Some Game Themes: The calendar turns for two programs with first-year head coaches looking to play – and win – some games to remember in November ... A pair of Pac-12 rivals carry two-game conference win streaks into a top-25 matchup that will shape the South Division race heading into the final weeks of the season ... An under-the-radar game sure to be overlooked by outsiders given the matchup at the Coliseum downtown ... A head-to-head matchup of the Pac-12's leaders in total offense that pits experience (fifth-year senior Matt Scott) against youth (redshirt freshman Brett Hundley). The latter is the son of former Wildcat defensive back Brett Hundley Sr., who played in Tucson from 1982-86 ... Arguably the league's two best all-around running backs – UA's Ka'Deem Carey and UCLA's Johnathan Franklin – feast their eyes on defenses that each give up near 160 yards on the ground ... Can the resilient, if not opportunistic, Wildcat defense, which has forced eight turnovers over the last two games, continue to capitalize and get key stops to complement one of the nation's most explosive offenses? Will UCLA's defensive front, which ranks sixth nationally in sacks, find similar success against a patchwork Wildcat offensive line that has not allowed a sack in the last two outings? ... Conversely, can a quietly improving Wildcat pass rush get its paws on Hundley going against a Bruin o-line that ranks near the bottom of the national rankings in sacks allowed? ... UA coach Rich Rodriguez seeks his first road victory, one that could be both symbolic and significant if it comes at The Rose Bowl while he continues to lay a foundation for the future ... The Bruins hope their new leadership under Jim Mora snaps a string of five-straight straight Wildcat victories in the series ... The first of two-straight homecoming games for Arizona, which hosts its own next weekend.

Sundays (after 2 p.m. MST) and Mondays (after 8 a.m. MST) are most conducive to the team's weekly schedule.

Interview requests for head coach Rich Rodriguez, his staff and UA players should be directed to Molly O'Mara (momara@arizona.edu) and/or Blair Willis (bmw23@arizona.edu). To make a request by phone, call 520-621-4163.

The Coaches: Arizona – Rich Rodriguez (West Virginia '86), first year at Arizona (5-3) and 18th as a head coach overall (125-87-2). Rodriguez was introduced as the 30th head coach of the UA football program on Nov. 22, 2011. He carries Division I records of 5-3 at Arizona, 60-26 at West Virginia (2001-2007) and 15-22 at Michigan (2008-10). He began his head coaching career at Salem (W.Va.) University in 1988 and then coached at Glenville State (W.Va.) from 1990-96. Rodriguez's West Virginia teams were Big East Champions in 2003, 2004, 2005 and 2007 while appearing in two BCS bowls, the 2005 Sugar Bowl with a victory over Georgia for an 11-1 record and a victory over Oklahoma in the 2007 Fiesta Bowl to finish 10-2 shortly after Rodriguez had left for Michigan.

UCLA -- Jim Mora (Washington '84), first year at UCLA (6-2) and first year overall as a college head coach (6-2). The former Atlanta Falcons (2005-06) and Seattle Seahawks (2009) head coach was named UCLA's 17th head coach in school history in December of 2011, bringing a defensive background to the program after a long string of offensive-minded coaches including Dick Vermeil, Terry Donahue, Bob Toledo and most recently Rick Neuheisel. Mora has an extensive history as an NFL defensive coordinator with limited time in the college game. Broke into coaching at Washington as a defensive assistant under Don James following his four-year playing career as a defensive back for the Huskies.

UA-UCLA 2011 Rewind (Box score and recap on page 7): Arizona went out and played some ball from the onset, scoring six touchdowns on its first six possessions to put the game out of reach before halftime in a 48-12 victory over UCLA on Oct. 20, 2011, at Arizona Stadium. The Cats won the toss, took the ball and didn't look back. UA picked up a pair of turnover TDs with 60-yard drives in that mix, plus put together four drives of around 80 yards. Early keys besides UA's offensive persistence were answering the Bruins first-quarter touchdown drive (which cut it to 14-7) with a long UA scoring drive, and otherwise holding UCLA to 19 plays and 114 yards total on its other first-half possessions. At the break the Cats had 416 yards in offense to 177 by UCLA. In the end, Arizona scored six touchdowns on six red zone forays, converted 10 of 16 third downs and one fourth down, and rushed for a season-high 254 yards. Nick Foles backed it up with 291 throwing yards and three touchdowns -- all to Juron Criner -- while the Cats featured five different running backs in shotgun, spread, pistol, twin and other formations. Defensively the best news was the scoreboard, holding UCLA to as few points as it did against Northern Arizona. The Bruins picked up two of their markers on a safety with six minutes left in the game and UA's second unit on the field. The win snapped a five-game losing streak and snapped a string of 10 consecutive losses to FBS schools. All the numbers aside, the game's outcome and process proved that college football's an emotional game: you have to have some and if you do, good things can happen. Ten days after their head coach was dismissed, the Wildcats played without caution to give interim coach Tim Kish his first head coaching win.

Last Week: Arizona jumped out to an early 10-point lead before it fell behind by 15 in the second half, but the Wildcats rallied with 26 unanswered points to hold on and upset No. 10 USC, 39-36, at Arizona Stadium in a record-setting game for two Trojans. Indeed, Matt Barkley passed for a USC record 493 yards, while top target Marqise Lee shattered the Pac-12 receiving record with 345 yards and two scores as part of a 469-yard all-purpose day that ranks as the third-best ever in FBS history. However, the more balanced offense and hungrier defense prevailed in the end. The Wildcats rushed for 219 yards with a pair of 100-yard days from Matt Scott and Ka'Deem Carey, while the defense forced five turnovers -- most in five seasons. Marquis Flowers was the defensive star for the Wildcats, intercepting a pair of Barkley passes and forcing a fumble to keep the game in check in the first half. In the second half, Flowers' defensive mates stopped the Trojans on their final five third down tries and one critical fourth down early in the fourth quarter. Meanwhile, Scott and the offense scored touchdowns on four straight possessions over 13:20 from the late third quarter into the middle of the fourth quarter. Austin Hill's 259 receiving yards -- second-most in school history -- were highlighted by third-down conversion grabs of 42 and 60-yards respectively to set up two of the scores. Once the Wildcats had a lead in tow, they turned the ball over to Carey to kill some clock and he did just that by gaining a pair of first downs on UA's final drive and leaving USC with only 55 seconds and a long field to try and tie or win. In the end, Barkley's heave at the buzzer dropped to the ground in the endzone, though Lee got a hand on it but couldn't pull it away from Shaquille Richardson and a host of Wildcat defenders. It was UA's second win against an AP Top-25 team at Arizona Stadium this season, the first such occurrence since 1992. It was also the Wildcats' first win in the desert against USC since 1999.

Strength of Schedule: Jeff Sagarin ranks Arizona's schedule as the sixth-toughest in the nation to date, with five of the Wildcats eight games to date being against teams in his top-30 (2-3 record). The combined record of UA's seven FBS opponents this season is 43-12, including 40-8 in the games excluding Arizona. The Wildcats check in No. 19 in Sagarin's ratings, while the Bruins come in at No. 27 to give UA another tilt against top-30 foe. The Pac-12 is rated as the third-toughest conference behind the Big 12 and the SEC.

Good To Be Back: Arizona returns to the national rankings after a brief two-week stint in September. This week, the Wildcats check in at No. 24 in the Associate Press Top-25 and debut in the BCS Standings at No. 22, while receiving votes in the USA Today Coaches' Poll. Earlier this year, the Wildcats peaked at No. 21 in the Coaches' Poll and No. 22 in the AP Top-25 before losing at Oregon (Sept. 22). Arizona was last ranked in the BCS Standings heading into the final week of the regular season in 2010 (No. 23 before losing to Arizona State).

Here We Go Again: For the sixth time this season and the fifth time in the last six games, Arizona will play a team ranked in the Associated Press Top-25 at the time of the game. The last time the Wildcats played such a daunting six-game stretch was in 1997 when UA also played five ranked opponents over the course of a half-dozen games. That season, UA lost to No. 9 Ohio State (26-20 at Tucson), lost to No. 24 UCLA (40-27 at Pasadena), defeated No. 16 Stanford (28-22 at Tucson), lost to No. 10 Washington (58-28 at Tucson) and lost to No. 10 Washington State (35-34 in overtime at Pullman).

