Women's Golf National Championships

1996 NCAA National Champions

On its way to capturing the program's first national championship, the 1996 women's golf team found out there is a fine line between life and death. It took the shot of a lifetime by star freshman Marisa Baena during a suddendeath playoff to lift the Cats to a one-stroke victory over San Jose State in what has been called one of the most exciting finishes in NCAA history.

Baena had already claimed the individual championship with a score of 296 - a comfortable seven-stroke advantage over the nearest competitor - when she holed a 147-yard eight-iron shot for eagle on the par-four 18th which proved to be the difference in the playoff. The Cats scored a 15 on the hole and the Spartans carded a 16.

"It was the greatest shot I've ever seen under that kind of pressure," said head coach Rick LaRose, who also led the UA men's team to its first national title in 1992. "There have been a lot of great golf shots, but under these circumstances, with a team victory on the line, nothing's bigger."

Baena redeemed herself after missing a birdie putt on the 18th hole of regulation that would have given Arizona the title outright. Instead, she saved the winning shot for a more dramatic occasion. "I hit a couple of really good shots in this tournament, but I thought it was just going to get close like a couple of shots I had before," said the freshman from Colombia. "I think it is the greatest shot I have ever made in my life."

Even after Baena's shot, the Cats still needed clutch par putts from Krissie Register and Heather Graff to give them the edge. Graff was Arizona's next-highest finisher after firing a four-round total of 306 to put her in a tie for sixth overall, and Register shot a 310 to finish in a three-way tie at 13th. Christina Tolerton tied for 67th at 328 and Jeanne Anne Krizman, who recorded a bogey five on the playoff hole, rounded out the Arizona contingent at 79th with a 333.

Arizona went into the final round with a four-stroke lead but fired a 304 to finish the tournament at 1240, the highest score ever for an NCAA Champion, while the Spartans finished with a tournament team-low 300 in the final round to pull even with the Cats. Texas finished third with a score of 1241, UCLA was fourth with 1243, and Stanford, the favorite going in finished fifth at 1248. Each of the top-five teams had higher scores than the previous NCAA Championship high score of 1218 set by Florida in 1985. That was due in large part to the hot, gusty conditions that dominated the four days of the tournament.

The title was the first in the program's history and the second for LaRose who led the men's team to the 1992 championship. The Cats came on strong right when they needed it in the postseason. They completed a sweep that included the Pac-10 and NCAA West Regional Championships. Baena also finished an impressive triple crown of her own, winning the individual titles in all three events.

"I guess it's a Wildcat characteristic to play hard down the stretch," LaRose said.

2000 NCAA National Champions

The 2000 NCAA women's golf season proved to be an exercise in futility for everyone but the Arizona Wildcats. By capturing the 2000 national championship, the Wildcats completed one of the most dominating performances in the history of collegiate golf.

Arizona's four-round total of 23-over 1,175 at the NCAA Champion-ships gave them a 21-stroke victory, the third largest in the tournament's 19-year history. The NCAA Championships marked the eighth consecutive tournament title for the squad, a string that began on Nov. 7 at the Golf World Invitational. During that stretch, the Wildcats won eight titles by a combined 64 strokes. Individually, a Wildcat earned medalist honors four times- the Golf World Invitational, the Rainbow Wahine Invitational, the Ping/ASU Invitational, and the NCAA Championships.

Jenna Daniels took the NCAA individual title with rounds of 73, 69, 68, and 77 to finish at one-under-par for the tournament. Teammate Julia Kraschinski fired a four-round total of 290 to claim second place at two-over par. Also finishing in the top 10 was sophomore Cristina Baena, who closed action at just nine-over par (297).

The tournament was the last for seniors Jenna Daniels and Jill Gomric and also proved to be the final for head coach Todd McCorkle.

"There are a lot of mixed emotions right now," Daniels said. "I'll never be able to play as a Wildcat again, but what a way to finish. What a way to go out."

Daniels provided leadership and tremendous performances for Arizona all year long. With a stroke average of 71.70 and an average finish of fourth, Daniels truly deserved her selection as an All-American.

Also boosting the Wildcats' was the emergence of freshman Julia Kraschinski. The freshman standout came on strong at the end of the year, closing her freshman campaign with five consecutive top-15 finishes. Kraschinski culminated the season with her second-place showing at the NCAA Championships.

