2013 SEASON OUTLOOK

By Matt Park

Arizona Athletic Communication Services

For the second-consecutive season, Arizona saw its journey end at the NCAA Super Regionals to Oklahoma. The 2012 Wildcats fell short of returning to the Women's College World Series -- where, prior to 2011, Arizona advanced to the Women's College World Series 22 times in the past 25 years. 2012 also saw the Wildcats win only 38 games, falling short of the 40-win mark for just the first time since 1986 (although the total is also misrepresented as six games in 2012 were rained out). Arizona finished the Pac-12 season with a 12-12 record and only managed to win four games on the road.

2013 will mark Mike Candrea's 28th season as head coach for the Arizona softball program. Coach Candrea became the fastest coach in NCAA softball to reach 1,300 wins and now stands at 1,310 career victories. In addition to his service for Arizona softball, coach Candrea has also managed the 2004 USA Softball team that took home the gold and in 2008, his USA team won the silver. Coach Candrea values the importance of consistency, as his career reflects this mentality and 2013 presents the Wildcats another opportunity to return to familiar heights.

While the upcoming season has been tagged by some as a "re-building year", 2013 will still hold the same high expectations and obstacles that come from living up to a program that has won eight national championships, 10 Pac-12 championships and produced 50 All-Americans.

But there will be obstacles in the process of overcoming the challenge of returning to the Women's College World Series or becoming Pac-12 champions. One of these obstacles being the team's youth and inexperience at the NCAA Division I level. Another obstacle is finding the right replacements for vacant positions.

"One of the keys to this team is their flexibility," Candrea said. "Many players are capable of playing multiple positions, so it's really tough trying to solidify where we'll be at the beginning or the end of the season."

Eight players depart from 2012 which accounted for 60% of the RBI, 60% of the runs scored and 52% of the hits. Arizona's seven returning players will not only have to step up on offense and defense, but also take the responsibility of leadership for the eight newcomers that are starting their Arizona softball careers.

"This team has really good chemistry," Candrea said. "They come together as well as any team I've had. Mentally, they are at a good place. Physically, we still have to make improvements as this game is about performance, but the mindsets of the players are very positive and willing."

ESPN.com/USA Softball Collegiate Top 25 ranked the Wildcats at No. 14 heading into the season, while the USA Today/NFCA poll had Arizona 13th and Candrea and his team will have the opportunity to see how they compare when they take on their tough preseason schedule. Of the 56 total games, 23 are against ranked teams, including 11 games against teams ranked in the top 10.

THE CIRCLE

Senior Kenzie Fowler and junior Shelby Babcock return as established starters, while depth in rotation and relief will come from junior-transfer Estela Piñon and freshman Nancy Bowling.

Fowler's ranks ninth all-time in Arizona history for innings pitched with 652.1. Fowler will have reached the 100 win club if she wins 21 games in 2013. Opponents have hit .191 throughout Fowler's career and her career ERA is 1.95. However, Fowler is expected to miss a good amount of the season's first half due to rehabilitation after back surgery.

Babcock is coming off a season in which she pitched 197 of the team's 368.2 innings. In 2012, Babcock's ERA improved to 3.02 from her freshman figure of 3.98. She recorded 21 wins last season while averaging 8.41 strikeouts per 7 innings pitched.

"The game has changed a bit now," coach Candrea admitted. "The hitters today are much better than they were 10 years ago. The lineups have gone deeper than they used to so we have to do a good job in pitching to the team's weaknesses."

The addition of Piñon and Bowling offers depth and diversity to the pitching rotation.

Prior to joining the Wildcats, Piñon attended Yavapai Junior College, where she was the 2012 conference player of the year and MVP. In 2011, Piñon helped lead Yavapai to win the 2011 NJCAA National Championship -- current Arizona assistant coach Stacy Iveson was the head coach of Yavapai in 2011 and she has experience working with Piñon.

Heading into her first year at Arizona, Bowling ranked No. 7 in ESPN's Top 100 Softball Recruits. Her senior season saw 25 wins while posting a 0.43 ERA.

In addition to the new pitchers, the pitching staff has added a new coach as well. Former All-American Arizona pitcher, Alicia Hollowell starts her first year as Arizona's pitching coach, after being the team's director of operations for the 2012 season. Hollowell holds the all-time UA record in victories (134), innings pitched (1,122) and strikeouts (1,768). She was also the ace in Arizona's 2006 national championship team.

"It is huge to have Alicia Hollowell on the coaching staff," Candrea said. "Anytime you have someone working with you that has been in the circle, been through the trenches, and gone through the ups and downs, they offer guidance to handle certain situations. Hollowell becomes a knowledgeable resource for our pitchers to understand and handle the mental and emotional aspects."

"The key is going to be playing defense," coach Candrea said. "With the strikeouts decreasing in the game, balls are hit more in play and consistently, so your defense becomes a major part of the team's success or downfall."

THE CATCHERS

Arizona enters the season with two catchers on their roster. Returning player, sophomore Chelsea Goodacre will look to catch the majority of Arizona's games as she caught 22 games in 2012. During those 22 games, Goodacre posted a .984 fielding-percentage.

Junior transfer Kelsey Rodriguez provides offensive threat and will seek to not only play catcher, but she will also provide depth at both corner infield positions and the outfield.

"Goodacre and Rodriguez can both hit," Candrea said. "It will be the catcher that can hit consistently but also provide the best defense and chemistry with pitchers that will earn the start. Both players are capable of doing that."

THE INFIELD

After playing third base throughout her Arizona career, Senior Brigitte Del Ponte will be taking over at shortstop due to former shortstop Shelby Pendley transferring to Oklahoma. Del Ponte has a career .946 fielding percentage at third base.

"Third base is more reaction whereas at shortstop, you got to make some decisions," Candrea said. "But Brigitte has done a great job at shortstop and I knew the transition wouldn't be as tough because she played shortstop in high school."

Taking over at third for Del Ponte will be freshman Lauren Young. Del Ponte will be a valuable resource for Young to transition into Division I NCAA softball. Another possibility at shortstop is junior Alex Lavine, who was Arizona's starting shortstop as a freshman. However, Lavine is more likely to play at center field.

"Lauren Young has stepped into third base nicely," Candrea said. "She is a really good athlete."

"Suits and Perez are battling it out right now at second," Candrea said. "One day, Suits will have the better practice then Perez will have her moment the next day."

Whether or not Perez starts or shares time, she has made Candrea's decision second base a tough one, reflecting Perez's defensive ability and capability.

After starting 53 games at center field last season, sophomore Hallie Wilson moves into the infield at first base, where she has started only once in her Arizona career. As a freshman, Wilson maintained a perfect fielding percentage. Junior-transfer Kelsey Rodriguez and freshman Darcy Taylor are also two players who can see innings at first base.

"We're seeing how Hallie is adjusting to first base," Candrea said. "Darcy will be back her up and Kelsey is another player who can play at first."

THE OUTFIELD

Continuing the theme of change and adjustment, Arizona's outfield will be completed by the versatility of his outfielders. Previously mentioned, junior Alex Lavine will be the likely candidate to start at center field. After starting at shortstop in 2011, Lavine lost her starting role to Shelby Pendley and became a defensive replacement in the outfield for the majority of 2012 season.

"We moved Lavine to center," coach Candrea said. "We are trying to utilize her speed. At the corners will be newcomers. Right now, we're looking at Courtney Rodriguez and Gabbie Sandstedt at right field."

Freshmen Courtney Rodriguez and Sandstedt have both competed and excelled at the highest level for high school softball and has displayed their potential to play in the outfield at a consistent basis.

Junior Kelsey Rodriguez transferred from Pacific, where she earned the Big West Freshman Player of the Year in 2011 and was named first-team all-conference in both seasons with the Tigers.

"There are a lot of interchangeable parts," coach Candrea said. "The players that will give us the best opportunity to play defense but also supply the offense in a consistent basis will be what will determine each player's role."

THE OFFENSE

"Our power numbers are going to be a little lower right now," Candrea said. "But we still have players who can supply the power. We're looking at Hallie Wilson, Brigitte Del Ponte and Chelsea Goodacre being consistent with the power hitting."

In 2012, Wilson led Arizona in batting average with .346 as she also had an on-base percentage of .426. She hit in the leadoff spot for 51 games last season and led the team in hits with 65.

Del Ponte's 53 career home runs ranks 8th all-time in Arizona history, as well as 10th all-time for her 195 RBI. She has hit more extra-base hits (100) than singles (80). Del Ponte's career batting average is .328 and slugging percentage is .708.

Goodacre showed glimpses of her power last season as she recorded two, two-homer games. She hit a total of eight home runs and also showed her potential to get on base as she possessed a .351 on-base percentage.

"Getting on base will be very important for this team," Candrea said. "We need players like Chelsea Suits to show more consistency in getting on base and putting the ball on the ground. Alex Lavine changed to the left side, so we can utilize her speed."

Suits obtained a .374 on-base percentage and recorded 48 hits. She batted at the No. 2 hole for 45 games and put together 13 multi-hit games. She also stole 13 bases in 14 attempts, which ranked third on the team.

As a defensive replacement in 2012, Lavine only got 24 at-bats, but as the team's starting shortstop in 2011, Lavine put together a consistent .248 average while getting on-base 37% of the time batting from the right side, but will bat lefty in 2013.

"There will also be young players that will surprise us," Candrea said. "Right now, one of our better hitters is Kelsey Rodriguez. She sprays the ball all over the ballpark but she is consistent, gets good pitches and has a nice swing. Lauren Young has an opportunity to grow as a hitter and with time, she can be a player that plays a vital role in our offense. Mandi Perez and Gabbie Sandstedt have a lot of potential in helping this team produce runs."

"A lot of progress will happen through game experience," Candrea said. "The experienced players have a database to be comfortable with, while the younger ones will be developing that. There will be a lot of growing and maturing in 2013 through the obstacles that this team will go through by coming together."

Mike Candrea enters his 28th season as the head coach of the University of Arizona softball team in 2013 and under his guidance reaching the pinnacle should once again underscore a record of success almost unparalleled by any program in any sport at any level.

Candrea is one of the most respected coaches in the nation, with the accomplishments to supplement: eight national titles in 22 seasons, 21 trips to the Women's College World Series in the last 23 seasons, 1,310 career victories, a mind-boggling career winning percentage of 82%, 50 All-Americans, four national players of the year and stewardship of Team USA to an Olympic gold medal, to name a few.