Against The Top 25: With a 59-38 victory over then-No. 18 Oklahoma State on Sept. 8 and a 39-36 upset of No. 10 USC on Oct. 27, Arizona has defeated a ranked team in the AP Top-25 poll in eight of the last nine seasons. The highest-ranked foe to go down in the last nine seasons was then-No. 2 Oregon, 34-24, in Tucson on Nov. 15, 2007. Historically, Arizona is 41-100-1 against teams ranked in the Associated Press poll. Rich Rodriguez is 2-3 in such game in his first season. It's the first time since 2008 that the Wildcats defeated two ranked teams in the same season (No. 25 California and vs. No. 17 BYU). The victory over the Cougars was in the Las Vegas Bowl, leaving the 2006 season as the last time UA knocked off a pair of ranked foes in the same regular season (at No. 25 Washington State and No. 8 California). Arizona has now defeated two AP Top 25 teams in the same season at home for the first time since 1992 (23-3 victory over No. 11 UCLA and 16-3 upset of No. 1-ranked Washington).

Players of the Week: Matt Scott passed for 369 yards and three touchdowns and added a career-high 100 rushing yards and another score as part of a 469-yard, four-touchdown total offense day. The efforts earned him the Walter Camp Offensive Player of the Week as well as recognition as one of eight Manning Award Stars of the Week. The UA coaching staff named Scott and receiver Austin Hill co-offensive players of the week for the team . . . Marquis Flowers was named the Pac-12 Defensive Player of the Week after he collected a career-high two interceptions and forced a fumble to go with seven tackles against USC. The stellar effort earned him National Linebacker of the Week honors by the College Football Performance Awards.

Matt's The Man: Quarterback Matt Scott, who redshirted in 2011, is putting together a stellar senior season, if statistics are any indication. The Corona, Calif., native entered 2012 with five previous career starts and is now a 13-game starter (9-4 record) as a Wildcat. He possesses a complete repertoire of skills at the quarterback position, including ability to make all the throws on the field and hurt defenses with his legs. Here's a look at his career statistics:

Year	Rushing			Passing				INT	Comp Pct.	Tot. Off.	GP	GS
	Rush	Yards	TD	Comp	Att	Yards	TD
2008	23	188	2	7	11	84	1	0	63.6%	272	6	0
2009	41	309	0	41	73	441	1	3	56.2%	750	9	3
2010	35	135	0	66	93	776	4	2	71.0%	911	7	2
2012	80	365	1	227	361	2,724	20	9	62.9	3,089	8	8
TOTALS	179	997	6	341	538	4,025	26	14	63.4%	5,022	30	13

Tracking Matt: Senior quarterback Matt Scott has emerged as one of the most prolific passers in the country in his first full season as a starter. Scott's 2,724 passing yards lead all Pac-12 passers and rank No. 3 in the nation. Added with nearly 50 rushing yards per game, Scott is averaging 386.1 yards in total offense per game, which also leads the Pac-12 and ranks No. 2 nationally. Scott, who is averaging 12.0 yards per completion, has the fourth-most passing plays of 10-plus yards (110) of any quarterback in the country. He also has 39 passes of 20 or more yards, which ranks third-most among FBS quarterbacks. It's all amounts to Scott challenging some single season and career top-10 offensive charts. Here's a look at a few:

- Scott has four of Arizona's top-10 all-time single-game total offense performances (485 at Stanford, 469 vs. USC, 461 vs. Toledo, and 432 vs. Oregon State)
- 3,089 total offense yards in 2012 already rank No. 3 in single-season history.
- Scott has moved into a tie for fourth-place in single-season history with 20 passing touchdowns. Four more will push him into the No. 2 spot. He needs eight more to tie the record.
- Scott (2,724 yards) ranks No. 6 on the school's single-season passing yardage list. He is 365 yards away from moving up to No. 5.
- Scott's 227 pass completions rank No. 6 in single-season history.
- Scott's 26 career passing touchdowns rank No. 10 in program history.
- Scott's 62.9 percent completion percentage would rank No. 6 in single-season history if it were to hold up through season's end.

Carey The Load: Sophomore running back Ka'Deem Carey, a local product out of Canyon del Oro High School, has emerged as UA's featured back and one of the most underrated players in the Pac-12 through the first eight games of the season. On the Maxwell Award Watch List, Carey ranks third in the Pac-12 with 120.1 rushing yards per game and checks in third in all-purpose yardage (150.9yppg). The 5-foot-11, 195-pounder has 13 total scores (12 rushing, one receiving) to rank second among all Pac-12 players and rank tied for 18th-most nationally in scoring. Carey has topped 100 yards rushing six times this season alone, just a year after the Wildcats broke 100 yards as a team only five times in 12 contests in 2011.

More Ka'Deem: While Carey doesn't have the look of a power back, he's a tough, physical inside runner that picks up extra yards after contact. He has a 5.3 yards per carry average, boosted by 26 totes of 10 or more yards, tied for 11th-most nationally. Carey also is an explosive threat in the passing game, where he averages 9.6 yards per reception and ranks third on the club with 24 catches for 230 yards. His 1,191 yards from scrimmage are ninth-most individually among all FBS players.

Ka'Deem In Perspective: How good of a season is Ka'Deem Carey putting together? Well, a look at the Pac-12 stats won't do him justice. Carey currently ranks third in the conference with 961 rushing yards, narrowly trailing some well-known talents like UCLA's Jonathan Franklin (1,042) and Oregon's Kenjon Barner (974). However, Carey's rushing total would lead all rushers in four other BCS conferences, including the ACC, Big East, Big 12 and SEC.

Big Play Austin: Sophomore receiver Austin Hill is turning in a breakout campaign, highlighted by a career day against No. 10 USC last weekend in which he racked up a career-best 259 yards, the second-highest total in UA single-game history. On 10 grabs, he set a UA single-game mark for yards per reception (25.9) knocking to improve his season per-catch tally to 17.4. He had five receptions of 20-plus yards against USC, including a career-long 60-yarder to continue a trend of making big plays all season long. In fact, Hill ranks tied for No. 2 in the nation in both receptions of 20-plus yards (17) and 30-plus yards (10). He averages 117.1 yards per game, good enough for the No. 2 spot in the Pac-12 and No. 5 nationally.

Hill Climbing: Sophomore Austin Hill has already cracked the school's single-season receiving yardage chart with 937 yards. That ranks as the ninth-most and he is within 33 yards of moving past both Juron Criner (956 in 2011) and Richard Dice (1994) for a couple more spots. In fact, 101 yards would tie him with Mike Thomas (1,038 in 2007) for the No. 5 spot. Hill is also inching closer to the single-season receptions top-10, currently nine shy of Dennis Northcutt's 63 in 1998 that holds the position. In the touchdowns category, Hill is just one shy of matching five former Cats who share the No. 10 position.

Dan's The Man: In the receiving jamboree, senior Dan Buckner has been overshadowed by youngster Austin Hill, but the upperclassman has turned in a strong campaign. Buckner is second on the team in several receiving categories, including receptions (51), yards (656) and touchdowns (3). He also averages 12.9 yards per grab – also second-best on the squad. With a pair of 100-yard receiving games, Buckner joins Hill (four 100-yard games) as one of three Pac-12 duos with multiple 100-yard games. Buckner is tied for No. 10 nationally with 32 receptions of 10-plus yards. He has 10 over 20 yards.

Don't Forget the Big Guys: Arizona has been without stalwarts Kyle Quinn and Trace Bislin on the offensive line for most of the last three games, but a patchwork group has done an admirable job in their place. Junior Chris Putton can play any position on the line and has regularly played both guard and tackle in games this season. He's started alongside backup center Addison Bachman and fill-in starter Shane Zink at the other guard spot, with true freshman Cayman Bundage seeing regular rotation reps in each game. Tackles Mickey Baucus and Fabbians Ebbebe have started each game this season to provide some stability at those key spots. But consider these numbers: without fifth-year graduate students Quinn and Bislin (did play limited snaps as a backup last week), the Wildcats have averaged 207.3 rushing yards per game over the last three contests. Just as impressive, the group has surrendered just three sacks, including none in the last two games. That's yeoman's work for coach Robert Anae's charges.

