Arizona - Colorado Series History

All-Time Series: Colorado leads, 13-1

First Meeting: Nov. 26, 1931 (Colorado 27, Arizona 7 at Tucson, Ariz.)

Last Meeting: Nov. 12, 2011 (Colorado 48, Arizona 29 at Boulder, Colo.)

Some Game Themes: Arizona returns home for the rise-and-shine variety of its annual homecoming game with an unusual late-morning kickoff at Arizona Stadium ... A redemption game for a pair of teams reeling from blowout losses a week ago ... The Wildcats stare adversity in the eyes for the first time in the Rich Rodriguez era after leaving Pasadena battered and bruised in what quickly became an uncompetitive game ... Can UA rekindle the resiliency and hard edge that it has shown in the previous eight games against one of the toughest schedules in the nation ... Will the Wildcats have Matt Scott, their fifth-year senior signal caller, running the controls of a high-powered, balanced offense itching to get back on track? Or will 1,000-yard rusher Ka'Deem Carey be called upon to carry an even bigger load in the ground game? ... On the flip side, Colorado tries to snap a five-game losing streak against the school that it broke a seven-game skid against a season ago in Boulder ... Can the Buffs, last in the Pac-12 in scoring offense, find some yards and points against a UA defense that has surrendered the second-most points in the league? In fact, UA and CU are giving up a combined 81 points per game to their opponents, so perhaps another shootout in the desert is in store? ... An intra-time zone battle in the Mountain Time Zone, where the Wildcats will play their final three games (also at Utah and home against Arizona State) ... Bowl eligibility at stake for Arizona as it enters the final quarter of the season with two of its last three regular season games at home.

Coach Rodriguez will address the media prior to any player comments. At home games, Coach Rodriguez will hold a postgame press conference inside the Media/Photo Room at Gate 15. Selected offensive and defensive players will follow. For road games, each locker room situation will dictate postgame protocol.

The Coaches: Arizona – Rich Rodriguez (West Virginia '86), first year at Arizona (5-4) and 18th as a head coach overall (125-88-2). Rodriguez was introduced as the 30th head coach of the UA football program on Nov. 22, 2011. He carries Division I records of 5-4 at Arizona, 60-26 at West Virginia (2001-2007) and 15-22 at Michigan (2008-10). He began his head coaching career at Salem (W.Va.) University in 1988 and then coached at Glenville State (W.Va.) from 1990-96. Rodriguez's West Virginia teams were Big East Champions in 2003, 2004, 2005 and 2007 while appearing in two BCS bowls, the 2005 Sugar Bowl with a victory over Georgia for an 11-1 record and a victory over Oklahoma in the 2007 Fiesta Bowl to finish 10-2 shortly after Rodriguez had left for Michigan. Colorado - John Embree (Colorado '88), second year at CU (4-18) and second year overall. A four-year Colorado letterman tight end (1983-86), Embree began coaching as a volunteer under Bill McCartney at CU in 1991. He was a 10-year assistant at Colorado, a three-year assistant at UCLA, and coached four seasons in the NFL at Kansas City and Washington. His coaching background has been on both sides of the ball.

2011 UA-Colorado Rewind (full recap/stats on page 7): Arizona closed its road schedule in Boulder against Colorado and left with pie on its face after a 48-29 loss. The Buffaloes, struck first with an 80-yard drive keyed by a 39-yard pass from Tyler Hansen, and never trailed. UA responded with a drive for a John Bonano field goal, but CU again took the ball 80 yards to push the lead to 14-3. UA trimmed it to a three-point game with a 65-yard drive keyed by a Ka'Deem Carey 27-yard run, but two possessions later the Buffs took advantage of superior field position (UA 28 yard-line) when Wildcat punter Kyle Dugandzic was called for a knee down while picking up a low snap, and punched it in in three plays for 20-10 lead at the break. After two CU scoring drives in the third quarter, UA linebacker Tra'Mayne Bondurant's pick-six (29 yards) got UA back on the board, and another Nick Foles-driven drive made it look interesting in pulling UA to within a pair of scores, 34-23. But Colorado marched 80 yards in reply to put the game out of reach. The Cats picked up another score, and so did the Buffaloes, notching the most points they'd scored since 2007. CU running back Rodney Stewart finished with 181 yards and three TDs on 24 totes to spearhead a 273-yard rushing effort by the Buffaloes, who also picked up 213 passing yards from Hansen (and two scoring throws). CU was 7-for-7 on TDs in the red zone. Foles passed for 352 yards to become the Arizona all-time passing leader with 9,289 yards, but suffered three interceptions in some one-dimensionality by UA, which only rushed for 60 net yards.

Last Week: A battle of top-25 teams jockeying for position atop the Pac-12 South standings turned into a Bruin blowout as UCLA scored early and often as it racked up the fourth-most points ever scored against Arizona, including the most since 1949 (Michigan State, 75). The Bruins won the coin toss and elected to receive, mounting a purposeful nine-play, 75-yard drive that featured a pair of third down conversions. Johnathan Franklin capped the drive with a 37-yard burst for the opening score, and in the process became UCLA's all-time leading rusher. It was a sign of things to come for a well-balanced offense (308 rush, 303 pass), as the Bruins scored three touchdowns in the first quarter and three more in the second quarter to enjoy a 42-3 halftime advantage that had all but sealed the game. A UCLA field goal made it 45-3 early in the third quarter, before the Wildcats finally found paydirt on a 12-play drive topped off by Ka'Deem Carey's 13th rushing touchdown of the season. But on UA's next drive, quarterback Matt Scott was knocked out of the game after taking a shot to the head from a defender's knee, and any hope of a valiant comeback soon faded. The Bruins scored the game's final 21 points on an impressive performance from quarterback Brett Hundley, who completed 23-of-28 passes for three scores and no interceptions, while adding 16 yards and a score on the ground. Franklin finished with 162 yards and two scores as part of a 190-yard all-purpose day. The Bruins had control on both sides, forcing three turnovers on defense and sacking UA quarterbacks four times, including three after Scott left. The Wildcats struggled to a 3-for-14 clip on third downs, while the Bruins converted 8-for-15 such situations. All added up, it was 66-10 romp that left the Wildcats still a victory shy of bowl eligibility and moved UCLA to the front of the Pac-12 South chase.

Shootouts In The Desert: Arizona Stadium has been home to some high-scoring affairs over recent seasons, and Rich Rodriguez and Co. have continued the trend with the Wildcats averaging 44.2 points per game in Tucson this season. That clip is more than a touchdown better than UA's scoring average over the six seasons at home. Over the last 38 games at Arizona Stadium, UA has a 26-12 record due in large part to a 35.7 points per game scoring average. That's right, UA is averaging over five touchdowns per game at Arizona Stadium, including three games this year when it has topped 50 points. Opponents are scoring 22.2 points per game in those games, combining for nearly 60 points per game at Arizona Stadium over six seasons.

Rise And Shine: The 11:30 a.m. local start will be the earliest for a home Arizona football game since Nov. 12, 1983, when the Wildcats upended UCLA, 27-24, before 42,640 fans in a game that officially kicked off at 10:33 a.m. at Arizona Stadium. The weekly UA press release from that game mentioned it was the school's first-ever regular-season national television game. The game was broadcast on CBS with Gary Bender and Pat Haden providing the on-air commentary. A couple years later, UA played a 10:30 a.m. road game at Colorado, a contest in which the Wildcats won, 24-21, on Sept. 27, 1986, in Boulder, Colo. for the school's only win in the all-time series. Perhaps Arizona's most memorable morning kickoff was the Fiesta Bowl played in on Jan. 1, 1994. The Wildcats defeated Miami, 29-0, that day at Sun Devil Stadium in a game that kicked off at 11:09 a.m. in Tempe, Ariz.