In earning the program's second national championship in five years, the Arizona Wildcats solidified their standing as a college golf powerhouse.

Individual NCAA Champs & Players of the Year

Lorena Ochoa

Guadalajara, Mexico

2001 and 2002 Player of the Year, First-team All-American

Lorena Ochoa accomplished more in a two-year collegiate career than most golfers can hope to achieve in a lifetime. The 5-foot-7-inch star from Guadalajara, Mexico, finished in first or second places in 18 of the 20 collegiate events in which she competed. She closed her college campaign as the most successful golfer in Arizona history, winning 12 individual titles to set a new school record for career victories.

Perhaps most impressive of Ochoa's accomplishments is her NCAA-record winning streak of seven straight wins accomplished in her sophomore season. Her streak ranks second among all recognized streaks in the history of modern golf. Only Byron Nelson boasts a winning streak longer than Ochoa's as he won 11 consecutive tournaments in 1945.

In her freshman season, Ochoa set an NCAA record for scoring average as she totaled a mark of 71.33. But the native of Guadalajara, Mexico, returned her in her second year to shatter her own record as she posted a sophomore-scoring average of 70.13, nearly two strokes below par.

Her consistently-dominating performances over the course of her two-year Arizona career led to her being named the nation's Player of the Year in both of her seasons of collegiate golf. Her name is etched sundry times in the national and Arizona record books as the golfer against whom all future collegiate greats will be measured.

Jenna Daniels

Bonita, California

2000 NCAA Champion and Player of the Year, First-team All-American

Jenna Daniels closed her Arizona career at the pinnacle of the college golf world. Daniels capped a season that saw her win three tournaments and earn eight top-five finishes, including a three-stroke victory over teammate Julia Kraschinski at the NCAA Championships. Her performance at the NCAA Championships was instrumental to the Wildcats' success, as it had been all season long. Behind Daniels' efforts, the Wildcats cruised to the program's second national championship with a 21-stroke victory, the third largest margin in the 19-year history of the tournament.

Daniels anchored a Wildcat squad that won nine tournaments, including its final eight of the season, with a 71.70 stroke average. She held down the nation's top spot in the rankings for a majority of the year. Daniels dominated throughout a season that never saw her finish a tournament below 15th place.

By capturing the NCAA Championship, she completed a postseason triple crown. Daniels won the NCAA West Regional in her junior year and the Pac-10 Conference Championship in her freshman year.

Her postseason accolades matched her regular season performances. Daniels won the Honda Award for women's golf, honoring the nation's top collegiate women's golfer and was named first team All-American.

Marisa Baena

Pereira, Colombia

Two-Time Player of the Year; 1996 Pac-10, NCAA West Regional and NCAA Champion

On May 25, 1996, Marisa Baena completed one of the most impressive sweeps in Arizona golf history. Having already captured the Pac-10 and NCAA West Regional individual titles, Baena put the finishing touches to a rare postseason hat trick by finishing the NCAA Championships with a score of 296, seven strokes ahead of second place finisher Kellee Booth of ASU. What made the accomplishment even more remarkable was that Baena was only nine months into her career as a Wildcat.

Baena accomplished more in her freshman season than most can achieve in a four-year career. With her individual championship she joined the ranks of the Cats' two other NCAA individual champions, Susan Slaughter (1990) and Annika Sorenstam (1991). With that complete, she proceeded to lead the Arizona women to their first-ever national championship by hitting a crucial shot on the first hole of the playoff to cap one of the most dramatic finishes in championship history. She holed an eight-iron shot from 147 yards out to record an eagle two on the hole and put her name in collegiate golfing history.

Baena was named the Eleanor Dudley National Player of the Year in 1996 and 1997 and she came within two shots of earning a second consecutive individual NCAA title in 1997. Her postseason accomplishments during her freshman season were preceded by five first-place finishes and a third and fourth-place performance in her last seven tournaments.

She completed her three-year career at Arizona as one of the most successful golfers in the school's history. A three-time All-American and All-Pac-10 selection, Baena led the team to numerous No. 1 rankings, two Pac-10 championships and two NCAA West Regional championships. She captured nine individual crowns in her career and placed in the top-10 23 out of 28 tournaments.