200-Yard Rushing Day: Matt Scott (15-100, TD) and Ka'Deem Carey (28-119, TD) became the first pair of Wildcats to each rush for 100 yards in a game since tailback Mike Bell (16-153, TD) and fullback Gilbert Harris (16-113, TD) achieved the feat against UCLA on Nov. 5, 2005, at Arizona Stadium. The 219 rushing yards for the Wildcats were their most against a USC team since gaining 307 yards in 1999, which was conveniently the last time Arizona defeated the Trojans in Tucson. On the season, Arizona has four 200-plus yard games matching the total it had in the 2010 and 2011 seasons combined.

A Hill of a Day: Sophomore receiver Austin Hill, one of the top performers on the Biletnikoff Award Watch List, hauled in 10 passes for a career-best 259 receiving yards (second-most in UA single-game history) last week against USC. Half of those catches went for 20 or more yards, including a 56-yarder in the first half, and plays of 60 and 42 yards in the second half. The second half plays both came on key third downs to set up scoring plays. The 60-yarder in the fourth quarter was the longest pass play of the season for Arizona and it dug the Wildcats out of a third-and-22 hole at their own 16-yardline. The go-ahead touchdown was punched in four plays later. Hill's 25.9 yards per reception set a new single-game record with a minimum of 10 catches, surpassing Dennis Northcutt's 25.7 clip set on his 10-catch, 257-yard day against TCU on Sept. 5, 1999, in Fort Worth, Texas. It was UA's ninth 200-yard game for a player, and the first since Bobby Wade had 222 at California in 2002.

Third-and-What? The momentum shifted last week on one big third down conversion in the third quarter. The Wildcats were just 1-for-11 on third downs in the game and were down 15 points as they faced a third-and-six at their own 48-yardline. That was when Matt Scott hit Austin Hill for a 42-yard gain before Scott punched in a 10-yard touchdown run on the next play. Two drives later, after UA cut the deficit to just two points, the Cats were facing a third-and-22 from their own 16-yardline. Scott again found Hill open, this time for a season-long 60-yard pickup. Four plays later, the Wildcats had the lead. The two big-gainers highlighted a key stat in the game: USC was just 1-for-5 on third downs in the second half, including 0-for-2 in the fourth quarter. Meantime, the Wildcats were 4-of-5 on third downs in the fourth quarter alone.

Turnover Turnaround: Arizona has forced eight turnovers over the last four games, giving the Wildcats 19 takeaways on the season against 15 turnovers of their own. That plus-four margin on the season currently ranks fifth in the conference, and will be interesting to watch in the coming games. Two of Arizona's biggest wins – vs. Oklahoma State and USC – have seen the Wildcats benefit from a nine opponent turnovers, while UA has given it away just once in those games. The five takeaways against the Trojans last week were the most in a single game since Aug. 31, 2008, against Idaho.

Sack Attack: Arizona defenders are beginning to find ways to get the quarterback. After collecting just three sacks in the first four games of the season, the Wildcats now have nine sacks in their last four games, including two against USC and a season-high four against Washington. Sophomore defensive lineman Reggie Gilbert leads the club with 2.5 sacks in the recent stretch, while junior linebacker Marquis Flowers boasts the season-lead with 3.5.

Spurtability: A term coined by Clark Kellogg usually reserved for action on the hardwood, the Wildcats have defined it a couple times on the gridiron to upset nationally-ranked foes this season. In a Sept. 8 game against then-No. 18 Oklahoma State, the Wildcats trailed 14-0 early in the game before surging for 30 unanswered points to claim a 16-point lead by halftime. Arizona went on to win 59-38. The Cats were at it again last Saturday, trailing then-No. 10 USC by 15 points in the third quarter before exploding for 26 unanswered points over 13 minutes and 20 seconds en route to the 39-36 win. Each scoring run has been a combination of explosive offense and stingy, opportunistic defense. Against the Cowboys, Arizona's defense registered stops on six straight possessions to end the first half. Against the Trojans, the defense recorded stops on five consecutive second half possessions while the offense scored four touchdowns.

Flag Days: Keep an eye on the yellow beanbags this week; UCLA (79.9) ranks second-to-last in penalty yardage per game, while Arizona leads the conference in opponent penalty yardage per game (96.9). The Wildcats saw plenty of yellow last week against USC, as the teams combined for 27 penalties for 246 yards. Those figures came up short of single-game records for both Arizona and its opponents. It was also short in the combined category, with UA-California combining for records of 29 penalties and 307 penalty yards in Berkeley in 1998. The 775 yards of penalties marked off against UA opponents this season is already nearing the school record of 822 in a 12-game 1998 season.

Four-Straight For Ka'Deem: Sophomore running back Ka'Deem Carey has topped 100-yards rushing in four consecutive games and in six contests this season. He has 538 yards on the ground and seven scores in the four games against some pretty tough competition. Entering the Sept. 29 game against Oregon State, the Beavers had allowed an average of 53.2 rushing yards per game and Carey totaled 115 by himself (UA rushed for 142). A week later at Stanford, the Cardinal defense was surrendering 65.0 yards per game, and Carey netted 132 and three scores (UA rushed for 126). After a bye week, Carey shredded a Washington defense for 172 yards (UA had 277) that was yielding 182.5 per game. And then last week, Carey picked up 119 (UA had 219) against a USC defense that had allowed 109.6 per game entering the contest. Not bad.

Oh So Close: They say you are what your record says you are. In that sense, the Wildcats are in fact 5-3. But with one more play here (vs. Oregon State) and one more play there (at Stanford), Arizona instead could be boasting at a 7-1 record (or maybe the Cats lose close tilts against Toledo and USC?). The fact is UA was close to two more wins. The Wildcats held a 35-31 lead over the Beavers at Arizona Stadium on Sept. 29, but OSU put together a 10-play, 75-yard drive over the next 4:25 for the game-winning touchdown in a 38-35 come-from-behind victory. Arizona twice had the Beavers facing third downs on the decisive drive, but couldn't muster one final stop. A week later at Stanford on Oct. 6, the Cats clawed their way to a 48-34 lead midway through the fourth quarter. However, the Cardinal rallied to get within one score, before converting on a pair of fourth down plays on its final drive to tie the game 48-48 and force overtime. Stanford prevailed 54-48.

Nifty Fifty: Arizona has topped the 50-point mark in three of its eight games to date, something that hasn't been done in a single season at the school since 1954. It's an impressive feat considering how few 50-point games have been for the Wildcats in that span. Including the 59, 56 and 52 points scored in games this year, Arizona has reached the half-century number only 20 times since the 1954 season, boasting a record of 19-1 in such contests (defeat was a 56-55, 30T loss at California in 1996). Only the 2008, 1998 and 1983 squads put up 50 or more points in a game on two occasions. The 1954 gridiron club defeated New Mexico State (58-0), Utah (54-20) and Arizona State (54-14).

Halftime Adjustments: Arizona's defense has proven stingy in the second half of two recent games. The Wildcats shutout Washington in the second half of the 52-17 victory on Oct. 20. A week later against USC, Arizona held the Trojans to just 15 points in the second half to set the stage for 26 unanswered points in a 39-36 come-from-behind victory. On the season, the Wildcats are outscoring foes 103-66 in the third quarter of games and 181-133 in second halves.

Youth Movement: Arizona has played 40 freshmen or sophomores this season, comprising more than half of the nearly 75 Wildcats to see the field. The Wildcats have played 10 true freshmen, the fourth-most of any Pac-12 school and among the top-20 nationally (research courtesy of David Plati at Colorado). With redshirts mixed in, UA has played more than 20 freshmen, most on defense. In fact, the youth movement is most prominent on the defensive side of the ball, where 14 of the 22 players listed on the regular two-deep are freshmen or sophomores. From that group, six of UA's top eight tacklers are freshmen or sophomores, led by safeties Jourdon Grandon (50), Jared Tevis (45) and Tra'Mayne Bondurant (50). Bondurant leads the team with 10.5 tackles for loss.