Candrea earned the 1,300th victory of his career in 2012 when Arizona defeated Utah 4-2 on April 11. Like many milestones before this, Candrea was the fastest coach in NCAA softball history to 1,300 wins. Only one other coach has eclipsed this mark, Margie Wright of Fresno State, who accomplished the feat in her 30th season, while Candrea did so in his 27th season of coaching.

The aforementioned gold medal came with his stint as the head coach of Team USA in 2004. His second Olympic squad took home the silver in 2008. Softball has since been erased from Olympic competition, but Candrea's work in the sport's final two Olympic years will not soon be forgotten. Under his tutelage in 2004, the team posted a perfect 9-0 record, outscoring its opponents 51-1 on its way to a gold medal in one of the most dominant team performances in Olympic history. In 2008, the team came just short of winning its fourth consecutive gold medal.

Since 1988, UA has won fewer than five postseason games just twice and has eclipsed the 50-win mark 17 times and won at least 38 games in the other years. No one talks about losing around Arizona softball, but even in lean times the Wildcats did not lose 20 games in any of the 27 seasons under Candrea's watch. Avoiding a "down" year has been a trademark of Candrea's program, and one not universally shared even among the game's elite.

Candrea is not one to back down from a challenge. On a daily basis, he challenges his players, and when it comes to drawing up the schedule of opponents, his philosophy is no different. He builds schedules as tough as any in the country. A recent sampling shows years where Arizona won 30 games against NCAA Tournament-bound squads.

His teams' victory totals of 67 in 1998, 66 wins in 1995, 65 victories in 2001, 64 victories in 1994 and 61 in 1997 are among the top 10 in the NCAA record books. Including a five-season stint as a junior college coach at Central Arizona, Candrea has a career record of 1440-351-2. That computes to a phenomenal winning percent of .804.

That proficiency started at Arizona with the hiring of Candrea prior to the 1986 season, the school's transition in Pacific West Conference play before the start of Pac-10 ball in 1987. UA finished 27-13-1 that first year, his "worst" record to date. The following season, the Cats were 42-18 and qualified for their first of 26-straight NCAA postseason appearances.

Those early years marked the upswing in Candrea's recruiting skill at the Division I level and by 1988, the team turned in a 54-18 record, made it to the Women's College World Series for the first time and recorded two WCWS victories. That year, pitcher Teresa Cherry became Candrea's first UA All-American.

The ensuing years provided more of the same – UA finished 48-19 in 1989 and 49-17 in 1990, placed third and second, respectively, in the tough Pac-10, but still came up short in WCWS play.

The bigger picture jelled in 1991 when things looked somewhat bleak as the Cats finished 11-9 and fourth in conference play – tied for his worst finish. Once in the postseason, a gutty and defensive-oriented UA team swept Arizona State in NCAA Regional play in Tempe and went on to play five games pivotal to the history of Arizona softball, at Oklahoma City in the College World Series. Candrea and the Cats earned their first national championship, beating UCLA 5-1 in the title game.

The program was off and running and Tucson became a destination for many of the best young players in the game, finishing the decade of the 1990s with 523 victories against 75 losses. Other national championships followed - 1993, 1994, 1996, 1997, 2001, 2006 and 2007. Following each of the titles in 1994, 1996, 1997 and 2007, Candrea was named the National Fastpitch Coaches Association Division I Coach of the Year.

Candrea knows you don't win games without players. A succession of top-level players – sluggers, hitters, dominant pitchers, Olympians – has kept Arizona at the top. For 22-consecutive years, from 1990 to 2011, at least two of Candrea's players earned All-America honors in voting by the coaches' association. Four times it was six players – the only time that many players from one team were chosen. In 1994, 1995 and 1998, the six selections were all first-team All-Americans. In 1997, all five Arizona honorees were first-team players, as were the four selected in 2004.

Candrea has stressed academic success, as well, with K'Lee Arredondo (2010, first team), Autumn Champion (2006, second team), Leah O'Brien (first team, 1994, 1995 and 1997), Jenny Dalton (first team in 1996, second team in 1995) and Nancy Evans (1998) earning Academic All-America honors.

Candrea is sought out by softball and baseball coaches around the country and has delivered instructional clinics throughout the nation. He is particularly known for hitting techniques, team fielding drills and squad motivational preparation. In recent years, he has consulted with Major League Baseball stars and other learned technicians to conduct national hitting clinics, and he participates in dozens of such sessions to help improve the way softball is taught and played. He has written several books and produced a number of videotapes on various softball subjects and has designed specific practice aids and equipment that are widely used at various levels of play.

Still, just watching him work with a hitter, some balls and a batting tee show the true value of his coaching and his love of teaching. He enjoys the work, is able to communicate and uses an encouraging but firm style. His pre-game infield drill is an example. It's a smooth, fast-paced warm up that's done exactly the same each time.

Candrea's style of play, public comportment and the consistent winning puts Wildcat fans in the stands at Rita Hillenbrand Memorial Stadium. The Wildcats set the NCAA record for attendance in 2011, attracting 77,129 fans over 30 home dates. The Wildcat faithful have led the country in home attendance per game in five of the last seven years and have earned the distinction nine times since the stadium's opening in 1993.

Candrea began his softball coaching career at Central Arizona College (CAC) from 1981-85. His team won consecutive NJCAA World Series in his final two seasons, earning him national coach the year honors each time. Prior to coaching softball, he was an assistant baseball coach at Central from 1976-80. On January 18, 2009, Candrea was inducted into the inaugural CAC Hall of Fame Class.

Also a baseball player at CAC, Candrea's playing career was cut short by an elbow injury. He earned an associate's degree at CAC in 1975, a bachelor's degree at Arizona State in 1978 and a master's degree from ASU in 1980.

Candrea was married to the former Sue Ellen Hudson for 28 years until her tragic death in July 2004, just 10 days prior to the Olympic Games.

On Dec. 30, 2006, he wed the former Tina Tilton at The Westin La Paloma Resort and Spa in Tucson. Candrea has a son Mikel, 33, and daughter Michelle, 30, in addition to stepsons Ryan, 35 and Sean Tilton, 22. Mikel, a 2004 Arizona graduate, worked with the baseball team and strength and conditioning programs prior to his graduation. He is currently a private hitting instructor in Sacramento, California. Michelle celebrated the birth of her son, Jaylen Mikel, on Oct. 27, 2005. Jaylen is Candrea's first grandchild. Both Ryan and Sean are students at the University of Arizona, and Ryan works as a personal trainer.

Four-time junior college national-champion coach Stacy Iveson re-joined the staff as a softball assistant in summer 2011.

Iveson, a former Wildcat player and coach, won two NJCAA titles while at Pima Community College from 2002-07 and two in her most recent post as head coach at Yavapai College, including in 2011 with a 67-4 Roughriders club. She was head coach at Yavapai for four seasons and took all four teams to the national tournament's final weekend.

She was NJCAA National Coach of the Year following her first title in 2004 and her staff at YC earned the National Fastpitch Coaches Association/NJCAA Division I national staff of the year honor this past season and in 2009. She compiled a record of 213-44 at Yavapai during her tenure and won more than 300 games at Pima.

"We are very excited to bring back a great Wildcat who has made her own mark in the coaching profession," Candrea said.

"I am thrilled to come back home to Tucson and have the opportunity to work beside my mentor. I look forward to working with the highly talented group of student-athletes at Arizona and being a part of the amazing Wildcat athletics department," Iveson said.

"I have so much history on the UA campus and in Hillenbrand Stadium and am proud to be a part of the Wildcat softball family and all the tradition," she said.

Iveson spent seven seasons as a Candrea assistant at UA from 1995 to 2001 and helped the Wildcats earn NCAA Championships in 1996, 1997 and 2001. Her work with Arizona pitchers and catchers was underscored by marks of 30-7 by Becky Lemke and 29-2 by Jennie Finch in 2000, and the latter's remarkable 32-0 year in 2001.

She also worked with pitchers Nancy Evans during her twin 36-2 years in 1997-98, and Carrie Dolan (35-6) during the '96 title run. Catcher Leah Braatz was Diamond Sports/NFCA national catcher of the year in 1997 and 1998 and Lindsey Collins tied the Arizona fielding percentage mark with a flawless 1.000 campaign behind the plate in 2001.

Iveson has also been a member of the USA Softball coaching pool for the last six years. She worked closely with the National Team players and coaches including several training and selection camps and a trip to Guatemala in 2005 for the Pan American Qualifier. Last year she accompanied the USA Junior National team to Colombia as an assistant coach on the Pan American Championship squad that earned a berth in the World Championships.

A four year Arizona letter winner and starting catcher, she played on Candrea's first four teams at UA from 1986 to 1989, earning first team all-region honors and All Pac 10 honors as a sophomore in 1987. She remains tied for the season record for games played, with 72 in 1988, and before the 1990s assault on the record book was among UA's top 10 in career this, RBI, at bats, games played and doubles.

Iveson was softball coach at Salpointe Catholic High School in Tucson from 1991 to 1994 after a year as an assistant coaching the junior varsity. She led the Lancers to the state championship in 1993. She was head coach of the Arizona Heat national pro fast-pitch team from 2005-07. She was inducted into the Pima County Sports Hall of Fame in 2005.

The former Stacy Engel graduated from Tucson's Catalina High School in 1985. She earned a bachelor's degree in elementary education from UA in 1990 and her master's in educational administration from Northern Arizona in 1995.

She was a teacher in Tucson's Flowing Wells School District from 1990 to 1994 and returned to the district to teach fifth grade at Laguna Elementary School in 1996. Her husband, Tom Iveson, also is an educator. The couple has a son, Jared.

Former Wildcat All-American Alicia Hollowell was named assistant coach in June 2012 after serving as the team's director of operations for the 2012 season. Hollowell served as an interim assistant coach for the final three weeks of 2012 before being elevated to full-time status.

"I have always been impressed with the competitiveness and passion with which Alicia played the game, and now she brings that same approach to our coaching staff. She always has been a student of the game and brings great knowledge, positive energy, and bleeds red and blue," he said.

Candrea said Hollowell's duties would include close work with Arizona's pitchers. "She's been in the circle, pitched Arizona to a national championship in 2006, represented the USA and played the game at the highest levels possible. Alicia knows what it takes to play this game at the highest levels," Candrea said.

