2012 ARIZONA WILDCAT VOLLEYBALL

MEDIA INFORMATION

The Arizona Athletic Media Relations office will assist media throughout the season in its coverage of Arizona volleyball, including a weekly news release, daily news items, home game statistical packages, administering news conferences, practice and press row operations and credentialing, among other services. Any questions about media policies should be directed to Ryan Dunn at rdunn@arizona.edu, (520) 621-0084, or (919) 222-4245.

FACILITIES ACCESS FOR MEDIA

The team locker room, sports medicine center and strength and conditioning center are off limits to media unless special arrangements have been made through the Athletic Media Relations office.

WEEKLY MEDIA OPPORTUNITIES

Head coach David Rubio and select players will be available 1-2 days before each contest to preview the upcoming game. These media opportunities will take place in McKale 109C and will also include access to practice. Each media opportunity will be scheduled on an individual basis and the media will be notified with ample planning time.

PRACTICES

All local and visiting media are welcome to come watch Arizona volleyball practices, but must make prior arrangements through the Athletic Media Relations office to attend. Television crews and photographers are welcome to shoot footage of practices, provided they stay outside the boundaries of the court. Please contact Ryan Dunn about attending practices.

PLAYER INTERVIEWS

All player interviews and photo requests must be arranged through Ryan Dunn. Interviews and photos can be conducted before or after practice or around class schedules, depending on the availability of the requested player. Player home and/or cell phone numbers will not be distributed.

Players are not available on game days until after competition.

COACHING STAFF INTERVIEWS

All interviews and photo requests must be arranged through Ryan Dunn. Coach home and/or cell phone numbers will not be distributed.

POST-GAME INTERVIEWS

All post-game press conferences and interviews will be conducted in the media room, 109C, inside the Athletic Media Relations office. Arizona players and coaches will be available in the media room following a brief cooling-off period. Visiting players and coaches will then be brought in as requested. Requests for specific players from either team need to be addressed to Ryan Dunn.

MEDIA CREDENTIALS

Requests for press, radio, television and photographer credentials should be emailed at least 48 hours in advance to Ryan Dunn in the Athletic Media Relations office at rdunn@arizona.edu. Passes are available for working media only and are required for all contests. Credentials may be picked up in the Athletic Media Relations office on the day of the game or at the McKale Center ticket office beginning 90 minutes prior to the start of the match. Media credentials for away games will be administered through the home SID.

MEDIA PARKING

Media parking on campus from 8 a.m. - 5 p.m. Monday - Friday is handled through the UA Office of News Services, Room 413, University Services Building, North Euclid Avenue at University Boulevard. All media in need of parking at these times must obtain a permit from that office. All parking tickets are the responsibility of the perpetrator, not the Media Relations office.

Parking access around the McKale Center on game day is on a first-come, first-serve basis. There are no parking passes available for home games. Media parking for road games will be administered through the home SID.

PROFESSIONAL SCOUTS

Any professional scouts seeking entry to an Arizona volleyball match must contact Ryan Dunn to obtain credentials. Requests should be made at least 24 hours in advance and can be emailed to rdunn@arizona.edu. No parking passes are available. Scouts will be allowed to sit on press row as space permits; otherwise, seats will be made available in the stands.

VISITING RADIO

Visiting radio stations wishing to broadcast any matches need to contact Brian Jeffries at (520) 626-7660 to make arrangements for telephone lines and space on press row. You must specify the number of lines needed, as well as whether ISDN or regular phone lines are required.

GAME DAY MEDIA SERVICES

Game notes, media guides and rosters will be available in the media room (McKale Center Room 109C). Halftime and final statistics will be distributed along press row and in the media room. Full statistics, play-by-play, post-game notes and quotes will be distributed in the media room as well.

DIRECTIONS TO MCKALE CENTER

From Tucson International Airport: Follow Tucson Boulevard out of Tucson International Airport to Kino Parkway (three miles). Turn right on Kino Parkway and head north (Kino Parkway eventually becomes Campbell Avenue) for four miles. After crossing Sixth Street, take the first left and McKale Center will be on your immediate right.