Big Play Bondurant: Perhaps one of the most underrated defenders in the Pac-12 is "Spur" safety Tra'Mayne Bondurant. The true sophomore has a nose for the football and has proven to be a pest for opposing teams. The Vallejo, Calif., native is fifth on the team with 50 total tackles, but he leads all players and ranks tied for ninth in the Pac-12 with 10.5 tackles for loss. The 10.5 stops behind the line surpass UA's season leader from a year ago, since-departed linebacker Derek Earls, who had 7.0 TFLs. Bondurant, who has four passes broken up and a forced fumble this season, intercepted his first pass of the season two weeks ago against Washington, returning it 43 yards to help set up Arizona's second touchdown.

A Budding Star: Converted safety Marquis Flowers continues to develop as a linebacker, a position he was switched to about a week before the start of the season. At 6-foot-3, 221 pounds, Flowers is Arizona's biggest linebacker and ranks as team's leader with 3.5 sacks. Flowers is also second on the squad with 7.5 tackles for loss and second with 55 total tackles. He has added two interceptions, a pair of pass breakups and has forced two fumbles. He has accounted for four takeaways in the last two games (forced fumble vs. Washington and two INTs and forced fumble vs. USC). Flowers was named the Pac-12 Defensive Player of the Week on Oct. 29 following his game against USC.

Man In The Middle: Junior Jake Fischer has been a stalwart middle linebacker in Arizona's new 3-3-5 defensive scheme implemented this season by defense coordinator Jeff Casteel. Fischer, who missed the 2011 season with an ACL injury, ranks No. 2 among Pac-12 players and No. 48 nationally with 9.0 tackles per game (72 total). That's just a couple tackles shy of 10 per game for the slightly undersized 6-foot, 215-pounder. Don't tell that to Fischer, though, who has shown a nose for the ball early in the season. Fischer has 4.5 tackles for loss, two pass breakups, two forced fumbles and a pair of fumble recoveries. He was named Pac-12 Defensive Player of the Week following a career-high 13-tackle season debut against Toledo on Sept. 1.

Glad To Have Him Back: Former walk-on and starting "Bandit" safety Jared Tevis returned to the starting lineup last week after missing two games with an ankle injury sustained on Sept. 29 vs. Oregon State. Tevis was second on the team in tackles before he went down, and still ranks fifth with 45 stops on the season. He also has a pair of interceptions and five pass breakups. His football IQ puts him in position to make plays and his return could solidify a defensive group in the final weeks of the season.

Kickin' Kyle: Senior punter Kyle Dugandzic is putting together a strong season, even if he is averaging less than four punts per game. Dugandzic's overall average is a hefty 43.9 yards per boot, with five 50-plus yarders. He ranks No. 4 in the Pac-12 in punting average (43.9), while UA ranks No. 3 in the conference and No. 16 nationally in net punting (40.4). He was named the Pac-12 Special Teams Player of the Week (Oct. 1) in a losing cause after a sensational performance against Oregon State that included a career-long 70-yard boomer and four of five total punts landing inside the 20-yard line. He again placed four punts inside the 20-yardline against USC last week. In that respect, Dugandzic has placed 14 of his 31 punts inside the 20-yard line and has just one touchback.

Seeing Red: The Wildcats hope to continue their run of success in the red zone. After an 0-for-5 effort in the red zone in a loss at Oregon on Sept. 22, Arizona has scored on 22 of its last 25 (88 percent) forays into the scoring zone. Of those, 18 (72-percent) have resulted in touchdowns. Both numbers are improvements over the team's season average of 74.5 percent overall and 58.8 percent touchdowns in the red zone.

In A Rush: Arizona has rushed for 100 yards in seven of its first eight games in 2012, just a season removed when it did so in just five games last fall. The Wildcats have 1,594 yards on the ground, an average of 199.2 yards per game (No. 3 in Pac-12). That's a significant improvement over last season's 94.5 per-game tally, which finished ranked second-to-last in the Pac-12 and No. 114 nationally. In fact, this year's rushing total (1,594) has surpassed last year's 12-game total of 1,134 yards and is approaching the 2010 total of 1,712. Running back Ka'Deem Carey leads the club with 961 yards, while quarterback Matt Scott ranks second with 365 yards. UA's leading rusher a year ago was senior Keola Antolin, who finished his final season at the school with 568 yards.

1,000-Yard Seasons: Ka'Deem Carey is nearing a 1,000-yard season running the ball (961 yards). He's also could approach (183) a 250-carry season, last accomplished by UA school-record holder Trung Canidate, who toted the ball 253 times in 1999 for the 1,602 yards that stand atop UA's single-season rushing chart. Clarence Farmer had 209 carries in a 1,229 season in 2001, the most since. Nic Grigsby had 214 totes for 1,196 yards in UA's 2008 season, the last 1,000-yard rusher. From the yardage standpoint, Carey could become Rich Rodriguez's first 1,000-yard rusher from the running back position since Steve Slaton had 1,051 in 2007 at West Virginia. Rodriguez's only 1,000-yard rusher at Michigan was quarterback Dennard Robinson (2010).

Chain Gang: Arizona, which leads all FBS teams with 31.0 first downs per game, already has 248 this season which comes in as the fifth-most in single-season history. Tough to think a squad could average 31 per game, but that clip over the next two games would actually break the single-season school record of 309 first downs set last season. UA has four regular season games left, plus a potential bowl. There's a good chance that record goes down.

1,000-Yard Career: Quarterback Matt Scott sits at 997 career rushing yards, putting him near a career benchmark not often achieved at the position. In fact, UA's all-time leader for quarterback rushing is Ronnie Veal, who collected 1,419 yards and 27 touchdowns from 1987-90. Scott recently moved past Jim Krohn's 987 yards from 1976-79.

Up Next: Arizona returns home for its annual homecoming game against Colorado on Saturday, Nov. 10. Kickoff time and television information is expected to be announced later today.

The Last Meeting: UA-UCLA 2011

UCLA ..... 12
Arizona..... 48

Oct. 20, 2011 // Tucson, Ariz. // Arizona Stadium (46,565)
 Start: 6:02 p.m. // TOG: 3:42 // Weather: Clear, 80 degrees

TUCSON, Ariz. -- Tim Kish has had a simple message for his players since taking over for Mike Stoops: Have fun.

The Wildcats did just that with an emotional victory that was marred by a wild brawl, giving their interim coach a victory in his first game while sending UCLA's coach possibly closer to losing his job.

Dusting off an aggressive defensive scheme and relying on a recharged running game to complement Nick Foles' passing, Arizona ran over the Bruins 48-12 Thursday night.

Foles threw for 291 yards and connected with Juron Criner for three touchdown passes. That wasn't much of a surprise considering the way Arizona (2-5, 1-4 Pac-12) has piled up yards through the air.

The running game, dormant all season, came to life behind huge holes created by the much-maligned offensive line, churning out 254 of Arizona's season-high 573 yards and three touchdowns -- two by Taimi Tutogi.

The defense, another sore spot under Stoops, was just as good behind a throwback scheme called the "Double Eagle Flex," an aggressive front designed to clog up lanes against good running teams.

The combination allowed the Wildcats to build a 35-point halftime lead and cruise to an emotional victory, ending a five-game losing streak that had cost Stoops his job on Oct. 10.

The Bruins (3-4, 2-2) couldn't withstand the emotion of a team playing under a new coach and may have put theirs in jeopardy with a lackluster effort. On the hot seat before the season started, Rick Neuheisel may have taken big blow with a loss that puts a serious dent in UCLA's bowl chances.

Within a half-game of Arizona State and USC in the Pac-12 South heading into the game, the Bruins came out flat against Arizona in front of a national TV audience, which likely won't go over well back in Southern California.

One of the nation's best rushing teams, UCLA had 37 yards on 25 carries against a team that was 100th in the nation at 196 yards per game. Kevin Prince was mostly ineffective in his return to the starting lineup, hitting 17 of 35 passes for 286 yards and a touchdown.

The Bruins also lost a pair of fumbles in the first half and the defense had no chance at stopping the Wildcats -- ground or air -- as the game quickly got out of hand.

Frustration boiled over in the closing seconds of the first half, when a wild brawl spread about 60 yards across the field after a streaker dressed like an official ran onto the field.

Players pushed and shoved, a few wild punches were thrown and two players were ejected: Arizona defensive back Shaquille Richardson and UCLA receiver Taylor Embree.