"I'm just thrilled to be back with Coach Candrea in such a role," Hollowell said. "It feels like home and is just awesome to be able to contribute on the field. I've been there, done some good things and will do everything possible to keep Arizona Softball at the top of the game," she said.

Hollowell, a Wildcat letterwinner from 2003-06, was a four time All-American who is the school's career leader in victories (134), innings pitched (1,122.0) and strikeouts (1,768).

She finished her career with the top three single-season strikeout totals in school history and the top two single-season tallies for victories. In her career, Hollowell was named Pac-10 Pitcher of the Week 14 times and threw 17 no-hitters, capping her career by leading Arizona to the 2006 national championship and earning Women's College World Series Most-Outstanding-Player honors.

She earned Pac-10 Pitcher-of-the-Year honors in 2004 and Newcomer-of-the-Year kudos in 2003.

Hollowell was named Arizona's top female student-athlete in 2006.

A native of Suisun, Calif., Hollowell was a member of the U.S. national team from 2005-08, winning two World Cup titles, the 2007 Pan American Games gold medal and serving as an alternate on the 2008 Olympic squad.

Hollowell served as an assistant coach at UC Davis from 2010-2011.

She earned her undergraduate degree at Arizona in 2007 while serving as a graduate assistant to Candrea.

Four-time Wildcat All-American Caitlin Lowe joined the staff in September 2012 as the program's director of operations.

Much of Lowe's responsibilities will include the direction of the program's video efforts, including recording and breaking down practice footage and opponent scouting. She also will handle a wealth of office duties, recruiting correspondence, community service coordination and scheduling and team travel. She will not have on-field coaching responsibilities.

"It's great to have Caitlin back in Tucson. She's a great addition to our staff, one of the best players to wear an Arizona or any uniform. While she won't be coaching, having another set of eyes like that will help our staff," Head Coach Mike Candrea said.

Lowe, a letterwinner from 2004-07, boasts some of the most impressive credentials in her time with the sport. A two-time national champion (2006 and 2007), Lowe's name is scattered throughout the Arizona record books: Lowe remains second in batting average (.446), fourth hits (351), fourth in triples (12), seventh in runs scored (242) and first in stolen bases (156).

In 2007, Lowe was awarded the Lowe's Senior CLASS Award, given annually to the senior displaying excellence in the community, the classroom, character and in competition, as well as the adidas Golden Shoe Award, given to the nation's best base-stealer. The Tustin, Calif., native was a two-time finalist for the Honda Softball Award (2005 and 2007) as well as a finalist for the USA Softball Player of the Year in 2005.

Lowe is one of only six Wildcat players to be named an NFCA All-American in each of her four years with the program and joined Leah Braatz (1994, 95, 97, 98) as the only player in Arizona history to be awarded first-team All-America all four years.

An Olympian in 2008, Lowe took home the silver medal competing for Team USA under Head Coach Mike Candrea. Lowe competed for Team USA from 2005-2008.

Lowe graduated from UA in 2007 with a degree in psychology and a minor in communications. She has spent the last four years in National Professional Fastpitch competing for the USSSA Pride.

A former men's fastpitch softball player and assistant coach in Tucson for the past six years, Mark Blair joined the staff in August 2012 as the team's volunteer assistant coach.

Blair brings over 40 years of experience pitching at the top levels of men's fastpitch softball in El Paso, Tex. and Tucson to the team. Blair will throw batting practice as well as assist the pitching staff and the outfield.

Blair spent 2007-10 as an assistant at Flowing Wells High School in Tucson and served as an assistant under Armando Quiroz at Pima from 2010-12.

In 1975, Blair graduated from Texas El Paso with a degree in physical education and in 1993, Blair received his Master's in counseling from University of Phoenix.

Blair was born in Woodbury, N.J. in April of 1951.

UNDERGRADUATE ASSISTANT JESSICA SPIGNER

Years as a coach:

After completing her final year of eligibility at Arizona, Jessica Spigner remained with the program as the team's graduate assistant coach.

Spigner, who transferred to Arizona her senior season after playing the first three at Tennessee, posted a .257 batting average with nine home runs, 34 RBI and six doubles as a Wildcat. Spigner led the team with 31 walks and 10 hit-by-pitches, contributing to a .409 on-base-percentage.

Spigner attended Valencia High School in Santa Clarita, Calif., where she was a two-time EA Sports first-team All-American (2007 and 2008) including the 2008 EA Sports National High School Player of the Year.

At Tennessee, Spigner compiled a .332 average in three seasons with 38 home runs, 159 RBI and 40 doubles.

Spigner was born in October of 1990 in Santa Monica, Calif., to Michael and Dyan Spigner.

BRIGETTE DEL PONTE - #4

Candrea Says: "Mentally, Brigette has become a leader on this team. Not just a vocal leader but has worked extremely hard and put in the extra time and the effort. More than anything I just love her attitude. She really cares a lot about everyone and has been the person to kind of pick people up. I am looking for a big year from her. She is a talented individual, outstanding hitter, probably one of the best hitters in our lineup. We have her at shortstop because of her experience. I think she will do a great job; I think she has really embraced the move and she is one of those kids that can take this team on her shoulders and help us get a long way. We are counting on her to be a great performer and a great leader; she has a positive influence on this team."

2013 ARIZONA SOFTBALL MEDIA GUIDE

2011: A second-team NFCA All-American selectee ... Started all 61 games at third base ... Set the single season record for doubles in a season Invited to the USA Softball National Team Selection Camp ... Named to the NFCA All-West Region first team ... Cited as first-team All-Pac-10 ... Named Pac-10 Player of the Week (3/21-3/27) when she batted .600 without stopping at first: her six hits were comprised of four doubles and two home runs, she notched 10 RBI and scored five runs in a three-game series vs. Cal State Northridge ... Contains a good balance of average and power with a batting average of .335 and a slugging percentage of .735 ... Compiled 20 multi-hit games, in all of which she notched two hits ... Hit 17 home runs, second most in the Pac-10 behind teammate Stacie Chambers ... Ranked fourth in the Pac-10 in slugging percentage (.735) and RBI (59) ... Led the team in total bases with 136, a figure which was third best in the conference ... Her 17 home runs tie for 20th most homers in a season in Arizona history ... Had 18 games with multiple RBI, including a five-RBI outing (Cal State Northridge, 3/26) ... Ended the season on an 11-game reached-base streak, the longest active streak of any returner ... Reached base in 30 of the final 33 games, 20 of which she reached base at least twice ... Possessed a five-game double streak (3/25-4/2) in which she hit eight doubles to go along with two home runs ... Hit more doubles (23) than singles (22) on the season with nearly as many home runs (17) ... Tucson Regional: Had a hit in each game, including two hits in the first two ... Went 2-for-4 with three runs scored in the regional opener (Harvard, 5/20) ... Had another 2-for-4 performance against New Mexico State without stopping at first base, with a double and home run, driving in two runs while scoring two more ... Tucson Super Regional: Drew two walks in game one ... Went 1-for-4 in game two.

2010: Second team All-Pac-10 as well as conference All-Freshman team selection ... Set an Arizona freshman record for home runs (21) and RBI (80) ... An NFCA All-Pacific Region second team choice ... Played in 64 games, 60 as the starting third baseman ... Was named Pac-10 Player of the Week March 1-7 when she homered in each of the four games while recording 13 total RBI ... Doubled eight times, including a season-high twice vs. BYU on May 28 ... Ranks 10th in Arizona history in both home runs and RBI in a season ... Clocked seven home runs in Pac-10 games which tied for the best in the conference ... Played admirably in the hot-corner highlighted by athletic plays and a very strong arm in an unnatural position for the high school catcher/short stop ... Finished season third on the team with a .710 slugging percentage ... Led the team with 80 RBI ... Set a season best for home runs and RBI in a game with two and seven, respectively, April 30 at California; the seven ribbie effort was one of her team-leading three 5+ RBI games ... Tallied 21 multi-RBI games, second most on the squad ... Hit in nine consecutive games early in the season, and finished the year with a three game hitting streak ... Spent all but seven starts in the five hole in the lineup ... Tied for the team lead in home runs despite hitting only two in the last 20 games of the season ... Tucson Regional: Recorded an RBI in all three games despite tallying only one hit in the series ... Hit a two-run home run against Cornell, her only hit of the series ... Got a free pass that drove home a run in third inning of the second game of the regional for Arizona vs. Hofstra ... Drove in the first run of the second game vs. Hofstra, a sac fly which plated Lauren Schutzler ... Tucson Super Regional: Went 3-for-5 at the plate and scored three runs ... Batted in a run in each game, stretching her RBI streak to five games ... Doubled twice, one of which scored a run in the first game vs. BYU ... Walked twice before singling home a run in the decisive game two victory against the Cougars ... WCWS: Had 3 RBI on five hits in the series ... Did not record an error in 21 chances in the field ... Crossed the plate on June 8 vs. UCLA.

KENZIE FOWLER - #19

Candrea Says: “Kenzie is working on getting healthy right now. She is kind of untested at the moment. We don’t really know exactly when or what to expect, it’s kind of her time frame. We are just glad that she is working toward coming back. Hopefully that will be a great addition for us if we can get her back on the mound and give us some quality innings. I really don’t know when that will be but I think mentally she wants to help this however she can to be successful this year.”

2012: Named to the 2012 USA Softball Player of the Year Watchlist ... Went 15-9 with a 2.85 ERA in 154.2 innings pitched ... Struck out 180 batters and limited opponents to a .218 batting average ... Recorded eight shutouts on the season ... Saved two games ... Went the distance in 15 of the 25 games she started ... Notched four games with double-digit strikeouts, including a season-best 12 against College of Charleston (3/2) ... Pitched 38 consecutive innings of scoreless softball (2/23-3/4) ... Ranked 31st in the country with 8.1 strikeouts per seven innings ... Tossed a one-hit, seven-inning shutout against UAB (2/17) ... Picked up a pair of victories at the Hillenbrand Invitational while striking out 19 batters in 14 innings pitched ... Did not allow a run to cross the plate in 21 innings of work at the Cathedral City Classic. Fowler recorded complete-game shutouts of Fresno State, Oklahoma State and Syracuse and picked up a save vs. Fordham ... Allowed three hits in 12 innings pitched while not allowing College of Charleston to cross the plate on the week-end. Fowler struck out 20 batters, including a season-high 12 in five innings (3/2) ... Was perfect through three innings vs. Iowa and allowed only one run on three hits while striking out nine Hawkeyes. The run allowed was her first given up in 38 innings ... Tucson Regional: Allowed one run in six innings against Notre Dame (5/19) ... Fanned six Fighting Irish without walking a batter in Arizona’s 7-2 victory ... Norman Super Regional: Allowed seven runs, five earned in her start in game two ... Allowed nine hits while walking five and striking out two.

