Arizona vs. Pacific	1 p.m.

Opponents

The Cats will face Texas A&M Corpus-Christi, Drake, Kennesaw State and Pacific in a three day stretch. The five teams come to Tucson with a combined one loss.

Team Notes

Texas A&M Corpus-Christi: The Islanders (4-1) opened the season by winning the Best Western Marina Grand Invitational. Texas A&M Corpus-Christi run-ruled two opponents while being crowned the champions of its season opening tournament.

Drake: The Bulldogs (4-0) bring a perfect record to Tucson after sweeping the field at the Ramada-UNI Dome Classic. Senior Jenna DeLong was 2-0 on the weekend including a no-hitter against Green Bay and received Missouri Valley Conference Pitcher of the Week.

Kennesaw State: The Owls (4-0) swept the Miss Mizuno classic to open the season. Junior Jessica Cross was named Atlantic Sun Conference pre-season Player of the Year and sophomore Ashlee Burkett joined her on the all-conference team.

Pacific: The Tigers (2-0) are led by sophomore pitcher Nikki Armagost who dominates in the circle as well as in the batters box. Pacific swept a season-opening doubleheader vs. Saint Mary's.

The Rankings

Arizona is currently ranked No. 4 in the USA Today/NFCA Top 25 and No. 2 in the USA Softball/ESPN.com Top 25. The Cats moved down after being ranked No. 2/1, respectively, in the pre-season poll.

Head Coach Mike Candrea

Mike Candrea returns for his 26th year as the coach of the Cats with a career record of 1,236-260-2 (.826). A winner of eight national championships (1991, 1993, 1994, 1996, 1997, 2001, 2006, 2007), Candrea-coached Arizona squads have made 21-straight Women's College World Series. In 2010, Candrea became the fastest coach in NCAA Division I softball to earn 1,200 wins. He has led the Wildcats to an NCAA Tournament record of 138-40. Candrea has coached 85 All-Americans in his 25 years.

Last Time Out

Arizona went 5-1 in the Kajikawa Classic last weekend. Kenzie Fowler limited opponents to just two earned runs in five appearances while the offense bombed 11 home runs. Wildcat pitchers struck out 47 batters, 41 of which by Kenzie Fowler lead the Pac-10. Arizona defeated Indiana 4-0 on Thursday night to open the season and improved to 4-0 with comfortable wins against Utah (8-3), Nebraska (6-1), No. 21/19 Texas A&M (6-3) before dropping a run-rule 11-1 loss to No. 9/6 Oklahoma. Arizona responded Sunday with a 14-0, five-inning win over Cal Poly to conclude the weekend. Brittany Lastrapes, Kristen Arriola and Brigette Del Ponte each cracked three home runs on the weekend.

Last Time at the Hillenbrand Invitational

The Hillenbrand Invitational returns this year after a one-year break; the last Hillenbrand Invitational was March 6-8, 2009. The Cats went 5-1, playing doubleheaders against Minnesota, Creighton and Saint Joseph's. Arizona fell to Creighton's ace Tara Oltman in the early game before ripping the Bluejays for 19 runs in the nightcap, winning 19-2.

Catch the Action

For live, "Reality Radio from the Box," go to ustream.tv/channel/ua-athletics of all five games this weekend. Go to arizonawildcats.com for live GameTracker stats, sponsored by Tucson Electric Power.

The Chambers Watch

Stacie Chambers has positioned herself within reach of not only the Arizona all-time home run record but the NCAA record as well. After hitting one homer over the weekend, the senior now needs 18 to claim the Wildcat title and 23 for the NCAA crown. Chambers is the only active player in the country with more than 60 career jacks.

Bad News/Good News

The bad news is Arizona was run ruled by Oklahoma 11-1 at the Kajikawa Classic, Saturday. The good news is, the last time Oklahoma run-ruled Arizona was March 19, 2007. Arizona went on to win the national championship that year.

Strike Three

The strikeout has been Arizona's best friend and worst enemy thus far this season. Kenzie Fowler leads the league in Ks, while Arizona leads the league offensively with the most strikeouts. Fowler recorded 41 strikeouts over the weekend in four victories, easily putting her atop the Pac-10 in that category. Only four conference pitchers have more than 20 Ks and Fowler's closest competition, Oregon's Jessica Moore is eight behind the Wildcat sophomore. On the other side of that coin, Arizona hitters have struck out 46 times, by far the most in the Pac-10, 18 more times than the conference's second-place team in that category, Oregon.

The Long Ball

The Cats hit 11 home runs on the weekend, second most in the Pac-10. Of Arizona's 39 runs scored at the Kajikawa Classic, 20 of them were driven in by homers. All 11 home runs came in the Wildcats' final five games of the tournament. In comparison, Arizona hit six home runs at the Kajikawa Classic last year. UA is second in the Pac-10 behind Washington, which has 17 home runs through just four games.

ARIZONA

Pac-10 Standings (As of Feb. 15, 2011)

1.	UCLA	5-0	0-0
	Washington	5-0	0-0
3.	Arizona	5-1	0-0
	Arizona State	5-1	0-0
	Oregon	5-1	0-0
6.	Oregon State	4-1	0-0
	Stanford	4-1	0-0
8.	California	3-1	0-0

Patience at the Plate

Junior Lini Korja walked eight times over the weekend, more than double anyone else on the team and good enough for first in the Pac-10. Arizona has 28 as a team; the Cats walked 320 times last season, an NCAA Record.

Who's Hot?

Kenzie Fowler: Fowler stuck out 41 batters over the weekend while giving up only two earned runs in 26.2 innings pitched.

Brittany Lastrapes: The senior is nine for her last 17 with three home runs and seven RBI. In that stretch she is batting .529 and slugging 1.118.

Brigette Del Ponte: Of Del Ponte's seven hits, five have gone for extra bases. The Peoria, Ariz., native has three home runs and two doubles for a slugging percentage of 1.059 on the season.

Kristen Arriola: The junior is already half way to her 2010 home run total with three through six games. She has hit in the last three games, the longest hit streak on the team.

Returning All-Americans

Arizona returns three players named NFCA All-Americans in 2010: senior leftfielder Brittany Lastrapes (first team), sophomore pitcher Kenzie Fowler (first team) and senior catcher Stacie Chambers (second team). The trio were also named all-conference along with senior centerfielder Lauren Schutzler (second team), sophomore third baseman Brigette Del Ponte (second team) and junior designated player Lini Korja (honorable mention).

Young Guns

Arizona's pitching duo will have a combined one year of collegiate experience heading into the year. However, their lack of experience is made up for in talent. Kenzie Fowler proved to be one of the best in the business last year as a freshman, earning first team All-America recognition. An understudy last year, it is up to Fowler to mentor the incoming freshman Shelby Babcock. The two should give Arizona one of the best young one-two punches in the country.

Crossing the Plate

At a healthy 7.26 runs per game, Arizona ranked third in the nation in scoring runs. The Cats return eight offensive starters from a potent offense that has the speed to get on base and the power to knock them in.

Growing Up

Most college coaches will tell you a student-athlete's largest growth comes from the freshman to the sophomore seasons. That is a scary prospect for Arizona's sophomores, two of which had record-setting freshman years. Third baseman Brigette Del Ponte set Wildcat freshman records for home runs (21) and RBI (80) while Kenzie Fowler became Arizona's first freshman to earn first team All-America honors since Caitlin Lowe in 2004. First baseman Baillie Kirkerwill be on the same learning curve, entering her sophomore season after being the full-time starter as a freshman.
