Head Coach: Rich Rodriguez, 1st Year (7-4)

Territorial Cup Series History

All-Time: Arizona leads 47-37-1

First Meeting: Nov. 30, 1899 (Arizona State 11, Arizona 2 at Tucson)

Last Meeting: Nov. 19, 2011 (Arizona 31, Arizona State 27 at Tempe)

Some Game Themes: First-year head coaches Rich Rodriguez and Todd Graham have their programs bowl-eligible, but both put postseason travel plans on the backburner as they get their first taste of the nation's oldest rivalry trophy game . . . Past coaching history aside, the two ball coaches know their first clash as rivals is significant: the winner gets state bragging rights, something that pays dividends on the recruiting trail and invigorates the fans and alumni for the next 365 days – or until they meet again . . . Arizona boasts a potent and balanced offense, led by the nation's leading rusher entering the week (Ka'Deem Carey, 1,585 yards), a 3,000-yard passer (Matt Scott, 3,008 yards) and a 1,000-yard receiver (Austin Hill, 1,119 yards) . . . The Sun Devils counter with the conference's second-ranked total defense spearheaded by a relentless pass rush that leads the nation at more than four sacks per game . . . However, ASU has its own share of playmakers on offense and scores 36 points per game. Is another shootout in store at Arizona Stadium, where high-scoring affairs have become the norm? Or will the defenses dictate the pace of play against a pair of spread offenses that prefer the breakneck style of play-calling? . . . Who will be the unheralded star that makes an impact the way so many have over the years in this storied rivalry series? . . . Can Arizona cap one of its most successful home slates in program history with its most significant victory of the season? Or will the Sun Devils return the favor and steal a win in gut-wrenching fashion the way the Wildcats did a season ago in Tempe? . . . An extremely intense series of late, with each of the last three games being decided on the game's final play . . . It's Thanksgiving Weekend, but only one school can claim an early holiday present: The Territorial Cup.

The Territorial Cup: The Territorial Championship Cup was first presented to Tempe Normal School after its 11-2 victory over Arizona at Tucson's Carrillo Gardens field downtown on Thanksgiving Day, Nov. 30, 1899. That makes it the oldest rivalry trophy game in America (Comparisons: Michigan-Minnesota/Little Brown Jug/1909; Indiana-Purdue/Old Oaken Bucket/1925). Carrillo Gardens was in a downtown park on a side street south of the current Tucson Convention Center in the Barrio Historico district. The Cup has been registered with the NCAA and thereby sanctions the game as the oldest trophy game. Early origins of the piece are unclear but the cup itself is silver-plated over base metal and was manufactured by Reed and Barton of Taunton, Mass., according to some reports, which also indicate a catalog price of $20. The lone inscription reads: "Arizona Foot Ball League 1899 Normal." The Cup's whereabouts for the next eight decades also remains unclear until its discovery among items found in the basement of a church near ASU in the early 1980s and then displayed in various ASU collections. In 2001, then ASU President Lattie Coor led the move to have it again presented to the game winner. Over the years the Governor's Trophy (1953-1979) and a "Victory" sculpture by artist Ben Goo (1979-1997) were presented to the game's winner. The Saguaro Trophy, a bronze piece commissioned from artist Dora Perry in 1998, also has been in the mix, and now goes to the winning coach each year. The Bob Moran Most Outstanding Player in the game, named in 2008 after the late sportswriter who covered both teams, earns the Ben Goo sculpture for his school's hall of fame. The Cup on the sideline at the game itself is a replica, with the original piece requiring curator treatment for its hall of fame type display. The games themselves are not atypical of a state where the Territorial Legislature awarded one city (Phoenix) the initial economic prize, the state hospital, while the other town (Tucson) got the fledgling first state university. The games are competitive, territorial and a distinct matter of pride.

The Coaches: Arizona – Rich Rodriguez (West Virginia '86), first year at Arizona (7-4) and 18th as a head coach overall (126-88-2). Rodriguez was introduced as the 30th head coach of the UA football program on Nov. 22, 2011. He carries Division I records of 7-4 at Arizona, 60-26 at West Virginia (2001-2007) and 15-22 at Michigan (2008-10). He began his head coaching career at Salem (W.Va.) University in 1988 and then coached at Glenville State (W.Va.) from 1990-96. Rodriguez's West Virginia teams were Big East Champions in 2003, 2004, 2005 and 2007 while appearing in two BCS bowls, the 2005 Sugar Bowl with a victory over Georgia for an 11-1 record and a victory over Oklahoma in the 2007 Fiesta Bowl to finish 10-2 shortly after Rodriguez had left for Michigan. Arizona State – Todd Graham (East Central University [Ada, Okla.] '87), first year at Arizona State (6-5) and seventh as head coach overall (54-34). Arrived at ASU following one season as the head guy at Pittsburgh. Previously coached Tulsa to three 10-win seasons in his four years with the Golden Hurricane, after making his head coaching debut in one season at Rice in 2006. Despite coaching some high-scoring offenses as a head coach, his background is on the defensive side as both a player and coach, including two seasons as a co-defensive coordinator under Rich Rodriguez at West Virginia (2001-02).

2011 UA-ASU Flashback (full recap/box score on page 7): Arizona played like its hair was on fire down the stretch and came away with a rewarding come-from-behind victory over ASU in Tempe, 31-27, to regain possession of the Territorial Cup. The Cats scored 14 points in the final 10 minutes and played defense with some swarming tenacity to secure the win. The final play -- a 14th pass broken up at the goal line as time expired. Nick Foles earned the T-Cup's Bob Moran Most Valuable Player award with 370 passing yards and a pair of scores, but stood on the sidelines in physical discomfort as backup Bryson Beirne pitched the final inning including the game-winning TD catch-and-run by senior wideout Juron Criner with five minutes left. The Cats' resilience on defense, weathering a 487-yard passing night by ASU's Brock Osweiler, proved critical. Seven players knocked down half his incompletions (26-for-65) led by freshman linebacker Tra'Mayne Bondurant with four and three by freshman nickel back Jourdon Grandon. Grandon's interception and 41-yard return late in the fourth period helped UA maintain the lead for a final defensive effort. ASU outgained the Cats, 548 to 494, but suffered two other turnovers including a pick by Shaq Richardson that led to the Cats' second score. UA took a 14-0 lead half way through the first period with an 80-yard drive and that 49-yard turnover drive, but then struggled as ASU went on a 17-3 run until the 10-minute mark. Foles engineered a 94-yard drive in seven plays capped by a remarkable TD catch-run by Gino Crump to pull UA to within three at 27-24. On defense, Arizona seemed to sense that yards would be had -- as they had been all year by opposing offenses -- so just go out and fly around and hit people. On offense, the Cats continued their No. 4-rated passing game and added 100 yards on the ground, 92 of those from freshman Ka'Deem Carey. UA eschewed its typical front and played some 3-4 stack defense to disguise gaps and help keep ASU's running game in check at 61 net yards, the second-lowest total of the year.

Last Week: Arizona locked up a bowl bid as it earned a satisfying, hard-fought win in rainy Salt Lake City, knocking the Utes from bowl contention for the first time since 2002 with a 34-24 come-from-behind victory. The Cats had been shutout in the first quarter on the road all season, but John Bonano's 44-yard field goal put the visitor's up a field goal late in the initial quarter. Utah wrestled the lead away on a fake field goal flipped backwards through the holder's legs and into the hands of kicker Colem Petersen who ran around right-end for a three-yard touchdown. Ka'Deem Carey and Matt Scott found paydirt for a pair of scores in a span of 1:23 to reclaim a 17-7 lead. After a Utah touchdown cut the lead to only three points, the Cats were poised to tack on more before half, but a redzone turnover in the final minute kept it a 17-14 halftime score. The Utes scored the first 10 points of the second half to claim a touchdown advantage before Daniel Jenkins' tied the game with a two-yard rushing touchdown. The Utes sensed momentum was slipping away and tried a fake punt on their next drive, but reserve running back Kylan Butler sniffed it out and made a key fourth down tackle. Four plays later, Austin Hill turned a third-and-seven conversion into an 18-yard touchdown for the go-ahead score. The Cats defense stiffened and did not allow a fourth quarter point, while Bonano's 24-yard field goal capped a run of 17-unanswered points in the final stanza to seal to the 34-24 victory -- Rich Rodriguez's first on the road as the UA coach. The key was a dominant rushing attack that rolled up 310 yards against a physical defensive front, led by All-America candidate Star Lotulelei, that had not yielded more than 171 rushing yards in a game all season. The Wildcats superlative stars -- Carey, Scott and Hill -- each did their part. Carey topped 200 yards (204) for the second game in a row, Matt Scott returned from a missed start to pass for 160 yards and run for 74 yards, and Hill tallied six catches -- each for first downs -- for 96 yards. The defense, which played as many as five current or former walkons (Jared Tevis, Sir Thomas Jackson, Tevin Hood, Vince Miles and Blake Brady) held the Utes to 1-of-5 on fourth down tries.

Arizona In The Rankings: Arizona is ranked No. 24 in this week's BCS Standings, though the Wildcats are unranked in the Associated Press Top 25 and USA Today Coaches Poll. The Wildcats were ranked No. 22 in the BCS standings at the beginning of this month following a 36-33 victory over USC on Oct. 27. Previously, Arizona was last ranked in the BCS Standings heading into the final week of the regular season in 2010 (No. 23 before losing to Arizona State).

Going Bowling: Arizona's 34-24 victory at Utah last Saturday clinched a bowl berth for the Wildcats, which will mark their fourth postseason trip in the last five seasons. It's an impressive accomplishment for a program that went nine full seasons between bowl appearances (1998 Holiday Bowl to 2008 Las Vegas Bowl). The Wildcats also appeared in the 2009 Holiday Bowl and 2010 Alamo Bowl under former head coach Mike Stoops. This year, the Pac-12 has tie-ins with eight total bowls. Pac-12 bowl partners include, in order of selection after the Rose Bowl present by Vizio in Pasadena (Jan. 1): the Valero Alamo Bowl in San Antonio (Dec. 29), Bridgeport Education Holiday Bowl in San Diego (Dec. 27), Hyundai Sun Bowl in El Paso (Dec. 31), the MAACO Bowl Las Vegas (Dec. 22), the Kraft Fight Hunger Bowl in San Francisco (Dec. 29), and the Gildan New Mexico Bowl in Albuquerque (Dec. 15).