Strength of Schedule: Jeff Sagarin ranks Arizona's schedules as the third-toughest in the nation to date, with six of the Wildcats nine games to date being against teams in his top 30 (2-4 record). Looking at the AP Poll this week, six of UA's opponents are currently ranked, while two others — Oklahoma State and Washington — have been ranked at some point this year. That means all eight of UA's FBS opponents have earned an AP Top-25 ranking at some point this season and all eight currently have a winning record. The combined record of UA's eight FBS opponents this season is 54-17.

Carey Breaks 1,000 Yards: Sophomore running back Ka'Deem Carey broke the 1,000-yard mark with 54 yards last week at UCLA to give him 1,015 yards on the season. In the process, Carey became the school's 13th player to gain 1,000 yards in a season, including just the third player to do so in the last 13 seasons. Carey is only the third sophomore on the list, joining Nic Grigsby (2008) and Art Lupino (1954) as the youngest (by class) on the list of 1,000-yard rushers. The last 1,000-yard rusher for the Wildcats was Grigsby, who racked up 1,153 markers in 2008.

Rodriguez's 1,000-Yard Rushers: Ka'Deem Carey became the first running back to post a 1,000-yard season under head coach Rich Rodriguez since Steve Slaton did so at West Virginia in 2007. At Michigan, only dual-threat quarterback Dennard Robinson (2010) mounted a 1,000-yard season during Rodriguez's three seasons. At West Virginia, Slaton had three-straight 1,000-yard campaigns, including in 2007, 2006 and 2005. His quarterback during those years, Pat White, also turned in 1,000-yard seasons in 2006 and 2007. Prior to the Slaton-White years, running backs Avon Cobourne (2001 and 2002) and Quincy Wilson (2003) had 1,000-yard seasons under Rodriguez. Added up, and with Carey included, that's 10 (ten) 1,000-yard rushers over 11 seasons as an FBS head coach for Rodriguez.

Hill Nears 1,000 Yards: Sophomore receiver Austin Hill is six yards shy of notching a 1,000-yard receiving season. Hill has a team-leading 59 receptions for 994 yards in nine games, a 110.4 yards per game clip that ranks No. 10 in the nation and third in the Pac-12. Already with the seventh-most yards in single-season school history, Hill would be the seventh 1,000-yard receiver all-time at the school and the fifth since 1999. Most recently, current Oakland Raider Juron Criner hauled in 1,233 yards in his junior season in 2010, the third-most in program history. A few years earlier, current Detroit Lion Mike Thomas tallied 1,038 yards in 2007. The second-most receiving yards in a season were collected by Bobby Wade (1,389 in 2002), who played eight seasons in the NFL. The school record is held by Dennis Northcutt (1,422 in 1999), who had a 10-year NFL career. That's some pretty good company for Hill, who is on track to become the next 1,000-yard receiver.

1,000-Yard Rusher/Receiver: Sophomore sensations Ka'Deem Carey (1,015 rushing yards) and Austin Hill (994 receiving yards) are poised to become just the second Wildcat rushing-receiving tandem to post 1,000-yard seasons in program history. The only duo to previously do so was the school's all-time leading rusher, Trung Canidate (1,603 yards in 1999) and the school's No. 2 all-time receiver, Dennis Northcutt (1,422 yards in 1999), in the 1999 season. Interestingly, both Canidate and Northcutt set and still hold the single-season school records for rushing/receiving yards in those respective campaigns. Not coincidentally, the 1999 squad averaged 471.9 total offense yards per game, which remains the school record. The 2012 Wildcats are currently averaging 520.7 yards per game.

Seeing Yellow: The last two Arizona football games have seen a combined 55 penalties for 504 yards. That's an astonishing 250-plus yards of penalties per game. The Wildcats have been flagged 29 times for 253 yards, a sharp increase from previous games (UA was flagged only 42 times in the first seven games). UA opponents, however, have been drawing flags all season long. The Wildcats lead all 124 FBS teams in opponents penalty yards, and it really isn't close. Officials have marched off 939 penalty yards against UA opponents this season, which is 110 yards more than the No. 2 team — Louisiana Tech (829). The No. 3 team for most opponent penalty yards is California (759), a full 180 yards fewer than UA's opponents. Wildcat foes have topped 100 penalty yards in five games this season, including in three consecutive contests.

Made For TV? Note to out-of-town fans that can't make it to Arizona Stadium: set your DVRs for some extra time to record Wildcat games. A combination of no-huddle, breakneck offense and regular television coverage has made for much longer Arizona football games this season. The average FBS game this season has lasted 3:17, but the Wildcats fall on the long side of the average with a 3:32 clip for their nine games to date. One explanation for the lengthier games might be that the Wildcats play too fast. Huh? Consider that UA is averaging 86.4 offensive plays per game, which is about 15 more per game than the national average of 71.6. Looking back on past seasons, UA's games in 2010 lasted an average of 3:18 and the Cats ran 73.8 plays per game. Two seasons prior, Wildcat games lasted just 3:05 seemingly due to Arizona running just 70.5 plays per game.

Seeing Red: The Wildcats hope to continue their run of success in the red zone. After an 0-for-5 effort in the red zone in a loss at Oregon on Sept. 22, Arizona has scored on 24 of its last 26 (92 percent) forays into the scoring zone. Of those, 19 (73 percent) have resulted in touchdowns. Both numbers are improvements over the team's season average of 75.5 percent overall and 58.5 percent touchdowns in the red zone.

In A Rush: Arizona has rushed for 100 yards in eight of its first nine games in 2012, just a season removed when it did so in just five games last fall. The Wildcats have 1,715 yards on the ground, an average of 190.6 yards per game (No. 3 in Pac-12). That's a significant improvement over last season's 94.5 per-game tally, which finished ranked second-to-last in the Pac-12 and No. 114 nationally. In fact, this year's rushing total (1,715) has surpassed last year's 12-game total of 1,134 yards and the 2010 total of 1,712 yards. Running back Ka'Deem Carey leads the club with 1,015 yards, while quarterback Matt Scott ranks second with 369 yards. UA's leading rusher a year ago was senior Keola Antolin, who finished his final season at the school with 568 yards.

Total Offense: The Wildcats are averaging 520.7 yards per game, which would be a new school record if it held up, and their 4,686 total yards are already the seventh-most in a single season since Arizona joined the Pac-10/12 in 1978. Recent teams have posted 5,321 (2008), 4,999 (2009), 5,712 (2010) and 5,583 (2011). The 2010 squad boasts the school record for yards in a season (13 games), though the 1999 club that gained 5,663 yards in 12 games owns the current school record for yards per game (471.9).

Matt's The Man: Quarterback Matt Scott, who redshirted in 2011, is putting together a stellar senior season, if statistics are any indication. The Corona, Calif., native entered 2012 with five previous career starts and is now a 14-game starter (9-5 record) as a Wildcat. He possesses a complete repertoire of skills at the quarterback position, including ability to make all the throws on the field and hurt defenses with his legs. Here's a look at his career statistics:

	Rushing			Passing
Year	Rush	Yards	TD	Comp	Att	Yards	TD	INT	Comp Pct.	Tot. Off.	GP	GS

Tracking Matt: Senior quarterback Matt Scott has emerged as one of the most prolific passers in the country in his first full season as a starter. Scott's 2,848 passing yards lead all Pac-12 passers and rank No. 8 in the nation. Added with more than 40 rushing yards per game, Scott is averaging 357.4 yards in total offense per game, which also leads the Pac-12 and ranks No. 4 nationally. Scott, who is averaging 11.8 yards per completion, has the seventh-most passing plays of 10-plus yards (113) of any quarterback in the country. He also has 40 passes of 20 or more yards, which ranks tied for sixth-most among FBS quarterbacks. It's all amounts to Scott challenging some single season and career top-10 offensive charts. Here's a look at a few:

- Scott has four of Arizona's top-10 all-time single-game total offense performances (485 at Stanford, 469 vs. USC, 461 vs. Toledo, and 432 vs. Oregon State)
- 3,217 total offense yards in 2012 already rank No. 3 in single-season history.
- Scott has moved into a tie for fourth-place in single-season history with 20 passing touchdowns. Four more will push him into the No. 2 spot. He needs eight more to tie the record.
- Scott (2,848 yards) ranks No. 6 on the school's single-season passing yardage list. He is 240 yards away from moving up to No. 5.
- Scott's 242 pass completions rank No. 6 in single-season history.
- Scott's 26 career passing touchdowns rank No. 10 in program history.
- Scott's 62.7 percent completion percentage would rank No. 6 in single-season history if it were to hold up through season's end.