The streaker? He got down to his underwear before a security person made a crushing tackle -- one as good as any UCLA made in the entire first half.

One of Kish's main goals was to make football fun again for the Wildcats, who had lost 10 straight games against FBS opponents and eight straight in conference.

They certainly enjoyed themselves against UCLA, getting touchdowns on all six of their first-half drives while scoring 42 points, their most in a half in Pac-10/Pac-12 play and more than any of their previous six games.

Keola Antolin ran for 77 yards on just eight carries, freshman Ka'Deem Carey had an 18-yard TD run and Criner finished with 10 catches for 101 yards to give Arizona its first win over an FBS opponent since beating UCLA 29-21 last Oct. 30 in Pasadena.

Neuheisel was concerned about Arizona's passing game and rightly so after Foles had thrown for more than 2,200 yards and 15 touchdowns the first six games.

Foles did what he expected, hitting 26 of 39 passes while connecting with Criner on TD passes of 4, 7 and 25 yards in the first half.

What Neuheisel didn't anticipate was getting run over by the Wildcats.

One of the nation's worst rushing teams, Arizona carved out huge holes in UCLA's defense that Antolin, Tutogi and Carey had no trouble racing through. The Wildcats surpassed their season average of 71.8 yards per game after one quarter and had 174 by halftime.

Arizona also had been plagued by slow starts, left scrambling after being outscored 41-3 in the first quarter in its previous five losses.

No such problem this time.

Foles hit Criner on a 4-yard TD pass on the Wildcats' opening drive. Carey followed with a juking, dive-for-the-pylon score from 18 yards out.

Criner added his second touchdown by snatching the ball away from UCLA's Aaron Hester early in the second quarter. UCLA fumbled, Tutogi scored on a 1-yard dive, then Foles and Criner connected again, this time from 25 yards.

Game 1

Toledo ..... 17
 Arizona..... 24 OT

Sept. 1, 2012 // Tucson, Ariz. // Arizona Stadium (48,670)
 Start: 7:37 p.m. // TOG: 3:47 // Weather: 93 degrees, Partly cloudy

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP) -- Toledo coach Matt Campbell flipped a coin to determine his starting quarterback on Saturday. Unfortunately for him and the Rockets, who took snaps for Arizona did not come down to chance.

Arizona quarterback Matt Scott, scrambling to his right, barely inbounds and with a defender grabbing his jersey, tossed a 10-yard touchdown pass to Terrence Miller in overtime to give the Wildcats a 24-17 victory on Saturday night.

Arizona pulled out Rich Rodriguez's coaching debut after its kicker, John Bonano, missed a 25-yard field goal as regulation ended. Bonano missed a 24-yarder earlier in the game.

Scott threw for a career-high 387 yards and rushed for 74 yards. Ka'Deem Carey had 147 yards on 20 carries, including a 73-yard touchdown run.

Arizona amassed 624 yards, second-most in school history, to Toledo's 358 but had two touchdowns called back by penalties, turned the ball over three times and missed the two short field goals.

Terrence Owens threw a 59-yard TD pass to Alonzo Russell for the Rockets, who have never beaten a Pac-12 team.

With both teams disdaining the huddle, the game was played at a frenetic pace. In all, the teams combined for 182 plays, 94 by Toledo and 88 by Arizona.

Campbell, at 32 the youngest head coach in the FBS subdivision, flipped a coin to decide which of his experienced quarterbacks would start. Austin Dantin won the toss, but Owens replaced him after two series.

Owens didn't return after he was hit hard and fumbled the ball away in the third quarter. Owens was 11 of 22 for 134 yards, Dantin 10 of 25 for 63 yards.

Scott, who sat out last season as a redshirt junior while Nick Foles completed his college eligibility, kept Arizona's offense on the move all night. He completed 30 of 46 passes, including two touchdowns. He was intercepted once.

Dan Buckner caught 10 for 116 yards and Austin Hill seven for 139 yards, including a spectacular, diving, fingertip grab of Scott's 30-yard pass for Arizona's first touchdown.

Arizona seemed to have the game in hand when Scott rushed for 31 yards in three carries as the Wildcats drove to the Toledo 5 in the waning seconds, but he was tackled near the right hash mark, leaving Bonano a slight angle on his kick. The attempt wasn't even close, hooking far to the left to send the game into overtime.

Toledo, with both quarterbacks and several other significant players returning from last season's 9-4 team, moved the ball most of the night on the young, susceptible Arizona defense. But the Wildcats stopped David Fluellen for a 2-yard loss on third-and-1 at the Arizona 21, forcing the Rockets to settle for Jeremiah Detmer's 40-yard field goal that tied it at 17-17 with 14:18 to play.

Arizona led 3-0 after the first quarter on Bonano's 26-yard field goal.

After Detmer missed a 48-yard field goal, Arizona quickly advanced to the Rockets' 9-yard line. But after Richard Morrison caught a short pass from Scott, he dropped the ball, and Toledo's Toll Molls recovered at the Rockets' 6.

Toledo took it downfield from there, going 94 yards in 10 plays, with Owens finding Russell wide open on the 59-yard touchdown play that made it 7-3 with 13:55 left in the half. The Wildcats came back with a 10-play, 64-yard scoring drive, ending with Hill's diving grab to put Arizona ahead 10-7 with 12:04 left in the half.

Arizona had a 67-yard touchdown run by Daniel Jenkins negated by a holding penalty. Toledo regained the lead with a 63-yard drive aided by a defensive holding penalty and personal foul against Arizona.

Owens had a 23-yard pass to Cordale Scott on the drive, which ended with Cassius McDowell scoring on a 1-yard run to put the Rockets ahead 14-10 with 12:04 left in the second quarter, a lead that held until halftime.

Arizona blew another scoring opportunity in the second quarter when Scott threw over the middle to Hill on a 32-yard play, but the receiver fumbled when he was hit, and the ball bounced into the hands of Toledo's Robert Bell at the Rockets' 34-yard line.

Game 2

18) Oklahoma State..... 38

Arizona..... 59

Sept. 8, 2012 // Tucson, Ariz. // Arizona Stadium (45,602)
 Start: 7:37 p.m. // TOG: 3:36 // Weather: 80 degrees, Windy

TUCSON, Ariz. -- Oklahoma State quarterback Wes Lunt set a Big 12 freshman record by throwing for 436 yards and connected with Tracy Moore for four touchdown passes.

The Cowboys piled up 636 yards of offense, the second straight week they eclipsed 600 yards, and scored 38 points.

Those weren't the numbers that mattered.

Lunt threw three interceptions and Oklahoma State set a school record with 167 penalty yards, sending the 18th-ranked Cowboys to a frustrating 59-38 loss to Arizona in the desert on Saturday night.

Arizona (2-0) fell into a quick 14-0 hole before scoring the next 30 points as Oklahoma State (1-1) unraveled under a shower of yellow flags. Even with all the penalties, the Cowboys settled down enough to rally within two points late in the third quarter.

The Wildcats wouldn't let them any closer, scoring 29 points after the 3-minute mark of the third quarter to run away from the Cowboys.

Ka'Deem Carey ran for 147 yards in his debut as the featured back last week and followed it up by scoring four touchdowns while rushing for 126 yards on 26 carries.

Matt Scott also had a nice follow-up to his dazzling opener, throwing for 320 yards and two touchdowns on 28-of-41 passing while running for 55 yards and another score.

Together, they helped Arizona take a step toward becoming relevant again.

Lunt hit 37 of 60 passes and threw for the fourth-most yards in school history in his second game as Oklahoma State's starter. He also had some shaky moments, tossing three interceptions, including one returned 48 yards for a touchdown by Jonathan McKnight in the fourth quarter.

Joseph Randle added 123 yards on 23 carries but the Cowboys just couldn't seem to stay out of their own way, committing 15 penalties and turning it over four times.

Defensive tackle Calvin Barnett was called for consecutive personal fouls on one play, setting up Scott's 15-yard touchdown pass to Richard Morrison.

A fumble by Randle on the next drive, followed by a late-hit penalty on cornerback Broderick Brown, set up a 22-yard field goal by John Bonano.