With A Carey on Top: Sophomore running back Ka'Deem Carey is the nation's leading rusher by total yardage (1,585) and yards per game (144.09) entering this week's football action. The local product from Canyon del Oro High School also leads all FBS players in both total yards from scrimmage (1,874) and yards from scrimmage per game (170.4). With one regular season game remaining and a pending bowl bid, Carey could challenge to finish the year as the nation's leading rusher. The only Wildcat to ever do so was Art Luppino, who topped all rushers in 1955 (1,313 yards) and 1954 (1,359). The last UA player to finish in the top-10 was Trung Canidate, who finished No. 7 in 1999 with a still school-record 1,602 yards. Carey is 18 yards shy of breaking Canidate's mark. With 20 total touchdowns (19 rushing, one receiving) this year, Carey is tied for third nationally in touchdowns scored.

Superlative Triple-Threat: Arizona's offensive triple-threat attack features a 3,000-yard passer (Matt Scott – 3,008 yards), a 1,500-yard rusher (Ka'Deem Carey – 1,585 yards) and a 1,000-yard receiver (Austin Hill – 1,119 yards). The trio is the first of its kind in Arizona history, a school that has only once had a 1,000-yard rushing and 1,000-yard receiving tandem in the same season (Trung Canidate and Dennis Northcutt in 1999). Scott, who missed one start against Colorado this month, ranks second in the Pac-12 in passing yards and is one of just 21 quarterbacks to have topped 3,000 yards this season. Carey leads all players in rushing yards and yards from scrimmage (1,874), while Hill – a Bilitnikoff Award Semifinalist – ranks No. 9 individually for total receiving yards.

Rodriguez Notches Winning Season: Arizona's 34-24 victory at Utah on Saturday not only marked head coach Rich Rodriguez's first road victory with the Wildcats, it also assured him a winning record in his first season at the school. That's notable because the last UA head coach to do so in his inaugural campaign was College Football Hall of Fame member Jim Young, whose Wildcat club posted a winning season with an 8-3 record in 1973. Otherwise, Tony Mason (5-7, 1977), Larry Smith (5-6, 1980), John Mackovic (5-6, 2001) and Mike Stoops (3-8, 2004) were unable to turn in winning seasons in their first year on the job. However, Dick Tomey, UA's all-time coaching wins leader, broke even at 4-4-3 in his first season in 1987.

Home Sweet Home: A big reason Arizona has achieved bowl eligibility in four of the past five seasons is because the Wildcats have made the most of their home games. Over the past six seasons (2007-12), Arizona is 27-12 (.692) at Arizona Stadium. In the previous six years (2001-06), the Wildcats struggled to a 14-26 (.350) clip in Tucson. The recent run of success is the best six-year win total since a period from 1993-98 when UA posted an impressive 29-7 (.806) record. Rich Rodriguez's first club has tallied a 6-1 record at home, the most victories at Arizona Stadium in a season since an undefeated 6-0 1993 campaign.

Home Cookin': Arizona, 6-1 at Arizona Stadium this season, has a chance to win a school-record seventh home game this Friday. In fact, with their six wins to date, the Wildcats have matched the 1961 (6-0), 1984 (6-1) and 1993 (6-0) squads as the only Arizona teams to have won six home games in the same season since 1950. It should be noted that the eight-game home slate this year marks just the third time in history the Wildcats have played eight regular season games in Tucson (also the 1956 and 1988 teams). Otherwise, Arizona has had 20 chances at seven-win home campaigns in the past if they would have gone a perfect 7-0 in those seasons.

The Recipe: Offense, and lots of it. Arizona's success at home since the start of the 2007 season can be traced to an offensive surge. Over the last 39 games at Arizona Stadium, the Wildcats have scored 1,413 points for an average of 36.2 points per game. Arizona has scored 30 or more in 26 of those 39 games with an impressive 23-3 record in such contests. When the Cats scored 40 or more points, they are 17-1, including 4-0 this year under Rich Rodriguez. When UA scores 50 or more points, it is 6-0 over the last six years highlighted by a 4-0 mark this season. However, when Arizona fails to reach 30 points in a home game, it has struggled to a 4-9 record, including a 30-29 overtime loss to Arizona State in 2010 decided on a missed extra point. A similar breakdown holds true from a total yardage perspective. In the 39 games, the Cats have 18,181 yards (466.2 per game). When they reach 500 yards, they are 11-2. If they get 450 or more yards, they are 20-5. Arizona is 7-7 when held below 450 yards of offense, and just 4-5 in games with less than 400 yards.

Thank You, Seniors: Friday's game marks the final home game for 21 seniors that have helped produce a winning 26-23 record over the last four seasons and a 34-28 mark over the last five years. The group is set to make its third bowl appearance over the last four years, and for those players that were around to redshirt in 2008, they will make their fourth postseason trip in their five-year career. The last time a Wildcat senior class achieved that feat was in 1994 when Arizona participated in bowl games in 1990 and then 1992-94. The seniors who will be honored on the field before Friday's game are: Dominique Austin (DL), Addison Bachman (OL), Trace Biskin (OL), John Bonano (PK), Dan Buckner (WR), Lamar De Rego (DL), Kyle Dugandzic (P), Chris Merrill (DL), Terrence Miller (WR), Willie Mobley (DL), Greg Nwoko (RB/LB), Kyle Quinn (OL), Drew Robinson (TE), Jaime Salazar (PK), Matt Scott (QB), Elliot Taylor (RB), Taimi Tutogi (FB/DL), Christian Upshaw (DL), Jowyn Ward (DL/OL), Mark Watley (DB) and Shane Zink (OL).

New Eras Clash: The meeting of first-year head coaches Todd Graham (ASU) and Rich Rodriguez is the seventh time in the history of the series that the two schools each have a first-year coach in the same season. The most recent occurrence was more than a decade ago when John Mackovic began his three-year UA tenure in 2001 and Dirk Koetter began his six-year run at Arizona State. Prior to that, Larry Smith's initial season in the Old Pueblo was 1980, the same year Darryl Rogers took over in Tempe. Otherwise, the other occurrences are more than 50 years ago, including in 1952 (UA's Warren Woodson/ASU's Clyde Smith), 1938 (UA's Orian M. Landreth/ASU's Dixie Howell), 1933 (UA's G.A. "Tex" Oliver/ASU's Rudy Lavik) and 1914 (UA's J.F. "Pop" McKale/George Schaeffer). Arizona's head coaches are 3-2 in the meetings of first-year head coaches, with wins in 1914, 1933 and 2001 (the teams did not play in the 1938 season). While on the topic of UA-ASU coaches, there is one man who has coached at both schools – Edward A. Doherty, who led a resurgence of ASU's program from 1947-50 and later took over for two seasons in Tucson from 1957-58.

Spurtability: A term coined by Clark Kellogg usually reserved for action on the hardwood, the Wildcats have made use of it on the gridiron this season. Arizona has trailed in all six of its wins against Football Bowl Subdivision opponents this season, but has often used a major scoring run to seize control. Here's a rundown:

Sept. 1 vs. Toledo – Cats trailed 14-10 at halftime, but held Rockets to just seven points the rest of the way in a 24-17 Wildcat victory in overtime to kick off the Rich Rodriguez era.

Sept. 8 vs. No. 18 Oklahoma State – The Cowboys surged to a 14-0 lead at the end of the first quarter, but the Wildcats scored 30 unanswered points en route to a 59-38 upset victory.

Oct. 20 vs. Washington – The Huskies opened up with a 3-0 lead, but Arizona responded by scoring the next 17 points and then shut out Washington, 21-0, in the second half of a 52-17 rout.

Oct. 27 vs. No. 18 USC – The Trojans, still in the national title picture at the time, were cruising with a 28-13 midway through the third quarter before Arizona erupted for 26 consecutive points on its way to a 39-36 upset victory.

Nov. 10 vs. Colorado – The Buffaloes owned a 10-7 lead at the start of the second quarter, but thanks to Ka'Deem Carey's conference and school record-setting 366 rushing yards, the Wildcats outscored CU 42-7 over the second and third quarters in a 56-31 win.

Nov. 17 at Utah – Needing to win-out to keep bowl hopes alive, Utah was on its way to a potential senior-day victory with a 24-17 lead early in the fourth quarter. However, Arizona scored 17-straight points in the fourth quarter to rally and defeat the Utes.

200-Yard Games: Ka'Deem Carey is the first Wildcat to register back-to-back 200-plus yard rushing games and is just the third to have multiple 200-yard games in his career. Trung Canidate had three 200-yard games in his career (one in 1998, two in 1999), while Art Luppino had one in 1954 and another in 1955 ... Arizona had 13 all-time 200-yard rushing games entering this season, and Carey's 366 vs. Colorado and 204 at Utah are Nos. 14 and 15 ... Carey is the fourth player in the nation this season to tally back-to-back 200-yard games, joining Cody Getz (Air Force), David Fluellen (Toledo) and Johnathan Franklin (UCLA) ... Carey is one of 10 players across the nation with multiple 200-yard games ... Carey's 570 combined yards in the two games are the most for a play in back-to-back games this season, and came up three shy of matching Washington State's Reuben Mayes' 573 yards in consecutive games in 1984 that stands as the Pac-12 Conference record.

Red Out: Arizona officials have called for a "Red Out" at this Friday's rivalry game. It's nothing new for big games, especially in the rivalry series, and UA fans typically don cardinal-clad attire at most games anyways. But this time around, the football team will sport red helmets for the first time in some 30 years. The Wildcats last wore red lids in Larry Smith's first season at the school in 1980. The school had worn the red helmets since 1977, before Smith switched them to white in his second season. Arizona also topped of its uniform with red helmets from 1967-72.