1,000-Yard Career: Quarterback Matt Scott sits at 1,001 career rushing yards, pushing him past a career benchmark not often achieved at the position (should be noted a QB risks losing yardage due to sacks in future games). UA's all-time leader for quarterback rushing is Ronnie Veal, who collected 1,419 yards and 27 touchdowns from 1987-90. Scott recently moved past Jim Krohn's 987 yards from 1976-79.

Carey The Load: Sophomore running back Ka'Deem Carey, a local product out of Canyon del Oro High School, has emerged as UA's featured back and one of the most underrated players in the Pac-12 through the first nine games of the season. On the Maxwell Award Watch List earlier this year, Carey ranks third in the Pac-12 with 112.8 rushing yards per game and checks in fourth in all-purpose yardage (142.0 ypg). The 5-foot-11, 195-pounder has 14 total scores (13 rushing, one receiving) to rank second among all Pac-12 players and rank tied for 23rd-most nationally in scoring. Carey has topped 100 yards rushing six times this season alone, just a year after the Wildcats broke 100 yards as a team only five times in 12 contests in 2011.

More Ka'Deem: While Carey doesn't have the look of a power back, he's a tough, physical inside runner that picks up extra yards after contact. He has a 5.1 yards per carry average, boosted by 27 totes of 10 or more yards, tied for 17th-most nationally. Carey also is a threat in the passing game, where he averages 8.8 yards per reception and ranks third on the club with 28 catches for 247 yards. His 1,262 yards from scrimmage are 12th-most individually among all FBS players.

Ka'Deem In Perspective: How good of a season is Ka'Deem Carey putting together? Well, a look at the Pac-12 stats won't do him justice. Carey currently ranks third in the conference with 1,015 rushing yards, trailing some well-known talents like UCLA's Jonathan Franklin (1,204) and Oregon's Kenjon Barner (1,295). However, Carey's rushing total would lead all rushers in four other BCS conferences, including the ACC, Big East, Big 12 and SEC.

Big Play Austin: Sophomore receiver Austin Hill is turning in a breakout campaign, highlighted by a career day against No. 10 USC on Oct. 27 in which he racked up a career-best 259, the second-highest total in UA single-game history. On 10 grabs, he set a UA single-game mark for yards per reception (25.9) and boasts a season average of 16.8 yards per catch. That clip is the fourth-highest for any FBS receiver with at least 50 receptions to date. In the USC game alone, Hill had five receptions of 20-plus yards, including a career-long 60-yarder to continue a trend of making big plays all season long. In fact, Hill ranks tied for No. 2 in the nation in receptions of 20-plus yards (18) and third for 30-plus yards (11). He averages 110.4 yards per game, good enough for the No. 3 spot in the Pac-12 and No. 10 nationally.

Dan's The Man: In the receiving jamboree, senior Dan Buckner has been overshadowed by youngster Austin Hill, but the upperclassman has turned in a strong campaign. Buckner is second on the team in several receiving categories, including receptions (54), yards (678) and touchdowns (3). He averages 12.6 yards per grab — also second-best on the squad. With a pair of 100-yard receiving games, Buckner joins Hill (four 100-yard games) as one of three Pac-12 duos with multiple 100-yard games. Buckner is tied for No. 15 nationally with 33 receptions of 10-plus yards. He has 10 over 20 yards.

Chain Gang: Arizona, ranks No. 2 among FBS teams with 266 first downs (29.6 per game), which ranks as the fourth-most in single-season school history. Tough to think a squad could average nearly 30 per game, but that clip over the next two games would actually break the single-season school record of 309 first downs set last season. UA has three regular season games left, plus a potential bowl. Should be a record-breaking season from the first downs standpoint.

Youth Movement: Arizona has played 40 freshmen or sophomores this season, comprising more than half of the nearly 75 Wildcats to see the field. The Wildcats have played 10 true freshmen, the fourth-most of any Pac-12 school and among the top-20 nationally (research courtesy of David Plati at Colorado). With redshirts mixed in, UA has played more than 20 freshmen, most on defense. In fact, the youth movement is most prominent on the defensive side of the ball, where 14 of the 22 players listed on the regular two-deep are freshmen or sophomores. From that group, six of UA's top eight tacklers are freshmen or sophomores, led by safeties Jourdon Grandon (54), Jared Tevis (49) and Tra'Mayne Bondurant (57). Bondurant leads the team with 11.5 tackles for loss.

Big Play Bondurant: Perhaps one of the most underrated defenders in the Pac-12 is "Spur" safety Tra'Mayne Bondurant. The true sophomore has a nose for the football and has proven to be a pest for opposing teams. The Vallejo, Calif., native is third on the team with 57 total tackles, but he leads all players and ranks ninth in the Pac-12 with 11.5 tackles for loss. The 11.5 stops behind the line surpass UA's season leader from a year ago, since-departed linebacker Derek Earls, who had 7.0 TFLs. Bondurant, who has five passes broken up and a forced fumble this season, intercepted his first pass of the season last month against Washington, returning it 43 yards to help set up Arizona's second touchdown.

A Budding Star: Converted safety Marquis Flowers continues to develop as a linebacker, a position he was switched to about a week before the start of the season. At 6-foot-3, 221 pounds, Flowers is Arizona's biggest linebacker and ranks as team's leader with 4.5 sacks. Flowers is also second on the squad with 9.5 tackles for loss and second with 68 total tackles. He has added two interceptions, a pair of pass breakups and has forced two fumbles. He has accounted for four takeaways in the last three games (forced fumble vs. Washington and two INTs and forced fumble vs. USC). Flowers was the Pac-12 Defensive Player of the Week last week for his effort against USC on Oct. 27.

Man In The Middle: Junior Jake Fischer has been a stalwart middle linebacker in Arizona's new 3-3-5 defensive scheme implemented this season by defense coordinator Jeff Casteel. Fischer, who missed the 2011 season with an ACL injury, ranks No. 2 among Pac-12 players and No. 51 nationally with 8.9 tackles per game (80 total). That's just a handful of tackles shy of 10 per game for the slightly undersized 6-foot, 215-pounder. Don't tell that to Fischer, though, who has shown a nose for the ball early in the season. Fischer has 5.5 tackles for loss, two pass breakups, two forced fumbles and a pair of fumble recoveries. He was named Pac-12 Defensive Player of the Week following a career-high 13-tackle season debut against Toledo on Sept. 1.

Kickin' Kyle: Senior punter Kyle Dugandzic is putting together a strong season, even if he is averaging less than four punts per game. Dugandzic's overall average is a hefty 43.6 yards per boot, with six 50-plus yarders. He ranks No. 3 in the Pac-12 in punting average (43.6), while UA ranks No. 5 in the conference and No. 26 nationally in net punting (39.5). He was named the Pac-12 Special Teams Player of the Week (Oct. 1) in a losing cause after a sensational performance against Oregon State that included a career-long 70-yard boomer and four of five total punts landing inside the 20-yard line. He again placed four punts inside the 20-yardline against USC two weeks ago. In that respect, Dugandzic has placed 17 of his 38 punts inside the 20-yard line and has just one touchback.

