

2013 Arizona Spring Tournament

Hello Everyone,

Enclosed is the schedule for the upcoming tournament Saturday March 23, 2013. Please contact me by phone or email should you have any questions.

The tournament will start at exactly 9:00am. We will provide officials! Each participating team will provide one line judge. If you are limited on players let me know and I can take find someone to fill in.

We will be playing Spring Rules! Which means unlimited substitutions. If you are short on front row players you can have the same player play front row without rotating to the backrow. There will be two timeouts each game. We will play two games per set to 25 win by two. There will be no cap on points.

After the first match warm up will consist of five minutes of attacking per team. Post lunch warm up will be five minutes longer and include shared court for both teams no hitting.