Ground Game Takes Off: Arizona, which ranks second in the Pac-12 in rushing, has topped 300-yards rushing in each of the last two games, rolling up 438 against Colorado two weeks ago and another 320 last Saturday at Utah. That is 758 yards over the last two games (379.0 per game), which is more than the season rushing totals of two FBS schools – Tulane (432) and Washington State (330). Arizona now has 2,473 rushing yards on the season – the most at the school since 1999 – for an average of 224.8 yards per game. That figure would rank as the ninth-best season per-game total in program history if it could hold up. Sophomore sensation Ka'Deem Carey enters the week as the nation's leading rusher (1,585 yards or 144.1 per game), having paced the Wildcats with 570 yards over the last two games (conference-record 336 vs. Colorado, 204 at Utah). His big-play capability has helped produce a 9.0 yards per carry average for the Wildcats over the last two games (84 attempts), which has increased the club's season yards per carry average to 5.5. That 5.5 yards per carry clip is a full two yards better than last season's 3.4 ypc clip. The school record for yards per carry was 5.7 by the 1961 squad.

New School Records: With a couple games to spare, Arizona has set a new record for total offense in a season with 5,740 yards, besting the 5,712 yards established a program best in 2010. With 521.8 yards per game, UA ranks second in the Pac-12 and No. 8 nationally in total offense. The Wildcats also set a new single-season school record for first downs with 314 this year. The record tally tops the previous mark set all the way back in ... 2011. The Nick Foles-led Wildcats moved the chains 309 times last year, which topped the 308 first downs UA notched in 2010. Arizona leads the Pac-12 and is tied for fourth nationally in the category this season.

Points To Be Made: Arizona, scoring 37.5 points per game, has totaled 413 points this season. That's the most in a single-season since the 2008 club posted a Pac-10/12 era high of 476 points over 13 games. The only other Wildcat team to score over 400 points in a season in the era was in the 12-1 season of 1998, when UA registered 439 points scored. Arizona has scored 54 total touchdowns this season, which tops the 52 celebrations the Cats had in 1998. The 2008 team holds the modern day school record with 56 total touchdowns.

Strength of Schedule: Jeff Sagarin ranks Arizona's schedules as the third-toughest in the nation to date, with six of the Wildcats 11 games to date being against teams in his top 30 (3-4 record). Looking at the BCS Standings this week, six of UA's opponents are currently ranked with the Wildcats, ranked No. 24 themselves, going 2-4 against those teams. Eight of UA's nine FBS opponents have earned an AP Top-25 ranking at some point this season. The combined record of UA's eight FBS opponents this season is 70-38.

Carey The Load: Sophomore running back Ka'Deem Carey, a local product out of Canyon del Oro High School, has emerged as UA's featured back and one of the most underrated players in the Pac-12 through the first 11 games of the season. On the Maxwell Award Watch List earlier this year, Carey leads the Pac-12 and all FBS rushers with 144.1 rushing yards per game checks in second in the conference in all-purpose yardage (171.8 ypg). The 5-foot-11, 195-pounder has 20 total scores (19 rushing, one receiving) to tie for the Pac-12 lead and rank tied for fourth nationally in touchdowns scored. Carey has topped 100 yards rushing eight times this season alone, just a year after the Wildcats broke 100 yards as a team only five times in 12 contests in 2011. Six of his 100-yard games have come against Pac-12 schools. He boasts a 5.89 yards per carry average in career (340-2,010, 25 TD), the eighth-best career average for active FBS players with minimum 300 rush attempts.

Ka'Deem Carey in the FBS National Rankings:

- Ranks No. 1 with 1,585 rushing yards.
- Ranks No. 1 with 144.1 rushing yards per game.
- Ranks No. 1 with 1,874 total yards from scrimmage.
- Ranks No. 6 with 1,890 all-purpose yards (t-No. 2 in Pac-12).
- Ranks No. 1 with 48 rushing plays of 10-plus yards.
- Ranks tied for No. 1 with 18 rushing plays of 20-plus yards.
- Ranks tied for No. 4 with 57 scrimmage plays of 10-plus yards (tied for No. 2 in Pac-12)
- Ranks tied for No. 3 with 22 scrimmage plays of 20-plus yards (No. 1 in Pac-12)
- Ranks tied for No. 4 with 20 total touchdowns (tied for No. 1 in Pac-12)

Carey No. 2: But for how long? Ka'Deem Carey's 1,585 rushing yards and 19 rushing touchdowns rank No. 2 in the UA single-season charts. Carey trails Trung Canidate's 1,602 yards in 1999 and Art Luppino's 21 touchdowns in 1954 for the top spot in each category. Carey currently ranks No. 5 in single-season school history for all-purpose yards (1,890) and No. 3 for single-season points scored (120).

Carey's Record Day: Ka'Deem Carey rushed 25 times for 366 yards and five touchdowns on Nov. 10 against Colorado, setting or matching several school and conference records. Here's a summary:

- Carey's 366 rushing yards were the ninth-most ever in an FBS (formerly Division I) game, including the most in 2012. The figure also broke Washington State's Rueben Mayes' conference record of 357 yards gained at Oregon on Oct. 27, 1984. The previous Arizona school record was held by Trung Canidate, who rushed for 288 yards against Arizona State on Nov. 27, 1998, at Arizona Stadium.
- Carey's five touchdown runs set a new Arizona record for single-game rushing scores and tied the conference record held by multiple players, including Oregon's Kenjon Barner who had five rushing scores against USC on Nov. 3. The five scores matched Art Luppino's record for single-game total touchdowns (four by rushing) set on Sept. 18, 1954, against New Mexico State. With a pair of extra points in that 1954 game, Luppino set the school record for single-game points scored (32). Carey's 30 last Saturday now rank second all-time at the school.
- Carey shattered the single-game school record for yards per carry (14.6) for a player with 20 or more rushing attempts in a game. The previous mark was established by Don Beasley, who ran 21 times for 193 yards (9.2 ypc) against Arizona State on Nov. 28, 1953.
- Carey added 34 receiving yards to finish with an even 400 all-purpose yards in the game — another school record. The previous mark was held by Art Luppino, who gained 359 against New Mexico State on Sept. 18, 1954.

Tracking Matt: Senior quarterback Matt Scott has emerged as one of the most prolific passers in the country in his only full season as a starter. Scott's 3,008 passing yards place him second in the Pac-12 and No. 21 in the nation, while his 300.8 yards per game is the 14th-best clip. Added with more than 40 rushing yards per game, Scott is averaging 345.1 yards in total offense per game, which leads the Pac-12 and ranks No. 8 nationally. Scott, who is averaging 11.8 yards per completion, has the 12th-most passing plays of 10-plus yards (123) of any quarterback in the country. It's all amounts to Scott challenging some single season and career top-10 offensive charts. Here's a look at a few:

- Scott has four of Arizona's top-10 all-time single-game total offense performances (485 at Stanford, 469 vs. USC, 461 vs. Toledo, and 432 vs. Oregon State)
- 3,451 total offense yards in 2012 already rank No. 3 in single-season history. He needs 70 more yards to move up to No. 2.
- Scott ranks No. 4 in single-season history with 21 passing touchdowns. Three more will move him into the No. 3 spot. He needs eight more to tie the record (28, held by Nick Foles [2011] and Willie Tuitama [2007]).
- Scott (3,008 yards) ranks No. 6 on the school's single-season passing yardage list. He is 81 yards away from moving up to No. 5 and 184 from No. 4. Some 320 yards would push him up to No. 3.
- Scott's 254 pass completions rank No. 6 in single-season history.
- Scott's 27 career passing touchdowns rank No. 10 in program history.

1,000-Yard Career: Quarterback Matt Scott sits at 1,075 career rushing yards, pushing him past a career benchmark not often achieved at the position (should be noted a QB risks losing yardage due to sacks in future games). UA's all-time leader for quarterback rushing is Ronnie Veal, who collected 1,419 yards and 27 touchdowns from 1987-90. Scott recently moved past Jim Krohn's 987 yards from 1976-79.

Biletznikoff Semifinalist: Sophomore receiver Austin Hill is one of ten semifinalists for the 2012 Biletznikoff Award, presented to the nation's top receiver. Hill has turned in a stellar season and is one of 10 receivers in the FBS with more than 1,100 receiving yards to date. His biggest game came against No. 10 USC on Oct. 27 in which he racked up a career-best 259 receiving yards, the second-highest total in UA single-game history. On 10 grabs in that game, he set a UA single-game mark for yards per reception (25.9) and currently boasts a season average of 16.5 yards per catch. In the USC game alone, Hill had five receptions of 20-plus yards, including a career-long 60-yarder to continue a trend of making big plays all season long. In fact, Hill ranks tied for No. 8 in the nation in receptions of 20-plus yards (18) and third for 30-plus yards (11). He averages 101.7 yards per game, good enough for the No. 3 spot in the Pac-12 and No. 11 nationally. His 16.5 yards per catch is actually 1.5 yards better than Pac-12 receiving leader Marqise Lee of USC.

Dan's The Man: In the receiving jamboree, senior Dan Buckner has been overshadowed by youngster Austin Hill, but the upperclassman has turned in a strong campaign. Buckner is second on the team in several receiving categories, including receptions (58), yards (730) and touchdowns (5). He averages 12.6 yards per catch -- also second-best on the squad. With a pair of 100-yard receiving games, Buckner joins Hill (four 100-yard games) as one of several Pac-12 duos with multiple 100-yard games. Buckner is tied for No. 30 nationally with 35 receptions of 10-plus yards. He has 11 over 20 yards. His two touchdowns scores against Colorado were a new individual single-game best.

Boomin' Bonano: John Bonano quietly put himself into the Arizona record books on Nov. 10, converting his 69th-consecutive point after touchdown try after the Wildcats' final score against Colorado (he is now 73-for-73). The previous school record of 68-straight made PATs was held by Max Zendejas (1982-84) and Jason Bondzio (2007-08). In 2012, Bonano is 45-for-45 on his PAT tries after connecting on all 24 attempts a season ago when he took over the job at mid-season. Prior to Bonano assuming the role last October, the Wildcats had missed five PATs (13-for-18) in the first half of the 2011 season. In addition to his PAT duties this year, Bonano is 12-for-18 on field goal tries with a long of 46. He has made eight of his last nine field goal attempts. The senior, who boasts a 3.92 GPA as a physiology major, has accounted for 85 points scored, which is 10 shy of breaking into UA's single-season top 10.