2011: An NFCA All-American for the second consecutive year, a second-team selection ... Cited as a Pac-10 All-Academic performer (honorable mention) ... Named to the NFCA All-West Region first team ... An all-conference honoree for the second time in as many years, a second-team choice ... One of 25 players named USA Softball Player of the Year Finalists ... Chosen as USA Softball Player of the Week and Pac-10 Pitcher of the Week (3/28-4/3) when she shutout Stanford in 15.1 innings pitched, allowing just four total hits while striking out 17 Cardinal batters ... Earned preseason accolades ESPN Preseason All-America (first team) and USA Softball Player of the Year Watchlist (50 players) ... Was hit in the head by a foul line drive while sitting in the dugout (Washington, 4/17), concussing the star and sidelining her for over two weeks ... Had a standout year despite her statistics being deflated due to the missed time because of injury ... Struck out over a batter-per-inning, 243 strikeouts in 213.1 innings pitched ... Had a 1.84 ERA, fourth best in the conference ... Held batters to a .205 batting average, ninth best in the Pac-10 ... Her 213.1 innings pitched were fifth most in the league ... Was fourth in the conference with 243 strikeouts ... Won 26 games, the third most in the Pac-10 ... Greatly increased her strikeout totals toward the end of the season;

SENIOR PROFILES - KENZIE FOWLER

2010: Arizona's ace earned a reputation as one the most feared pitchers in the country as a freshman ... Cited as a first team NFCA All-American, the first Wildcat freshman to be a first team All-America selection since Caitlin Lowe in 2004 ... One of 10 finalists for USA Player of the Year ... One of two conference freshman named first team All-Pac-10 ... Selected to first team NFCA All-Pacific Region ... Started 47 games, posting a 38-9 record with a 1.53 ERA in 52 appearances ... Honored as NFCA Player of the Week as well as Pac-10 Pitcher of the Week, March 8-15 while not allowing a run over the four game Wildcat Invitational, which included a 17 strikeout, one-hit outing vs. Creighton ... Garnered USA Softball Player of the Week and Pac-10 Pitcher of the Week April 15-22 in Arizona's sweep of Stanford, where she allowed only 11 hits and struck out 19 ... Had a season high 18 strike outs in her second collegiate game vs. Northwestern ... Tossed four no-hitters, including a perfect game, and threw six one-hitters ... Against Oregon State on April 24, tossed a five-inning perfect game, the eighth in UA history and first Taryne Mowatt's on March 18, 2006 ... Held opponents to a .174 batting average during the conference slate, only bested by USA Softball Player of the Year Danielle Lawrie of Washington ... Also finished second to Lawrie in innings pitched (95.2), strike outs (106) and wins (12) ... Recorded one save in an 11-3 victory for Arizona against Louisville on March 18 in which Fowler tossed three innings in relief ... Her 38 wins rank fourth on Arizona's all-time list and were third best in the country this year ... Struck out 371 batters, seventh best in a season in Arizona history ... With just one season in the books, already finds herself on the all-time list for strikeouts in a career in seventh place ... Pitched 284.1 innings, sixth most in Arizona history ... Got it done in the batters box as well in 11 games recording an at bat ... Finished the season with a .364 batting average, homering twice and driving in six runs in 22 at bats ... Blasted a grand slam April 3 vs. ASU ... Tucson Regional: Struck out 26 batters over three games in which she went 2-0 ... Picked up the win in the first two games without allowing a run and scattering six hits over 11 total innings pitched ... Pitched a season-high 204 pitches in the third game over 11.1 innings before being lifted in favor of Sarah Akamine who recorded the win ... Gave up five earned runs 22.1 total innings pitched over the weekend, all while fighting off swelling in her pitching hand ... Tucson Super Regional: Picked up the win in the first outing vs. BYU in a 2-1 decision which she struck out 10 ... Was hit on her throwing arm by a line drive that chased her from the game before recording an out in the second game ... WCWS: Named to All-WCWS Team for a gutsy performance that included 36.2 innings pitched over six days ... Had two 10+ strikeout outings (13 vs. Hawaii on June 5 and 12 vs. UCLA and June 7) ... Pitched all but nine innings in the series for Arizona.

ALEX LAVINE - #7

Candrea Says: “Alex has been a kid that has always overachieved since I have known her. Right now, she will be looking at playing some center field for us. She is probably one of our quickest kids in the outfield. She is not scared of anything, I think her strength will be her ability to play defense. Offensively she has become a short gamer, she is slapping and has done a decent job. The key is going to be for her to be able to move with good pitching. But I am excited for her. I think she will probably be a nine-hole hitter that hopefully will make some things happen. She works hard and I wouldn't be surprised if she has a great year for us. She does everything 110%. She has gotten quicker, and has a strong arm. She covers a lot of ground out there.”

2012: Played in 41 games, 36 of which came as a defensive replacement in the outfield ... Started four games in right field ... Posted a .125 batting average in 24 at-bats on the season ... Drove in five runs for the campaign ... Notched the biggest hit of her career against San Diego State (3/28) when she blasted a two-out, two-strike, three-run, game-tying home run in the bottom of the seventh, completing a five-run comeback in the seventh inning; Arizona would win the game in extras ... Posted an on-base percentage of .160 while slugging .250 for the campaign ... Tucson Super Regional: Entered all three games as a defensive substitution ... Went 0-for-1 in her only at-bat of the weekend against Notre Dame (5/20) ... Recorded one putout in the outfield ... Norman Super Regional: Entered game two as a defensive sub and went 0-for-1 at the plate ... Nabbed two putouts defensively.

2011: Emerged as Arizona's number one option at shortstop, starting 44 games at short ... A Pac-10 All-Freshman honorable mention performer ... Had a very consistent season offensively, with her batting average staying steady near .250 for most of the season before settling at .248 where she ended the season ... Had six multi-hit games ... Drove in 19 runs, seventh best on the team ... Her five multi-RBI games tied for fifth on the squad ... Had a reached-base streak of five during the season, and ended the campaign on a two-game stripe ... Seven of her 25 hits went for extra bases with each extra-base hit occurring in the final two-thirds of the season ... Clocked three homers, three doubles and a triple ... Drew 19 walks, helping her to an on-base percentage of .374 ... Went 2-for-3 in her first collegiate start with a walk and a stolen base vs. Nebraska (2/11) ... Went 2-for-3 with two RBI and a double vs. Idaho State (3/5) ... Registered a triple and a home run with two RBI and two runs scored vs. San Jose State (3/19) ... In a five-game stretch (3/19-4/2), went 6-for-14 with seven RBI, a double, a triple and a home run and five runs scored ... Tucson Regional: Earned two starts at shortstop (New Mexico State, 5/21; Texas Tech, 5/22) ... Drove in a run in each affair ... Went 2-for-3 vs. New Mexico State with a sacrifice fly ... Drew an RBI walk vs. Texas Tech ... Tucson Super Regional: Started both games at shortstop ... Went 1-for-5 at the plate.

CHELSEA GOODACRE - #77

Candrea Says: "Chelsea has improved tremendously defensively and that is something that we were looking for her to do. Offensively she is a very solid hitter with power. We are looking for her to be in the middle of our line up and driving in some runs this year. A kid that played a lot last year as a freshman, she should have a better year this year as a sophomore."

2012: A Pac-12 all-Freshman honorable mention selection ... Started 54 games, 22 at catcher, 32 as the designated player ... Clouted eight home runs in her freshman campaign ... Batted .252 while slugging .449 ... Batted in 24 runs on the year ... Notched two, two-homer games on the season; Oklahoma State (2/24) and Notre Dame (5/20) ... Scored 17 runs on the season including a five-game run-scored streak from 4/18-4/29 ... Had a season-best three hits in Arizona's 8-3 victory over top-ranked California (4/14) ... Slugged .647 at the Cathedral City Classic. The freshman hit home runs in consecutive at-bats against Oklahoma State, a game in which she notched a career-high three RBI ... Tucson Regional: Hit two home runs against Notre Dame in the regional finale ... Went 3-for-10 (.300) with three RBI and four runs scored while starting all three games at designated hitter ... Norman Super Regional: Did not record a hit in six at-bats against the Sooners ... Notched six putouts as the team's catcher in game one.

High School: A member of the 2010-11 USA Jr. National Team ... Earned four letters at Temecula Valley High School in Temecula, Calif., under Coach Bud Kane ... An all-state selection as a senior, first-team all-California ... First-team all-conference choice her sophomore and senior seasons, second-team her freshman and junior years ... Riverside County All Star Team member as a senior ... Cited as all-area honorable mention as a sophomore ... Team captain and MVP as a senior ... Led the team in RBI her freshman, sophomore and senior seasons ... Was named defensive MVP as a freshman and offensive MVP as a sophomore to go along with her team MVP award as a senior ... A scholar athlete all four years ... Her senior year, batted .413 with 9 home runs, 33 RBI, .494 OBP and .867 slugging percentage ... CIF Division II state runner-up as a junior ... Team carried the highest GPA in Riverside County ... Chose Arizona over Fresno State and Stanford because, "of the tradition of the school, its tremendous academics and playing for Coach Candrea has always been a dream of mine. Arizona softball has a long history of making champions and winning championships and I have always wanted to be a part of that tradition."

Personal: Born Chelsea Kathleen Goodacre on September, 1993 to Mark and Renee Goodacre ... Has one brother, Justin Del Mar (26) ... Father is the owner of American Freightways where mother is an accountant ... In her free time, enjoys hanging out with family and friends and practicing ... Major is undecided.

CHELSEA SUITOS - #3

Candrea Says: "Chelsea is a young lady that works hard and will hit from the left side. I think her strength right now is offense; she makes things happen and gets on base. Defensively I think she is continuing to improve. Between her and Mandie Perez, those two will be handle second base for us."

