HEAD COACH DAVID RUBIO

20th Year - Cal State Northridge, 1982

- Has led the Wildcats to 10 20-win seasons and 14 NCAA appearances
- Honored as Coach of the Year by ASICS/Volleyball Magazine during the 2001 campaign, guiding Arizona to its first-ever national semi-final appearance
- Pac-10 Coach of the Year in 2000, leading UA to its first Pac-10 title
- Leads all active conference coaches with 360 victories as a Pac-10 coach
- Guided Arizona from a winless league record in 1991 to the NCAA West Regionals in 1993. Named 1993 American Volleyball Coaches Association (AVCA) West Region Coach of the Year.

Entering his 20th season as the head coach at Arizona, David Rubio has turned the Wildcat volleyball program into one that not only contends in the dominant Pac-12 Conference, but on a national level as well.

In the last ten seasons, Rubio has guided the Wildcats to five Sweet 16s, four Elite Eights and to Arizona's first-ever Final Four. His teams have won over 200 matches during this ten-year stretch, including 16 in the NCAA Tournament, which is six more than the previous 14 postseason teams combined.

As the Wildcats' top man, Rubio has guided the once-lowly program to 13 NCAA Tournament berths, including 10 straight from 1996-2005, a school-record 22 NCAA Tournament victories, seven Sweet 16s, four Elite Eights and to the Final Four in 2001.

Despite playing a challenging non-conference slate every year before the grueling Pac-10 season, Rubio's teams are consistently ranked in the polls. The Wildcats had a streak of 30-straight weeks in the Top 10 in the American Volleyball Coaches Association poll from 2000-03. In 2000 and again in 2001, his teams ranked as high as No. 3 in the poll, the highest ranking of any team in school history.

Inheriting a program that did not win a single conference match the season prior to his arrival, Rubio has guided the Wildcats to a 321-189 (.589) overall record and has won 443 matches in his 22-year collegiate coaching career, and in 2000 he guided Arizona to its first ever Pac-10 title.

Rubio's tireless recruiting efforts have seen more athletic and highly regarded student-athletes opting for Arizona. During his tenure, he has recruited 27 athletes listed as Volleyball Magazine Fab 50 recruits (the magazine ranks the Fab 50 from first through 50th in order of the impact they are expected to make in college volleyball). His recruiting class in 2002 (Jennifer Abernathy, Meghan Cumpston, Kim Glass and Bre Ladd) was the top-ranked freshman class in the nation. He followed that the next three years with classes that featured a pair of members of the Fab 50 list, and his 2006 class was ranked fourth in the nation. Rubio also nabbed a pair of Volleyball Magazine Fab 50 recruits for the 2007 season, and a trio in 2008.

At Arizona, Rubio has recruited and coached four first-team All-Americans, including Arizona's first-ever consensus two-time honoree, an AVCA Freshman of the Year, a Pac-10 Player of the Year, 26 All-Pac-10 performers, 13 All-Pac-10 freshman players and 16 academic all-conference athletes. Wildcat athletes have also earned 24 Pac-10 Player of the Week honors under his guide.

Rubio had already established himself as one of the great young coaching talents before arriving at Arizona. He came to Tucson from Cal State Bakersfield, where he had developed one of the nation's winningest Division II programs. In five seasons, he coached seven All-Americans, led the Roadrunners to three consecutive Top 5 finishes and won the 1989 national championship. Rubio was honored as the ASICS Tiger Coach of the Year in 1989, and in 1991 was honored as the CCAA Coach of the Year.

Rubio served as an assistant coach for Cal State Northridge's men's team in 1983 and then for the women's team in 1985, helping them win a national championship. He began his coaching career in 1978 as the boys' coach at Granada Hills High School. He spent time as an assistant at Pierce College before taking the Chatsworth High School girls' team to the league championship in 1982. Prior to his arrival at Bakersfield, Rubio spent four years as coach of the women's team at Westlake High School.

As a player, Rubio was an all-conference and all-state volleyball selection at Cal State Northridge. A volleyball clinician and grass tournament entrepreneur, he is highly recognized for his extensive community involvement. He left Arizona after the 2005 season to become the women's volleyball head coach at UC Davis, where he has coached the past two seasons.

At UC Davis, Walker became the Aggies' eighth head volleyball coach, guiding the program through its final year of reclassification to NCAA Division I status in 2006, and during its first year of membership in the Big West Conference this past season. During his tenure at UC Davis, Walker was selected to coach the Northern California Volleyball Association Youth Division team at the Global Challenge in Maribor, Slovenia during July of 2006.