Building for the Future: The Lowell-Stevens Football Facility, scheduled to open in August 2013, marks a dynamic shift in the Arizona football culture as it will become the centerpiece of the program on the north end of Arizona Stadium. Supported by private funds, including significant leadership gifts from David and Edith Lowell and from Jeff and Sharon Stevens, the $72.3 million project will provide the Wildcats with one of the premier football facilities in the nation. The facility will be a four-floor operations center with strength training, sports-medicine, coaches offices, locker rooms, meeting rooms, equipment and facility service areas. The structure will enclose the north end of the stadium and create a full bowl with nearly 4,000 premium spectator seats, including a donor lounge with outdoor seating. Additionally, stairways and elevator towers for the concourse will connect the structure to the existing east and west stadium sections. Restrooms, amenity areas and a cafeteria will also serve the campus community. Arizona Stadium has an official capacity of 51,811 for this season, but once work is completed on the Lowell-Stevens Football Facility, the venue will near the some 57,000 seats it has held in recent years.

Up Next: Arizona hits the road for its final regular season game but stays in the Mountain Standard Time zone for a Pac-12 South matchup against Utah in Salt Lake City, Utah, on Saturday, Nov. 17. Kickoff time and television will be announced on Sunday, Nov. 11. The game will be slotted for either 8 p.m. MST with an ESPN2/ESPNU broadcast or for a 1 p.m. MST telecast on the Pac-12 Networks.

2011: Arizona at Colorado

Arizona..... 29

Colorado..... 48

Nov. 12, 2011 // Boulder, Colo. // Folsom Field (48,111)

Start: 12:41 p.m. // TOG: 3:22 // Weather: 57 degrees, Gusty Winds

BOULDER, Colo. -- Rodney Stewart ran for 181 yards and three touchdowns and threw for another, helping Colorado avoid its first winless season at 87-year Folsom Field with a 48-29 win over Arizona Saturday.

Tyler Hansen threw two TD passes and hauled in Stewart's touchdown toss on a flea-flicker as the Buffaloes (2-9) recorded their first Pac-12 win after six losses in their new league since bolting the Big 12 last year.

The Wildcats (2-8, 1-7) came in as double-digit favorites but fell behind quickly and their comeback attempt wasn't helped by the sustained 45 mph winds that gusted to 71 mph in the fourth quarter.

Arizona's Nick Foles was 35 for 53 for 352 yards, but he had three interceptions and lost a fumble to go with his one touchdown.

The Wildcats trailed by 24 in the third quarter but cut their deficit to 34-23. Linebacker Tra'Mayne Bondurant returned an interception 29 yards for a touchdown and then Foles completed all six of his passes for 68 yards on an 88-yard drive that ended with his 11-yard strike to David Douglas. However, Douglas couldn't hold onto the 2-point conversion pass.

The Buffaloes went 80 yards in six plays with Stewart taking the handoff and scoring from 11 yards out to make it 41-23, then the Wildcats scored again on Ka'Deem Carey's second rushing touchdown, and again the 2-point conversion pass fell incomplete.

After the Cats recovered the onside kick, Jason Espinoza's interception at midfield led to Stewart's fourth touchdown, a 9-yard scamper.

The Buffaloes benefited from a couple of questionable calls on two TD drives as they built a 34-10 lead, their biggest of the season.

Arizona punter Kyle Dugandzic fielded a low snap from Josh Elias and trapped the ball on the grass. The officials ruled that before he recovered and got the punt off, his knee also touched the turf, downing the ball at the Wildcats 38. Although television replays showed his knee never touched, the play wasn't overruled.

Three snaps later, tailback Josh Ford burst through the middle for a 29-yard score that put the Buffs ahead 20-10 at the half.

Colorado took the second-half kickoff and Hansen didn't slide after a 19-yard scramble and was hit by cornerback Shaquille Richardson, who was whistled for a personal foul, tacking on 15 yards. That led to Hansen's 15-yard TD toss to a diving Toney Clemons for a 27-10 lead.

On their next possession, Hansen tossed the ball Stewart, then flared out into the left flat to haul in a 14-yard flea-flicker touchdown throw from his tailback for his first career catch and a 34-10 lead.

Stewart's only other career pass attempt, last season, also went for a touchdown.

High winds ahead of a winter storm wreaked havoc, especially in the kicking game, but also in the passing game, causing some throws to sail and others to sink. The goal post in the north end zone whipsawed much of the day and there were constant swirls of trash tumbling across the field, along with a couple of marching band members' black hats.

Before the game, tents were prohibited from tailgating parties and some events with bounce houses and other inflatables were scrubbed. Even the kicking tee was tipped over by the winds during warm-ups.

Wide receiver Keenan Canty turned a short catch into a 39-yard gain on Colorado's first drive, setting up Stewart's 5-yard TD run.

After John Bonano's 25-yard field goal, Hansen hooked up with freshman tailback Tony Jones for a 5-yard TD two plays after his errant pitch to Jones resulted in a 13-yard loss. Will Oliver's extra point sailed wide left, his first miss in 23 tries.

Game 1

Toledo 17
Arizona..... 24 OT

Sept. 1, 2012 // Tucson, Ariz. // Arizona Stadium (48,670)
Start: 7:37 p.m. // TOG: 3:47 // Weather: 93 degrees, Partly cloudy

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP) -- Toledo coach Matt Campbell flipped a coin to determine his starting quarterback on Saturday. Unfortunately for him and the Rockets, who took snaps for Arizona did not come down to chance.

Arizona quarterback Matt Scott, scrambling to his right, barely inbounds and with a defender grabbing his jersey, tossed a 10-yard touchdown pass to Terrence Miller in overtime to give the Wildcats a 24-17 victory on Saturday night.

Arizona pulled out Rich Rodriguez's coaching debut after its kicker, John Bonano, missed a 25-yard field goal as regulation ended. Bonano missed a 24-yarder earlier in the game.

Scott threw for a career-high 387 yards and rushed for 74 yards. Ka'Deem Carey had 147 yards on 20 carries, including a 73-yard touchdown run.

Arizona amassed 624 yards, second-most in school history, to Toledo's 358 but had two touchdowns called back by penalties, turned the ball over three times and missed the two short field goals.

Terrance Owens threw a 59-yard TD pass to Alonzo Russell for the Rockets, who have never beaten a Pac-12 team.

With both teams disdaining the huddle, the game was played at a frenetic pace. In all, the teams combined for 182 plays, 94 by Toledo and 88 by Arizona.

Campbell, at 32 the youngest head coach in the FBS subdivision, flipped a coin to decide which of his experienced quarterbacks would start. Austin Dantin won the toss, but Owens replaced him after two series.

Owens didn't return after he was hit hard and fumbled the ball away in the third quarter. Owens was 11 of 22 for 134 yards, Dantin 10 of 25 for 63 yards.

Scott, who sat out last season as a redshirt junior while Nick Foles completed his college eligibility, kept Arizona's offense on the move all night. He completed 30 of 46 passes, including two touchdowns. He was intercepted once.

Dan Buckner caught 10 for 116 yards and Austin Hill seven for 139 yards, including a spectacular, diving, fingertip grab of Scott's 30-yard pass for Arizona's first touchdown.

Arizona seemed to have the game in hand when Scott rushed for 31 yards in three carries as the Wildcats drove to the Toledo 5 in the waning seconds, but he was tackled near the right hash mark, leaving Bonano a slight angle on his kick. The attempt wasn't even close, hooking far to the left to send the game into overtime.

Toledo, with both quarterbacks and several other significant players returning from last season's 9-4 team, moved the ball most of the night on the young, susceptible Arizona defense. But the Wildcats stopped David Fluellen for a 2-yard loss on third-and-1 at the Arizona 21, forcing the Rockets to settle for Jeremiah Detmer's 40-yard field goal that tied it at 17-17 with 14:18 to play.

Arizona led 3-0 after the first quarter on Bonano's 26-yard field goal.

After Detmer missed a 48-yard field goal, Arizona quickly advanced to the Rockets' 9-yard line. But after Richard Morrison caught a short pass from Scott, he dropped the ball, and Toledo's Toll Molls recovered at the Rockets' 6.

Toledo took it downfield from there, going 94 yards in 10 plays, with Owens finding Russell wide open on the 59-yard touchdown play that made it 7-3 with 13:55 left in the half. The Wildcats came back with a 10-play, 64-yard scoring drive, ending with Hill's diving grab to put Arizona ahead 10-7 with 12:04 left in the half.