Annika Sorenstam

Stockholm, Sweden

1991 Player of the Year and NCAA Champion; Two-time All-American; 1992 Pac-10 Champion

There is nothing unassuming about the trail of accomplishments that Annika Sorenstam left in her wake at Arizona. The quiet Swede made plenty of noise in her two seasons as a Wildcat by winning the national championship as a freshman in 1991 and following that with a Pac-10 championship in 1992 before turning pro after her sophomore season. In addition to earning first-team All-American and All-Pac-10 honors, she was named the 1991 Player of the Year.

Sorenstam finished her career as a Wildcat with seven individual tournament titles and she finished out of the top ten only once - an 11th-place finish as a freshman. In addition to taking care of business on the course, she earned Pac-10 All-Academic First Team honors for carrying a 3.0 grade point average in the classroom.

Susan Slaughter

Floyd, Virginia

1990 NCAA Champion and First-team All-American

Susan Slaughter saved her best for last in winning the 1990 individual NCAA Championship at the Arthur Hills Course on Hilton Head Island, S.C. After finishing second at the 1989 championships as a freshman, Slaughter found herself in the heat of the race the next season as well. This time she faced the pressure of a sudden-death playoff and came out on top by sinking a two-foot birdie putt to capture the title after going into the final round a stroke out of first place.

Her performance earned her first team All-America honors and gave her the distinction of being Arizona's first NCAA golf champion. Her second-place finish the year before had been the highest finish by an Arizona woman and it tied the best finish posted by the men. The come-from-behind victory capped a season in which Slaughter struggled but proved that she could come up big when it was important. Her highest finish of the year until then had been a couple of fifth-place ties. But she did not forget the advice given to her by Michael Jordan after the 1989 NCAA awards ceremony. "He told me to improve one spot and I would win this year," said Slaughter.

Arizona National Golf Club at Sabino Springs

The University of Arizona and I.R.I. Golf Group announced a partnership that gives the Wildcat men's and women's golf programs a start-of-the-art practice facility and home course.

Announced June 12, 2002, at a press conference at the facility, I.R.I Golf Group CEO Jeff Silverstein announced the purchase of The Raven Golf Club at Sabino Springs and an enhanced partnership with Arizona athletics. As part of the deal, the facility will be renamed "Arizona National Golf Club at Sabino Springs."

"We see great things happening at this new course and are excited about this relationship with the University of Arizona," said Silverstein. "The Wildcat men's and women's golf teams are already among the top five in the nation. We feel that this partnership will further enhance Arizona's ability to attract top-quality student-athletes."

As part of the new Arizona National facility, I.R.I. Golf Group has committed to a multi-million dollar capital improvement program, including a clubhouse renovation, practice facility and a Wildcat Hall of Honor. When completed, Arizona National will be a top-notch playing and practice facility for the University of Arizona.

"This is a great day for Wildcat golf," said Arizona director of athletics Jim Livengood. "The ability to call this beautiful facility home will benefit our golf programs for years to come."

Arizona National is a desert golf facility designed by Robert Trent Jones Jr. The course is situated in the foothills of Tucson's Santa Catalina Mountains, and its diverse 6,776yard, par 71 layout provides classic golf-in-the-desert challenges as well as some of the most spectacular scenery of any golf facility in the Southwest. Spectacular city views and magnificent desert vegetation created by nine natural springs make Arizona National an unparalleled golf experience. According to Golf World magazine, Arizona National "is what desert golf should be."

Similarly, Golf Magazine's Brian McCallen said of the facility, "It may be one of the best desert courses ever built."

In addition to those comments, Arizona National has also earned the following kudos:

- Rated #5 in the world for customer service by Golf Digest in May of 1998.
- Top-10 Best New Courses Golf Digest
- Top-10 Best New Places to Play Golf Magazine
- Top-5 Courses in Arizona Arizona Republic
- #18 Hole at Raven Golf Club Best Finishing Hole in Arizona Arizona Republic
- America's Best 100 Golf Shops Golf Shop Operations Magazine.

"I'm really pleased with this agreement," said Arizona director of golf Rick LaRose. "It's going to be a great deal for us. This is going to give us one of the finest golf facilities in the country."