2012: Awarded Pac-12 all-Freshman honorable mention ... Started 55 games at four different positions: right field – 37, left field – 11, designated player – 5, second base – 2 ... Hit .310 in 155 at-bats ... Drove in 11 runs during the campaign ... Third on the team with 13 stolen bases in 14 attempts ... Spent 45 games in the two-hole in the lineup, one in the eight-hole and nine in the nine-spot ... Put together a nine-game hitting streak (2/26-3/23), second longest on the team ... Had 13 multi-hit games, third on the team ... Knocked four doubles on the year, three of which brought home runs ... Committed just one error in 36 chances despite playing out of her natural position (infield) for the majority of the season ... Second on the team with a .375 batting average at the Cathedral City Classic where she doubled her RBI total (2-to-4). The redshirt freshman hit her first career double in the weekend ... Drove in a couple of runs while batting .500 (3-for-6) at the Judi Garman Classic. Suits was also hit by a pitch and stole a base in the tournament ... Had a couple of hits and a run scored against Washington. Stole a base in game three of the series ... Tucson Regional: Went 1-for-5 (.200) in three games ... Notched an RBI against Notre Dame (5/20) ... Drew two walks on the weekend ... Stole a base against North Dakota State (5/18) ... Norman Super Regional: Batted 1-for-5 (.200) in the series ... Recorded a putout in each contest.

2011: Appeared in three games before redshirting the season with a torn labrum ... Started one game as the designated hitter and appeared in two more as offensive substitutions ... Scored a run vs. Indiana (2/10) as a pinch runner ... Was hit by a pitch vs. Texas A&M to drive in a run.

High School: Earned four letters under Coach Jeff Alexander at Elk Grove High School ... An all-state, -region, -district and -city performer her senior season ... Named team MVP her junior and senior season ... Earned the Golden Glove Award and United States Marine Corps Distinguished Athlete Award ... Named a scholar-athlete for taking a 3.0 GPA or higher throughout high school ... Had a .490 batting average with 32 stolen bases her senior year ... Won 2009 National Championship with club team Sorcerer Softball ... Chose Arizona over Florida, Northwestern, Wisconsin, Fresno State, Sacramento State and Stanford because of "the tradition of winning, best coaching in the country and to obtain a good education and wanting to play Pac-10 softball."

Personal: Born Chelsea Kaitlyn Suits in May, 1992 to Jeff and Dyan Suits ... Has two brothers, Justin (16) and Trevor (14) and a sister Megan (21) ... In her free time, enjoys spending time with family and friends ... Double majoring in family studies and human development with a minor in marketing.

HALLIE WILSON - #17

Candrea Says: "Hallie played centerfield for us last year, but she is an outstanding first baseman. I really like her there she's a natural lefty which is a good thing. She has very quick hands, very sure of herself, and defensively talks a lot. So she would give us a real stable force at first base. She'll most likely see time both in center and at first base."

2012: Named Pac-12 all-Freshman as well as second-team all-conference ... Led the team in batting average at .346 to become the first freshman to lead Arizona in batting average since Brittany Lastrapes did so in 2009 at .364 ... Started 56 games, the first 51 games in the leadoff spot and the final five games of the season in the two-hole ... Started 53 games in center, two games in right and one game at first base ... Led the team with 65 hits on the season ... Scored 39 runs on the campaign, second most on the squad ... Doubled 12 times, two off the team lead ... Collected the fourth most bases on the team with 83 ... Drew 23 walks, fourth most on the squad ... Reached base in 20 straight games from 3/25-4/29, the longest streak on the team ... Blasted two home runs on the season ... Drove in 28 runs ... Was perfect in 52 defensive chances including four outfield assists, best on the squad ... Tied a team-best with 18 multi-hit games including a 4-for-4 performance against New Mexico State (3/21) ... Went 2-for-4 with four RBI against Southern Utah (2/18), one of her seven multi-RBI contests ... Hit in eight consecutive contests (3/2-3/23), third longest hitting streak on the team ... Hit eight doubles in the first nine games of the season and just four in the final 46 games ... Collected a hit in each of her first six games as a Wildcat ... Hit her second home run of the season, part of her four hits against Washington. The freshman drove in a pair of runs while batting .444 against the No. 4 team in the country ... Went 5-for-11 (.455) with four RBI against Oregon ... Tucson Regional: Had a pair of hits in each of the final two games of the regional ... Drove in two runs against Notre Dame (5/20) ... Batted 4-for-12 (.333) with a pair of RBI and a run scored in the round ... Norman Super Regional: Recorded one hit in the round ... Played first base for the first time all season in game two to fill in for an injured Jessica Spigner ... Had five putouts in game two at first base and one in game one as the centerfielder.

High School: A member of the 2010-11 USA Softball Junior Women's National Team ... Cited as first team All-American in 2009 by NFCA and EA Sports ... A gold medalist at the 2010 Pan American Championship ... Earned four letters under Vince Brown at Foothill High School in North Tustin, Calif., the same high school as former Wildcat great Caitlin Lowe ... 2011 Second Team all-league selectee ... Voted first team all-league and -county in 2010 ... Cited as 2009 Player of the Year by the Orange County Registrar ... MVP of the Seaview League in 2009, in which she was voted MVP ... Named Foothill Lady Knight of the Year in 2009 ... In addition to her All-America status in 2009, was voted first team all-state, -CIF, -Los Angeles and Orange County ... Holds career records at her high school for on-base percentage (.519), home runs (17), slugging percentage (.691), walks (47), hit-by-pitch (16) and runs scored (121) ... Had a career batting average of .440, just 27 points behind Caitlin Lowe for the Foothill career batting average ... In addition to Lowe, Foothill High School produced former Arizona stars Lauren Bauer, Autumn Champion, Michelle Churnock and Courtney Fossatti ... Chose Arizona over UCLA and Oklahoma because "I want to be a part of the legacy that Arizona softball has."

Personal: Born Hallie Alexandra Wilson in August, 1993 to Jim and Susan Wilson ... Has one sister, Emilie (21) ... In her free time, enjoys reading and going to the beach ... Intended major is undecided.

Hometown: San Diego, Calif.

KELLIE FOX - #29

Candrea Says: “Kellie is a very gifted young lady. Great hands and good shortstop and great teammate. She is a great addition to this program.”

2013: Transferred to Arizona ... Must redshirt season per NCAA transfer rules.

Prior to Arizona: Spent two years (2011-12) at Pac-12 rival UCLA ... A first-team All-Pac-10 selection as a freshman in 2011 ... Batted .342 with 11 homers, 45 RBI and nine doubles in 2011 to go along with a .608 slugging percentage ... Posted a career .295 batting average at UCLA in two seasons while amassing 15 home runs, 18 doubles, a triple and 67 RBI ... Swiped 16 bases in 19 attempts ... Attended Mt. Carmel High School in San Diego and earned four varsity letters ... An all-league, all-county and all-section performer each season ... Named the CalHiSports CIF Division II Player of the Year her senior season after batting .454 with seven home runs, 38 RBI and 13 doubles.

Personal: Sister of former Wildcat shortstop Kristie Fox ... Born Kellie Lynn Fox in October, 1991 in San Diego, Calif., to Jennifer and Michael Fox ... Favorites include the television show “One Tree Hill”, singer Taylor Swift, eating sushi and the San Diego Chargers ... Lists her biggest athletic thrill as winning CIF titles all four years and being honored as an Under Armour All-American.

NEWCOMER BIOS

5-10, Junior, TR
Pitcher
Bats – R, Throws – R
Hometown: Tucson, Ariz.

ESTELA PIÑON - #32

Candrea Says: “Estela’s got a little bit of power. I think right now we are just trying to get her comfortable with being in a new environment and a little different speed of the game. She’s a hard worker both on and off the field. I think the key to her is her ability to improve; she can no longer just throw the ball by people she has to put a wrinkle in it. She is a little shy defensively in the middle. She gives us another element that we can call upon to pitch and can give people different looks.”

Prior to Arizona: Spent two years (2011-12) at Yavapai College after a successful four-year career at Sunnyside High School in Tucson ... Spent 2011 with current Arizona assistant coach and former Yavapai College head coach Stacy Iveson where the two won the 2011 NJCAA National Championship ... All-American at Yavapai ... Awarded team MVP at Yavapai in 2011 ... Named conference’s most valuable pitcher in 2011 and named conference player of the year and MVP in 2012 ... In two years with Yavapai, posted a 51-6 record with 481 strikeouts and a 1.64 ERA in 346.1 innings pitched.

Personal: Born Estela Annaie Piñon in December, 1991 to Ivan and Estela Piñon ... Has two brothers: Ivan, 15, and Erik, 2 ... In her free time, enjoys sleeping and hanging out with family ... Plans to major in criminal justice ... Decided to attend Arizona because, it’s “always been my dream since I was little.”

5-6, Junior, TR

Catcher

Bats – R, Throws – R

Hometown: Scottsdale, Ariz.

KELSEY RODRIGUEZ - #31

Candrea Says: "Kelsey is a very solid player. She is an outstanding hitter that hits the ball over the ballpark. She doesn't look flashy and doesn't look like she has a lot of power, but she plays the game well and she is one of those kids that can play multiple positions. She can catch for us, play first base, and she is probably going to see some time in the outfield for us. She is a very valuable asset to our program and she brings some maturity. She brings a tremendous work ethic, and I think a deep love for the game of softball. We are excited to have her."

Prior to Arizona: Spent two years (2011-12) at Pacific University after attending Seton Catholic High School under Head Coach Jerry Mullin in Scottsdale, Ariz. ... Awarded Big West Freshman Player of the Year in 2011 ... Cited as first-team all-conference in both season with the Tigers ... 2011 second-team NFCA All-Pacific Region ... Named Big West Player of the Week May 9, 2011 ... In two years with Pacific, batted .350 with 58 runs scored, 14 doubles, seven home runs, 58 RBI and swiped eight bags in nine attempts ... Led Pacific with a .381 batting average as a freshman, good for seventh highest batting average in Pacific history, and third best for a freshman ... Her time at Pacific followed a very successful career at Seton Catholic High School in which she was a part of two consecutive state championships including an undefeated senior season.

Personal: Born Kelsey Anne Rodriguez in September of 1991 to Adam and Lisa Rodriguez in Placentia, Calif. ... Has one brother, Ryan (16), and one sister, teammate Courtney (18) ... In her free time, enjoys baking and cooking ... Plans to major in psychology ... Chose Arizona over New Mexico State, New Mexico, San Diego State because Arizona is a, "competitive, hard-working program with the top coaches to learn from."