Arizona had a 67-yard touchdown run by Daniel Jenkins negated by a holding penalty. Toledo regained the lead with a 63-yard drive aided by a defensive holding penalty and personal foul against Arizona.

Owens had a 23-yard pass to Cordale Scott on the drive, which ended with Cassius McDowell scoring on a 1-yard run to put the Rockets ahead 14-10 with 12:04 left in the second quarter, a lead that held until halftime.

Arizona blew another scoring opportunity in the second quarter when Scott threw over the middle to Hill on a 32-yard play, but the receiver fumbled when he was hit, and the ball bounced into the hands of Toledo's Robert Bell at the Rockets' 34-yard line.

Game 2

18) Oklahoma State..... 38

Arizona..... 59

Sept. 8, 2012 // Tucson, Ariz. // Arizona Stadium (45,602)
 Start: 7:37 p.m. // TOG: 3:36 // Weather: 80 degrees, Windy

TUCSON, Ariz. -- Oklahoma State quarterback Wes Lunt set a Big 12 freshman record by throwing for 436 yards and connected with Tracy Moore for four touchdown passes.

The Cowboys piled up 636 yards of offense, the second straight week they eclipsed 600 yards, and scored 38 points.

Those weren't the numbers that mattered.

Lunt threw three interceptions and Oklahoma State set a school record with 167 penalty yards, sending the 18th-ranked Cowboys to a frustrating 59-38 loss to Arizona in the desert on Saturday night.

Arizona (2-0) fell into a quick 14-0 hole before scoring the next 30 points as Oklahoma State (1-1) unraveled under a shower of yellow flags. Even with all the penalties, the Cowboys settled down enough to rally within two points late in the third quarter.

The Wildcats wouldn't let them any closer, scoring 29 points after the 3-minute mark of the third quarter to run away from the Cowboys.

Ka'Deem Carey ran for 147 yards in his debut as the featured back last week and followed it up by scoring four touchdowns while rushing for 126 yards on 26 carries.

Matt Scott also had a nice follow-up to his dazzling opener, throwing for 320 yards and two touchdowns on 28-of-41 passing while running for 55 yards and another score.

Together, they helped Arizona take a step toward becoming relevant again.

Lunt hit 37 of 60 passes and threw for the fourth-most yards in school history in his second game as Oklahoma State's starter. He also had some shaky moments, tossing three interceptions, including one returned 48 yards for a touchdown by Jonathan McKnight in the fourth quarter.

Joseph Randle added 123 yards on 23 carries but the Cowboys just couldn't seem to stay out of their own way, committing 15 penalties and turning it over four times.

Defensive tackle Calvin Barnett was called for consecutive personal fouls on one play, setting up Scott's 15-yard touchdown pass to Richard Morrison.

A fumble by Randle on the next drive, followed by a late-hit penalty on cornerback Broderick Brown, set up a 22-yard field goal by John Bonano.

A fourth personal foul by Oklahoma State in the half, on linebacker Shaun Lewis for hitting Scott as he slid, led to a third field goal by Bonano, a 24-yarder. Carey added a 1-yard touchdown run - with a little help from teammates - late in the quarter to put Arizona up 23-14 at halftime.

Oklahoma State had nine penalties for 110 yards in the half and its last drive ended when Arizona's Jared Tevis intercepted a tipped pass by Lunt at the Wildcats' 29.

The second half opened the same way: Barnett was flagged for a late hit on the opening play and Arizona scored on a 13-yard screen pass from Scott to Carey for a 30-14 lead.

But the score seemed to snap the Cowboys out of their funk.

Lunt hit Morgan for a 9-yard touchdown pass and the Cowboys kept marching on Arizona the next drive, setting up Jeremy Smith's 10-yard touchdown run that cut Arizona's lead to 30-28.

It turned out to be their last gasp.

The Wildcats raced down the field on their next drive, setting up Scott's 8-yard touchdown run up the middle. Lunt, facing pressure for one of the few times all game, threw up a weak pass early in the fourth quarter and McKnight picked it off for an easy touchdown. Oklahoma State was called for pass interference on the 2-point try - naturally - and Arizona converted on the second attempt to go up 45-31.

Carey sealed it with a 25-yard TD run up the middle and added a 1-yarder for good measure in the closing minutes to send the Zona Zoo into a frenzy and the Wildcats to a look-at-us win.

"There's some excited guys in the locker room and I'm proud of them," Rodriguez said. "It's a nice win, the guys played and made the plays when they needed to."

And with it should come some extra - and wanted - attention.

Game 3

South Carolina State 0

24) Arizona 56

Sept. 15, 2012 // Tucson, Ariz. // Arizona Stadium (43,919)
Start: 7:37 p.m. // TOG: 2:59 // Weather: 83 degrees, clear, calm

☒ TUCSON, Ariz. (AP) — South Carolina State had trouble stopping No. 24 Arizona's offense, allowing the Wildcats to run a whopping 102 plays.

It was just as bad for the Bulldogs on offense, maybe even worse.

Overmatched against the bigger, faster Wildcats, South Carolina State managed just eight first downs in a 56-0 loss to Arizona on Saturday night.

Arizona knocked off No. 18 Oklahoma State last week and opens the Pac-12 next weekend at No. 4 Oregon. Sandwiched in between was a game against the Bulldogs, one the Wildcats couldn't afford to take lightly.

They didn't.

Instead of a letdown as coach Rich Rodriguez feared, Arizona (3-0) handled a from the Football Championship Subdivision as any good program would, racing out to a 28-0 lead by halftime and a school-record 43 first downs overall.

Matt Scott threw for 288 yards and three touchdowns on 30-of-36 passing, and added a 10-yard scoring run in another stellar performance to start his senior season.

Arizona's try-to-keep-up-with-us offense ran a school-record 102 plays and had 689 total yards, two short of another record.

The defense was just as dominant, holding South Carolina State (1-2) to 154 total yards for its first shutout in four years.

Yep, this was just the kind of confidence-building tuneup the Wildcats needed before heading to rowdy Autzen Stadium for their first road game of the season.

South Carolina State had little chance against Arizona's athleticism, unable to top the Wildcats from marching down the field or get anything going on offense.

The Bulldogs failed to crack double-digits in first downs and had virtually no running game, gaining 65 yards on 29 carries. Quarterback Richard Cue trouble against Arizona's speedy defenders, badly missing several receivers while going 12 for 25 for 89 yards with an interception.

After rolling over Oklahoma State 59-38 last week, the Wildcats moved into The Associated Press poll for the first time in nearly two years.

They needed an easy win with a tough Pac-12 run coming up next. After the Ducks next weekend, Arizona plays a conference schedule that includes No. 2 Southern California, No. 21 Stanford, No. 22 UCLA and rival Arizona State.

The Wildcats had no trouble moving the ball against the Bulldogs, but did have a little problem getting out of their own way in the early going.

Arizona raced to a touchdown on its first possession, Scott capping it with a 15-yard touchdown pass to Richard Morrison.

Moving quickly again, the Wildcats lost the ball near midfield when Morrison fumbled and the Bulldogs recovered. Another fast-moving drive ended with John Bonano, the reigning Pac-12 special teams player of the week, pushing a 25-yard field goal wide right.

Those turned out to be just blips in the Wildcats' march of dominance.

Scott hit Taimi Tutogi on a 14-yard touchdown to open the second quarter after the Bulldogs bit hard on a play-action fake. Ka'Deem Carey capped the next drive with a 7-yard touchdown run around the right end.

Scott closed out the impressive first half by pinballing off several defenders into the end zone for a 10-yard run that made it 28-0.

Scott, who entered the game tied with Syracuse's Ryan Nassib for the national lead with 836 total yards, threw for 175 yards and ran for 61 more in the first half.

Arizona's offense had 323 yards by halftime and its defense held South Carolina State to 69.