From Phoenix: Take I-10 south (approximately 100 miles). When arriving in Tucson, take the Speedway Boulevard exit. Turn left onto Speedway and go two and a half miles to Campbell Avenue. Turn right onto Campbell and go approximately one-third of a mile. Entry to McKale Center will be the first right after the light at Third Street.

HEAD COACH DAVID RUBIO

EXPERIENCE: 21ST YEAR AT ARIZONA 🍷

ALMA MATER: LONG BEACH STATE 🍷

RECORD: 379-219

Entering his 21st season as the head coach at Arizona, David Rubio has turned the Wildcat volleyball program into one that not only contends in the dominant Pac-12 Conference, but on a national level as well.

In 20 seasons at the helm of the Arizona program, Rubio has led the Wildcats to 15 NCAA Tournament appearances, which has included a trip to the Final Four, four Elite Eight appearances and seven trips to the Sweet 16. The Wildcats have advanced to the NCAA Tournament in three straight seasons.

Despite playing a challenging non-conference slate every year before the grueling Pac-12 season, Rubio's teams are consistently ranked in the polls. The Wildcats had a streak of 30 straight weeks in the Top 10 in the American Volleyball Coaches Association poll from 2000-03. In 2000 and again in 2001, his teams ranked as high as No. 3 in the poll, the highest ranking of any team in school history.

Inheriting a program that did not win a single conference match the season prior to his arrival, Rubio has guided the Wildcats to a 379-219 (.634) overall record and has won 501 matches in his 25-year collegiate coaching career. In 2000 he guided Arizona to its first ever Pac-10 title.

Rubio's tireless recruiting efforts have seen more athletic and highly regarded student-athletes opting for Arizona. During his tenure, he has recruited 30 athletes listed as Volleyball Magazine Fab 50 recruits (the magazine ranks the Fab 50 from first through 50th in order of the impact they are expected to make in college volleyball). His recruiting class in 2002 (Jennifer Abernathy, Meghan Cumpston, Kim Glass and Bre Ladd) was the top-ranked freshman class in the nation. He followed that the next three years with classes that featured a pair of members of the Fab 50 list, and his 2006 class was ranked fourth in the nation. Rubio also nabbed a pair of Volleyball Magazine Fab 50 recruits for the 2007 season, a trio in 2008, two in 2011 and one in 2012.

At Arizona, Rubio has recruited and coached four first-team All-Americans, including Arizona's first ever consensus two-time honoree, an AVCA Freshman of the Year, a Pac-10 Player of the Year, 27 All-Pac-12 performers, 14 All-Pac-12 freshman players and 48 academic all-conference athletes. Wildcat athletes have also earned 27 Pac-10 Player of the Week honors under his guide.

The Wildcats have advanced to the NCAA Tournament in three straight seasons, while compiling at least 19 victories in each of the three years. In those three seasons, Tiffany Owens (2010) and Cursty Jackson (2011) were named First-Team All-Pac-12, while Madi Kingdon (2011) and Chloe Mathis (2011) earned Pac-12 All-Freshman honors.

Rubio and the Wildcats finished above .500 in 2008 with the Wildcats posting a 16-14 record, just missing the NCAA tournament. Arizona pulled off three upset wins over top-11 teams, including No. 11 USC, No. 8 Oregon and No. 6 Cal.

In 2005, Rubio led his team to one of the best seasons in school history. The squad went 25-6, with all six losses coming at the hands of ranked teams. Arizona finished second in the Pac-10 with a 14-4 record, its best conference mark since 2001. The Wildcats advanced to the Elite Eight of the NCAA Tournament, where they heartbreakingly lost in five games to Santa Clara.

Senior Kim Glass was named to the AVCA All-America first team, while senior Jennifer Abernathy was named to the third team. Glass and Abernathy were also named to the All-Pac-10 team. Meanwhile, senior Bre Ladd, junior Kristina Baum and sophomore Dominique Lamb were honorable mention selections, and Brittany Leonard was named honorable mention All-Freshman.