Give Them Credit: Some much-needed credit is due to a handful of overlooked Wildcats who were critical to Arizona's victory at Utah last week: Topping the list needs to be the offensive line, which paved the way for 320 yards against a Utah defense that hadn't allowed more than 171 in a game all season. Tackles Fabbians Ebbele and Mickey Baucus were joined by inside linemen Kyle Quinn (center), Trace Biskin (guard), Shane Zink (guard) and Cayman Bundage (guard). The Cats were without starter Chris Putton who missed the trip with a concussion. The group did not allow a sack ... Ka'Deem Carey was the game's leading rusher with 204 yards, but backup tailback Daniel Jenkins turned in a solid night. The junior rushed seven times for 42 yards, including a two-yard touchdown to tie the game 24-24 early in the fourth quarter ... Another UA running back made perhaps the biggest play of the game on special teams. Junior Kylan Butler recorded his first tackle of the season as he snuffed out a fake punt to set up UA's go-ahead and eventual game-winning touchdown in the fourth quarter ... UA's defense regularly played five current or former walk-ons last week, including starters Sir Thomas Jackson (LB), Jared Tevis ("bandit" safety) and Vince Miles (free safety). They were joined by nose guard Tevin Hood and "spur" safety Blake Brady.

Rodriguez's 1,000-Yard Rushers: Ka'Deem Carey became the first running back to post a 1,000-yard season under head coach Rich Rodriguez since Steve Slaton did so at West Virginia in 2007. At Michigan, only dual-threat quarterback Dennard Robinson (2010) mounted a 1,000-yard season during Rodriguez's three seasons. At West Virginia, Slaton had three-straight 1,000-yard campaigns, including in 2007, 2006 and 2005. His quarterback during those years, Pat White, also turned in 1,000-yard seasons in 2006 and 2007. Prior to the Slaton-White years, running backs Avon Cobourne (2001 and 2002) and Quincy Wilson (2003) had 1,000-yard seasons under Rodriguez. Added up, and with Carey included, that's 10 (ten) 1,000-yard rushers over 11 seasons as an FBS head coach for Rodriguez.

Young Defense: Arizona has played 40 freshmen or sophomores this season, comprising more than half of the nearly 75 Wildcats to see the field. The Wildcats have played 10 true freshmen, the fourth-most of any Pac-12 school and among the top-20 nationally (research courtesy of David Plati at Colorado). With redshirts mixed in, UA has played more than 20 freshmen, most on defense where the Cats continue to learn Jeff Casteel's 3-3-5 scheme. Of the 121 defensive starts to date, more than half (68 total or 56.2 percent) have been turned in by freshmen or sophomores. The Wildcats have 48 starts from its junior class, and only five starts (each by Dominique Austin) by seniors, meaning over 95 percent of the defensive starters will return next season. Austin and fellow defensive linemen Chris Merrill and Willie Mobley are the only seniors that have appeared on the defensive two-deep this season. Against Colorado on Nov. 10, true freshmen C.J. Dozier (LB) and Vince Miles (FS) made their first career starts.

A Budding Star: Converted safety Marquis Flowers continues to develop as a linebacker, a position he was switched to about a week before the start of the season. At 6-foot-3, 221 pounds, Flowers is Arizona's biggest linebacker and ranks as team's leader with 5.5 sacks. Flowers is also leads the club with 12.0 tackles for loss and is second with 86 total tackles. He has added two interceptions, three pass breakups and has forced two fumbles. He has accounted for four takeaways in the last five games (forced fumble vs. Washington and two INTs and forced fumble vs. USC). Flowers was the Pac-12 Defensive Player of the Week last week for his effort against USC on Oct. 27.

Man In The Middle: Junior Jake Fischer has been a stalwart middle linebacker in Arizona's new 3-3-5 defensive scheme implemented this season by defense coordinator Jeff Casteel. Fischer, who missed the 2011 season with an ACL injury, ranks No. 2 among Pac-12 players and No. 44 nationally with 8.9 tackles per game (98 total). That's just a handful of tackles shy of 10 per game for the slightly undersized 6-foot, 215-pounder, who can become just the third player to register 100 tackles in a season at the school over the last dozen years. Fischer has 6.5 tackles for loss, three pass breakups, two forced fumbles and a pair of fumble recoveries. He was named Pac-12 Defensive Player of the Week following a career-high 13-tackle season debut against Toledo on Sept. 1.

Up Next: Arizona's regular season schedule concludes on Friday. At 7-4, the Wildcats are guaranteed one of the Pac-12's bowl slots and will await an official invitation in the coming weeks.

The Last Meeting: 2011 Arizona at Arizona State

Arizona..... 31

Arizona State ..... 27

Nov. 19, 2011 // Tempe, Ariz. // Sun Devil Stadium (72,694)
 Start: 7:37 p.m. // TOG: 3:40 // Weather: 68 degrees, calm, clear

TEMPE, Ariz. (AP) -- Backup quarterback Bryson Beirne, on the only pass he threw all night, connected with Juron Criner on a 23-yard touchdown play with 5:18 remaining and Arizona held on for a 31-27 Territorial Cup victory over Arizona State on Saturday night.

The game ended with the Sun Devils (6-5, 4-4) on the Arizona 15-yard line, where two passes by Brock Osweiler fell incomplete.

Beirne had just come on in relief of game MVP Nick Foles, who completed 35 of 51 for 370 yards and two touchdowns before being shaken up and leaving the game. Criner caught nine passes for 134 yards for Arizona (3-8, 2-8).

Osweiler was 36 of 65 for a career-best 487 yards and a touchdown but was intercepted twice. The Sun Devils' Gerell Robinson had 11 receptions for 199 yards, both career bests.

Arizona State's third loss in a row does not eliminate the Sun Devils from a shot at representing the Pac-12 South in the conference's first championship game. The Sun Devils trail UCLA by a game and the Bruins hold the tiebreaker with one game to play.

Arizona State must beat California next week and needs UCLA to lose to Southern California and Utah to beat Colorado. That would create a three-way tie between ASU, UCLA and Utah, with the Sun Devils getting the nod because they would have the best record within the division.

Foles broke Arizona single-season records for yards passing and pass completions and still has a game to play, a nonconference contest at home against Louisiana-Lafayette.

After Arizona jumped ahead 14-0 early, Arizona State scored the next three touchdowns to pull ahead.

Osweiler had passes of 17 and 34 yards to Robinson on the ensuing drive, with Marshall scoring on a 1-yard run to cut it to 14-7 with two minutes to go in the first quarter. John Bonano's 49-yard field goal attempt on Arizona's next possession bounced off the left upright and was no good. The Sun Devils took over at their 32 and went 48 yards in 11 plays. Robinson was wide open in the end zone on an 11-yard pass for the score and it was tied at 14-14.

Osweiler's 58-yard pass to Rashad Ross, followed by Marshall's 22-yard burst untouched up the middle for the touchdown put Arizona State ahead 21-14 with 4:29 left in the half. Bonano missed a 29-yard field goal barely to the right, but hit 43-yarder with two seconds left to cut Arizona State's lead to 21-17 at the half. Alex Garoutte's 23-yard field goal provided the only points of the third quarter and put the Sun Devils up 24-17 entering the fourth.

Foles was 6 of 7 for 79 yards on a 7-play, 94-yard drive that cut the lead to 24-21. Foles threw short to Gino Crump, who evaded four would-be tacklers on a 33-yard touchdown play with 10:25 remaining.

Foles completed 6 of 6 passes for 67 yards on a 10-play, 80-yard scoring drive to start the game. The big play was a 48-yard pass to Criner. The Sun Devils stuffed the Wildcats for five yards in losses on the next two plays, but a pass interference penalty moved it to the 1, where Keola Antolin bulled in for the touchdown.

Arizona State, on the subsequent possession, drove to the Arizona 29, but Shaquille Richardson picked off Osweiler's pass and returned it 42 yards to the Sun Devils 49. Foles threw short to Antolin, who darted through the defense 46 yards to the Arizona State 13. Three plays later, Foles threw 11 yards to Ka'Deem Carey for the touchdown and it was 14-0 with 5:34 left in the first quarter.

Robinson became the first Arizona State player to top 1,000 yards receiving in a season since Derek Hagan in 2005. He topped 100 yards receiving for the fifth time in six games.

Game 1

Toledo ..... 17
Arizona..... 24 OT

Sept. 1, 2012 // Tucson, Ariz. // Arizona Stadium (48,670)
Start: 7:37 p.m. // TOG: 3:47 // Weather: 93 degrees, Partly cloudy

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP) -- Toledo coach Matt Campbell flipped a coin to determine his starting quarterback on Saturday. Unfortunately for him and the Rockets, who took snaps for Arizona did not come down to chance.

Arizona quarterback Matt Scott, scrambling to his right, barely inbounds and with a defender grabbing his jersey, tossed a 10-yard touchdown pass to Terrence Miller in overtime to give the Wildcats a 24-17 victory on Saturday night.

Arizona pulled out Rich Rodriguez's coaching debut after its kicker, John Bonano, missed a 25-yard field goal as regulation ended. Bonano missed a 24-yarder earlier in the game.

Scott threw for a career-high 387 yards and rushed for 74 yards. Ka'Deem Carey had 147 yards on 20 carries, including a 73-yard touchdown run.

Arizona amassed 624 yards, second-most in school history, to Toledo's 358 but had two touchdowns called back by penalties, turned the ball over three times and missed the two short field goals.

Terrance Owens threw a 59-yard TD pass to Alonzo Russell for the Rockets, who have never beaten a Pac-12 team.

With both teams disdaining the huddle, the game was played at a frenetic pace. In all, the teams combined for 182 plays, 94 by Toledo and 88 by Arizona.

Campbell, at 32 the youngest head coach in the FBS subdivision, flipped a coin to decide which of his experienced quarterbacks would start. Austin Dantin won the toss, but Owens replaced him after two series.

Owens didn't return after he was hit hard and fumbled the ball away in the third quarter. Owens was 11 of 22 for 134 yards, Dantin 10 of 25 for 63 yards.

Scott, who sat out last season as a redshirt junior while Nick Foles completed his college eligibility, kept Arizona's offense on the move all night. He completed 30 of 46 passes, including two touchdowns. He was intercepted once.

Dan Buckner caught 10 for 116 yards and Austin Hill seven for 139 yards, including a spectacular, diving, fingertip grab of Scott's 30-yard pass for Arizona's first touchdown.