If it wasn't over already, the Wildcats made sure in the third quarter, when Scott hit Dan Buckner on a 27-yard touchdown pass and Jenkins carried half of South Carolina State's defense with him on a 5-yard scoring run that made it 42-0.

By then, pretty much all of Arizona's starters were on the sideline, resting up for what will certainly be a much tougher task against the fast-flying Ducks.

The Wildcats will at least go there on a high instead of coming off letdown after taking care of the Bulldogs.

22) Arizona 0

3) Oregon 49

Sept. 22, 2012 // Eugene, Ore. // Autzen Stadium (58,334)
Start: 7:36 p.m. // TOG: 3:19 // Weather: 65 degrees, cloudy, drizzle

EUGENE, Ore. (AP) — Redshirt freshman Marcus Mariota threw for 260 yards and two touchdowns, including a 55-yard scoring pass to freshman Bralon Addison late in the third quarter, and No. 3 Oregon beat No. 22 Arizona 49-0 Saturday night.

Billed as an offensive juggernaut between the Pac-12's fastest scoring teams, Oregon didn't find its stride until the second half — and Arizona never did — and the Ducks (4-0, 1-0) got their seventh straight conference-opening victory.

Much had been made about the meeting between the quick-striking Ducks under Chip Kelly and Arizona's spread offense under no-huddle, up-tempo pioneer Rich Rodriguez. Oregon went into it the averaging 54 points per game, while Arizona wasn't far behind with an average of a little more than 46 points.

However, Arizona (3-1, 0-1) couldn't find the end zone and quarterback Matt Scott, a fifth-year senior who spent the last two seasons behind Nick Foles, passed for 210 yards but was intercepted three times — one returned for a touchdown.

The game got off to a sloppy start as Oregon failed on fourth down and each team turned the ball over before Mariota found Daryle Hawkins with a 17-yard touchdown pass midway through the first quarter.

Arizona got as close as the 2-yard line on the next series, but couldn't punch it in and turned the ball over on downs. The Wildcats' struggles continued when John Bonano's 31-yard field goal was blocked early in the second quarter.

Rob Beard hit a 27-yard field goal to increase Oregon's advantage to 10-0. It was the Ducks' first FG of the season. Beard added a 41-yarder late in the first half to make it 13-0 at the break.

While both offenses appeared to sputter at times, defenses made the difference in the first half. Oregon's hybrid 3-4 under longtime defensive coordinator Nick Aliotti held the Wildcats to 141 yards in total offense in the first 30 minutes. Meanwhile, Arizona's new 3-3-5 defense kept the normally prolific Ducks from piling on points.

There was more of the same to open the second half, and the first two possessions by both teams ended in punts.

But then the Ducks started rolling. De'Anthony Thomas returned Arizona's third-straight punt 38 yards, setting up a 35-yard pass to Colt Lyerla, who finished it off with a 1-yard touchdown run. The drive took just three plays and 29 seconds.

Kiko Alonso intercepted Scott, leading to Mariota's long TD pass to Addison, before Ifo Ekpre-Olomu ran his interception back 54 yards to make it 35-0.

Bryan Bennett added an 8-yard scoring run with 4:02 left in the game before Troy Hill intercepted Scott's backup, B.J. Denker, for a 29-yard touchdown and the final margin.

Arizona opened coach Rodriguez's tenure with a victory over Toledo before upsetting then-No. 18 Oklahoma State 59-38 in their second game. Last weekend in a 56-0 win over South Carolina State, the Wildcats ran a school-record 102 offensive plays.

The Wildcats were the first big test for Oregon, which opened the season with victories over Arkansas State, Fresno State and lower-division Tennessee Tech.

Before this season, Arizona hadn't been ranked in the AP Top 25 since November 2010, when the No. 20 Wildcats were knocked out with a 48-29 loss to the then-No. 1 Ducks.

Last season, Oregon defeated Arizona 56-31 in Tucson.

Oregon's last shutout of Arizona came in 1964, when the Ducks won 21-0 at Hayward Field in Eugene.

Game 5

18) Oregon State 38

Arizona..... 35

Sept. 29, 2012 // Tucson, Ariz. // Arizona Stadium (44,153)

Start: 7:08 p.m. // TOG: 3:35 // Weather: 86 degrees, clear

TUCSON, Ariz. -- A momentum-swinging game hanging in the balance, Oregon State coach Mike Riley pulled out a play he had been saving all game.

So what if he would have liked more space to run it. This was the time to do -- and it couldn't have worked out any better.

Sean Mannion threw for a career-high 433 yards and hit Connor Hamlett on a 9-yard pass with 1:09 left for his third touchdown, lifting No. 18 Oregon State to wild 38-35 win over Arizona Saturday night.

Oregon State (3-0, 1-1 Pac-12) took a 17-0 lead, Arizona charged back and the teams traded scores in the second half of a game filled with big plays and 1,158 yards of combined offense.

Arizona (3-2, 0-1 Pac-12) landed a big blow in the can-you-top this second half, going up 35-31 with 5:34 left when Matt Scott hit Austin Hill on a 7-yard touchdown. The problem was that it left too much time for Mannion.

Knowing his team had moved the ball all game against the Wildcats, the calm-and-cool sophomore guided the Beavers 75 yards down the field in 10 plays. Facing a third-and-5 with just over a minute left, Mannion called out a play that sent one receiver into the left flat and Hamlett down the sideline. Arizona's defenders followed the receiver in the flat and Mannion whipped a pass to Hamlett, who slipped just inside the pylon for the winning score.

Mannion finished 29 of 45 for the fifth-most passing yards in school history while setting a career high for the second week. He hit Markus Wheaton 10 times for 166 yards and a pair of touchdowns, and Brandin Cooks nine times for 149 yards.

Storm Woods added for 161 yards and a touchdown for the Beavers, off to their first 3-0 start since 2002. Arizona nearly kept up with them.

Scott fought through a sprained ankle in the second half to throw for a career-high 403 yards and three touchdowns, but had two interceptions, including one near midfield in the final minute. Ka'Deem Carey ran for 115 yards and two touchdowns. Dan Buckner caught six passes for 119 yards and a score.

It wasn't enough for Arizona, which has lost two straight after opening 3-0.

Mannion was sharp early, hitting Cooks on a 57-yard pass in the first quarter to set up a 2-yard touchdown pass to Wheaton in the back of the end zone.

Next series, Mannion hit Wheaton for a 51-yard gain, leading to Trevor Romaine's 30-yard field goal.

Mannion found Kevin Cummings next, on a 38-yard pass to position Tyler Anderson for a 1-yard touchdown dive that put the Beavers up 17-0.

Arizona's offense tried to answer after sputtering early.

The Beavers bogged Arizona down in the first quarter and held when the Wildcats had their first sustained drive, which ended with John Bonano pushing a 30-yard field goal wide right after Scott was called for intentional grounding.

That wasn't a good sign for the Wildcats, who went 0-for-6 in the red zone in a 49-0 loss to Oregon last week.

Arizona managed to end its red-zone woes late in the second quarter, though, when the officials checked the replay to see if Carey fumbled at the 1-yard line and determined he actually went into the end zone for a score that cut Oregon State's lead to 17-7.

Arizona kept rolling on its opening drive of the second half, quickly marching 91 yards in 10 plays for a 3-yard pass from Scott to Hill.

The Wildcats needed a minute to score again, this one a 24-yard run up the middle by Carey, who carried a couple of Oregon State defenders into the end zone with him to put Arizona up 21-17.

Scott made a mistake on the next drive, when Jordan Poyer missed an interception at midfield, then got it when the ball caromed off Richard Morrison. That set up a 1-yard touchdown run by Woods to give Oregon State the lead back.

Woods followed with a mistake of his own, losing a fumble at Oregon State's 40. Scott then threw to the corner of the end zone to Buckner, who's over-the-shoulder, 16-yard TD catch put the Wildcats up 28-24.

Mannion's turn was next. Using a pump fake, he got the entire right side of Arizona's defense to bite and winged a 20-yard touchdown to Wheaton that put the Beavers back out front.