A fourth personal foul by Oklahoma State in the half, on linebacker Shaun Lewis for hitting Scott as he slid, led to a third field goal by Bonano, a 24-yarder. Carey added a 1-yard touchdown run - with a little help from teammates - late in the quarter to put Arizona up 23-14 at halftime.

Oklahoma State had nine penalties for 110 yards in the half and its last drive ended when Arizona's Jared Tevis intercepted a tipped pass by Lunt at the Wildcats' 29.

The second half opened the same way: Barnett was flagged for a late hit on the opening play and Arizona scored on a 13-yard screen pass from Scott to Carey for a 30-14 lead.

But the score seemed to snap the Cowboys out of their funk.

Lunt hit Morgan for a 9-yard touchdown pass and the Cowboys kept marching on Arizona the next drive, setting up Jeremy Smith's 10-yard touchdown run that cut Arizona's lead to 30-28.

It turned out to be their last gasp.

The Wildcats raced down the field on their next drive, setting up Scott's 8-yard touchdown run up the middle. Lunt, facing pressure for one of the few times all game, threw up a weak pass early in the fourth quarter and McKnight picked it off for an easy touchdown. Oklahoma State was called for pass interference on the 2-point try - naturally - and Arizona converted on the second attempt to go up 45-31.

Carey sealed it with a 25-yard TD run up the middle and added a 1-yarder for good measure in the closing minutes to send the Zona Zoo into a frenzy and the Wildcats to a look-at-us win.

"There's some excited guys in the locker room and I'm proud of them," Rodriguez said. "It's a nice win, the guys played and made the plays when they needed to."

And with it should come some extra - and wanted - attention.

Game 3

South Carolina State ..... 0
24) Arizona ..... 56

Sept. 15, 2012 // Tucson, Ariz. // Arizona Stadium (43,919)
Start: 7:37 p.m. // TOG: 2:59 // Weather: 83 degrees, clear, calm

☒ TUCSON, Ariz. (AP) — South Carolina State had trouble stopping No. 24 Arizona's offense, allowing the Wildcats to run a whopping 102 plays.

It was just as bad for the Bulldogs on offense, maybe even worse.

Overmatched against the bigger, faster Wildcats, South Carolina State managed just eight first downs in a 56-0 loss to Arizona on Saturday night.

Arizona knocked off No. 18 Oklahoma State last week and opens the Pac-12 next weekend at No. 4 Oregon. Sandwiched in between was a game against the Bulldogs, one the Wildcats couldn't afford to take lightly.

They didn't.

Instead of a letdown as coach Rich Rodriguez feared, Arizona (3-0) handled a from the Football Championship Subdivision as any good program would, racing out to a 28-0 lead by halftime and a school-record 43 first downs overall.

Matt Scott threw for 288 yards and three touchdowns on 30-of-36 passing, and added a 10-yard scoring run in another stellar performance to start his senior season.

Arizona's try-to-keep-up-with-us offense ran a school-record 102 plays and had 689 total yards, two short of another record.

The defense was just as dominant, holding South Carolina State (1-2) to 154 total yards for its first shutout in four years.

Yep, this was just the kind of confidence-building tuneup the Wildcats needed before heading to rowdy Autzen Stadium for their first road game of the season.

South Carolina State had little chance against Arizona's athleticism, unable to top the Wildcats from marching down the field or get anything going on offense.

The Bulldogs failed to crack double-digits in first downs and had virtually no running game, gaining 65 yards on 29 carries. Quarterback Richard Cue trouble against Arizona's speedy defenders, badly missing several receivers while going 12 for 25 for 89 yards with an interception.

After rolling over Oklahoma State 59-38 last week, the Wildcats moved into The Associated Press poll for the first time in nearly two years.

They needed an easy win with a tough Pac-12 run coming up next. After the Ducks next weekend, Arizona plays a conference schedule that includes No. 2 Southern California, No. 21 Stanford, No. 22 UCLA and rival Arizona State.

The Wildcats had no trouble moving the ball against the Bulldogs, but did have a little problem getting out of their own way in the early going.

Arizona raced to a touchdown on its first possession, Scott capping it with a 15-yard touchdown pass to Richard Morrison.

Moving quickly again, the Wildcats lost the ball near midfield when Morrison fumbled and the Bulldogs recovered. Another fast-moving drive ended with John Bonano, the reigning Pac-12 special teams player of the week, pushing a 25-yard field goal wide right.

Those turned out to be just blips in the Wildcats' march of dominance.

Scott hit Taimi Tutogi on a 14-yard touchdown to open the second quarter after the Bulldogs bit hard on a play-action fake. Ka'Deem Carey capped the next drive with a 7-yard touchdown run around the right end.

Scott closed out the impressive first half by pinballing off several defenders into the end zone for a 10-yard run that made it 28-0.

Scott, who entered the game tied with Syracuse's Ryan Nassib for the national lead with 836 total yards, threw for 175 yards and ran for 61 more in the first half.

Arizona's offense had 323 yards by halftime and its defense held South Carolina State to 69.

If it wasn't over already, the Wildcats made sure in the third quarter, when Scott hit Dan Buckner on a 27-yard touchdown pass and Jenkins carried half of South Carolina State's defense with him on a 5-yard scoring run that made it 42-0.

By then, pretty much all of Arizona's starters were on the sideline, resting up for what will certainly be a much tougher task against the fast-flying Ducks.

The Wildcats will at least go there on a high instead of coming off letdown after taking care of the Bulldogs.

Game 4

22) Arizona ..... 0

3) Oregon ..... 49

Sept. 22, 2012 // Eugene, Ore. // Autzen Stadium (58,334)
Start: 7:36 p.m. // TOG: 3:19 // Weather: 65 degrees, cloudy, drizzle

EUGENE, Ore. (AP) — Redshirt freshman Marcus Mariota threw for 260 yards and two touchdowns, including a 55-yard scoring pass to freshman Bralon Addison late in the third quarter, and No. 3 Oregon beat No. 22 Arizona 49-0 Saturday night.

Billed as an offensive juggernaut between the Pac-12's fastest scoring teams, Oregon didn't find its stride until the second half — and Arizona never did — and the Ducks (4-0, 1-0) got their seventh straight conference-opening victory.

Much had been made about the meeting between the quick-striking Ducks under Chip Kelly and Arizona's spread offense under no-huddle, up-tempo pioneer Rich Rodriguez. Oregon went into it the averaging 54 points per game, while Arizona wasn't far behind with an average of a little more than 46 points.

However, Arizona (3-1, 0-1) couldn't find the end zone and quarterback Matt Scott, a fifth-year senior who spent the last two seasons behind Nick Foles, passed for 210 yards but was intercepted three times — one returned for a touchdown.

The game got off to a sloppy start as Oregon failed on fourth down and each team turned the ball over before Mariota found Daryle Hawkins with a 17-yard touchdown pass midway through the first quarter.

Arizona got as close as the 2-yard line on the next series, but couldn't punch it in and turned the ball over on downs. The Wildcats' struggles continued when John Bonano's 31-yard field goal was blocked early in the second quarter.

Rob Beard hit a 27-yard field goal to increase Oregon's advantage to 10-0. It was the Ducks' first FG of the season. Beard added a 41-yarder late in the first half to make it 13-0 at the break.

While both offenses appeared to sputter at times, defenses made the difference in the first half. Oregon's hybrid 3-4 under longtime defensive coordinator Nick Aliotti held the Wildcats to 141 yards in total offense in the first 30 minutes. Meanwhile, Arizona's new 3-3-5 defense kept the normally prolific Ducks from piling on points.

There was more of the same to open the second half, and the first two possessions by both teams ended in punts.

But then the Ducks started rolling. De'Anthony Thomas returned Arizona's third-straight punt 38 yards, setting up a 35-yard pass to Colt Lyerla, who finished it off with a 1-yard touchdown run. The drive took just three plays and 29 seconds.

Kiko Alonso intercepted Scott, leading to Mariota's long TD pass to Addison, before Ifo Ekpre-Olomu ran his interception back 54 yards to make it 35-0.

Bryan Bennett added an 8-yard scoring run with 4:02 left in the game before Troy Hill intercepted Scott's backup, B.J. Denker, for a 29-yard touchdown and the final margin.