Arizona seemed to have the game in hand when Scott rushed for 31 yards in three carries as the Wildcats drove to the Toledo 5 in the waning seconds, but he was tackled near the right hash mark, leaving Bonano a slight angle on his kick. The attempt wasn't even close, hooking far to the left to send the game into overtime.

Toledo, with both quarterbacks and several other significant players returning from last season's 9-4 team, moved the ball most of the night on the young, susceptible Arizona defense. But the Wildcats stopped David Fluellen for a 2-yard loss on third-and-1 at the Arizona 21, forcing the Rockets to settle for Jeremiah Detmer's 40-yard field goal that tied it at 17-17 with 14:18 to play.

Arizona led 3-0 after the first quarter on Bonano's 26-yard field goal.

After Detmer missed a 48-yard field goal, Arizona quickly advanced to the Rockets' 9-yard line. But after Richard Morrison caught a short pass from Scott, he dropped the ball, and Toledo's Toll Molls recovered at the Rockets' 6.

Toledo took it downfield from there, going 94 yards in 10 plays, with Owens finding Russell wide open on the 59-yard touchdown play that made it 7-3 with 13:55 left in the half. The Wildcats came back with a 10-play, 64-yard scoring drive, ending with Hill's diving grab to put Arizona ahead 10-7 with 12:04 left in the half.

Arizona had a 67-yard touchdown run by Daniel Jenkins negated by a holding penalty. Toledo regained the lead with a 63-yard drive aided by a defensive holding penalty and personal foul against Arizona.

Owens had a 23-yard pass to Cordale Scott on the drive, which ended with Cassius McDowell scoring on a 1-yard run to put the Rockets ahead 14-10 with 12:04 left in the second quarter, a lead that held until halftime.

Arizona blew another scoring opportunity in the second quarter when Scott threw over the middle to Hill on a 32-yard play, but the receiver fumbled when he was hit, and the ball bounced into the hands of Toledo's Robert Bell at the Rockets' 34-yard line.

Game 2

18) Oklahoma State..... 38

Arizona..... 59

Sept. 8, 2012 // Tucson, Ariz. // Arizona Stadium (45,602)
 Start: 7:37 p.m. // TOG: 3:36 // Weather: 80 degrees, Windy

TUCSON, Ariz. -- Oklahoma State quarterback Wes Lunt set a Big 12 freshman record by throwing for 436 yards and connected with Tracy Moore for four touchdown passes.

The Cowboys piled up 636 yards of offense, the second straight week they eclipsed 600 yards, and scored 38 points.

Those weren't the numbers that mattered.

Lunt threw three interceptions and Oklahoma State set a school record with 167 penalty yards, sending the 18th-ranked Cowboys to a frustrating 59-38 loss to Arizona in the desert on Saturday night.

Arizona (2-0) fell into a quick 14-0 hole before scoring the next 30 points as Oklahoma State (1-1) unraveled under a shower of yellow flags. Even with all the penalties, the Cowboys settled down enough to rally within two points late in the third quarter.

The Wildcats wouldn't let them any closer, scoring 29 points after the 3-minute mark of the third quarter to run away from the Cowboys.

Ka'Deem Carey ran for 147 yards in his debut as the featured back last week and followed it up by scoring four touchdowns while rushing for 126 yards on 26 carries.

Matt Scott also had a nice follow-up to his dazzling opener, throwing for 320 yards and two touchdowns on 28-of-41 passing while running for 55 yards and another score.

Together, they helped Arizona take a step toward becoming relevant again.

Lunt hit 37 of 60 passes and threw for the fourth-most yards in school history in his second game as Oklahoma State's starter. He also had some shaky moments, tossing three interceptions, including one returned 48 yards for a touchdown by Jonathan McKnight in the fourth quarter.

Joseph Randle added 123 yards on 23 carries but the Cowboys just couldn't seem to stay out of their own way, committing 15 penalties and turning it over four times.

Defensive tackle Calvin Barnett was called for consecutive personal fouls on one play, setting up Scott's 15-yard touchdown pass to Richard Morrison.

A fumble by Randle on the next drive, followed by a late-hit penalty on cornerback Broderick Brown, set up a 22-yard field goal by John Bonano.

A fourth personal foul by Oklahoma State in the half, on linebacker Shaun Lewis for hitting Scott as he slid, led to a third field goal by Bonano, a 24-yarder. Carey added a 1-yard touchdown run - with a little help from teammates - late in the quarter to put Arizona up 23-14 at halftime.

Oklahoma State had nine penalties for 110 yards in the half and its last drive ended when Arizona's Jared Tevis intercepted a tipped pass by Lunt at the Wildcats' 29.

The second half opened the same way: Barnett was flagged for a late hit on the opening play and Arizona scored on a 13-yard screen pass from Scott to Carey for a 30-14 lead.

But the score seemed to snap the Cowboys out of their funk.

Lunt hit Morgan for a 9-yard touchdown pass and the Cowboys kept marching on Arizona the next drive, setting up Jeremy Smith's 10-yard touchdown run that cut Arizona's lead to 30-28.

It turned out to be their last gasp.

The Wildcats raced down the field on their next drive, setting up Scott's 8-yard touchdown run up the middle. Lunt, facing pressure for one of the few times all game, threw up a weak pass early in the fourth quarter and McKnight picked it off for an easy touchdown. Oklahoma State was called for pass interference on the 2-point try - naturally - and Arizona converted on the second attempt to go up 45-31.

Carey sealed it with a 25-yard TD run up the middle and added a 1-yarder for good measure in the closing minutes to send the Zona Zoo into a frenzy and the Wildcats to a look-at-us win.

"There's some excited guys in the locker room and I'm proud of them," Rodriguez said. "It's a nice win, the guys played and made the plays when they needed to."

And with it should come some extra - and wanted - attention.

Game 3

South Carolina State ..... 0
24) Arizona ..... 56

Sept. 15, 2012 // Tucson, Ariz. // Arizona Stadium (43,919)
Start: 7:37 p.m. // TOG: 2:59 // Weather: 83 degrees, clear, calm

☒ TUCSON, Ariz. (AP) — South Carolina State had trouble stopping No. 24 Arizona's offense, allowing the Wildcats to run a whopping 102 plays.

It was just as bad for the Bulldogs on offense, maybe even worse.

Overmatched against the bigger, faster Wildcats, South Carolina State managed just eight first downs in a 56-0 loss to Arizona on Saturday night.

Arizona knocked off No. 18 Oklahoma State last week and opens the Pac-12 next weekend at No. 4 Oregon. Sandwiched in between was a game against the Bulldogs, one the Wildcats couldn't afford to take lightly.

They didn't.

Instead of a letdown as coach Rich Rodriguez feared, Arizona (3-0) handled a from the Football Championship Subdivision as any good program would, racing out to a 28-0 lead by halftime and a school-record 43 first downs overall.

Matt Scott threw for 288 yards and three touchdowns on 30-of-36 passing, and added a 10-yard scoring run in another stellar performance to start his senior season.

Arizona's try-to-keep-up-with-us offense ran a school-record 102 plays and had 689 total yards, two short of another record.

The defense was just as dominant, holding South Carolina State (1-2) to 154 total yards for its first shutout in four years.

Yep, this was just the kind of confidence-building tuneup the Wildcats needed before heading to rowdy Autzen Stadium for their first road game of the season.

South Carolina State had little chance against Arizona's athleticism, unable to top the Wildcats from marching down the field or get anything going on offense.

The Bulldogs failed to crack double-digits in first downs and had virtually no running game, gaining 65 yards on 29 carries. Quarterback Richard Cue trouble against Arizona's speedy defenders, badly missing several receivers while going 12 for 25 for 89 yards with an interception.

After rolling over Oklahoma State 59-38 last week, the Wildcats moved into The Associated Press poll for the first time in nearly two years.

They needed an easy win with a tough Pac-12 run coming up next. After the Ducks next weekend, Arizona plays a conference schedule that includes No. 2 Southern California, No. 21 Stanford, No. 22 UCLA and rival Arizona State.

The Wildcats had no trouble moving the ball against the Bulldogs, but did have a little problem getting out of their own way in the early going.

Arizona raced to a touchdown on its first possession, Scott capping it with a 15-yard touchdown pass to Richard Morrison.

Moving quickly again, the Wildcats lost the ball near midfield when Morrison fumbled and the Bulldogs recovered. Another fast-moving drive ended with John Bonano, the reigning Pac-12 special teams player of the week, pushing a 25-yard field goal wide right.

Those turned out to be just blips in the Wildcats' march of dominance.

Scott hit Taimi Tutogi on a 14-yard touchdown to open the second quarter after the Bulldogs bit hard on a play-action fake. Ka'Deem Carey capped the next drive with a 7-yard touchdown run around the right end.

Scott closed out the impressive first half by pinballing off several defenders into the end zone for a 10-yard run that made it 28-0.

Scott, who entered the game tied with Syracuse's Ryan Nassib for the national lead with 836 total yards, threw for 175 yards and ran for 61 more in the first half.

Arizona's offense had 323 yards by halftime and its defense held South Carolina State to 69.

If it wasn't over already, the Wildcats made sure in the third quarter, when Scott hit Dan Buckner on a 27-yard touchdown pass and Jenkins carried half of South Carolina State's defense with him on a 5-yard scoring run that made it 42-0.

By then, pretty much all of Arizona's starters were on the sideline, resting up for what will certainly be a much tougher task against the fast-flying Ducks.

The Wildcats will at least go there on a high instead of coming off letdown after taking care of the Bulldogs.

Game 4

22) Arizona ..... 0

3) Oregon ..... 49

Sept. 22, 2012 // Eugene, Ore. // Autzen Stadium (58,334)
Start: 7:36 p.m. // TOG: 3:19 // Weather: 65 degrees, cloudy, drizzle

EUGENE, Ore. (AP) — Redshirt freshman Marcus Mariota threw for 260 yards and two touchdowns, including a 55-yard scoring pass to freshman Bralon Addison late in the third quarter, and No. 3 Oregon beat No. 22 Arizona 49-0 Saturday night.

Billed as an offensive juggernaut between the Pac-12's fastest scoring teams, Oregon didn't find its stride until the second half — and Arizona never did — and the Ducks (4-0, 1-0) got their seventh straight conference-opening victory.