Scott answered, marching the Wildcats for a 7-yard touchdown pass to Hill, who dove in the final yard to make it 35-31.

He just left too much time for Mannion and the Beavers, who head home to play Washington State next week with plenty of momentum on their side.

Game 6

Arizona..... 48 OT
 18) Stanford 54

Oct. 6, 2012 // Palo Alto, Calif. // Stanford Stadium (48,204)
 Start: 12:05 p.m. // TOG: 3:51 // Weather: Upper 60s, Partly Cloudy

STANFORD, Calif. -- Josh Nunes bailed out Stanford's defense for a change and started to erase doubts about whether he's the right man to replace Andrew Luck after all.

Nunes threw for a career-high 360 yards and two touchdowns and ran for three more scores, rallying No. 18 Stanford from a two-touchdown deficit to stun Arizona 54-48 in overtime Saturday.

Chase Thomas intercepted a tipped pass by Matt Scott in the extra period and Stepfan Taylor ran for a 21-yard touchdown two plays later to end a week of second-guessing Nunes with a wild celebration in the Cardinal (4-1, 2-1 Pac-12) side of the north end zone.

The offense failed to find the end zone in a 17-13 loss at Washington last week. Nunes underthrew several passes or misfired completely, and critics began to mount enough for Shaw to open his weekly news conference defending his new quarterback and boldly calling any question about a change "asinine."

Nunes followed his coach's words with his most solid game of the season. He completed 21 of 34 passes, scrambled for first downs and -- most importantly -- offset Scott's record-setting performance.

Scott completed 45 of 69 passes -- both school records -- for 491 yards and three touchdowns until Henry Anderson tipped his final pass in overtime that Thomas intercepted. Arizona (3-3, 0-3) amassed 617 total yards -- same as Stanford -- but lost for the third straight game and is still winless in conference play.

For most of the afternoon, the Wildcats scored at will and looked more like the team that beat Oklahoma State to start 3-0 than the one that lost to Oregon and Oregon State the previous two weeks. Facing its third straight ranked opponent, Arizona's aerial attack shredded Stanford's defense in a way few have the past few seasons.

The Wildcats became the first team to eclipse 400 yards passing against the Cardinal since Oklahoma in the 2009 Sun Bowl. The Sooners threw for 418 yards in that 31-27 win over the Cardinal.

Arizona's defense couldn't hold up when it counted.

Nunes ran his second short touchdown to trim Arizona's lead to 48-41 with 6:34 remaining. The Cardinal held the Wildcats to only their third three-and-out on the next possession, and Nunes led a drive that will help ease concerns about Luck's successor.

The redshirt junior ran for 16 yards on third-and-7 from midfield, threw 17 yards to tight end Zach Ertz on fourth-and-9 from Arizona's 20 and ran for the tying touchdown with 45 seconds left in regulation.

This time, Stanford's offense showed some fight from the start.

Taylor, who finished with 142 yards rushing and two touchdowns, ran for 35 yards on seven carries before Nunes lofted an 11-yard touchdown pass to Ertz in the corner of the end zone to give the Cardinal a 7-0 lead on the game's first possession.

While the offense finally found its rhythm, Stanford's defense struggled to slow down Arizona's up-tempo style.

Ka'Deem Carey ran for 13 yards for the first of his three touchdowns, and John Bonano kicked a 34-yard field goal to give the Wildcats a 10-7 lead later in the second quarter.

Nunes stayed steady and sharp, finding Levine Toilolo for a 12-yard touchdown pass to put Stanford back ahead 14-10. Bonano kicked a 33-yard field goal to slice Stanford's lead to 14-13 at half.

The pace picked up even more following the break.

Scott threaded a 27-yard strike to Terrence Miller inches short of the goal line that set up Carey's short touchdown run to put Arizona in front 20-14 less than 2 minutes into the third quarter.

Although the Cardinal prefer to play grind-it-out games and control the clock, Arizona simply wouldn't let them.

The teams traded touchdowns for most of the second half until Jourdon Grandon stripped Ty Montgomery after a 16-yard catch early in the fourth quarter. Arizona recovered and took over at Stanford's 45.

Scott quickly led the offense down field and hooked up with Miller for a 10-yard completion that gave the Wildcats a 48-34 lead -- the biggest either side had all afternoon. Scott nearly set the school passing record set by Willie Tuitama, who threw for a school-record 510 yards in a 48-41 win over Washington on Oct. 27, 2007.

Game 7

Arizona..... 52

Oct. 20, 2012 // Tucson, Ariz. // Arizona Stadium (50,148)

Start: 7:06 p.m. // TOG: 3:13 // Weather: Upper 70s, clear

TUCSON, Ariz. -- Matt Scott threw for 256 yards and four touchdowns, Ka'Deem Carey ran for 172 yards and Arizona raced out of its bye week with a 52-17 rout over Washington Saturday night.

Arizona (4-3, 1-3 Pac-12) went into its bye worn down and beaten up after three straight losses to ranked opponents.

Refreshed and mostly recuperated, the Wildcats had their way with Washington's defense from the opening drive, edipsing 500 total yards (533) for the sixth time this season.

Scott finished 14 of 22, throwing two touchdowns to Austin Hill, and ran for another score. Carey scored on a 2-yard run, and Richard Morrison added a 63-yard touchdown on a punt return to give coach Rich Rodriguez his first Pac-12 win.

Washington (3-4, 1-3) had no chance against Arizona's fast-paced offense, and quarterback Keith Price had another so-so game in the Huskies' third straight loss.

Price matched Scott with 256 yards passing, but his line didn't look quite as good, needing 52 attempts to get there and with two interceptions to offset his one touchdown.

Washington played a brutal schedule the first half of the season, facing four teams in the top 11 of the AP poll. The Huskies were run over in two of those, on the road against LSU and Oregon, but beat Stanford and stayed close to USC last week despite four turnovers and a blocked punt.

It didn't figure to get any easier against Arizona and its go-all-the-time offense, particularly since it didn't go so well the last time the Huskies faced an up-tempo team.

Of course, that was against arguably the fastest team in the country, No. 2 Oregon, which ran past them for a 52-21 victory.

Preparing for a no-huddle team and seeing one live should have helped the Huskies against Arizona, which had run more plays than all but one team before its bye week.

It didn't.

Snapping the ball almost as soon as the officials placed it, the Wildcats picked Washington's defense apart behind Carey's quick-burst running and Scott's pinpoint passing.

Scott set Pac-12 records for completions (45) and attempts (69) while throwing for 491 yards and three touchdowns in Arizona's 54-48 loss to Stanford two weeks ago.

The fifth-year senior didn't have to work quite as hard against Washington.

He opened by getting two Washington defenders to bite on a pump fake to set up a floating, 27-yard touchdown pass to David Richards.

Scott did it next with his legs, scoring on a 1-yard run, then his arm, finding Garic Wharton on a 33-yard touchdown pass on fourth-and-3 to put Arizona up 24-3. He also had a quick answer to Washington's first touchdown -- a 6-yard pass from Price to Austin Seferian-Jenkins -- by hitting Hill on a 53-yard touchdown.

Scott's only real mistake came in the closing seconds of the first half, when he was hit, and his fluttering pass was picked off by Washington linebacker Travis Feeney at midfield. He rumbled to the 3-yard line, setting up Bishop Sankey's 1-yard touchdown run that cut Arizona's lead to 31-17 at halftime.

The miscue did little to slow the Wildcats down.

Arizona gained about 10 yards when

Oct. 27, 2012 // Tucson, Ariz. // Arizona Stadium (47,822)
 Start: 12:35 p.m. // TOG: 4:06 // Weather: Low 80s, Sunny

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP) — His team trailing by 15 in the third quarter, Arizona coach Rich Rodriguez urged his players to show a little life. Even after the Wildcats scored, they — and much of the stadium — remained quiet.

Matt Scott woke them up.

Scott didn't get a chance to play in Arizona's shootout loss to Southern California last year, but sure put his imprint on the rematch, accounting for 469 total yards and four touchdowns in the Wildcats' 39-36 upset of the 10th-ranked Trojans on Saturday.