In addition, the 2005 season was one of personal milestones for Rubio, as he notched his 400th career victory when the Wildcats defeated Ohio in the Sweet 16 on Dec. 9. Earlier in the year, he became Arizona's career wins leader, surpassing Rosie Wegrich.

In 2004, injuries plagued the Wildcats, yet Rubio was able to lead the team to the second round of the NCAA Tournament, where it lost a heartbreaking five-game match to host San Diego. Arizona finished the season 19-11 overall and 10-8 in the dominant Pac-10, which featured three of the teams in the Final Four.

Glass, who missed the entire non-conference slate with a shoulder injury, was named All-Pac-10 for the third consecutive year. Senior Jolene Killough was also named to the All-Pac-10 squad and finished her career ranked second in the Arizona record books with a .349 hitting percentage. Ladd was an honorable mention All-Pac-10 pick.

Losing a pair of All-Americans, Rubio's coaching abilities shined in 2002. Fielding a team with a transfer setter and four freshmen playing major roles, Rubio led the Wildcats to a third-place finish in the Pac-10 and the right to host the first and second rounds of the NCAA Tournament. He guided the Wildcats to opening round wins and an upset victory of Minnesota in the Sweet 16, giving Arizona its seventh straight 20-win season, a third-straight trip to the Elite Eight and UA's third consecutive Top 10 final ranking. Glass, playing in her first season under Rubio, was named the AVCA National Freshman of the Year and a second team All-American. Glass and Ladd also became the first pair of newcomers to be named All-Pac-10 Freshman in the same season at Arizona.

In 2001, Rubio's decade-long effort to build the Arizona program into a national power came to fruition. Returning the 2000 Pac-10 Player of the Year, All-American setter Dana Burkholder, and three other starters, the squad entered the season as the sixth-ranked team in the nation, the highest preseason ranking in school history. The lofty expectations and the implementation of rally scoring did little to alter Arizona's course with history, as the Wildcats remained among the top seven teams nationally all year and concluded the regular season 21-4 overall, 14-4 in the Pac-10 and fourth in the national poll.

While home court advantage eluded Rubio and his team, the Wildcats took to the road in the postseason and never looked back. Heading to Champaign, Ill., for the first and second rounds, the Wildcats easily handled Eastern Illinois and host Illinois to advance to their third-straight Sweet 16 appearance. Traditional national power Pacific proved not to be up to Arizona's challenge in the regional semifinals, as the Wildcats won 3-0, paving the way for a showdown with Pac-10 rival and regional host USC in the Elite Eight.

The two rivals battled it out in a five-game thriller that saw Rubio's Wildcats emerge victorious, despite trailing 12-9 in the decisive fifth game. The monumental victory elevated Rubio and the Arizona program into uncharted territory - the first Final Four appearance ever. Burkholder's was named NCAA Regional MVP, while classmate Jill Talbot tallied All-Regional Team honors.

2012 ARIZONA WILDCAT VOLLEYBALL

Though a three-game loss to unbeaten and eventual runner-up Long Beach State in the national semifinals the following weekend ended Arizona's season, it could not mar the excellent year that Rubio and the Wildcats enjoyed. The breakthrough season ended with the Wildcats posting a final record of 25-5 overall and a No. 4 ranking in the final poll.

Burkholder and Talbot both garnered first-team All-America honors from the AVCA, the first two players in school history to be named All-America in the same season. Burkholder was also named first-team All-America by Volleyball Magazine, making her the first ever two-time consensus honoree at Arizona. Talbot garnered third-team honors from the publication. The pair, along with junior Lisa Rutledge, were also tabbed with AVCA All-Pacific Region honors, as well as first-team All-Pac-10 awards.

Rubio was named the ASICS/Volleyball Magazine National Coach of the Year. The honor placed him among elite company in the history of Arizona athletics, joining an exclusive list of men's basketball coach Lute Olson, swimming coach Frank Busch, softball coach Mike Candrea and former Arizona coaches Dave Murray (men's cross country), Todd McCorkle (women's golf) and Jerry Kindall (baseball) as the only head coaches in school history to be recognized with the national honor at Arizona.