Much had been made about the meeting between the quick-striking Ducks under Chip Kelly and Arizona's spread offense under no-huddle, up-tempo pioneer Rich Rodriguez. Oregon went into it the averaging 54 points per game, while Arizona wasn't far behind with an average of a little more than 46 points.

However, Arizona (3-1, 0-1) couldn't find the end zone and quarterback Matt Scott, a fifth-year senior who spent the last two seasons behind Nick Foles, passed for 210 yards but was intercepted three times — one returned for a touchdown.

The game got off to a sloppy start as Oregon failed on fourth down and each team turned the ball over before Mariota found Daryle Hawkins with a 17-yard touchdown pass midway through the first quarter.

Arizona got as close as the 2-yard line on the next series, but couldn't punch it in and turned the ball over on downs. The Wildcats' struggles continued when John Bonano's 31-yard field goal was blocked early in the second quarter.

Rob Beard hit a 27-yard field goal to increase Oregon's advantage to 10-0. It was the Ducks' first FG of the season. Beard added a 41-yarder late in the first half to make it 13-0 at the break.

While both offenses appeared to sputter at times, defenses made the difference in the first half. Oregon's hybrid 3-4 under longtime defensive coordinator Nick Aliotti held the Wildcats to 141 yards in total offense in the first 30 minutes. Meanwhile, Arizona's new 3-3-5 defense kept the normally prolific Ducks from piling on points.

There was more of the same to open the second half, and the first two possessions by both teams ended in punts.

But then the Ducks started rolling. De'Anthony Thomas returned Arizona's third-straight punt 38 yards, setting up a 35-yard pass to Colt Lyerla, who finished it off with a 1-yard touchdown run. The drive took just three plays and 29 seconds.

Kiko Alonso intercepted Scott, leading to Mariota's long TD pass to Addison, before Ifo Ekpre-Olomu ran his interception back 54 yards to make it 35-0.

Bryan Bennett added an 8-yard scoring run with 4:02 left in the game before Troy Hill intercepted Scott's backup, B.J. Denker, for a 29-yard touchdown and the final margin.

Arizona opened coach Rodriguez's tenure with a victory over Toledo before upsetting then-No. 18 Oklahoma State 59-38 in their second game. Last weekend in a 56-0 win over South Carolina State, the Wildcats ran a school-record 102 offensive plays.

The Wildcats were the first big test for Oregon, which opened the season with victories over Arkansas State, Fresno State and lower-division Tennessee Tech.

Before this season, Arizona hadn't been ranked in the AP Top 25 since November 2010, when the No. 20 Wildcats were knocked out with a 48-29 loss to the then-No. 1 Ducks.

Last season, Oregon defeated Arizona 56-31 in Tucson.

Oregon's last shutout of Arizona came in 1964, when the Ducks won 21-0 at Hayward Field in Eugene.

Game 5

18) Oregon State ..... 38

Arizona..... 35

Sept. 29, 2012 // Tucson, Ariz. // Arizona Stadium (44,153)

Start: 7:08 p.m. // TOG: 3:35 // Weather: 86 degrees, clear

TUCSON, Ariz. -- A momentum-swinging game hanging in the balance, Oregon State coach Mike Riley pulled out a play he had been saving all game.

So what if he would have liked more space to run it. This was the time to do -- and it couldn't have worked out any better.

Sean Mannion threw for a career-high 433 yards and hit Connor Hamlett on a 9-yard pass with 1:09 left for his third touchdown, lifting No. 18 Oregon State to wild 38-35 win over Arizona Saturday night.

Oregon State (3-0, 1-1 Pac-12) took a 17-0 lead, Arizona charged back and the teams traded scores in the second half of a game filled with big plays and 1,158 yards of combined offense.

Arizona (3-2, 0-1 Pac-12) landed a big blow in the can-you-top this second half, going up 35-31 with 5:34 left when Matt Scott hit Austin Hill on a 7-yard touchdown. The problem was that it left too much time for Mannion.

Knowing his team had moved the ball all game against the Wildcats, the calm-and-cool sophomore guided the Beavers 75 yards down the field in 10 plays. Facing a third-and-5 with just over a minute left, Mannion called out a play that sent one receiver into the left flat and Hamlett down the sideline. Arizona's defenders followed the receiver in the flat and Mannion whipped a pass to Hamlett, who slipped just inside the pylon for the winning score.

Mannion finished 29 of 45 for the fifth-most passing yards in school history while setting a career high for the second week. He hit Markus Wheaton 10 times for 166 yards and a pair of touchdowns, and Brandin Cooks nine times for 149 yards.

Storm Woods added for 161 yards and a touchdown for the Beavers, off to their first 3-0 start since 2002. Arizona nearly kept up with them.

Scott fought through a sprained ankle in the second half to throw for a career-high 403 yards and three touchdowns, but had two interceptions, including one near midfield in the final minute. Ka'Deem Carey ran for 115 yards and two touchdowns. Dan Buckner caught six passes for 119 yards and a score.

It wasn't enough for Arizona, which has lost two straight after opening 3-0.

Mannion was sharp early, hitting Cooks on a 57-yard pass in the first quarter to set up a 2-yard touchdown pass to Wheaton in the back of the end zone.

Next series, Mannion hit Wheaton for a 51-yard gain, leading to Trevor Romaine's 30-yard field goal.

Mannion found Kevin Cummings next, on a 38-yard pass to position Tyler Anderson for a 1-yard touchdown dive that put the Beavers up 17-0.

Arizona's offense tried to answer after sputtering early.

The Beavers bogged Arizona down in the first quarter and held when the Wildcats had their first sustained drive, which ended with John Bonano pushing a 30-yard field goal wide right after Scott was called for intentional grounding.

That wasn't a good sign for the Wildcats, who went 0-for-6 in the red zone in a 49-0 loss to Oregon last week.

Arizona managed to end its red-zone woes late in the second quarter, though, when the officials checked the replay to see if Carey fumbled at the 1-yard line and determined he actually went into the end zone for a score that cut Oregon State's lead to 17-7.

Arizona kept rolling on its opening drive of the second half, quickly marching 91 yards in 10 plays for a 3-yard pass from Scott to Hill.

The Wildcats needed a minute to score again, this one a 24-yard run up the middle by Carey, who carried a couple of Oregon State defenders into the end zone with him to put Arizona up 21-17.

Scott made a mistake on the next drive, when Jordan Poyer missed an interception at midfield, then got it when the ball caromed off Richard Morrison. That set up a 1-yard touchdown run by Woods to give Oregon State the lead back.

Woods followed with a mistake of his own, losing a fumble at Oregon State's 40. Scott then threw to the corner of the end zone to Buckner, who's over-the-shoulder, 16-yard TD catch put the Wildcats up 28-24.

Mannion's turn was next. Using a pump fake, he got the entire right side of Arizona's defense to bite and winged a 20-yard touchdown to Wheaton that put the Beavers back out front.

Scott answered, marching the Wildcats for a 7-yard touchdown pass to Hill, who dove in the final yard to make it 35-31.

He just left too much time for Mannion and the Beavers, who head home to play Washington State next week with plenty of momentum on their side.

Game 6

Arizona..... 48 OT
18) Stanford ..... 54

Oct. 6, 2012 // Palo Alto, Calif. // Stanford Stadium (48,204)
Start: 12:05 p.m. // TOG: 3:51 // Weather: Upper 60s, Partly Cloudy

STANFORD, Calif. -- Josh Nunes bailed out Stanford's defense for a change and started to erase doubts about whether he's the right man to replace Andrew Luck after all.

Nunes threw for a career-high 360 yards and two touchdowns and ran for three more scores, rallying No. 18 Stanford from a two-touchdown deficit to stun Arizona 54-48 in overtime Saturday.

Chase Thomas intercepted a tipped pass by Matt Scott in the extra period and Stepfan Taylor ran for a 21-yard touchdown two plays later to end a week of second-guessing Nunes with a wild celebration in the Cardinal (4-1, 2-1 Pac-12) side of the north end zone.

The offense failed to find the end zone in a 17-13 loss at Washington last week. Nunes underthrew several passes or misfired completely, and critics began to mount enough for Shaw to open his weekly news conference defending his new quarterback and boldly calling any question about a change "asinine."

Nunes followed his coach's words with his most solid game of the season. He completed 21 of 34 passes, scrambled for first downs and -- most importantly -- offset Scott's record-setting performance.

Scott completed 45 of 69 passes -- both school records -- for 491 yards and three touchdowns until Henry Anderson tipped his final pass in overtime that Thomas intercepted. Arizona (3-3, 0-3) amassed 617 total yards -- same as Stanford -- but lost for the third straight game and is still winless in conference play.

For most of the afternoon, the Wildcats scored at will and looked more like the team that beat Oklahoma State to start 3-0 than the one that lost to Oregon and Oregon State the previous two weeks. Facing its third straight ranked opponent, Arizona's aerial attack shredded Stanford's defense in a way few have the past few seasons.

The Wildcats became the first team to eclipse 400 yards passing against the Cardinal since Oklahoma in the 2009 Sun Bowl. The Sooners threw for 418 yards in that 31-27 win over the Cardinal.

Arizona's defense couldn't hold up when it counted.

Nunes ran his second short touchdown to trim Arizona's lead to 48-41 with 6:34 remaining. The Cardinal held the Wildcats to only their third three-and-out on the next possession, and Nunes led a drive that will help ease concerns about Luck's successor.

The redshirt junior ran for 16 yards on third-and-7 from midfield, threw 17 yards to tight end Zach Ertz on fourth-and-9 from Arizona's 20 and ran for the tying touchdown with 45 seconds left in regulation.

This time, Stanford's offense showed some fight from the start.

Taylor, who finished with 142 yards rushing and two touchdowns, ran for 35 yards on seven carries before Nunes lofted an 11-yard touchdown pass to Ertz in the corner of the end zone to give the Cardinal a 7-0 lead on the game's first possession.

While the offense finally found its rhythm, Stanford's defense struggled to slow down Arizona's up-tempo style.

Ka'Deem Carey ran for 13 yards for the first of his three touchdowns, and John Bonano kicked a 34-yard field goal to give the Wildcats a 10-7 lead later in the second quarter.