5-8, Freshman, HS

Pitcher

Bats – R, Throws – R

Hometown: Simi Valley, Calif.

NANCY BOWLING - #6

Candrea Says: "Nancy is another great athlete. She plays a little third base for us. She is probably our best fielding pitcher, and right now I think she is going to compete hard. She will see a lot of innings for us this year. She is just a good athlete that finds a way to beat you. Defensively obviously she is phenomenal; she gives you that X-factor in the middle of the field with teams that have a lot of short game. I am anxious to see how she does hitting; she is going to get some opportunities to be in that lineup. I think her key will be to make adjustments and hit good pitching. She's a good athlete that has some pop and can swing the bat with some authority. She has done a really good job and she is a hard worker, good teammate, loves the game and is very conscientious."

Prior to Arizona: A four-year letterwinner at Royal High School in Simi Valley, Calif. under Head Coach Bill Dishon ... Awarded first-team all-state during her senior season ... Nominated of the Gatorade Player of the Year ... Named Royal H.S. Female Athlete of the Year as well as Ventura Star Athlete of the Year ... Leaves Royal with the school's strikeout record ... Earned league co-champs during her senior season when she led the squad to a 25-3 record.

Personal: Born Nancy Anne Bowling in January of 1994 in Simi Valley, Calif. to William and Debi Bowling ... Has one brother, Justin Eldridge (28) and one sister, Margaret Bowling (20) ... Is undecided in field of study ... Chose Arizona over Oregon, Florida, UCLA and Washington because, "I fell in love with Arizona."

5-2, Freshman, HS
Second Base
Bats – L, Throws – R
Hometown: Whittier, Calif.

MANDIE PEREZ - #55

Candrea Says: “Mandie is a freshman who likes to play the game. She is very aggressive and hustles. She’s a good base runner. The thing right now with her is she just needs to grow defensively. Along with Chelsea Suitos, it’s important to see how we develop at second base.”

Prior to Arizona: A four-year letterwinner at Whittier Christian High School in Whittier, Calif., under Head Coach Dale Van Duyne ... Awarded league MVP all four years ... Cited as the OC Register Player of the Year for small schools her senior year ... Named team captain and team MVP during senior and junior campaigns ... Selected all-conference, -city and -district all four years while being included on the all-state team her sophomore, junior and senior seasons ... Posted an unconscious .783 batting average while slugging 1.261 with an on-base percentage of .821 and tallied 30 RBI and 25 stolen bases while striking out just once all season.

Personal: Born Amanda Jessie Perez in June of 1994 in Whittier, Calif., to Michael and Lucee Perez ... Has one brother Brody Kai (4) ... Father Michael was a wrestler at Penn State and a member of the Olympic and National Teams ... In her free time, enjoys taking groundballs and hanging out with family ... Plans to major in psychology to become a sports psychologist ... Chose Arizona over UCLA, California and Tennessee because, “As soon as I stepped on campus, I knew this was the place for me. I felt it in my heart that it is an honor to be a part of such a strong tradition and to put on the Wildcat uniform and to play for Coach Candrea.”

NEWCOMER BIOS

Bats – L, Throws – R
Hometown: Scottsdale, Ariz.

COURTNEY RODRIGUEZ - #18

Candrea Says: “Courtney is a good athlete. She hits from the left side and is mostly a short gamer. Defensively she is capable of playing multiple positions; she played shortstop and second base in high school, but right now we have got her in the outfield. She has an above average arm, and just right now she needs to learn the game at this level and this speed. She needs to be able to talk a little bit, she’s a little quiet but she works extremely hard. I think she is going to turn out to be a good player for us.”

Prior to Arizona: A four-year letterwinner at Seton Catholic High School in Scottsdale, Ariz. under Head Coach Jerry Mullin ... An all-region performer her senior season and an all-conference athlete all four years ... Named team’s offensive and defensive player of the year her senior season ... Helped lead the team to consecutive state championships her freshman and sophomore seasons ... A two-year letterwinner in soccer at Seton Catholic High School and was named the Region Player of the Year ... Finished fifth at Premier Nationals for club team Arizona Storm under Head Coach Kara Brun.

Personal: Born Courtney Louise Rodriguez in November of 1993 in Fullerton, Calif. to Raul and Lisa Rodriguez ... Has one brother, Ryan (16), and one sister, teammate Kelsey (20) ... Is undecided on field of study, but desires to be a photographer ... In her free time, enjoys crafts ... Chose Arizona over Georgia, Missouri and ASU because Arizona, “has a good softball team and is close to home.”

5-5, Freshman, HS
Outfield
Hometown: Glendale, Ariz.

GABBY SANDSTEDT - #28

Candrea Says: "Gabby is another young kid that can hit with some power, but right now the key is consistency both offensively and defensively. We are working a lot on her throwing and fielding. She is a great kid with a great attitude who works hard."

Prior to Arizona: A four-year letterwinner at Independence High School under Head Coach Beth Ewk in Glendale, Ariz. ... Named to first-team all-region in sophomore, junior and senior seasons after being named to the second team as a freshman ... Team captain during senior season ... Stood out academically as well, finished in the top 1% of her high school class and was given the science award her senior year ... LAUREN YOUNG - #9

Candrea Says: "Lauren is a very talented freshman. She can play about any position besides pitch, and play them all well. She is a very talented young lady, swings the bat well, outstanding arm and has good instincts for the game. She is just a really good athlete and she is going to see a lot of time this year at third base. She is penciled in as our starting third baseman. I think she is a kid that can be a very good player here. She just needs some time to develop, I think that is the challenge of this entire team this year is that we have so many young kids that are all going to have to gain that experience. Lauren Young is a very talented player and I think she will do a good job."

Prior to Arizona: A four-year letterwinner at Canyon High School under Head Coach Dan Hay ... Named Team MVP in her junior and senior seasons ... Cited as first-team all-conference during her junior and senior seasons and named to the second-team as a freshman ... 1991 NCAA CHAMPIONS

Arizona wins its first women's team national championship in any sport. Pitching (Debby Day 30-8, 0.50; Susie Parra 14-3, 0.43; Julie Jones 12-5, 1.21) and defense (.970 team fielding percentage, Julie Standerling 187 assists at shortstop) were keys to the season. The Cats also stole 119 bases. Jones (.350), Jamie Heggen (.330), Kristin Gauthier (.300), Standerling (.296) and Jody Miller (.272) had outstanding seasons at the plate. The Cats beat No. 1-ranked UCLA twice at the College World Series to earn the championship, including a 5-1 victory in the title game. UA had four extra-inning games in the classic. The Cats used short-game tactics much of the year and were led by Standerling with 30 and Miller with 20 stolen bases. Arizona finished the year 56-16 overall. The Cats were frustrated in the tough Pac-10 Conference at 11-9 and a fourth-place finish.

1993 NCAA CHAMPIONS

The Wildcats nearly defend their first conference championship (16-2 in 1992), yet again come through with a solid post-season run to win the bigger title.

The power-hitting Wildcats win the NCAA home run title with 36 round-trippers in their 52 games, and run production leads the way to a 44-8 season and a 15-3 record for second place in the Pac-10. Pitching was not a problem either, as junior Susie Parra sparkled with a 28-3 record, 3 saves and an outstanding earned run average of 0.63. Freshman Leah O'Brien added a 16-5 mark. Catcher Jody (Miller) Pruitt held opponents to 6 stolen bases, the Cats hit a then school-record .328 as a team. Sophomore Laura Espinoza hit the scene in a big way with 12 home runs and Amy Chellevoid led a solid group of hitters with a .379 batting average.

The Cats opened the year 22-2 to earn the school's first No. 1 ranking and Arizona later proved it was an accurate peg with an NCAA title-game victory over another No. 1-ranked team, UCLA.

Chellevoid and O'Brien (.374) put their names atop the UA single-season batting chart at the time.

1994 NCAA CHAMPIONS

The Cats 'chuck-and-duck' hitting attack displays one of the most awesome punches in the history of the college game. The Cats sock their way to an NCAA-record 64 victories (against 3 losses), start the year with a school-record 27-game winning streak and end the campaign undefeated (7-0) in post-season play for the first time.

Along the way, Arizona blasts 93 home runs, led by junior shortstop Laura Espinoza's jersey-number feat (30), 18 by freshman catcher Leah Braatz, 16 by sophomore second baseman Jenny Dalton and 14 by senior Susie Parra, who capped a remarkable career with National Player of the Years honors by winning the Honda Softball Award.

Parra dominated from the pitching circle, completing a 33-1 season. She did not allow an earned run in three CWS victories, plus struck out 13 in the NCAA title game. She threw the seventh and eighth no-hitters of her career.

Junior first baseman Amy Chellevoid hit .504 in the leadoff spot and sophomore center fielder Leah O'Brien hit .416 batting second. Dalton hit .434. Arizona set a then-national record with its .380 team batting average. Espinoza knocked in an incredible 95 runs in 66 games. Freshmen pitchers Nancy Evans and Carrie Dolan made marks with 17-0 and 11-2 records.

The Cats had five players in the Pac-10's top 10 in hitting and UA was ranked No. 1 from start to finish.

1996 NCAA CHAMPIONS

For the second time, Arizona followed a season (1992 and 1995) in which it won the Pac-10 title but finished as runner-up in the College World Series... with a second-place finish in the league, but the NCAA title. Decent trade.

Arizona got hot when it counted, ending the season with a 17-game winning streak. There were numerous keys — everyone on the team.

Jenny Dalton won the Pac-10 Triple Crown, the first player to do so, with a .469 batting average, 25 home runs and an incredible 109 RBI. Leticia Pineda, put in the every-day catching role because of Leah Braatz' redshirt season, hit 14 homers and drove in 96, plus batted .404.

Dalton's season earned her the Honda Softball Award as the nation's finest player.

Carrie Dolan, carrying most of the pitching load because of Nancy Evans' medical hardship season, won a school-record

35 games against six losses, but freshman Lisa Pitt also came through with a dandy 19-3 record, too. Outfielder Alison Johnsen propelled herself to a new level with a 94-hit season and a .450 batting average. Third baseman Krista Gomez hit .400 and finished with the fourth-best career batting average in UA history, .358, plus hit the career charts in hits, RBI, runs and stolen bases, among others.

Arizona played in a regional out of the state for the first time, but used it to pull together, and hit the road for 11 days to bring back the trophy.