Arizona opened coach Rodriguez's tenure with a victory over Toledo before upsetting then-No. 18 Oklahoma State 59-38 in their second game. Last weekend in a 56-0 win over South Carolina State, the Wildcats ran a school-record 102 offensive plays.

The Wildcats were the first big test for Oregon, which opened the season with victories over Arkansas State, Fresno State and lower-division Tennessee Tech.

Before this season, Arizona hadn't been ranked in the AP Top 25 since November 2010, when the No. 20 Wildcats were knocked out with a 48-29 loss to the then-No. 1 Ducks.

Last season, Oregon defeated Arizona 56-31 in Tucson.

Oregon's last shutout of Arizona came in 1964, when the Ducks won 21-0 at Hayward Field in Eugene.

Game 5

18) Oregon State ..... 38

Arizona..... 35

Sept. 29, 2012 // Tucson, Ariz. // Arizona Stadium (44,153)

Start: 7:08 p.m. // TOG: 3:35 // Weather: 86 degrees, clear

TUCSON, Ariz. -- A momentum-swinging game hanging in the balance, Oregon State coach Mike Riley pulled out a play he had been saving all game.

So what if he would have liked more space to run it. This was the time to do -- and it couldn't have worked out any better.

Sean Mannion threw for a career-high 433 yards and hit Connor Hamlett on a 9-yard pass with 1:09 left for his third touchdown, lifting No. 18 Oregon State to wild 38-35 win over Arizona Saturday night.

Oregon State (3-0, 1-1 Pac-12) took a 17-0 lead, Arizona charged back and the teams traded scores in the second half of a game filled with big plays and 1,158 yards of combined offense.

Arizona (3-2, 0-1 Pac-12) landed a big blow in the can-you-top this second half, going up 35-31 with 5:34 left when Matt Scott hit Austin Hill on a 7-yard touchdown. The problem was that it left too much time for Mannion.

Knowing his team had moved the ball all game against the Wildcats, the calm-and-cool sophomore guided the Beavers 75 yards down the field in 10 plays. Facing a third-and-5 with just over a minute left, Mannion called out a play that sent one receiver into the left flat and Hamlett down the sideline. Arizona's defenders followed the receiver in the flat and Mannion whipped a pass to Hamlett, who slipped just inside the pylon for the winning score.

Mannion finished 29 of 45 for the fifth-most passing yards in school history while setting a career high for the second week. He hit Markus Wheaton 10 times for 166 yards and a pair of touchdowns, and Brandin Cooks nine times for 149 yards.

Storm Woods added for 161 yards and a touchdown for the Beavers, off to their first 3-0 start since 2002. Arizona nearly kept up with them.

Scott fought through a sprained ankle in the second half to throw for a career-high 403 yards and three touchdowns, but had two interceptions, including one near midfield in the final minute. Ka'Deem Carey ran for 115 yards and two touchdowns. Dan Buckner caught six passes for 119 yards and a score.

It wasn't enough for Arizona, which has lost two straight after opening 3-0.

Mannion was sharp early, hitting Cooks on a 57-yard pass in the first quarter to set up a 2-yard touchdown pass to Wheaton in the back of the end zone.

Next series, Mannion hit Wheaton for a 51-yard gain, leading to Trevor Romaine's 30-yard field goal.

Mannion found Kevin Cummings next, on a 38-yard pass to position Tyler Anderson for a 1-yard touchdown dive that put the Beavers up 17-0.

Arizona's offense tried to answer after sputtering early.

The Beavers bogged Arizona down in the first quarter and held when the Wildcats had their first sustained drive, which ended with John Bonano pushing a 30-yard field goal wide right after Scott was called for intentional grounding.

That wasn't a good sign for the Wildcats, who went 0-for-6 in the red zone in a 49-0 loss to Oregon last week.

Arizona managed to end its red-zone woes late in the second quarter, though, when the officials checked the replay to see if Carey fumbled at the 1-yard line and determined he actually went into the end zone for a score that cut Oregon State's lead to 17-7.

Arizona kept rolling on its opening drive of the second half, quickly marching 91 yards in 10 plays for a 3-yard pass from Scott to Hill.

The Wildcats needed a minute to score again, this one a 24-yard run up the middle by Carey, who carried a couple of Oregon State defenders into the end zone with him to put Arizona up 21-17.

Scott made a mistake on the next drive, when Jordan Poyer missed an interception at midfield, then got it when the ball caromed off Richard Morrison. That set up a 1-yard touchdown run by Woods to give Oregon State the lead back.

Woods followed with a mistake of his own, losing a fumble at Oregon State's 40. Scott then threw to the corner of the end zone to Buckner, who's over-the-shoulder, 16-yard TD catch put the Wildcats up 28-24.

Mannion's turn was next. Using a pump fake, he got the entire right side of Arizona's defense to bite and winged a 20-yard touchdown to Wheaton that put the Beavers back out front.

Scott answered, marching the Wildcats for a 7-yard touchdown pass to Hill, who dove in the final yard to make it 35-31.

He just left too much time for Mannion and the Beavers, who head home to play Washington State next week with plenty of momentum on their side.

Game 6

Arizona..... 48 OT
 Stanford..... 54

Oct. 6, 2012 // Palo Alto, Calif. // Stanford Stadium (48,204)
 Start: 12:05 p.m. // TOG: 3:51 // Weather: Upper 60s, Partly Cloudy

STANFORD, Calif. -- Josh Nunes bailed out Stanford's defense for a change and started to erase doubts about whether he's the right man to replace Andrew Luck after all.

Nunes threw for a career-high 360 yards and two touchdowns and ran for three more scores, rallying No. 18 Stanford from a two-touchdown deficit to stun Arizona 54-48 in overtime Saturday.

Chase Thomas intercepted a tipped pass by Matt Scott in the extra period and Stepfan Taylor ran for a 21-yard touchdown two plays later to end a week of second-guessing Nunes with a wild celebration in the Cardinal (4-1, 2-1 Pac-12) side of the north end zone.

The offense failed to find the end zone in a 17-13 loss at Washington last week. Nunes underthrew several passes or misfired completely, and critics began to mount enough for Shaw to open his weekly news conference defending his new quarterback and boldly calling any question about a change "asinine."

Nunes followed his coach's words with his most solid game of the season. He completed 21 of 34 passes, scrambled for first downs and -- most importantly -- offset Scott's record-setting performance.

Scott completed 45 of 69 passes -- both school records -- for 491 yards and three touchdowns until Henry Anderson tipped his final pass in overtime that Thomas intercepted. Arizona (3-3, 0-3) amassed 617 total yards -- same as Stanford -- but lost for the third straight game and is still winless in conference play.

For most of the afternoon, the Wildcats scored at will and looked more like the team that beat Oklahoma State to start 3-0 than the one that lost to Oregon and Oregon State the previous two weeks. Facing its third straight ranked opponent, Arizona's aerial attack shredded Stanford's defense in a way few have the past few seasons.

The Wildcats became the first team to eclipse 400 yards passing against the Cardinal since Oklahoma in the 2009 Sun Bowl. The Sooners threw for 418 yards in that 31-27 win over the Cardinal.

Arizona's defense couldn't hold up when it counted.

Nunes ran his second short touchdown to trim Arizona's lead to 48-41 with 6:34 remaining. The Cardinal held the Wildcats to only their third three-and-out on the next possession, and Nunes led a drive that will help ease concerns about Luck's successor.

The redshirt junior ran for 16 yards on third-and-7 from midfield, threw 17 yards to tight end Zach Ertz on fourth-and-9 from Arizona's 20 and ran for the tying touchdown with 45 seconds left in regulation.

This time, Stanford's offense showed some fight from the start.

Taylor, who finished with 142 yards rushing and two touchdowns, ran for 35 yards on seven carries before Nunes lofted an 11-yard touchdown pass to Ertz in the corner of the end zone to give the Cardinal a 7-0 lead on the game's first possession.

While the offense finally found its rhythm, Stanford's defense struggled to slow down Arizona's up-tempo style.

Ka'Deem Carey ran for 13 yards for the first of his three touchdowns, and John Bonano kicked a 34-yard field goal to give the Wildcats a 10-7 lead later in the second quarter.