In 2000, Rubio's team also lived up to and exceeded the preseason expectations. Selected No. 10 in the preseason poll, the 28-5 Wildcats maintained a place in the Top 10 for 14 of the 16 polls, finishing No. 4 in the final poll. Picked to finish fourth in the conference, Rubio's team won its first-ever Pac-10 title. It was an impressive feat considering that, since conference play began in 1986, no team other than UCLA or Stanford had won a conference title. As a result, Rubio earned his first Pac-10 Coach of the Year honors.

Hosting the first and second rounds of the NCAA Tournament, the Wildcats swept both Alabama A&M and Michigan. The victories advanced the Cats to a second-consecutive regional semifinal. In Lincoln, Neb., Arizona easily handled BYU for the second time that season to move on to its first Elite Eight appearance ever. Eventual national champion Nebraska proved to be too much to handle, handing Arizona its only 3-0 loss to end the historic season.

Along with the team accomplishments, Rubio's players fared well in postseason accolades. Setter Burkholder was named first-team AVCA All-America and Pac-10 Player of the Year, and to the NCAA All-Central Region team, the AVCA All-Pacific Region team and the All-Pac-10 team.

Marisa DaLee joined Burkholder on the AVCA All-Pacific Region team, while Allison Napier joined the pair on the All-Pac-10 team, the most all-conference performers ever in a single season for UA.

In 1999, Rubio led the Cats to a 21-11 mark and took them to their sixth-straight NCAA Tournament. The then-18th-ranked Wildcats downed Virginia in the first round, then went on to log an upset sweep of host Texas. The second-lowest-ranked team to earn a Sweet 16 berth, the Cats faced Pac-10 foe and eventual national runner-up Stanford. Arizona took a game from the Cardinal before bowing out of the tournament. Arizona ended the year ranked No. 14 in the nation. Both DaLee and Burkholder were All-District VII and All-Pac-10 selections.

The 1998 season saw the coach take a club with just one returning starter and six freshmen to 22 victories, the most since 1982. Middle blockers DaLee and Keisha Johnson earned All-Pac-10 accolades, and Burkholder was named to the league's All-Freshman squad. Arizona fell to eventual national champion Long Beach State in the second round of the NCAA Tournament.

The previous year, the Cats had also exceeded all expectations, matching their then-best-ever finish in Pac-10 play, tying for fourth with a 12-6 mark.

They went 20-6 and were ranked in the Top 10 throughout November. For just the second time, Arizona had a pair of athletes earn All-Pac-10 honors - Erin Aldrich and Carolyn Penfield.

Rubio had already established himself as one of the great young coaching talents before arriving at Arizona. He came to Tucson from Cal State Bakersfield, where he had developed one of the nation's winningest Division II programs. In five seasons, he coached seven All-Americans, led the Roadrunners to three consecutive Top 5 finishes and won the 1989 national championship. Rubio was honored as the ASICS Tiger Coach of the Year in 1989, and in 1991 was honored as the CCAA Coach of the Year.

Rubio served as an assistant coach for Cal State Northridge's men's team in 1983 and then for the women's team in 1985, helping them win a national championship. He began his coaching career in 1978 as the boys' coach at Granada Hills High School. He spent time as an assistant at Pierce College before taking the Chatsworth High School girls' team to the league championship in 1982. Prior to his arrival at Bakersfield, Rubio spent four years as coach of the women's team at Westlake High School.

As a player, Rubio was an all-conference and all-state volleyball selection at Cal State Northridge. Prior to his time at Cal State Northridge, Rubio starred at Pierce College, where he was inducted into the athletics Hall of Fame in 2012. A volleyball clinician and grass tournament entrepreneur, he is highly recognized for his extensive community involvement.

Rubio graduated from Cal State Northridge in 1982 with a B.A. in physical education. Born on June 20, 1959, he is married to the former Amanda Sebbas. They have a daughter, Olivia, and twins Dylan and Lucy.