1997 NCAA CHAMPIONS

Arizona was ranked No. 1 much of the season and just decided to stay on top, completing a remarkable 61-5 season with its fifth NCAA Championship and second back-to-back effort.

UA was represented by five first-team All-Americans as selected by the nation's coaches — pitcher Nancy Evans, catcher Leah Braatz, first baseman Leah O'Brien, third baseman Leticia Pineda and outfielder Alison Johnsen.

But individual honors were the gravy as the Cats stayed locked on target throughout a focused season playing for a single goal. Integrating a number of young players with championship veterans, coach Mike Candrea kept his team playing hard the whole year. Hard enough for a 26-1 finish and Pac-10 Championship; hard enough for a 27-4 mark against ranked teams. (The Pac-10 record was to stand as the best ever as league coaches later voted for a 21-game conference slate.)

Johnsen set a lot of tone in the regular season, finishing with a UA-record .534 batting average and an NCAA-record 132 hits. O'Brien capped a remarkable career by using her talent at its best when all the chips were on the table: she collected 9 hits and 6 RBI in the College World Series and finished her CWS career with an incredible total of 31 hits and 19 RBI in four different classics.

Evans, with a then-Arizona record 36 pitching victories, also saved some best for the last part of the year. She threw all five Arizona games at the World Series and finished the year with verve as UA topped UCLA 10-2 in a runaway title game.

Coach Mike Candrea was named NFCA Division I National Coach of the Year, Pacific Region Coach of the Year and Pac-10 Coach of the Year.

2001 NCAA CHAMPIONS

For the sixth time in 11 years, Arizona walked away with the NCAA Softball Championship. The Cats defeated the Bruins 1-0 in the title game. An amazing pitching performance by junior Jennie Finch and a fourth-inning home run by senior catcher Lindsey Collins paved the way for the Wildcats. Finch improved her season record to 32-0 and extended her pitching winning streak to 40 consecutive games.

The title came as no surprise. Arizona was ranked No. 1 or No. 2 for much of the year. The Wildcats came into the season with a 31-game winning streak and ended the year with a 26-game winning streak. For most of the season the Cats led the Pac-10 in batting average, slugging percentage, on-base percentage and runs scored. Arizona's fielding percentage (.981) led the nation and was the third best in NCAA history. The Cats also had 126 home runs to break the previous NCAA record of 100 set by the 1995 UA team. The record of 1.83 home runs per game also was an NCAA record.

Arizona's talented team earned a number of individual awards. Pitcher Jennie Finch received the Honda Award as National Player of the Year along with first-team All-America honors and Pac-10 Pitcher of the Year accolades. Senior third baseman Toni Mascarenas, freshman designated player Leneah Manuma and senior outfielders Lauren Bauer and Nicole Giordano also earned All-America nods.

Coach Mike Candrea earned Pac-10 Coach of the Year honors for the seventh time in his career.

Arizona snapped its longest championship drought since 1991 with a team effort and incredible pitching performance by four-time All-American pitcher Alicia Hollowell.

The Wildcats opened the year on a tear, winning 24 of their first 25 games. UA dominated opponents over that span, winning games by an average of six runs a game. However, on March 16 Arizona entered a slide in which it went 10-8 over its next 18 contests. Prior to UA's April 30 doubleheader at Washington, the Wildcats found themselves in the bottom half of the Pac-10 standings.

In the first game of the doubleheader, Hollowell ruined the Huskies' Senior Day by tossing a no-hitter, leading to a 2-0 UA victory. The win catalyzed a 14-game winning streak that elevated Arizona to a second-place finish in the Pac-10 and within one game of reaching the WCWS.

After defeating LSU in the Tucson Super Regional to reach the WCWS, UA downed Pac-10 foe Oregon State in extra-innings to open WCWS play. That set up a matchup with Texas, setting up a duel of four-time All-Americans, Hollowell and Cat Osterman in the circle. The pair did not disappoint, as they allowed a total of five hits between them. Arizona broke a scoreless tie in the bottom of the sixth inning, when Callista Balko singled home Caitlin Lowe for what proved to be the game-winning run in a 2-0 Wildcat victory.

UA defeated Tennessee to reach the Championship Series, pitting the Wildcats against Northwestern. UA exploded with an 8-0 win in Game 1, led by a one-hit performance by Hollowell. The story of the game, and the series for that matter, was the Wildcats' speed on the base paths. UA's slappers Lowe, Autumn Champion and Adrienne Acton combined for three infield hits, four runs and forced three NU infield errors.

In Game 2, Arizona could smell the national championship, putting 12 hits on the board that led to an eventual 5-0 victory.

Finally, after all the ups and downs the team endured, the Wildcats tasted the sweetest of victories and in doing so, they brought the national championship trophy home to Tucson.

2007 NCAA CHAMPIONS

Taryne Mowatt filled the shoes of departed Alicia Hollowell – and then some – with an epic championship run to give UA its eighth national championship and third set of back-to-back titles.

With All-American seniors Caitlin Lowe and Kristie Fox patrolling the top of the order, the other UA hitters took turns stepping up in clutch situations throughout the year. However, the story of the season was Mowatt's record-breaking endurance in the circle. The junior hurler pitched a school-record 370 innings over the season – 60 of which came over the course of eight WCWS games in seven days. At the WCWS, Mowatt set series records for innings pitched, victories (6), complete games (8) and strikeouts (76).

Lowe concluded her storied career with her fourth first-team NFCA All-America selection by cementing her name in the Arizona and NCAA record books. The NCAA ledger shows her at 11th place or better in five career statistical categories including: batting average (.446), hits (351), runs scored (242), stolen bases (156) and stolen base percentage (.945).

However, UA's 10th Pac-10 Championship season was not one of individual efforts or of simply dominating the opposition. Timely hitting by unexpected heroes throughout the year propelled UA to its third set of back-to-back national championships in program history.

Over the years, Arizona players have earned a staggering 90 NFCA All-America citations. Here's a look at positions played by Arizona's NFCA All-America selections. Though their positions cover only one position or at-large honor, many of UA's All-Americans were versatile players who at one time or another played all over the field. Leticia Pineda holds the versatility record –earning first-team All-America honors at three different positions in successive years – catcher, first base and third base (at-large) from 1996 to 1998. Nancy Evans earned the Honda Award as a pitcher in 1998, but played significant time at shortstop and five other positions during her career. She could have been a catcher, too, but her career coincided with four-time All-American Leah Braatz, who earned her stripes behind the plate.

In 2011, Brittany Lastrapes became just the sixth player in school history to be named an All-American four times. Her first-team selection was the third straight time she earned such a distinction; she was named to the third team her freshman year. Classmates Kenzie Fowler and Brigitte Del Ponte were selected to the second team. The award gave Fowler her second citation in as many years. A first time All-American, Del Ponte became the 50th All-American in Arizona history.

NCAA Division I softball has become one of the nation's top female showcase sports programs, with substantial television coverage and dramatically increased attendance and media notoriety.

While softball is a team game, it revolves around one-on-one situations – batter vs. pitcher, fielder vs. hitter, runner vs. catcher, etc., and gives individuals a chance to shine.

In nearly all cases the nation's decorated players come from programs with traditions rooted in success. With Arizona's eight national championships, 22 College World Series appearances and 10 Pac-10 championships, the Wildcats certainly qualify. Arizona's national and league championship teams each had role players, or clutch performers who saved their best for last – and they are not listed below. Their contributions remain no less valued than those listed below.

Pitcher: Debby Day (2; 1991-3rd, 1992-1st), Julie Jones (2; 1990-2nd, 1991-2nd), Susie Parra (3; 1992-2nd, 1993-1st, 1994-1st), Carrie Dolan (2; 1995-1st, 1996-2nd), Nancy Evans (2; 1997-1st, 1998-1st), Becky Lemke (1; 1999-3rd), Jennie Finch (3; 2000-1st, 2001-1st, 2002-1st), Alicia Hollowell (4; 2003-1st, 2004-1st, 2005-1st, 2006-2nd), Taryne Mowatt (1; 2007-2nd), Kenzie Fowler (2; 2010-1st, 2011-2nd)

Already one of the premier venues in college softball, Rita Hillenbrand Memorial Stadium seems to get better every year. In the last four years alone, Hillenbrand has drawn 235,128 fans over 96 games, shaking out to 2,449 fans per game. In 2011, 77,129 fans turned turnstiles at the stadium, setting an NCAA record.

In the last few years the Wildcats have made a number of changes to this Mecca of softball. In 2010, Arizona added a new padded outfield wall – the first of its kind in the stadium’s 20-year history. The wall is festooned with the accomplishments of teams and players past, and will provide some literal and figurative comfort to outfielders in pursuit of a fly ball.

Fall 2008 saw the stadium install an outfield warning track for the first time ever, along with a new weather-resistant infield surface that keeps the playing field game-ready more than three-quarters of the year.

In 2006, UA debuted a state-of-the-art videoboard and new scoreboard beyond the right field fence. In between innings, the Wildcat faithful enjoy highlights from years past and present, as well as music videos. During the game, Arizona’s batters have personalized video introductions, and movie clips provide entertainment during breaks in the action.

Also in 2006, covered batting cages were erected to allow UA to work on hitting in any weather conditions. Adjacent to the batting cages, permanent bleachers were installed to expand Hillenbrand Stadium’s capacity to 2,956 and offer a majestic view of Tucson’s desert sunsets.

In addition to UA’s recently-erected team room, an umpire’s room and training room were constructed for the 2007 campaign. Ultimately, head coach Mike Candrea says that the main theme for the clubhouse is to celebrate Arizona’s tradition.

“Our goal in constructing the team room is to capture the history of Arizona softball,” Candrea says. “It will allow us to remember the past and remind our student-athletes of the heritage they share.”

Whether they come out to the tune of 3,541 for an exhibition pitting Team USA against Arizona, or for a Wildcats’ regular-season game, the Arizona fans have proved themselves as some of the best in the country.

In 2012, the stadium’s all-time attendance reached 700,000 fans. Since 2000, UA has drawn at least 32,000 fans each year, a figure that has risen into the 40,000s four times, the 50,000 plateau twice and in 2011, nearly 80,000 fans entered the stadium’s gates.

One reason for the stadium’s appeal obviously is the Cats’ typical home success - victories. UA has played to a 563-62 record at home. That’s 90 victories in every 100 games. In 2002, UCLA snapped a remarkable 70-game home field winning streak the Cats had built, which remains the national record.