Nunes stayed steady and sharp, finding Levine Toilolo for a 12-yard touchdown pass to put Stanford back ahead 14-10. Bonano kicked a 33-yard field goal to slice Stanford's lead to 14-13 at half.

The pace picked up even more following the break.

Scott threaded a 27-yard strike to Terrence Miller inches short of the goal line that set up Carey's short touchdown run to put Arizona in front 20-14 less than 2 minutes into the third quarter.

Although the Cardinal prefer to play grind-it-out games and control the clock, Arizona simply wouldn't let them.

The teams traded touchdowns for most of the second half until Jourdon Grandon stripped Ty Montgomery after a 16-yard catch early in the fourth quarter. Arizona recovered and took over at Stanford's 45.

Scott quickly led the offense down field and hooked up with Miller for a 10-yard completion that gave the Wildcats a 48-34 lead -- the biggest either side had all afternoon. Scott nearly set the school passing record set by Willie Tuitama, who threw for a school-record 510 yards in a 48-41 win over Washington on Oct. 27, 2007.

Game 7

Washington ..... 17

Arizona..... 52

Oct. 20, 2012 // Tucson, Ariz. // Arizona Stadium (50,148)

Start: 7:06 p.m. // TOG: 3:13 // Weather: Upper 70s, clear

TUCSON, Ariz. -- Matt Scott threw for 256 yards and four touchdowns, Ka'Deem Carey ran for 172 yards and Arizona raced out of its bye week with a 52-17 rout over Washington Saturday night.

Arizona (4-3, 1-3 Pac-12) went into its bye worn down and beaten up after three straight losses to ranked opponents.

Refreshed and mostly recuperated, the Wildcats had their way with Washington's defense from the opening drive, edipsing 500 total yards (533) for the sixth time this season.

Scott finished 14 of 22, throwing two touchdowns to Austin Hill, and ran for another score. Carey scored on a 2-yard run, and Richard Morrison added a 63-yard touchdown on a punt return to give coach Rich Rodriguez his first Pac-12 win.

Washington (3-4, 1-3) had no chance against Arizona's fast-paced offense, and quarterback Keith Price had another so-so game in the Huskies' third straight loss.

Price matched Scott with 256 yards passing, but his line didn't look quite as good, needing 52 attempts to get there and with two interceptions to offset his one touchdown.

Washington played a brutal schedule the first half of the season, facing four teams in the top 11 of the AP poll. The Huskies were run over in two of those, on the road against LSU and Oregon, but beat Stanford and stayed close to USC last week despite four turnovers and a blocked punt.

It didn't figure to get any easier against Arizona and its go-all-the-time offense, particularly since it didn't go so well the last time the Huskies faced an up-tempo team.

Of course, that was against arguably the fastest team in the country, No. 2 Oregon, which ran past them for a 52-21 victory.

Preparing for a no-huddle team and seeing one live should have helped the Huskies against Arizona, which had run more plays than all but one team before its bye week.

It didn't.

Snapping the ball almost as soon as the officials placed it, the Wildcats picked Washington's defense apart behind Carey's quick-burst running and Scott's pinpoint passing.

Scott set Pac-12 records for completions (45) and attempts (69) while throwing for 491 yards and three touchdowns in Arizona's 54-48 loss to Stanford two weeks ago.

The fifth-year senior didn't have to work quite as hard against Washington.

He opened by getting two Washington defenders to bite on a pump fake to set up a floating, 27-yard touchdown pass to David Richards.

Scott did it next with his legs, scoring on a 1-yard run, then his arm, finding Garic Wharton on a 33-yard touchdown pass on fourth-and-3 to put Arizona up 24-3. He also had a quick answer to Washington's first touchdown -- a 6-yard pass from Price to Austin Seferian-Jenkins -- by hitting Hill on a 53-yard touchdown.

Scott's only real mistake came in the closing seconds of the first half, when he was hit, and his fluttering pass was picked off by Washington linebacker Travis Feeney at midfield. He rumbled to the 3-yard line, setting up Bishop Sankey's 1-yard touchdown run that cut Arizona's lead to 31-17 at halftime.

The miscue did little to slow the Wildcats down.

Arizona gained about 10 yards when

Game 8

10) USC..... 36

Arizona..... 39

Oct. 27, 2012 // Tucson, Ariz. // Arizona Stadium (47,822)
 Start: 12:35 p.m. // TOG: 4:06 // Weather: Low 80s, Sunny

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP) — His team trailing by 15 in the third quarter, Arizona coach Rich Rodriguez urged his players to show a little life. Even after the Wildcats scored, they — and much of the stadium — remained quiet.

Matt Scott woke them up.

Scott didn't get a chance to play in Arizona's shootout loss to Southern California last year, but sure put his imprint on the rematch, accounting for 469 total yards and four touchdowns in the Wildcats' 39-36 upset of the 10th-ranked Trojans on Saturday.

The Wildcats (5-3, 2-3 Pac-12) had come up short in close games during their first season under Rodriguez and appeared to be headed toward another disappointment as USC receiver Marqise Lee raced past them into the Pac-12 record book.

Scott wouldn't let Arizona come up short again.

The fifth-year senior ran for 100 yards and got Arizona's comeback started with a 10-yard touchdown run late in the third quarter. He threw for 369 yards, 259 of that on 10 catches by Austin Hill, and finished 27 for 50 passing.

Scott capped his day with his third touchdown pass, a 7-yarder to David Richards that put Arizona up 39-28 with just over five minutes left. He was wobbly and unable to play on Arizona's final possession after taking a hard hit, but had already done enough to give the Wildcats their biggest win under Rodriguez.

Marqise Lee had a huge day for USC (6-2, 4-2), eclipsing the Pac-12 record for receiving yards by half-time. He finished with 16 catches for 345 yards and two touchdowns, ending up with 469 all-purpose yards after a couple of big kick returns.

Matt Barkley put up big numbers, too, matching Carson Palmer's school record for 400-yard games with his third, throwing for 493 yards and three touchdowns on 31-of-49 passing.

USC finished with 618 total yards and pulled within three on Silas Redd's 10-yard touchdown in the fourth quarter, but couldn't overcome five turnovers — two on interceptions by Barkley — and 13 penalties for 117 yards.

The Trojans' last shot ended when Barkley's heave on the final play was swatted down, leaving them stuck on 799 wins as a program while putting a huge dent in their national championship hopes.

USC won last year's offensive shootout 48-41, surviving Arizona's second-half comeback thanks to Barkley's school-record 468 yards and four touchdowns passing.

They spent the first half of the rematch trying to get out of their own way.

Barkley threw his two interceptions — and nearly several others — and overthrew tight end Xavier Grimble in the end zone on a fourth down. Redd also lost a fumble in the first half and safety Jawanza Starling lost a fumble on an interception return.

USC also had eight penalties for 79 yards in the first half, including a taunting call against safety T.J. McDonald that extended Arizona's opening drive. Scott capped that by hitting Johnny Jackson on an 8-yard touchdown pass.

Arizona had a few discipline problems of its own.

The Wildcats had a 1-yard touchdown run by Ka'Deem Carey wiped out by a holding call and kicker John Bonano pushed a 37-yard field goal wide right after another hold erased his make from 27 on the first half's final play.

USC shook off its mistakes behind some big plays in the first half by Barkley and Lee.

Barkley connected with Grimble on a 12-yard touchdown early in the second quarter, then found Lee late, hitting him in stride for a 49-yard touchdown that put the Trojans up 14-10.

Lee kept getting open and Barkley kept finding him, setting up a 3-yard touchdown run by D.J. Morgan that put the Trojans up 21-13 late in the second quarter.

Lee opened the second half with a 44-yard touchdown catch to put USC up 28-13 and break the Pac-12 record of 293 yards receiving set by Oregon State's Mike Hass against Boise State in 2004.

So was Scott.

He scored on the 10-yard run, then found Dan Buckner on a 9-yard touchdown pass to pull Arizona within 28-26 after the Wildcats recovered a fumble by Morgan.

Carey scored on a 7-yard touchdown run the next drive, Scott extended the lead to 39-28 with his TD pass to Richards.

Redd scored and USC got ball back for a final drive, but came up short when Arizona knocked Barkley's final heave harmlessly to the turf, giving Arizona its first tight win after disappointing losses Stanford and Oregon State.

Game 9

24) Arizona ..... 10

25) UCLA ..... 66

Nov. 3, 2012 // Pasadena, Calif. // The Rose Bowl (81,673)

Start: 7:37 p.m. // TOG: 3:23 // Weather: 70 degrees, calm

PASADENA, Calif. (AP) -- Johnathan Franklin couldn't stop smiling after becoming UCLA's career rushing leader. The wide grin wasn't just about what he accomplished personally Saturday night at the Rose Bowl.

Franklin gained 162 yards, redshirt freshman Brett Hundley passed for 288 yards and three touchdowns, and UCLA (No. 25 AP) overwhelmed Arizona (No. 22 BCS, No. 24 AP) 66-10 to move into first place in the Pac-12 South.

And that position is something UCLA hasn't experienced in 14 years -- a possible berth in the Rose Bowl game. The Bruins know if they win their final three games plus the Pac-12 championship game that they'll be playing in Pasadena on New Year's Day.

Their confidence should be soaring after such an impressive win against an opponent that seemed poised to give them a hard-fought game. UCLA entered as a three-point favorite.

Franklin entered needing 21 yards to overtake Gaston Green, who gained 3,731 yards from 1984-87.

Franklin moved into the top spot with a 37-yard touchdown run on his third carry, capping a 75-yard, nine-play drive following the opening kickoff that put the Bruins (7-2, 4-2 Pac-12) ahead for good.

Franklin, who carried 24 times and scored twice, raised his career rushing total to 3,873 yards as the Bruins, off to their best start since 2005, raced to a 42-3 halftime lead in snapping a five-game losing streak to the Wildcats (5-4, 2-4) who beat them 48-12 in Tucson last year.

The Bruins called a timeout after Franklin's record-breaking run to allow teammates to congratulate him. The crowd of 81,673 at the Rose Bowl joined in the celebration. Franklin came into the game as the country's seventh-leading rusher.

The 66 points were the most scored by the Bruins since Oct. 4, 1997, when they beat Houston 66-10.