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH STEVE WALKER

EXPERIENCE: NINTH YEAR AT ARIZONA  ALMA MATER: LONG BEACH STATE

Steve Walker begins his ninth season at Arizona as associate head coach for the Wildcats.

Walker served as an assistant coach with the Wildcats for three seasons from 2003-05, helping to lead the program to three NCAA Tournament appearances, including a trip to the Elite Eight in 2005. He left Arizona after the 2005 season to become the women's volleyball head coach at UC Davis, where he has coached for two seasons.

At UC Davis, Walker became the Aggies' eighth head volleyball coach, guiding the program through its final year of reclassification to NCAA Division I status in 2006, and during its first year of membership in the Big West Conference. During his tenure at UC Davis, Walker was selected to coach the Northern California Volleyball Association Youth Division team at the Global Challenge in Maribor, Slovenia during July of 2006. In 2010, he was invited back to coach the NCVA Youth team at the USA Volleyball High Performance Championship in Fort Lauderdale, Fla.

Walker also served as a volunteer assistant coach during Arizona's 2000 Pac-10 title season.

In between his previous two stops in Tucson, Walker spent two years as an assistant coach at the University of Alabama during the 2001-02 seasons.

A collegiate volleyball player at Long Beach State, Walker finished his career as the school's all-time leader in assists per game. The starting setter for two seasons, he was named AVCA All-America and All-Mountain Pacific Sports Federation in 1995, after leading the NCAA in assists and assists per game.

Walker was selected to play for the U.S. at the World University Games in 1995 and was the team captain for Arizona's back-to-back NIRSA club national championship teams in 1999 and 2000. He was named the MVP at the 2000 championship event. Walker is also a four-time bronze medalist at the U.S. Volleyball Open Adult Championships.

Walker began his coaching career in 1997 as the boy's and girl's head varsity coach at Westminster High School in Westminster, Calif. He also served as a volunteer coach at Golden West College.

From 1995-98, Walker was the head boys' and girls' coach for the Surf City Volleyball Club in Huntington Beach, Calif. Under his guidance, the boys' 18 and under team was ranked second in Southern California, placed second at the regional championships and was third at junior nationals. A total of nine of his club players went on to play at NCAA Division I schools.

A native of Newport Beach, Calif., Walker graduated from Long Beach State with a degree in kinesiology in 1996 and received his M.A. in teaching and teacher education from Arizona in 2000.

ASSISTANT COACH MELISSA WALKER

EXPERIENCE: SECOND YEAR AT ARIZONA  ALMA MATER: LONG BEACH STATE

Melissa Walker is in her second season as an Arizona assistant coach. She spent the 2010-11 season as the Wildcats' volunteer assistant coach.

Prior to her arrival in Tucson, Walker spent three seasons as an assistant coach with Long Beach State. Her coaching responsibilities while an assistant at CSULB included scheduling and recruiting as well as on-court duties.

She was a former player for State (1997-2000) and was a member of the 1998 National Championship team that went 36-0. Walker was named team captain in 2000 and was a three-time Big West Conference All-Academic selection. She played in every match of her career as a 49er.

Walker was active in the club volleyball scene in Long Beach as a coach and trainer. She has been the head coach for the 14, 16, and 18's Elite Teams, and has produced 13 Junior Olympic All-Americans, one Junior Olympic Most Valuable Player and one Junior National Team member. Her Cal Juniors Volleyball Club was the 2005 Junior Olympic (16's) National Gold Medal winner.

In 2003 and 2004, Walker served as the assistant women's volleyball coach with the University of Iowa and was responsible for travel, budgeting and recruiting.

She completed her degree from CSULB in psychology and graduated cum laude in 2001.

WILDCAT COACHING RECORDS

Arizona volleyball has had four coaches in its 39-year history, but only has records for three of the four coaches. Dr. Kathryn Russell was the first-ever coach in 1971 and Nancy Trego coached from 1972-73, but no records were kept. Season-by-season results have been kept since 1974, when Dr. Russell took the program over again.