That fan support underscores the attraction of UA softball and its home field, named in honor of the late Rita Hillenbrand, sister of the late Wildcat benefactor William G. Hillenbrand and his wife, Doby (Delores D.). The couple financed the stadium and initial landscaping project, and the Hillenbrand family has continued to contribute funds to support Arizona softball and Wildcat athletics.

The family has provided tremendous support for a number of UA athletic programs through gifts to develop and support the UA’s aquatic center, the baseball stadium and Arizona’s football program. Another focal point in daily Wildcat athletics is the John W. Hillenbrand Meeting Center, named in memory of Bill’s late father. That facility gave the athletics department a main auditorium, a half dozen classrooms and meeting rooms, and various office spaces used for the athletics department’s mentoring programs and its Commitment to Athletes’ Total Success (C.A.T.S.) program.

The NCAA has found the facility to be a quality site for postseason play as well, with The University of Arizona playing host to NCAA Regionals in 17 of the stadium’s 20 years of existence. Regional (FSN) and national (ESPN, CSTV) television networks have also found the Wildcats and the stadium to be attractive to their audiences for a number of broadcasts since the facility was built for the 1993 season, including over 30 nationally televised contests in the last eight years. All games attract a solid contingent of fans, area television and print reporters.

Hillenbrand Stadium and its success in helping bring Division I collegiate softball into increased national focus made it a national model in the early 1990s for dynamic softball programs. As on-campus college softball facilities go, it had elite status for several years until it engendered considerable copying. Today, major universities around the country are putting their teams in facilities with style and substance.

But Hillenbrand maintains one special feature, which makes it second to none — the infield, outfield and foul territories provide a top playing surface. Tucson’s climate and round-the-year maintenance keep the facility in game-ready condition more than 300 days per year. Aside from the .900 home winning percentage, Arizona and visiting teams alike enjoy the facility for its playing surface. In 2004 and again in 2008, the infield was rebuilt with new clay and soil composition.

The University of Arizona softball program moved into the facility for the 1993 season and went out and proved it was equal to the trappings by winning consecutive NCAA championships and leading the nation in attendance in 1994 and 1995. UA added another back-to-back NCAA title splurge in 1996 and 1997, a sixth title in 2001, and the most recent back-to-back championships in 2006 and 2007. The outfield wall is festooned with those and other championship banners. UA also has won 10 Pac-10 titles since moving into Hillenbrand Stadium. The Cats also led the nation in attendance for three years from 2000-2002. Arizona has led the nation in attendance four of the past seven seasons.

TUCSON, ARIZONA

Situated in the heart of Southern Arizona, Tucson is a city of contrast and diversity, from the desert valley of world-famous saguaro cacti to 9,000-foot alpine forests. The city is bountiful in its geographic, cultural and business assets. The population of the greater Tucson area is just under one million.

On any of the 350 days of sunshine per year, the Santa Rita Mountains can be seen some 65 miles to the south, a ridge-line near the Arizona-Mexico border. Nearby Mt. Lemmon, the southernmost ski resort in the United States, affords winter activities on the same day as a golf game or any of myriad recreational opportunities in the area.

The city lies in the Sonoran Desert, which boasts a wide range of wildlife and vegetation. Saguaro National Monument and its world-famous display of giant saguaros, highlights the unique beauty of the area. Tucson is a four-hour drive from Mexico's Gulf of California beaches, 70 miles from Mexico and within hours' drives from several major international bird-watching areas. World-class astronomy facilities on four nearby mountain ranges also attract visitors and specialists alike.

Its first Native American inhabitants and the earliest Spanish settlers to the area have left marks on Tucson. Native American, Mexican and American Southwest influences are prevalent throughout the city. The Mission of San Xavier del Bac, located on the outskirts of town, is one of the original missions built by the Spanish missionaries. Continuously settled for more than 12,000 years – the oldest such settlement in the United States -- Tucson has grown from a small Native American village into one of the Southwestern growth cities of the 21st century. It is one of the premier astronomy and optics centers in the world, an important health services center and home to a renowned research institution in the University of Arizona. Phoenix is a two-hour drive to the north and is home to NBA, NFL, NHL and Major League Baseball franchises.

UNIVERSITY OF ARIZONA

Born on 40 acres of land donated by two roughnecks and funded by a $25,000 consolation prize in Tucson's competition for the Territorial capital, the University of Arizona rose from the desert floor of the true old West. Nobody wanted it, and fewer believed it would last. Fortunately, they were wrong, and the bet laid down by saloon-keeper E.B. Gifford, and gamblers Ben C. Parker and W.S. Read on Nov. 27, 1886, has paid off into one of the finest research institutions in the world.

When the first 32 students arrived at the only building on campus in 1891, they began a tradition that has now entered its third century.

That building, Old Main, remains as witness to the University's growth from outpost into a 450-acre Research I institution with nearly 200 buildings, more than 38,000 students, and a faculty and staff of 12,000.

Arizona's first university is the largest employer in Pima County and the fourth-largest in Arizona with a payroll of half a billion dollars. The UA offers more than 325 degree fields in a dozen different colleges and another similar group of specialized schools.

Today, the University of Arizona is one of the top 20 research universities in the nation and has played a part in groundbreaking projects ranging from the exploration of Mars to the development of new cancer treatments and pioneering breakthroughs in heart transplantation. UA's observational, theoretical and space astronomy programs have been ranked atop others in the country by the National Science Foundation (NSF) and recent other rankings placed 17 of the school's graduate programs among the top 20 in the nation. In addition, the Nobel Prize, three Pulitzer Prizes and the National Medal of Science have been bestowed upon Arizona educators.

Not to be forgotten, the University's undergraduate programs continue to flourish. The NSF considers Arizona to be one of the 10 universities that best integrates teaching and research for undergraduates. The NASA-funded space grant program pays undergraduates to work in laboratories alongside faculty, and the Undergraduate Biology Research Program includes 43 departments, involves 200 faculty sponsors and funds more than 100 undergraduate researchers each summer. The Eller College of Management and the McGuire Center for Entrepreneurship are rated in the global top 10 by Finance Times. The University was named in an Elite 50 list of institutions for academically-minded athletes last year.

UA's top-notch programs develop top-name graduates who have continued on to success in their respective fields. The UA boasts a laundry list of graduates who have significantly impacted society. From the late U.S. Congressman Morris K. Udall to Joan Ganz Cooney, founder of the Children's Television Workshop, to Emmy Award winning actor/comedian Garry Shandling, UA graduates have made their mark on the world. Other notable ex-Wildcats include film and television producer Jerry Bruckheimer, singer Linda Ronstadt, baseball manager Terry Francona, baseball owner Arte Moreno, the late astronaut Richard Scobee, television fitness personality Denise Austin, noted horse trainers Bob Baffert and Todd Pletcher, brewery CE) August Busch III, former Boston Globe publisher Richard Gilman, and noted national sports broadcasters Steve Kerr, Dan Hicks, Tom Tolbert, Tedy Bruschi and Sean Elliott.

The UA plays host to the world, with students representing all 50 states and 130 countries. A large portion of the student body consists of minority students and the campus is located in one of the most diverse locations in the country, with the influence of Native American and Hispanic cultures evident throughout the Tucson community. The University of Arizona is in its third century of service with a continued commitment to providing support to its undergraduate population, while its world-renown research enterprises keep it on the cutting edge in the expanding global economy.

This commitment to excellence ensures that the University of Arizona will continue to grow from its auspicious beginnings as a single-building outpost in the desert into a world-class center for knowledge and research well into the next century.

UNIVERSITY PRESIDENT ANN WEAVER HART

Ann Weaver Hart came to the University of Arizona from Temple University, where she served as president from July 2006 until she assumed the presidency of the UA in July 2012. Before then she served as president of the University of New Hampshire and provost and vice president for Academic Affairs at Claremont Graduate University, in Claremont, Calif. At the University of Utah, she served as professor of educational leadership, dean of the Graduate School and special assistant to the president.

Dr. Hart received a bachelor of science in history, a master of arts in history and a doctorate in educational administration, all from the University of Utah. Her research interests include leadership succession and development, work redesign and organizational behavior in educational organizations, and academic freedom. She has published more than 85 articles and book chapters, plus five books and edited volumes.

Dr. Hart is a member of the Board of Directors of the Association of Public and Land-Grant Universities and APLU's Commission on International Programs, which she previously chaired. She previously served on the executive committee of the Board of Directors of the Greater Philadelphia Chamber of Commerce, the boards of Philadelphia's Kimmel Center for the Performing Arts and the Philadelphia African American Museum.

Among the professional and community service awards that Dr. Hart has received are the Jack Culbertson Award in Educational Administration from the University Council for Educational Administration; the Outstanding Professional Award from the Business and Professional Women's Foundation; the PoWeR Award from the Professional Women's Roundtable; the 2009 Champion of Diversity and Access Award from the Urban STEM Strategy Group; and the Outstanding Community Service Award from the Network for Teaching Entrepreneurship.

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS GREG BYRNE

Greg Byrne was named Arizona's 11th Director of Athletics in March 2010 and officially assumed the reins on May 3, 2010.

In his short time with Arizona, Byrne has led the charge on new fundraising initiatives and member expansion for the Wildcat Club. Under his leadership, the Wildcats have seen construction completed on a new men's basketball lockerroom, implementation of a new video board for the south end zone of Arizona

Stadium and the beginning stages of a north end zone football facility.

Prior to coming to Arizona, Byrne was Mississippi State University's Director of Athletics, where he was the youngest top current athletic administrator in the Southeastern Conference and the youngest to lead an athletic program at the NCAA Division I-A level. He started out his career at MSU in June 2006 as Associate Athletic Director for External Affairs.

He has been around successful athletic programs, and the director's chair, literally all his life. He is the son of long-time athletic administrator Bill Byrne, currently the Director of Athletics at Texas A&M University.

Byrne, however, has made a name for himself in intercollegiate athletics. He had 15 years of professional experience prior to assuming the AD's position, a resume that shows progressive growth in both responsibility and achievement. He has been directly involved in raising over $160 million in gifts during his career in athletics.

A native of Pocatello, Idaho, Byrne earned his bachelor's degree in 1994 and his master's degree from Mississippi State in 2009. Byrne is married to the former Regina Misa of Junction City, Ore., and the couple has two sons, Nick and Davis.
