his legs, scoring on a 1-yard run, then his arm, finding Garic Wharton on a 33-yard touchdown pass on fourth-and-3 to put Arizona up 24-3. He also had a quick answer to Washington's first touchdown -- a 6-yard pass from Price to Austin Seferian-Jenkins -- by hitting Hill on a 53-yard touchdown.

Scott's only real mistake came in the closing seconds of the first half, when he was hit, and his fluttering pass was picked off by Washington linebacker Travis Feeney at midfield. He rumbled to the 3-yard line, setting up Bishop Sankey's 1-yard touchdown run that cut Arizona's lead to 31-17 at halftime.

The miscue did little to slow the Wildcats down.

Arizona gained about 10 yards when