Nunes stayed steady and sharp, finding Levine Toilolo for a 12-yard touchdown pass to put Stanford back ahead 14-10. Bonano kicked a 33-yard field goal to slice Stanford's lead to 14-13 at half.

The pace picked up even more following the break.

Scott threaded a 27-yard strike to Terrence Miller inches short of the goal line that set up Carey's short touchdown run to put Arizona in front 20-14 less than 2 minutes into the third quarter.

Although the Cardinal prefer to play grind-it-out games and control the clock, Arizona simply wouldn't let them.

The teams traded touchdowns for most of the second half until Jourdon Grandon stripped Ty Montgomery after a 16-yard catch early in the fourth quarter. Arizona recovered and took over at Stanford's 45.

Scott quickly led the offense down field and hooked up with Miller for a 10-yard completion that gave the Wildcats a 48-34 lead -- the biggest either side had all afternoon. Scott nearly set the school passing record set by Willie Tuitama, who threw for a school-record 510 yards in a 48-41 win over Washington on Oct. 27, 2007.

Game 7

Washington ..... 17
 Arizona..... 52

Oct. 20, 2012 // Tucson, Ariz. // Arizona Stadium (50,148)
 Start: 7:06 p.m. // TOG: 3:13 // Weather: Upper 70s, clear

TUCSON, Ariz. -- Matt Scott threw for 256 yards and four touchdowns, Ka'Deem Carey ran for 172 yards and Arizona raced out of its bye week with a 52-17 rout over Washington Saturday night.

Arizona (4-3, 1-3 Pac-12) went into its bye worn down and beaten up after three straight losses to ranked opponents.

Refreshed and mostly recuperated, the Wildcats had their way with Washington's defense from the opening drive, edipsing 500 total yards (533) for the sixth time this season.

Scott finished 14 of 22, throwing two touchdowns to Austin Hill, and ran for another score. Carey scored on a 2-yard run, and Richard Morrison added a 63-yard touchdown on a punt return to give coach Rich Rodriguez his first Pac-12 win.

Washington (3-4, 1-3) had no chance against Arizona's fast-paced offense, and quarterback Keith Price had another so-so game in the Huskies' third straight loss.

Price matched Scott with 256 yards passing, but his line didn't look quite as good, needing 52 attempts to get there and with two interceptions to offset his one touchdown.

Washington played a brutal schedule the first half of the season, facing four teams in the top 11 of the AP poll. The Huskies were run over in two of those, on the road against LSU and Oregon, but beat Stanford and stayed close to USC last week despite four turnovers and a blocked punt.

It didn't figure to get any easier against Arizona and its go-all-the-time offense, particularly since it didn't go so well the last time the Huskies faced an up-tempo team.

Of course, that was against arguably the fastest team in the country, No. 2 Oregon, which ran past them for a 52-21 victory.

Preparing for a no-huddle team and seeing one live should have helped the Huskies against Arizona, which had run more plays than all but one team before its bye week.

It didn't.

Snapping the ball almost as soon as the officials placed it, the Wildcats picked Washington's defense apart behind Carey's quick-burst running and Scott's pinpoint passing.

Scott set Pac-12 records for completions (45) and attempts (69) while throwing for 491 yards and three touchdowns in Arizona's 54-48 loss to Stanford two weeks ago.

The fifth-year senior didn't have to work quite as hard against Washington.

He opened by getting two Washington defenders to bite on a pump fake to set up a floating, 27-yard touchdown pass to David Richards.

Scott did it next with his legs, scoring on a 1-yard run, then his arm, finding Garic Wharton on a 33-yard touchdown pass on fourth-and-3 to put Arizona up 24-3. He also had a quick answer to Washington's first touchdown -- a 6-yard pass from Price to Austin Seferian-Jenkins -- by hitting Hill on a 53-yard touchdown.

Scott's only real mistake came in the closing seconds of the first half, when he was hit, and his fluttering pass was picked off by Washington linebacker Travis Feeney at midfield. He rumbled to the 3-yard line, setting up Bishop Sankey's 1-yard touchdown run that cut Arizona's lead to 31-17 at halftime.

The miscue did little to slow the Wildcats down.

Arizona gained about 10 yards when

Game 8

USC ..... 36

Arizona..... 39

Oct. 27, 2012 // Tucson, Ariz. // Arizona Stadium (47,822)
 Start: 12:35 p.m. // TOG: 4:06 // Weather: Low 80s, Sunny

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP) — His team trailing by 15 in the third quarter, Arizona coach Rich Rodriguez urged his players to show a little life. Even after the Wildcats scored, they — and much of the stadium — remained quiet.

Matt Scott woke them up.

Scott didn't get a chance to play in Arizona's shootout loss to Southern California last year, but sure put his imprint on the rematch, accounting for 469 total yards and four touchdowns in the Wildcats' 39-36 upset of the 10th-ranked Trojans on Saturday.

The Wildcats (5-3, 2-3 Pac-12) had come up short in close games during their first season under Rodriguez and appeared to be headed toward another disappointment as USC receiver Marqise Lee raced past them into the Pac-12 record book.

Scott wouldn't let Arizona come up short again.

The fifth-year senior ran for 100 yards and got Arizona's comeback started with a 10-yard touchdown run late in the third quarter. He threw for 369 yards, 259 of that on 10 catches by Austin Hill, and finished 27 for 50 passing.

Scott capped his day with his third touchdown pass, a 7-yarder to David Richards that put Arizona up 39-28 with just over five minutes left. He was wobbly and unable to play on Arizona's final possession after taking a hard hit, but had already done enough to give the Wildcats their biggest win under Rodriguez.

Marqise Lee had a huge day for USC (6-2, 4-2), eclipsing the Pac-12 record for receiving yards by half-time. He finished with 16 catches for 345 yards and two touchdowns, ending up with 469 all-purpose yards after a couple of big kick returns.

Matt Barkley put up big numbers, too, matching Carson Palmer's school record for 400-yard games with his third, throwing for 493 yards and three touchdowns on 31-of-49 passing.

USC finished with 618 total yards and pulled within three on Silas Redd's 10-yard touchdown in the fourth quarter, but couldn't overcome five turnovers — two on interceptions by Barkley — and 13 penalties for 117 yards.

The Trojans' last shot ended when Barkley's heave on the final play was swatted down, leaving them stuck on 799 wins as a program while putting a huge dent in their national championship hopes.

USC won last year's offensive shootout 48-41, surviving Arizona's second-half comeback thanks to Barkley's school-record 468 yards and four touchdowns passing.

They spent the first half of the rematch trying to get out of their own way.

Barkley threw his two interceptions — and nearly several others — and overthrew tight end Xavier Grimble in the end zone on a fourth down. Redd also lost a fumble in the first half and safety Jawan Starling lost a fumble on an interception return.

USC also had eight penalties for 79 yards in the first half, including a taunting call against safety T.J. McDonald that extended Arizona's opening drive. Scott capped that by hitting Johnny Jackson on an 8-yard touchdown pass.

Arizona had a few discipline problems of its own.

The Wildcats had a 1-yard touchdown run by Ka'Deem Carey wiped out by a holding call and kicker John Bonano pushed a 37-yard field goal wide right after another hold erased his make from 27 on the first half's final play.

USC shook off its mistakes behind some big plays in the first half by Barkley and Lee.

Barkley connected with Grimble on a 12-yard touchdown early in the second quarter, then found Lee late, hitting him in stride for a 49-yard touchdown that put the Trojans up 14-10.

Lee kept getting open and Barkley kept finding him, setting up a 3-yard touchdown run by D.J. Morgan that put the Trojans up 21-13 late in the second quarter.

Lee opened the second half with a 44-yard touchdown catch to put USC up 28-13 and break the Pac-12 record of 293 yards receiving set by Oregon State's Mike Hass against Boise State in 2004.

So was Scott.

He scored on the 10-yard run, then found Dan Buckner on a 9-yard touchdown pass to pull Arizona within 28-26 after the Wildcats recovered a fumble by Morgan.

Carey scored on a 7-yard touchdown run the next drive, Scott extended the lead to 39-28 with his TD pass to Richards.

Redd scored and USC got ball back for a final drive, but came up short when Arizona knocked Barkley's final heave harmlessly to the turf, giving Arizona its first tight win after disappointing losses Stanford and Oregon State.