The Wildcats (5-3, 2-3 Pac-12) had come up short in close games during their first season under Rodriguez and appeared to be headed toward another disappointment as USC receiver Marqise Lee raced past them into the Pac-12 record book.

Scott wouldn't let Arizona come up short again.

The fifth-year senior ran for 100 yards and got Arizona's comeback started with a 10-yard touchdown run late in the third quarter. He threw for 369 yards, 259 of that on 10 catches by Austin Hill, and finished 27 for 50 passing.

Scott capped his day with his third touchdown pass, a 7-yarder to David Richards that put Arizona up 39-28 with just over five minutes left. He was wobbly and unable to play on Arizona's final possession after taking a hard hit, but had already done enough to give the Wildcats their biggest win under Rodriguez.

Marqise Lee had a huge day for USC (6-2, 4-2), eclipsing the Pac-12 record for receiving yards by half-time. He finished with 16 catches for 345 yards and two touchdowns, ending up with 469 all-purpose yards after a couple of big kick returns.

Matt Barkley put up big numbers, too, matching Carson Palmer's school record for 400-yard games with his third, throwing for 493 yards and three touchdowns on 31-of-49 passing.

USC finished with 618 total yards and pulled within three on Silas Redd's 10-yard touchdown in the fourth quarter, but couldn't overcome five turnovers — two on interceptions by Barkley — and 13 penalties for 117 yards.

The Trojans' last shot ended when Barkley's heave on the final play was swatted down, leaving them stuck on 799 wins as a program while putting a huge dent in their national championship hopes.

USC won last year's offensive shootout 48-41, surviving Arizona's second-half comeback thanks to Barkley's school-record 468 yards and four touchdowns passing.

They spent the first half of the rematch trying to get out of their own way.

Barkley threw his two interceptions — and nearly several others — and overthrew tight end Xavier Grimble in the end zone on a fourth down. Redd also lost a fumble in the first half and safety Jawanza Starling lost a fumble on an interception return.

USC also had eight penalties for 79 yards in the first half, including a taunting call against safety T.J. McDonald that extended Arizona's opening drive. Scott capped that by hitting Johnny Jackson on an 8-yard touchdown pass.

Arizona had a few discipline problems of its own.

The Wildcats had a 1-yard touchdown run by Ka'Deem Carey wiped out by a holding call and kicker John Bonano pushed a 37-yard field goal wide right after another hold erased his make from 27 on the first half's final play.

USC shook off its mistakes behind some big plays in the first half by Barkley and Lee.

Barkley connected with Grimble on a 12-yard touchdown early in the second quarter, then found Lee late, hitting him in stride for a 49-yard touchdown that put the Trojans up 14-10.

Lee kept getting open and Barkley kept finding him, setting up a 3-yard touchdown run by D.J. Morgan that put the Trojans up 21-13 late in the second quarter.

Lee opened the second half with a 44-yard touchdown catch to put USC up 28-13 and break the Pac-12 record of 293 yards receiving set by Oregon State's Mike Hass against Boise State in 2004.

So was Scott.

He scored on the 10-yard run, then found Dan Buckner on a 9-yard touchdown pass to pull Arizona within 28-26 after the Wildcats recovered a fumble by Morgan.

Carey scored on a 7-yard touchdown run the next drive, Scott extended the lead to 39-28 with his TD pass to Richards.

Redd scored and USC got ball back for a final drive, but came up short when Arizona knocked Barkley's final heave harmlessly to the turf, giving Arizona its first tight win after disappointing losses Stanford and Oregon State.

Game 9

24) Arizona 10

25) UCLA 66

Nov. 3, 2012 // Pasadena, Calif. // The Rose Bowl (81,673)
 Start: 7:37 p.m. // TOG: 3:23 // Weather: 70 degrees, calm

PASADENA, Calif. (AP) -- PASADENA, Calif. -- Johnathan Franklin couldn't stop smiling after becoming UCLA's career rushing leader. The wide grin wasn't just about what he accomplished personally Saturday night at the Rose Bowl.

Franklin gained 162 yards, redshirt freshman Brett Hundley passed for 288 yards and three touchdowns, and UCLA (No. 25 AP) overwhelmed Arizona (No. 22 BCS, No. 24 AP) 66-10 to move into first place in the Pac-12 South.

And that position is something UCLA hasn't experienced in 14 years -- a possible berth in the Rose Bowl game. The Bruins know if they win their final three games plus the Pac-12 championship game that they'll be playing in Pasadena on New Year's Day.

Their confidence should be soaring after such an impressive win against an opponent that seemed poised to give them a hard-fought game. UCLA entered as a three-point favorite.

Franklin entered needing 21 yards to overtake Gaston Green, who gained 3,731 yards from 1984-87.

Franklin moved into the top spot with a 37-yard touchdown run on his third carry, capping a 75-yard, nine-play drive following the opening kickoff that put the Bruins (7-2, 4-2 Pac-12) ahead for good.

Franklin, who carried 24 times and scored twice, raised his career rushing total to 3,873 yards as the Bruins, off to their best start since 2005, raced to a 42-3 halftime lead in snapping a five-game losing streak to the Wildcats (5-4, 2-4) who beat them 48-12 in Tucson last year.

The Bruins called a timeout after Franklin's record-breaking run to allow teammates to congratulate him. The crowd of 81,673 at the Rose Bowl joined in the celebration. Franklin came into the game as the country's seventh-leading rusher.

The 66 points were the most scored by the Bruins since Oct. 4, 1997, when they beat Houston 66-10.

UCLA gained 371 yards of its 611 yards in the first half against a shaky Arizona defense, which came into the game ranked 110th out of 120 teams in total defense.

The Wildcats, ranked fourth nationally in total offense with a 553.6-yard average, gained just 83 of their 257 yards in the opening 30 minutes.

Hundley, who completed 16 straight passes at one stage, finished with 23 completions in 28 attempts without being intercepted.

The win gave the Bruins a better record than crosstown rival Southern California through nine games for the first time since 2001. The 18th-ranked Trojans (6-3, 4-3) lost to No. 2 Oregon 62-51 earlier Saturday.

Arizona's Matt Scott, ranked second nationally in total offense at 386.1 yards per game, completed 15 of 25 passes for 124 yards before being shaken up and leaving the game midway through the third quarter. Scott was unable to finish his team's 39-36 upset of USC last weekend after being injured late in the game.

Regarding the game, Rodriguez said he was embarrassed by his team's performance.

Arizona's Ka'Deem Carey, the country's 12th-leading rusher, was held to 54 yards on 16 carries.

The Bruins took a 21-0 lead before Arizona got a first down, scoring on Franklin's record-setting run, a 6-yard keeper by Hundley seven plays after an 18-yard punt by Kyle Dugandzic gave UCLA the ball at the Wildcats 34-yard line, and a 17-yard pass from Hundley to Jordan Payton that finished an 85-yard drive.

David Allen recovered a muffed punt by Arizona's Richard Morrison at the Wildcats 39-yard line early in the second quarter, and Damien Thigpen scored on a 1-yard run three plays later to make it 28-0.

John Bonano's 28-yard field goal midway through the second period put Arizona on the scoreboard, but Franklin scored on a 2-yard run to cap a 75-yard, 11-play drive. A 36-yard punt return by Randall Goforth to the Arizona 32 set up a 1-yard TD pass from Hundley to Joseph Fauria with 14 seconds left before halftime.

Ka'imi Fairbairn's 25-yard field goal early in the third quarter made it 45-3 before the usually high-scoring Wildcats finally scored a touchdown on Carey's 2-yard run.

B.J. Denker, who relieved Scott, fumbled on his second play and Cassius Marsh recovered for the Bruins. Hundley threw a 28-yard scoring pass to Fauria on the next play to make it 52-10. Steven Manfro scored on a 14-yard run and Melvin Emesibe added a 1-yard plunge in the final period for UCLA.