UCLA gained 371 yards of its 611 yards in the first half against a shaky Arizona defense, which came into the game ranked 110th out of 120 teams in total defense.

The Wildcats, ranked fourth nationally in total offense with a 553.6-yard average, gained just 83 of their 257 yards in the opening 30 minutes.

Hundley, who completed 16 straight passes at one stage, finished with 23 completions in 28 attempts without being intercepted.

The win gave the Bruins a better record than crosstown rival Southern California through nine games for the first time since 2001. The 18th-ranked Trojans (6-3, 4-3) lost to No. 2 Oregon 62-51 earlier Saturday.

Arizona's Matt Scott, ranked second nationally in total offense at 386.1 yards per game, completed 15 of 25 passes for 124 yards before being shaken up and leaving the game midway through the third quarter. Scott was unable to finish his team's 39-36 upset of USC last weekend after being injured late in the game.

Regarding the game, Rodriguez said he was embarrassed by his team's performance.

Arizona's Ka'Deem Carey, the country's 12th-leading rusher, was held to 54 yards on 16 carries.

The Bruins took a 21-0 lead before Arizona got a first down, scoring on Franklin's record-setting run, a 6-yard keeper by Hundley seven plays after an 18-yard punt by Kyle Dugandzic gave UCLA the ball at the Wildcats 34-yard line, and a 17-yard pass from Hundley to Jordan Payton that finished an 85-yard drive.

David Allen recovered a muffed punt by Arizona's Richard Morrison at the Wildcats 39-yard line early in the second quarter, and Damien Thigpen scored on a 1-yard run three plays later to make it 28-0.

John Bonano's 28-yard field goal midway through the second period put Arizona on the scoreboard, but Franklin scored on a 2-yard run to cap a 75-yard, 11-play drive. A 36-yard punt return by Randall Goforth to the Arizona 32 set up a 1-yard TD pass from Hundley to Joseph Fauria with 14 seconds left before halftime.

Ka'imi Fairbairn's 25-yard field goal early in the third quarter made it 45-3 before the usually high-scoring Wildcats finally scored a touchdown on Carey's 2-yard run.

B.J. Denker, who relieved Scott, fumbled on his second play and Cassius Marsh recovered for the Bruins. Hundley threw a 28-yard scoring pass to Fauria on the next play to make it 52-10. Steven Manfro scored on a 14-yard run and Melvin Emesibe added a 1-yard plunge in the final period for UCLA.

Game 10

Colorado..... 31

Arizona..... 56

Nov. 10, 2012 // Tucson, Ariz. // Arizona Stadium (51,236)
 Start: 11:35 a.m. // TOG: 3:07 // Weather: 52 degrees, Partly Cloudy

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP) - Ka'Deem Carey ran for a Pac-12 record 366 yards and scored five touchdowns, powering Arizona to a 56-31 rout of Colorado on Saturday.

Carey, who carried 25 times, broke the record of 357 rushing yards set by Washington State's Rueben Mayes at Oregon on Oct. 27, 1984. The sophomore's five rushing TDs -- of 10, 13, 30, 8 and 3 yards -- tied a conference record. Carey, whose longest gain of the day was 71 yards, smashed the school record of 288 yards set by Trung Canidate against Arizona State in 1998.

Arizona's Ka'Deem Carey ran for 366 yards and 5 touchdowns Saturday, becoming the seventh player since 2000 with at least 300 yards and 5 touchdowns in the same game. Here's a look:

With Pac-12 leading passer Matt Scott out with a concussion, junior college transfer B.J. Denker completed 12-of-14 passes for 136 yards and two touchdowns in his first start for Arizona (6-4, 3-4). He also ran for 44 yards and a touchdown as the Wildcats became bowl eligible with their sixth win, rebounding from a 66-10 embarrassment at UCLA the previous week.

In his first start this season, Colorado's Nick Hirschman was 12 of 13 for 123 yards and one interception. Connor Wood relieved Hirschman and went 4 of 7 for 90 yards and a touchdown. Christian Powell rushed for 137 yards and two scores for the Buffaloes (1-9, 1-6), and Donta Abron gained 83 yards in 13 attempts.

Wood connected on a 71-yard pass play to Scott Fernandez for a touchdown that cut the lead to 49-31 with 10:22 left. It was Fernandez's first career catch. But after the subsequent kickoff, Carey broke through on a 64-yard run to the Colorado 3, then scored from there to provide the final 56-31 score.

The Buffaloes had the ball for 41 minutes, 48 seconds, yet still lost by 25.

Denker and Carey messed up a handoff on Arizona's first offensive play, and Derrick Webb recovered for the Buffaloes at the Arizona 7. Powell rumbled into the end zone on the next play and Colorado led 7-0.

The Wildcats scored touchdowns on their next seven possessions.

First came a nine-play, 80-yard drive, capped by Carey rushing 10 yards for the first of his three first-half touchdowns. Denker was 3 of 3 for 42 yards on the drive.

The Buffaloes mounted their longest drive, in time elapsed, of the season, consuming 8:24 to go 69 yards in 15 plays. On fourth-and-goal at the 1, Colorado chose Will Oliver's 18-yard field goal, which put the underdog Buffs up 10-7.

The lead lasted just under two minutes. Denker completed three straight passes, then Carey rushed in from the 13 and Arizona was up for good, 14-10 with 13:31 left in the half.

Hirschman, replacing Jordan Webb -- who started the first nine games -- completed his first eight passes before his toss into the left flat went right into the hands of Tra'Mayne Bondurant. Had he not bobbled the ball, Bondurant would have scored easily, as he did with an interception return at Colorado last season.

As it was, Arizona took over at the Colorado 49. Garic Wharton gained 19 on an end-around, then Carey broke a series of tackles in a 30-yard run that made it 21-10.

Another long, time-consuming drive moved the Buffaloes 75 yards in 13 plays, using up 7:51. Powell scored from the 1 to cut it to 21-17 with 2:44 left in the half.

That was plenty of time for Arizona, even without Scott. Carey started the drive with a 26-yard run and had another for 21 yards to set up Denker's 21-yard scoring pass to Dan Buckner, and Arizona led 28-17 at the half.

Game 11

Arizona..... 34

Utah..... 24

Nov. 17, 2012 // Salt Lake City, Utah // Rice-Eccles Stadium (45,031)

Start: 8:07 p.m. // TOG: 2:59 // Weather: 50 degrees, cloudy, rain

SALT LAKE CITY (AP) -- Ka'Deem Carey rushed for 204 yards and Arizona scored 17 unanswered points in the fourth quarter as the Wildcats defeated Utah 34-24 Saturday and guaranteed the Utes their first losing season since 2002.

Utah (4-7, 2-6 Pac-12) took a 24-17 on Travis Wilson's 36-yard touchdown pass to DeVonte Christopher late in the third quarter, but the Wildcats answered with touchdowns 3 minutes apart early in the fourth.

Daniel Jenkins tied it on a 2-yard TD run, and Matt Scott tossed an 18-yard scoring pass to Austin Hill with 11:07 left.

John Bonano's second field goal of the night, a 24-yarder, sealed the win for Arizona (7-4, 4-4) with 1:15 remaining.

Wilson passed for a career-high 311 yards and two touchdowns, but also fumbled.

Utah scored on a fake field goal but saw the game turn in the fourth quarter on a failed fake punt.

John White had 112 yards rushing for the Utes.

Scott was back after missing last week because of a concussion. He started slowly, but he ran for a touchdown and tossed the game-winner to Hill.

Scott finished 12 of 27 for 160 yards.

Arizona did most of its damage on the ground against the Pac-12's third-ranked defense, rolling up 320 yards rushing.

Carey averaged 7.8 yards a carry and scored Arizona's first touchdown.

Jenkins scored the third with 13:55 remaining.

He was stopped on third and 1 at the 4, but a hands-to-the-face penalty against Star Lotulelei gave Arizona a first down at the 2. A missed tackle by Nate Fakahafua allowed Jenkins to bounce outside and score on the next play.

Arizona's much-maligned defense then held, forcing a punt. But Utah's coaches called for the fake.

Punter Sean Sellwood completed the pass to Mike Honeycutt on fourth and 6, but Honeycutt was stopped four yards stopped of the first down by Kylan Butler, giving Arizona the ball at the Utah 41.

Scott rolled out right four plays later to connect with Hill.

The teams combined for 929 yards of offense. While Utah held a 10-minute advantage in time of possession, mistakes hurt the Utes, who will see their string of nine straight bowl appearances end.

Last week, Carey rushed for five touchdowns and 366 yards to shatter school and conference rushing records.

He found it tougher against the Utes, but he still had 110 yards on 14 carries at halftime.

The Utes hoped their final home game for 25 seniors would provide the inspiration they needed to beat Arizona.

But the Wildcats scored two touchdowns less than 90 seconds apart in the second quarter to take a 17-7 lead.

Carey's 1-yard run capped an eight-play, 75-yard drive and gave the Wildcats a 10-7 lead.

Wilson fumbled on Utah's next play from scrimmage as the ball slipped out of his hand as he dropped back to pass.

Five plays later, Scott practically walked into the end zone from 10 yards out. Utah had only 10 men on the field on the play as safety Brian Blechen was forced to leave because of a problem with his helmet.

Utah answered with a nine-play, 70-yard drive, with Wilson's 34-yard TD pass to Jake Murphy pulling the Utes within 17-14.

Coleman Petersen tied it at 17-all midway through the third on a 24-yard field goal.

Both teams blew scoring opportunities.

Utah's first two drives ended on failed fourth-down conversions, the second on fourth and 1 at the Arizona 4 as White was tackled for a 1-yard loss, six plays after Carey fumbled at his own 28-yard-line.

Arizona was driving late in the second quarter and had a first and goal at the Utah 7, but Scott fumbled the handoff, and Nate Fakahafua recovered with 33 seconds left in the half.

Going against the Pac-12's worst pass defense, Wilson had more yards passing in the first quarter (62) than he had in the entire game against Washington (55).

He also was much sharper, completing 11 of 15 passes for 133 in the first half and 28 of 40 overall.

Utah got on the board on a fake field goal. Holder Sellwood flipped the ball to place-kicker Coleman Petersen, who picked up a key block from Jake Murphy to get around right end for a 7-3 lead with 12:10 left in the second quarter.
